

Tables

2.1	Research design: governance tasks, key challenges and policy sectors	15
2.2	Programmatic and political assessment criteria: an overview	21
4.1	The capital structure of Usinor, January 1999	52
5.1	Employment in the iron and steel industry in Germany	70
5.2	Subsidy receipt and capacity reduction in leading European steel-producing countries, 1980–85	72
5.3	European crude steel production, April 1997–April 1999: monthly averages in million tonnes	81
5.4	German output as a percentage of total EU crude steel production and annual output	83
5.5	German trade balance in steel products	83
6.1	Top 10 and selected largest steel producers, 1998	85
6.2	Income, wages and labour costs in the Netherlands, 1984–96	90
6.3	Development of wages in selected OECD countries, 1986–90	91
6.4	Inputs of materials for US-built cars, 1975–85	94
6.5	Subsidies to the steel industry in selected EU countries, 1975–85	97
6A.1	Basic indicators, Hoogovens	103
6A.2	Government ownership of Hoogovens	104
6A.3	Steel exports as a percentage of steel production	104
7.1	The Spanish steel sector, 1982 and 1997	107
10.1	The growth of health care spending since 1960	171
10.2	Percentage of populations with government assured health insurance in the six country cases	172
14.1	Doctors integrated into the new primary care network by 1996	248
14.2	Distribution of primary care doctors by 1998	249
14.3	The reformed primary care network in Catalonia, 1998	252
17.1	Costs of banking crises as a percentage of GDP	314
17.2	Characteristics of financial and banking systems	317
17.3	Characteristics of supervisory systems	317
20.1	Market share of Dutch banks, 1991	379
23.1	The fragmented regulation of the British financial sector	424
24.1	Blood components: their bodily functions and medical uses	458

24.2	Indicators of programmatic success	465
27.1	HIV–blood actor constellations, Netherlands, 1982–6	512
27.2	Policy networks in Dutch HIV/AIDS policy, 1982–6	513
27.3	The Dutch response, by date and type of solution, 1981–6	516
31.1	Managing decline and restructuring in the steel industry: outcome assessment	598
31.2	Managing reform, controlling the medical profession: outcome assessment	609
31.3	Managing innovation in the financial sector: outcome assessment	620
31.4	Managing crisis, HIV and the blood supply: programmatic assessment	631
31.5	Managing crisis, HIV and the blood supply: political assessment	634