Index

abandonment 2, 4, 187, 283 abatement (pollution) 29–30, 33–4 command-and-control schemes (quantity regulation) 31, 32
and taxation 30–33
aesthetics, valuation of 92–3, 99, 103, 109, 110 Agenda 2000 78–82, 210, 261–2 and cross-compliance 133, 134, 135–6, 137
Greece 187–8
agri-environmental policy 34–6, 64, 284–5 Central/Eastern Europe 82, 287–90
costs 74–5, 77–8
current intervention framework 81–2 development of 4–6, 8, 67–8 economic incentives, importance of 7 environmental impacts (externalities) model 71–3 future prospects 9, 82–6
Greece 12, 13, 191–7, 198–200
implementation strategies, member states 75–6 ‘paid stewardship’ 72–3, 74 policy instruments, types 234–5, 283–4 policy options within EU 129–31
problems 76–8
productivist policy model 67–71
reform 78–81, 82–3
‘sectoral’ nature of 263–6 voluntary measures 233–4, 235–6 see also UK, agri-environmental policy agricultural incomes, and Environmentally Sensitive Areas (ESAs) 155, 159 agricultural methods, and nature values of land 1–3, 4 agricultural policy and consumer interests 287 market distortions caused by 36–7
purpose 19, 20–21, 36
‘sectoral’ nature of 263–6
see also agri-environmental policy; Common Agricultural Policy (CAP) ‘agricultural terms of trade’ 167 agriculture, significance to economy/society 1, 252, 262–3 agro-tourism, Greece 188–91, 198 air quality 94
valuation of 110
Amsterdam, Treaty of (1997) 6 ‘appreciative theorising,’ and regional development 254–5 aquifers see groundwater, depletion of Austria, mountainous regions agriculture 269–70, 272–3 employment 267–8, 269, 270–71 non-agricultural sectors 270–71
population 267, 268
Beneficiary Pays Principle 211, 214, 284 biodiversity
benefits due to agri-environmental schemes (UK) 151–3
Central/Eastern Europe 287–8
effect of enhancement scheme participation rates 150–51 loss of 2, 3, 4
and national parks 286
valuation of 95, 110
biotopes, Greece 195–6
cadmium, in agricultural soils 63
CAP see Common Agricultural Policy (CAP) capital substitution 20, 21 carbon dioxide, as ‘greenhouse’ gas 49 Central European states (EU enlargement) 82, 287–90 cereal production 23 chemical fertilizer see N-fertilizer (synthetic nitrogen) choice experiments (CE, valuation technique) 108–9 club goods 213, 214, 227–8 co-operative agreements (water supply industry) 233–6 bargaining model/transaction costs 238–40 basic model/Coase theorem 236–8 and legislative changes, Germany 245–8 negotiations 237–8, 239–40 prevalence of, EU states 248–9 reasons for establishment of, EU states 242–5 and regulation/taxes 240–42, 248, 249–50 Coase theorem 236–8
collective action, and integrated rural development 255–7 Common Agricultural Policy (CAP) 19, 67
and environmental factors 129–30
Greece 186–7
and intensive agriculture 70
policy options, groundwater depletion case study 131–6 problems 263–4, 265
purpose 69
reform 78–9, 82–3, 129–30, 261
see also price support; support payments complementarity (Environmental Recreational Goods and Services/RE-Products) 222–3, 224, 225, 227 compulsory extensive land use (Netherlands), effect on land prices 169–70 crop prices, effects on water consumption 134–6 crop yields, and N-fertilizer inputs 52–3 cross-compliance 35–6, 80–81, 129–31, 137, 210
future of 83–4
policy options case study 131–6
cultural sites, valuation of 93, 99, 103, 110 ‘dead zone’ (Gulf of Mexico) 46, 48
decision-making, local 255–7, 270, 271, 272, 274–5
degressivity (support payments) 78
Drinking Water Directive (1980, EU) 71–2
Eastern European states (EU enlargement) 82, 287–90
Ecological Main Structure (Ecologische Hoofdstructuur, Netherlands) 171–3, 178 consumer interests, and agricultural policy 287 contingent valuation method (CVM, valuation technique) 104, 111 and agri-environmental scheme benefit studies 153–5 bias 106–7
information provision 106–7
problems 154–5
and rural resource management 109–10 survey design/conduct 104–6 welfare measures, choice of 107–8 cost-benefit analysis (CBA)
choice experiments (CE) 108–9
conjoint analysis (CA) 108
contingent valuation method (CVM) 104–8, 109–11, 153–5
hedonic pricing (HP) 101–3
production function approach (PFA) 99–101 suitability of methods, summary of 110 tavel cost method (TCM) 96–9 costs, agri-environmental schemes 11, 74–5, 77–8, 144 cotton production, Greece 186–7, 194
Countryside Access Scheme 144, 146–7
Countryside Stewardship (CSS) 144–5
crop prices, effects on water consumption 134–6
crop yields, and N-fertilizer inputs 52–3
cross-compliance 35–6, 80–81, 129–31, 137, 210
future of 83–4
policy options case study 131–6
cultural sites, valuation of 93, 99, 103, 110
‘dead zone’ (Gulf of Mexico) 46, 48
decision-making, local 255–7, 270, 271, 272, 274–5
degressivity (support payments) 78
Drinking Water Directive (1980, EU) 71–2
Eastern European states (EU enlargement) 82, 287–90
Ecological Main Structure (Ecologische Hoofdstructuur, Netherlands) 171–3, 178
Index

economic valuation methods see environmental valuation methods economies of scale 24, 70 economies of scope 23–4 ecoparks, Greece 195–6

ecosystems
  functions of 94–5
  valuation of 95, 110
emissions see ‘greenhouse’ gases;
pollution; water quality employees, qualifications/skills, and regional development 271, 274
employment
  agricultural 262–3
  Austria, mountainous regions 267–8, 269, 270–71
  Greece 184–5
and ‘regional parks’ 286–7 endangered breeds conservation programme, Greece 192, 193, 196 enlargement of EU 82–3, 287–90
Environmental action plans (EU) 71–2, 129
Environmental Bads and Disservices (EBDs) see externalities environmental impacts (externalities)
  model 71–3
environmental policy see agri-environmental policy
environmental quality, and land management 1–2, 34–5, 69–70, 72
Environmental Recreational Goods and Services (ERGSs) 13
  definition 207
  excludability/rivalry 212–13
  financial-economic tools (voluntary) 208, 209–11
  marketability 208, 211–12, 214, 215
  policy tools 221–2, 229–30
  regulation of (mandatory) 207–9
  see also marketability study (Environmental Recreational Goods and Services/RE-Products)
environmental subsidies see subsidies, environmental environmental targets 26
environmental valuation methods 89–90
  applications of 90–96
  choice experiments (CE) 108–9
conjoint analysis (CA) 108
contingent valuation method (CVM) 104–8, 109–11, 153–5
hedonic pricing (HP) 101–3 policy context of 88
production function approach (PFA) 99–101
tavel cost method (TCM) 96–9
Environmentally Sensitive Areas (ESAs)
  35, 72, 142–3, 150, 159
evaluation of 152–5, 156–8 erosion (soil) 42, 44–5 estate agent surveys, and hedonic pricing 102
excludability (private/public goods) 212–13, 215
see also marketability study (Environmental Recreational Goods and Services/RE-Products)
extensive agriculture
  definition 3
  effects of 4, 283
  policies to encourage 73
externalities 37, 207
  bargaining model/transaction costs
    238–40
  Coase theorem 236–8
  control mechanisms 30–34
  Environmental Bads and Disservices (EBDs), definition 207
  financial-economic tools (voluntary) 208, 209–11
  and land use 163–4
  and level of intensification 24–6 market failure, theory 29–30 policy implementation 34–6, 71–3 and property rights 36, 72, 147, 237, 239, 241
  quasi-market for, creation of 148–9 regulation of (mandatory) 207–9, 241–2
  valuation of 27–9, 34, 36
see also Environmental Recreational Goods and Services (ERGSs); environmental valuation methods; marketability study (Environmental Recreational Goods and Services/RE-
  Products); RE (Recreational Environmental)-Products factor ratios 20, 21–2 farming, part-time 184–5, 263 farming methods, and nature values of land 1–3, 4 farms characteristics of (EU) 3–4 specialization 23–4, 70 fertilizer see manure; N-fertilizer (synthetic nitrogen) fish, and water quality 46, 47, 49, 91 France cereal farms 23
water quality issue 71
free riding 207, 218–20
Germany, co-operative agreements (water supply industry) 245–8 Greece agri-environmental policy 12, 13, 191–7, 198–200 agricultural sector, recent trends 183–6 agro-tourism 188–91, 198 employment, agricultural 184–5 endangered breeds conservation programme 192, 193, 196 mountainous regions 186, 187, 188, 189
Natura 2000 network 197
Nitrates Directive (1991) 196 nitrogen pollution reduction programme 192–3, 194–5, 196 organic farming 192–3, 195 population trends 183–4 public administration 199–200
rural development 182–3, 185–8, 197–8, 200–201 set-aside policy, long-term 192, 193, 195–6 support payments, significance of 186–8 ‘greenhouse’ gases 49–51, 53–4, 62 groundwater, depletion of 124–5, 126–8, 130–31
policy options, case study 131–6 growth theory, and regional development 254
Gulf of Mexico, pollution in 46, 48–9

Index

health and safety effects of land use, valuation of 93–4, 110 heavy metals, accumulation in soil 63–4 hedonic pricing (HP, valuation technique) 101–3 historical sites, valuation of 93, 99, 103, 110 house prices, as example of hedonic pricing use 101–3 hypoxia 46, 48, 49
impacts (externalities) model 71–3 incentive payments see subsidies, environmental income support see support payments induced innovation, theory of 20 intensive agriculture 2, 23, 283
benefits 20
and externalities 24–6
and groundwater depletion 124–5
and land prices/shortages 21–2 policies to discourage 73 and price support 69–70, 169, 285 problems due to 6, 19–20, 22–3 production function analysis 21–2 role of Common Agricultural Policy (CAP) 70 intrinsic nature values 95–6 Iowa agricultural system 7–8, 40–41 continental/global environmental impacts 46, 48–9, 50–51 ecological management, prospects for improved 60–63 energy balance 51–60
heavy metals, accumulation in soil 63–4 hog manure 46, 47, 50–51, 54–63 hog (pig) production 45–6 N-fertilizer, use of 48, 49–50, 51, 52–4, 60–62 and soil erosion 42, 44–5 and water quality 42, 43, 46, 47 irrigation 23, 118, 119, 122, 138
and groundwater depletion 124–5, 126–8, 131–6 Kyoto Protocol on Climate Change (1997) 62 labour-saving technologies 20, 21
Index

land abandonment 2, 4, 187, 283 land management, and environmental quality 1–2, 34–5, 69–70, 72 land prices 21
determination of 167–8
see also Netherlands, agricultural land prices land productivity, effect on land prices 167 land shortages, and intensive agriculture 21–2 land use agricultural, history of 1, 3 changes, UK 141
Netherlands 163–5, 178–9
recent trends 88
zoning 34–5
see also environmental valuation methods landscapes
aesthetic valuation of 92–3, 99, 103, 109, 110
benefits due to agri-environmental schemes (UK) 151–3 LEADER programme, Greece 189–90
Local Action Groups, Greece 190 manure
changing practices in use of 60–63 disposal/storage 50–51, 54–5, 56–60, 70 as fertilizer 55, 58–60, 60–62 and fish kills 46, 47
legislation, effect on land prices (Netherlands) 169 as source of methane 50–51, 54–5, 56–7, 62 marine products, and water quality 91 market distortions, due to agricultural policy 36–7, 83–4 marketability study (Environmental Recreational Goods and Services/RE-Products) 214–16 conclusions 228–30
excludability/rivalry quantification 216–17 local/regional conditions 224–6
policy tools 221–2, 229–30 post-transformation position 218–21 pre-transformation position 217–18 transformation/development paths 226–8 transformation mechanisms 221–4, 225 Mediterranean, water resources 10–11, 117, 118–19 conservation 119–22, 127–8 demand 119–22
groundwater depletion 124–5, 126–8 groundwater depletion, policy options case study 131–6
irrigation 119, 124–5, 126–8
policy instruments 119–20, 123, 125, 127–8, 130–31, 136–8 wetlands preservation (Spain), case study 125–8 methane as energy source 62
as ‘greenhouse’ gas 49
manure, as source 50–51, 54–5, 56–7, 62 milk quotas, effect on land prices (Netherlands) 168, 169–70 mineral accounting scheme (MINAS, Netherlands) 33 Mississippi River 48–9
mixed farming, decrease in 70 mixed impure public goods 213 moral hazard, agri-environmental schemes 76–7
mountainous regions 266
agriculture 269–70, 272–3
Austria 266–73
Greece 186, 187, 188, 189
‘multi-functionality’ 84
N-fertilizer (synthetic nitrogen) 48, 49–50, 51 and energy use 52
and ‘greenhouse’ gas emissions 49–50, 51, 53–4 policies to discourage use 32–3, 73 use reduction programme, Iowa 52–4, 60–62 see also nitrate pollution; nitrogen pollution; water quality national parks 3, 286–7 Natura 2000 network, Greece 197 natural capital, effect of enhancement scheme participation rates 150–51 nature
  intrinsic values 95–6
  property rights of 284–5 nature conservation policy 69
    Central/Eastern Europe 287–8
    mechanisms 147–50
  nature reserves 3, 69
  Greece 195–6
  Netherlands 171, 172–3
  nature values of land, and farming methods 1–3, 4
  Netherlands, agricultural land prices 12, 163 and alternative land uses 170, 175–8 and compulsory extensive land use 169–70 and demand for ‘green’ areas 172–3 determination of 165, 167–8, 175–8 increases, environmental effects 179 and manure legislation 169 and milk quotas 168, 169–70 and urbanization 173–5, 176 variations between market segments 165–7
  Netherlands, land market 11–12, 162–3 Ecological Main Structure (land for nature areas) 171–3
    land use 163–5, 178–9
    market segments 164–7
    regulation 162, 163–7
    urbanization 173–5
  nitrate pollution 22, 32, 50, 71, 196
  Nitrate Sensitive Areas (NSAs) 73, 144, 145
  Nitrate Directive (1991), Greece 196 nitrogen fertilizer see N-fertilizer (synthetic nitrogen)
  nitrogen pollution 22–3, 46, 48–50 Greece, reduction programme 192–3, 194–5, 196 taxation of 32–3
    nitrous oxide, as ‘greenhouse’ gas 49–50, 51
  noise pollution, valuation of 94, 99, 110 non-point source pollution 31–2, 235 nutrients, from manure 55, 58–60 Organic Aid Scheme 144, 145–6
  organic farming, Greece 192–3, 195 ‘paid stewardship’ policy 72–3, 74 partnership for integration, A (1998, European Commission) 6 pesticides 42
  phosphorus pollution 46, 48 pig production, environmental effects 45–6 see also manure
  Polluter Pays Principle 26, 31, 34, 235 pollution
    Greece, nitrogen reduction programme 192–3, 194–5, 196
    Gulf of Mexico 46, 48–9
    heavy metals (soil) 63–4
    and intensive agriculture 19, 20, 22–3
    Nitrate Sensitive Areas (NSAs) 73, 144, 145
    nitrates 22, 32, 50, 71, 196 nitrogen 22–3, 32–3, 46, 48–50 noise, valuation of 94, 99, 110 non-point source 31–2, 235 phosphorus 46, 48
    targets 26
    and taxation 30–33
    see also abatement (pollution); water quality
  population
    Austria, mountainous areas 267, 268
    Greece, trends 183–4
    rural regions, EU states 258, 259 price support for cereals, effects of 23
    and environmental factors 78, 168–9, 264, 265
    and EU enlargement 82–3
    and intensive agriculture 69–70, 169, 285
    and land prices 167–8
    reform 78, 261
    see also Common Agricultural Policy (CAP); support payments private goods, excludability/rivalry 212–13, 215
    see also marketability study (Environmental Recreational Goods and Services/RE-Products)
  production function approach (PFA, valuation technique) 99–101 productivist policy model 67–71
Index

property rights and externalities 36, 72, 147, 237, 239, 241 of nature 284–5
public access to farmland 144–5, 146–7 public goods 207, 284
excludability/rivalry 212–13, 215
financial-economic tools (voluntary) 208, 209–11
and regulation (mandatory) 207–9
see also Environmental Recreational Goods and Services (ERGSs); marketability study (Environmental Recreational Goods and Services/RE-Products); RE (Recreational Environmental)-Products ‘public goods model’ (agri-environmental policy) 69–70, 72–3, 84
RE (Recreational Environmental)-Products 211–12
marketability 214, 215
policy tools 221–2, 229–30
see also marketability study (Environmental Recreational Goods and Services/RE-Products) recreation and tourism, valuation of 91–2, 110 travel cost method (TCM) 96–9 reforestation 210–11 ‘regional parks’ 286–7
regional policy see rural development, integrated policy remote regions 285–7
renewable energy sources, Iowa 63 rivalry (private/public goods) 212–13, 215
see also marketability study (Environmental Recreational Goods and Services/RE-Products)
rural development
agri-centric nature of 8, 67
Central/Eastern Europe 288–90
EU policy 67, 79–80
Greece 182–3, 185–8, 197–8, 200–201
remote regions 285–7
rural development, integrated policy 14–15, 252–3 collective action/common resources 255–7 elements, for effective 273–5 endogenous/exogenous approaches 273
EU policies, development of 260–62
EU policies, ‘sectoral’ nature of 263–6 growth/trade theories 253–5 mountainous regions, Austria (case study) 266–73 rural regions
agriculture, decline in importance 262–3
definition 257–8
economic indicators, EU states 258–9 population of, EU states 258, 259 remote 285–7
Scotland, Environmentally Sensitive Areas (ESAs) 143, 150, 159
evaluation of 152–5, 156–7
set-aside policy 264–5
long-term, Greece 192, 193, 195–6 skiing, and rural development 287 ‘social choice problem’ (externalities) 27–9 social welfare maximization 27–9 soil erosion 42, 44–5
heavy metals, pollution by 63–4 Spain, water resources groundwater depletion, policy options case study 131–6 irrigation 119, 122, 125, 126–8 policy options 125, 130–31, 136–7 wetlands preservation, case study 125–8
Special Assistance Programme for Agriculture and Rural Development (SAPARD) 288, 289 specialization of farms 23–4, 70
State Pays Approach 209, 211, 214 stated preference methods (valuation) 104 see also choice experiments (CE, valuation technique); conjoint analysis (CA, valuation technique); contingent valuation method (CVM, valuation technique)
Index

structural policy, EU 260–62, 265–6 subsidies, environmental 74–6, 80, 159, 210 effectiveness of 147–50, 158 implementation problems 76–8, 147–8, 150 justification for 72–3
  reform 35–6, 78–9, 83–5
  UK 141–2, 147–50
  voluntary nature of 234, 235
  see also Environmentally Sensitive Areas (ESAs) support payments 261
  and EU enlargement 82–3
  Greece 186–8
  and intensive agriculture 69–70
  market distortions caused by 83–4
  reform 78–81
  see also Common Agricultural Policy (CAP); cross-compliance; price support; subsidies, environmental sustainable development, as EU objective 6 synthetic nitrogen fertilizer see N-fertilizer (synthetic nitrogen) taxation 234
  and co-operative agreements (water supply industry) 240–42 and pollution 30–33
  technological change, and factor ratios 20, 21
tourism
  Greece 188–91, 198
  low-impact 286–7
  valuation of 91–2, 96–9, 110
Town and Country Planning Act (Wet op de Ruimtelijke Ordening, Netherlands) 162, 163–7 trade liberalization, environmental effects 84 trade theory, and regional development 254 transaction costs 238–40 travel cost method (TCM, valuation technique) 96–9 Treaty of Amsterdam (1997) 6
  UK, agri-environmental policy 11, 141–2, 211
  benefits 151–5
  costs, major schemes 11, 144
  Countryside Access Scheme 144, 146–7
  Countryside Stewardship (CSS) 144–5 effectiveness 149–50, 158
  Environmentally Sensitive Areas (ESAs) 35, 72, 142–3, 152–5, 156–8, 159
  future prospects 158–9
  Habitat Scheme 144, 146 nature conservation, mechanisms used 147–9
  Nitrate Sensitive Areas (NSAs) 73, 144, 145
  Organic Aid Scheme 144, 145–6 participation rates 150–51 urbanization, effect on agricultural land prices (Netherlands) 173–5 Uruguay Round Agriculture Agreement (1993) 83 valuation methods see environmental valuation methods VINEX (Vierde Nota Ruimtelijke Ordening Extra) districts (urbanization, Netherlands) 173–4, 176, 178 voluntary agreements see co-operative agreements (water supply industry) water quality 71–2, 90–91, 94 compulsory regulation 235, 241–2, 249–50 fish kills 46, 47, 49
  Gulf of Mexico 46, 48–9
  measures taken by suppliers, EU states 242–5 policy approach, Germany 245–8 sources affecting 42, 43
  valuation of 110
  see also co-operative agreements (water supply industry) water resources see groundwater, depletion of; irrigation; Mediterranean, water resources; Spain, water resources water resources, global 117–18 water supply industry 90
  see also co-operative agreements (water supply industry)
wetlands preservation (Spain), case study 125–8 Wildlife and Countryside Act (1981, UK) 11, 141 willingness to accept (WTA), as welfare measure 107–8 willingness to pay (WTP) and agri-environmental scheme benefit studies 153–4 as welfare measure 107–8 wind energy generation, Iowa 63
Women's Agro-Tourism Co-operative (WAC, Greece) 190–91 World Trade Organization (WTO) 83, 84–5 zoning (land use) 34–5