

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	ix
List of contributors	xiii
Preface and acknowledgements	xv
1 Financial integration between the EU and the economies of Central and Eastern Europe: an overview	1
David G. Dickinson and Andrew W. Mullineux
PART I MONETARY AND EXCHANGE RATE POLICY
2 Monetary policy and economic development in transitional economies	27
Maxwell J. Fry
3 The Czech approach to inflation targeting	41
Miroslav Hrnčíř and Kateřina Šmídková
4 The link between FEER and fiscal policy in a transitional period: the case of the Czech economy	59
Kateřina Šmídková
5 Interest rate policy and inflation behaviour in the Czech Republic: from exchange rate to inflation targeting	79
Eric Girardin and Nicholas Horsewood
6 Latvia on the way to the European Union: economic policy convergence	105
Inna Šteinbuka
7 Monetary policy prospects and Maastricht criteria in Lithuania before accession to the EU	133
Salomėja Jasinskaitė, Dalia Vidickienė and Rasa Melnikienė
8 The currency board regime in Bulgaria and its sustainability	154
Tatiana Houbenova
9 EMU convergence criteria and international flows of capital: the dilemmas for Polish macroeconomic policy	183
Boguslaw Grabowski and Jerzy Pruski
10 The Asian financial crisis and lessons for CEE economies	202
David G. Dickinson and Andrew W. Mullineux

11	Joining EMU as an irreversible investment David G. Dickinson and Jean-Baptiste Desquilbet	224
PART II FINANCIAL SECTOR DEVELOPMENT
12	Financial stability and economic development in transitional economies Maxwell J. Fry	255
13	Payment systems and economic development in transitional economies Maxwell J. Fry	275
14	Mobilization of savings in transition countries: the case of Lithuania Dalia Vidickienė, Salomėja Jasinskaitė and Rasa Melnikienė	290
15	The Polish banking sector and EU regulations Andrzej Raczko	311
16	Banking sector restructuring and debt consolidation in the Czech Republic Roman Matoušek	342
17	Market efficiency in transition economies: equity markets and EU accession Nicholas Horsewood and Douglas Sutherland	372
18	Risk and optimal interest margins: the case of commercial banks in Central Europe Daniel Goyeau, Alain Sauviat and Amine Tarazi	395
19	The impact of market structure and efficiency on bank profitability: an empirical analysis of banking industries in Central and Eastern Europe Céline Gondat-Larralde and Laetitia Lepetit	416
20	Convergence between the financial systems of EU member states and applicant transition economies Victor Murinde, Juda Agung and Andrew W. Mullineux	443
	Index	465