Index

adjustment costs 28–9
adoption 199
affective rewards 95–6
agency 215
agglomeration economies 53
agriculture 212–13
Akerlof, G.A. 5, 35
Alchian, A.A. 73
Allen, G.C. 161
Amin, A. 166
Andrews, P.W.S. 110
anthropology 236
economic perspective 20–46
custom versus contract 40–41
differentiation and rise of individualism 38–9 divergence of intellectual paths 23–6 economic equilibrium and anthropological research 27–9
economic methods and explanation of historical change 26–7 growth of impersonal attitudes 39–40 implications for research 43–4
intermediation 36–8
language and communication 31–4, 44
progressive nature of economic theory 29–31
rights, obligations and reciprocity 35–6 static and progressive equilibria 41–3 appropriation problem 70–73
Aristotle 17
Ashton, T.S. 84, 86
asset specificity 73
Austrian economics 93, 94
autocracy 210, 260
autonomy 10–11, 15
Axelsson, B. 169
Bacon, Roger 268
Bainbridge, W.S. 38, 98
banks 189, 213
bargaining 71
collective 181–2
Barber, T.C. 85
Barro, R. 209
barter 64
international 139, 140–41
multinational trading companies and 154–7
Becattini, G. 166
Becker, G. 215
Bellandi, M. 166
Ben-Porath, Y. 207
Bentham, Jeremy 5, 24
Berkhard, R. 197
Best, M. 169
Blaug, M. 23
Boisot, M.H. 62
boundaries of the firm 48, 73–4
Brewer, J. 90
brokers 136–9
international 139, 140–41
Brusco, S. 166
Buchanan, J.M. 55
Buckley, P.L. 2, 25, 73, 134, 204
business networks see regional business networks Cain, P.J. 92
Calvinism 98–9
Cantillon, R. 48, 93
capital
human capital 53
market 249–50
mobility of 87, 96
partnerships and 95
social 174
capital cities see metropolis Carlos, A.M. 133
cartels 100, 168
Carter, M. 108
Casson, M.C. 2, 3, 4, 21, 25, 32, 37, 49, 54, 63, 70, 73, 74, 94, 108, 134, 162, 164, 172, 180, 185, 186, 204, 219, 247, 248, 255
Chamberlin, E.H. 50, 108, 122
Chami, R. 215, 216
Chandler, A. 85, 128, 202, 273
change
cultural 43, 266–70
economic modelling of 4–17
diversification and evolution of the firm 48, 74–7
economic methods and explanation of historical change 26–7
organizational change 270–74
transitory and persistent change 66–8
volatility 56–8, 66, 254
Chapman, S.D. 96
charisma, moral authority and 7
cheating 10, 96
child labour 84, 86
Church, R.A. 161, 168, 203
cities see metropolis Clanchy, M.T. 53
clubs 169, 189
coal industry 85, 88
Coase, R.H. 49, 50, 110, 130, 204
cogency, moral authority and 7
cognition 25–6
Coleman, J.S. 174
collective bargaining 181–2
collusion see cartels colonies development in 151–4
money and barter in 154–7 commitment, moral authority and 7 commodity markets, marketing in 123–4 commons, tragedy of 62–3 communication 123
costs of 63
improvements in communication and expansion of groups 245–6 language and 13–15, 31–4, 44
leadership and 13–15
communitarianism 4
competition 27
economic decline and 100–102
flexible decentralization through competition between entrepreneurs 248–51
imitative 96–7
monopolistic 50
moral pluralism and 11–12
networks and 177
prospecting for opportunities under flexible decentralization 62–3 constitutions 55–6, 258
consumers 90–91, 112
contract(s)
custom and 40–41
enforcement 55
firms as nexus of 63–4
forward 64, 72, 137
reduction of transaction costs and 69
co-operative games 30
co-ordination 51, 57, 64, 253
flexible division of labour applied to co-ordination 58–60 in industrial revolution 85
through interrelated substitutions 53–4 transitory change and 66
see also regional business networks
corruption 8–9, 16, 37
cotton industry 88, 89, 90, 101–2
countertrade 155
Court, W.H.B. 96, 161
Cox, H. 162
Crafts, N.F.R. 84
Crawford, R.G. 73
credit 116, 119, 155–6, 250
criticism 12
culture
concept of culture 239–41
cultural change 43, 266–70
economic modelling of 4–17
economic growth and 236–82
communication improvements and expansion of groups 245–6 competence of leader 259–62
concept of culture 239–41
culture and organization 253–7 division of labour in production 246–8
flexible decentralization through competition between entrepreneurs 248–51
limitations of individualism 276–9 long-term cultural change 266–70 market for leaders 241–2
migration 264–6
military dimension of inter-group relations 262–4 morality of leader 257–9
organizational change 270–74
problems of private enterprise system 251–3 provision of defence and law in simple groups 242–5 time profile 279–81
UK examples 266–76
industrial revolution and 85, 95–7, 103–4
economic decline 100–102
entrepreneurial culture as economic asset 97–100 regions and 171
custom, contract and 40–41
customization 113
Dalzell, R.F. 161
Darwin, Charles 278
decentralization 58–9
prospecting for opportunities under flexible decentralization 62–3
recruitment and motivation of synthesizers and 61–2 through competition between entrepreneurs 248–51
decline of colonial trading companies 157–8
cultural aspects of 100–102
deconstruction 22
defence and law in simple groups 242–5
defence 212
Dei Ottati, G. 171
democracy 9, 258–9, 260, 261–2, 263, 265–6, 270, 280
differentiation and rise of individualism 38–9
discourse 22
disequilibrium 130
distribution system 92
diversification by family firms 214
by multinational trading companies 144–6 evolution of the firm and 48, 74–7 division of labour 21, 117–18, 246–8 environmental diversity and 33–4
flexible division of labour applied to co-ordination 58–60
in social sciences 2–4
divisionalization 76
donations 242
Dyer, W. Gibb 197
dynastic firms see family firms Easton, G. 169
eccentricism 29
economic decline, cultural aspects of 100–102
economic growth
culture and see culture, economic growth and ethics and see ethical leadership economic imperialism 2
education and training 8, 14–15, 187, 189, 218 educational psychology 15
Ekelund, R.B. 100
Eliasson, G. 51
elitism 258–9, 260, 261–2, 263–4, 265, 270, 280
employers’ associations 167
enclosure movement 86
entrepreneurial theory of the firm 47–80
boundaries of the firm 48
internalization and the boundaries of the firm 73–4 bundle of rights and reduction of transaction costs 64–6 change and diversification and evolution of the firm 48, 74–7 innovation in response to persistent change 68–70
transitory and persistent change 66–8
volatility 56–8, 66
co-ordination through interrelated substitutions 53–4 economic significance of information 51–3 financing the firm 77–9
flexible division of labour applied to
co-ordination 58–60
limitations of existing theories of the
firm 48–51
market for information 70–73
market-making firm 47, 68–70, 135
observation and synthesis 57, 58–60 prospecting for opportunities under flexible decentralization 62–3 recruitment and motivation of synthesizers 61–2
property rights 50–51, 54–6
transaction costs and market institutions 63–4
equilibrium 130
anthropological research and 27–9 high trust 172
static and progressive equilibria 41–3
Errington, A. 208
errors 58
ethical leadership 1–18
division of labour in social sciences 2–4
economic modelling of cultural
change 4–9
extensions of basic model 11–15
functional values 9–11
objections to model 15–17
evolution
anthropology and 23, 41–2 diversification and evolution of the
firm 48, 74–7
exploitation 84
externalities 65
factor mobility in industrial revolution 86–8
factory system 84
family firms 197–233
definitions 198–9
dynastic motive 209–11
dynastic firm as network 214–15 industrial paternalism and 211–13, 214
managerial firms and 218–19
model 215–18, 221–33
industry factor 203–4
limitations of conventional neoclassical economics 204, 206–7
parenting and 207–9
rational action approach to 204–6 succession problem 199, 200–201
time factor 201–3
fashion 90, 91, 119
feedback control 84
Feinstein, C.H. 84
finance
banks 189, 213
financial system 87, 89
of firms 77–9, 249–50
multinational trading companies’
inintegration into 130–51 firms see entrepreneurial theory of the firm; family firms; managerial firms; multinational trading companies
Fisher, A.G.B. 260
flexible decentralization through competition between entrepreneurs 248–51
flexible specialization 76, 164, 167
focal point theory 16
Foreman-Peck, J. 248
forward contracts 64, 72, 137
Foss, N.J. 48
Frank, R.H. 4
free rider problem 243
Freud, Sigmund 14, 278
Fukuyama, F. 4
game theory 10, 16, 22, 30, 247–8 Gasson, R. 208
gentrification 100
Germany, industrialization in 101
Gersik, K. 197
goodwill 111–12, 124
Granovetter, M. 56, 204
Groenewegen, P. 111
groups, competition between 11–12
guarantees 112
haggling 115
Hamilton, G.G. 215
Hamilton, H. 85
Hammond, B. 84
Hammond, J.L. 84
Harper, D.A. 250
Incremental synthesis 76–7
information space 62
internalization and boundaries of the firm and 73–4
market for information 70–73
multinational trading companies 146–50
regional business networks and 170, 183, 184–6
infrastructure 151, 152
innovation 34
industrial revolution and 91–2, 93–4
regional business networks and 164
in response to persistent change 68–70 insider trading 252
institutional economics 22
rational action approach to family firms 204–6
institutions
institutional optimism 258, 268–9, 272–3, 277–9
property rights and 54–6
regional business networks 175–7
transaction costs and market institutions 63–4
integration 128–9
multinational trading companies
finance 150–51
production 142–4
shipping 141–2
intermediation 13–14, 36–8
multinational trading companies 134–5
regional business networks and 181–2, 186–90
internalization, boundaries of the firm and 73–4 international trade see trade inventory (stock) resellers and 137 variety of 114
investigative journalism 9
invisible networks 177
iron and steel industry 85
Italy
economic growth 236
regional business networks in 163–7 Jevons, William Stanley 23
John, A.H. 89
joint supply and joint demand 124–5
Jones, E. 42, 85, 89, 249
Jones, G. 133, 151, 197 journalism, investigative 9
Kant, Immanuel 17
Kao, C. 215
Kay, N.M. 73
Kemp, M.C. 134
Kets de Vries, M.F.R. 210
Keynes, J.M. 111
Kipping, M. 184
Kirby, M. 96, 97, 207
Kirzner, I.M. 48, 49, 93
Klein, B. 73
Kluckhohn, C. 31
Knight, F.H. 3, 48, 93, 122, 251
labour
family firms and 211–12, 217, 218
mobility of 86–7
Landes, D.S. 239
Langlois, R.N. 77
language, communication and 13–15, 31–4, 44
law 51, 53
comparison of ethics and law 12–13 economics of 2
intermediation of legal system 36–7
legal rights 55
in simple groups 242–5
Leach, E. 29
leadership
communication and 13–15
competence 259–62
corruption 8–9, 16
costs of 8
cultural change and 43
ethical see ethical leadership expansion of groups and 245–6 intermediation and 13–14, 37–8
market for 241–2
moral authority and 6–7
morality of 257–9
quality of leaders 8–9, 17
in regional business networks 174–5, 184–5 supply of 7–9
see also entrepreneurial theory of the firm legitimacy
moral authority and 6–7
utility function and 5
Leibenstein, H. 86
Levi-Strauss, C. 29
Levinson, H. 197
Lippman, S.A. 67
Loasby, B. 50, 129, 130
Locke, John 268–9
loyalty 210
McCall, J.J. 67
Macgregor, D.H. 108
McKendrick, N. 90
Mackie, R. 206
MacLeod, C. 83
managerial firms 198
dynastic motive and 218–19
Mann, J. deLacy 89, 96, 161
marketing 107–31
capital cities and 116–17
commodity markets 123–4
entrepreneurship and 126–7
joint supply and joint demand 124–5
order size 116
perishability 113–14
price and 109–10
discrimination 115
measurement of 120–22
stability of 117
as progressive force 111–13
scale economies in 107, 108, 117–20 standardization and consistency of quality 115–16
variety of stock 114
vertical integration 128–9
markets
capital 249–50
co-ordination 54
entrepreneurial theory of the firm and 47, 49, 50–51, 63–4, 68–73
for information 70–73
market-making entrepreneurs and regional business networks 179–81
market-making firm 47, 68–70, 135
problems of 251–3
transaction costs and market institutions 63–4
marriage 96, 199
Marshall, M.P. 108
Marx, Karl 26, 27
mechanization 84, 247
media 245–6
  investigative journalism 9
  moral debate and 12
memory 67
mercantilism see multinational trading companies mergers 102, 107
metropolis
  marketing and 116–17
  regional business networks and 162, 182–4, 186–90, 191–2
migration 264–6
  entrepreneurs 87, 97, 100–101, 103, 161–2, 192, 264
  family firms and 214
industrial revolution and 86
Milgrom, P.R. 215
military dimension of inter-group relations 262–4
Mill, John Stuart 24
mobility, factor mobility in industrial revolution 86–8 modular organization 75–6 Mokyr, J. 42, 83
money
  financing the firm 77–9
  monetary theory 53
  multinational trading companies and 154–7
monopolistic competition 50 moral authority, legitimacy and 6–7 moral optimism 255, 256–7, 258
moral pluralism 11–12
Morgan, Henry Lewis 23
Morgan, K. 180
Morgenstern, O. 30
mortgages 213
motivation 25, 252
  of entrepreneurs 48–9
  of synthesizers 61–2
multinational trading companies 133–59, 215
  decline of colonial trading companies 157–8
  diversification by 144–6
export-led colonial development 151–4 information flow and material flow 146–50
integration
  finance 150–51
  production 142–4
  shipping 141–2
intermediation of international trade 134–5 international dimension 139–41
money and barter 154–7
typology 136–9
names, family firms and 199
natural rights 55
Nef, J.U. 85
negotiation 70
Nelson, R. 67
networks 277
  family firms as 214–15
  industrial revolution and 96, 97–100
  social networks 22
  see also regional business networks
Nicholas, S.J. 133
non-co-operative games 30
non-rationality 20
North, D.C. 42, 55
obligations 35–6
O’Brien, D.P. 109, 130
observation 57, 58–60
Olson, M. 100, 169, 236, 270
opaque networks 177
opportunities, prospecting for opportunities under flexible decentralization 62–3 optimal stopping rules 67
optimality principle 30 optimism 85, 255
  institutional 258, 268–9, 272–3, 277–9 moral 255, 256–7, 258
  scientific 255–6, 257, 260, 261, 264, 265–6, 276–7, 279 order size, marketing and 116
organization
  culture and 253–7
  organizational change 270–74
ownership 72
  bundling of rights and reduction of transaction costs 64–6
  colonial development and 152–3
dynastic motive and 212–13
  family firms 198–9, 213

Paniccia, I. 164, 166
parenting 207–9
partnerships 94, 95, 249
patents 71
paternalism 202, 211–13, 214, 257
Payne, P.L. 202
peer group pressure 13
penalties 12–13
Penrose, E.T. 75
perishability, marketing and 113–14
perks of leadership 8
persistent change 66–8
personal interaction 39–40
pessimism 255, 256–7, 261, 264, 269, 277, 279
Pigou, A.C. 117
Piore, M.J. 163, 164, 166
planning
  economic 49, 50–51
  partial 59–60
Plumb, J.H. 90
political correctness 29
Pollak, R.A. 205
Pollard, S. 88
Popp, A. 189
positive-sum games 247–8
post-modernism 22
power 210
Prest, J. 161
price
  marketing and 109–10
  discrimination 115
  measurement of 120–22
  stability of 117
Prior, A. 97
prisoner’s dilemma 10
private co-ordination 54
procedures 67
process re-engineering 85
production
  division of labour in 246–8 multinational trading companies’ integration into 142–4 progress
  marketing as progressive force 111–13
  progressive nature of economic theory 29–31
  progressive equilibria 41–3
property rights 35, 39, 244–5, 251, 272
colonial development and 152–3
entrepreneurial theory of the firm and 50–51, 53, 54–6
  family and 208
  institutions and 54–6
public choice theory 2
public goods 16
Putnam, R.D. 163, 165–6
Quakers 212
  industrial revolution and 96, 97–100, 172
quality
  industrial revolution and 89
  of leaders 8–9, 17
  reduction in 117
  standardization and consistency of quality 115–16
racism 29
Radcliffe-Brown, A.R. 27
Rasmussen, E. 30
Rassuli, K.M. 53
rationality 3, 20, 21, 49, 239–40
  rational action approach to family firms 204–6
reciprocity 35–6, 172
recruitment and motivation of synthesizers 61–2
recursion problem 28
Redford, A. 86
reflection 5, 6–7
regional business networks 161–93
case against 167–9
  concept of 169–71
  economic logic of 190–91
  entrepreneurs and 161–2, 179–81, 188–9 ideology of networks 163–7 information and 170, 183, 184–6
  institutions 175–7
  intermediation and 181–2, 186–90
  leadership in 174–5, 184–5 metropolis and 162, 182–4, 186–90, 191–2 trust and 171–4
typology 177–9
regional diversity in industrial revolution 88–90
religion 241, 269, 278
industrial revolution and 96, 97–100
risk aversion and 137–8 rental 65–6, 72
rent-seeking 161
repeated games models 16
repetition 246–7
representative associations 175–6, 189 reputation 111–12, 172, 173, 175, 251–2 resellers 136–9
international 139–40, 141, 142
Resiman, D. 108
respect 173
Ricardo, David 23, 24
Richardson, G. 50, 110
rights
bundling of 64–6
bundling of rights and reduction of transaction costs 64–6
legal 55
natural 55
obligations and reciprocity and 35–6 risk 87, 93, 136–8, 155–7
Roberts, J. 215
Robertson, D.H. 108, 131
Robertson, H.M. 99
Robertson, P. 77
Rosc, M.B. 101, 197, 201, 204
Rosenberg, N. 91
Rostow, W.W. 84, 88
Rubinstein, W.D. 96
rules, making and implementation 66–7 Sabel, C.F. 163, 164, 166
sanctions 173–4
Say, J.-B. 48
Sayer, A. 180
scale economies in marketing 107, 108, 117–20
Schultz, T.W. 53
Schumpeter, J.A. 48, 49, 74, 93
scientific optimism 255–6, 257, 260, 261, 264, 265–6, 276–7, 279
Scranton, P. 167, 204
Seater, J.J. 209
second-hand goods 113
secrecy 71, 95
self-control 7, 15
self-interest 55
self-respect 173
Sen, A. 10
Sforzi, F. 166
Sheffrin, H.M. 7, 116
shipping 141–2
simplification 246
Skully, G.W. 258
Smith, Adam 4, 117, 236, 246, 272 Smith, S. 215
social capital 174
social construction of reality 21
social contract 55
social co-ordination 54
social justice 8, 251, 253
social networks 22
see also regional business networks
social sciences, division of labour in 2–4 social solidarity 4, 27 Sowell, T. 264
specialization 247
flexible 76, 164, 167
marketing and 113, 117–18
specification 69–70
speculation 71–2, 124, 137, 138 Spencer, Herbert 23, 30
spontaneous order 15–16
stakeholders 55–6
standardization, consistency of quality and 115–16
Stark, R. 38, 98
state
enforcement of contracts and 55
networks and 180
social contract theory 55
welfare state 257
static equilibria 41–3
status 173
Stavrou, E.T. 210
steam power 84
Steedman, I. 26
stock see inventory (stock)
stock market 213
Stone, L. 208
Stopford, J.M. 214
strategic behaviour 30
substitution, co-ordination through interrelated substitutions 53–4 succession problem in family firms 199, 200–201
Suneja, V. 108
Sweezy, P.A. 85
Świercz, P.M. 210
synthesis 57, 58–60
incremental 76–7
prospecting for opportunities under flexible decentralization 62–3
recruitment and motivation of synthesizers 61–2 systems thinking 247–8, 256
taxation 242, 243
Taylor, G. 85, 89
technology 263
diffusion of 91–2
see also innovation
Teece, D.J. 76
television, investigative journalism 9
textile industries 88, 89, 90, 101–2, 164 Thaler, R.H. 7, 116
time
culture and economic growth 279–81
family firms and 201–3
ownership and 65
tolerance 11–12
Toynbee, A. 84
trade 34, 248–51
commodity markets 123–4
industrial revolution and 88–9, 90
reciprocity and 35–6
see also multinational trading companies trade associations 167, 181 trade unions 167, 168, 181–2, 257 tragedy of the commons 62–3 training and education 8, 14–15, 187, 189, 218 transaction costs 22, 27, 30, 134
bundling of rights and reduction of transaction costs 64–6
family firms and 204, 205, 216
innovation in response to persistent change 69–70
internalization and the boundaries of the firm 73–4
market institutions and 63–4
networks and 170, 180
trade and 35
transitory and persistent change 66–8
transparent networks 177 Trigilia, C. 166
trust 37
family firms and 205, 207–9
regional business networks and 171–4, 179–80
Tyler, Edward 23
uncertainty 22, 29
unintended consequences 16
Unitarians 96
United States of America
constitution 258
cultural exports 104
industrialization in 85
managerial dynasties in 219
price discrimination in 115
regional business networks 165, 167
universal ethics 277–8
Unwin, G. 85, 89
Ure, A. 83
Useem, M. 180
utility function, legitimacy and 5
Utley, F. 101
value rationality 3
values and beliefs see culture vertical integration see integration
volatility 56–8, 66, 254
Von Neumann, J. 30
Wadsworth, A.P. 89, 96, 161
wages 116
family firms and 215, 217
Wagner, G. 99, 212
Walras, Leon 23
warfare 262–4
waste, perishability and 113–14
Weber, Max 3, 98, 99, 100, 278
welfare state 257
Whitley, R. 21
Whittaker, J.K. 109
Wiener, M. 100
Wilkins, M. 149, 183
Willan, T.S. 85