Index

accumulation
  accounts in growth cycle model 137, 138, 139
capital accumulation 3, 122, 143, 186–8 debt accumulation 140–46, 155–75 Acemoglu, D. 55, 56
aggregate demand, link with profits and cash flow 99–111 Aglietta, M. 79
algebraic relationships, used in debt-deflation model 150
American Economic Review, Minsky’s doctoral dissertation in 78
Andronov, A.A. 35
‘animal spirits’ 71, 74, 102 anti-laissez-faire theorem 24 Asimakopulos, A. 94
asset-holders
  accounts of in growth cycle model 137–9 budget equations of in debt-deflation model 141–2 asset-price dynamics in debt-deflation model 133, 144, 145–6 asymmetric information, financial instability resulting from 27–8, 56, 185–6 asymmetric shocks 55–6, 58, 64 asymptotic stability 135, 162, 166–7, 174 Bak, P. 55
‘balance sheet’ approach of H.P. Minsky to financial system 1–28 banana parables, Keynes 79 banking system, nature of 1–28 see also central banks; commercial banks; fiscal and monetary authorities Beaudry, P. 59
Bernanke, B.S. 101
Beveridge curve, asymmetric patterns in 56 big government, role of in financial system 1–2, 12, 18–19, 21 see also budget deficit borrower’s risk 79, 80–81, 100–102, 115, 117–18, 126
Brock, W. 65
budget deficit
  in debt-deflation model 148–9, 153
  as floor to recession 126 impact on leverage ratios 26, 78 relationship to profitability 12, 92 role in stabilization of economy 18–19, 48–9 business cycle
  asymmetric patterns in 27–8, 56, 185–6 heterogeneity of firms, fluctuations associated with 185–98 institutional dynamics, prospecting in a Minskyan perspective 124–7 interpretation of Minsky’s analysis 113–17, 129–32 investment theory, macroeconomics of 97–111 Keynes on 37–8
missing link in Minsky’s analysis 76–93 overview of Minsky’s analysis of 1–28, 40–46 real business cycle (RBC) theories 54, 55, 71
see also financial instability hypothesis, Minsky
Can ‘It’ Happen Again? (H.P. Minsky) 2 Canada, cyclical behaviour of corporate indebtedness 86–93 capacity utilization of firms, in debt-deflation model 143 capital accumulation 3, 122, 143, 186–8 capital/output ratio, in Minskyan business cycle model 119–22 capitalization of assets, in Minsky’s two-price model 9–11 Cardim de Carvalho, F.J. 79, 81 cash flows see finance; investment; profit; money supply ceilings and floors 2, 20, 22, 23, 25, 47, 53–64, 126 central banks impact on money supply 7, 74–5 interest rate policy 78, 148–9, 151 see also interest rates lender-of-last-resort function 1–2, 8, 18–19, 21, 25, 48–9, 50–51, 126–7 preoccupation with inflation 133–4 chaotic dynamics 113, 193–5, 198 Chiarella and Flaschel adapted model 140–46
growth cycle model 135, 136–9 intensive-form representation of dynamics in adapted model 146–55
Chick, V. 77
‘City’ (‘Wall Street’) paradigm 3–4, 76 classical growth model see growth cycle models commercial banks borrower’s risk faced by 126 interest rates, determinants of 79 as ‘Snatchers’ 73, 74–5
as speculative units 16–17 in thought of H.P. Minsky 3 complex roots, existence of 130–31 confidence see expectations constant cycles 41
constraints, on economic growth, nature of 53–64, 114 consumption, in Minskyan business cycle model 119–22 contracyclical policies 18–20, 46–9, 50–51, 74–5, 125, 127 corporate indebtedness, empirical evidence on cyclical behaviour of 86–93 corporate internal funds, flow of 81–2 credit market, role in business cycle 7, 27, 71, 113–27 current-depth-of-recession (CDR) variable, TAR models 59–60 cycle, economic see business cycle; financial instability hypothesis dampened cycles 41, 60, 71, 110
Davidson, P. 77, 80, 85
Davis, E.P. 94
debt accumulation see debt deflation, model of capital ratios, in debt-deflation model 156–65 deflation see debt deflation, model of equity ratios 6, 84, 86, 102–11, 185–98 financing see debt deflation, model of stock, in Minskyan business cycle model 122 see also corporate indebtedness deflation, model of classical growth model of economy and changes needed 136–9 debt accumulation, effect on Keen growth cycle model 155–9 equations for at extensive-form level 140–46 impact of debt deflation on Keen growth cycle model 159–65 intensive-form representation of dynamics 146–55 notation, of model 180–83 numerical investigations 165–75 overview of issues 133–5 parameters, of model 183–4 summary and assessment 175–7
see also financial instability hypothesis, Minsky deflation see debt deflation, model of Delli Gatti, D. 85, 87, 94, 111, 199 demand
effective demand 39, 78–85, 93 link to profits and cash flows 26–7, 99–111 price, in Minsky’s two-price model 9–11 depth asymmetry 55
disequilibrium
general disequilibrium growth cycle model 133–77
in thought of J.M. Keynes 38–9 see also equilibrium; full employment Dow, S.C. 79, 94
downward-sloping demand price for investment 79–80 Dymski, G. 77, 111
dynamic constraints, on leverage 117 dynamic instability 40, 41–2, 47 dynamic simulations to profit maximization problem 104–10 dynamic stability 39, 41, 46–7 ε-instability 35–6, 43, 46 Earl, P.E. 79
econometric approach, ceilings and floors 57–8 economic cycle see business cycle; financial instability hypothesis economic policy, role in stabilization of finance system 18–20, 46–9, 50–51, 74–5, 125, 127 effective demand 39, 78–85, 93
Eichner, A.S. 77
employment
asymmetric patterns in 56
in debt-deflation model 146–7, 152, 158, 159
equilibrating and disequilibrating factors 38–40, 46–7 full employment 2, 39, 41–2, 47, 104, 105, 146–7, 152
in Minskyan business cycle model 119–22 endogeneity of money, in thought of H.P. Minsky 1–28 endogenous economic instability see financial instability hypothesis, Minsky equilibrium approach to business cycles 41, 42
equilibrating and disequilibrating factors 38–40, 46–7
full employment 2, 39, 41–2, 47, 104, 105, 146–7, 152 on money market, business cycle model for 119–22 neoclassical approach 3–4, 36, 41, 42, 47–8, 51, 54 see also disequilibrium equity ratios of firms see debt equity ratios evolutionary nature of economic systems 33, 51, 114 exchange rate dynamics in debt-deflation model 148 exogenous factors, role in structural instability 42–6, 54–5 expectations
concerning interest rates, impact on financial liability structure 14–15 long-run, impact on liquidity preference and marginal efficiency of capital 39 in Minsky’s two-price model 9–11 of sales in debt-deflation model 146–7 see also profits
explosive cycles 41, 113
‘An Exposition of a Keynesian Theory of Investment’ (H.P. Minsky, 1972) 79
Farnham, M.P. 111
Fazzari, S.M. 99, 101, 103, 111
Ferri, P. 53, 59, 60, 99, 103, 113, 125, 126 finance
financial accounts, in growth cycle model 137, 138–9 financial and real sectors of economy, interrelationship between 25–6, 69–75, 136–9 financial dynamics 114, 125 financial markets, see financial markets, role in business cycle money and finance, endogeneity of 4–8 premium, impact of asymmetric information on 101 role in Minsky’s microeconomic theory of investment 101–2 see also banking system; financial instability hypothesis, Minsky financial instability hypothesis, Minsky
Index

fiscal and monetary authorities

financial accounts of in growth cycle model 139
short- and long-term debt policy 148–9, 153 tax income in debt-deflation model 144, 149

Fisher, I.
debt mechanism 134, 135, 160, 161, 174, 177
influence on H.P. Minsky 21

floors and ceilings 2, 20, 22, 23, 25, 47, 53–64, 126
fluctuations, economic 37–8, 40
see also business cycle

Franke, R. 120, 128
Frisch 196
full employment 2, 39, 41–2, 47, 104, 105, 146–7, 152

G-7 countries, cyclical behaviour of corporate indebtedness 86–93
Galbraith, J.K. 60, 62–3, 65
Gallegati, M. 85, 87, 94, 111, 120, 121, 127, 199
Gardini, L. 120, 121, 127
general disequilibrium growth cycle model 133–77

General Theory (J.M. Keynes) 1, 21, 36–8, 40, 49, 51, 70, 115, 116, 120, 121, 122
Gertler, M. 101
globalization, impact on labour market 62

Goodwin, R.M. (growth cycle model) 41, 47, 58, 74, 135, 141, 154, 156, 160 government deficit see budget deficit
Granger causality tests, on Minsky hypothesis 92–3

Great Depression 2, 21, 25, 86, 133

Greenberg, E. 59, 60, 99, 103
Greenspan, Alan 134

Greenwald, B.C. 186, 196, 199
growth cycle models

debt-deflation model 140–77
Goodwin 41, 47, 58, 74, 135, 141, 154, 156, 160
Keen 140–41, 142, 143–4, 145–6, 154, 155–9, 160, 163, 176

and business cycle see business cycle ceiling and floor model, Minsky’s contribution to 53–4 foundations and interpretation of 113–27, 129–32 heterogeneity of firms, impact of 185–98 investment theory, macroeconomics of 26–7, 99–111
missing macroeconomic link in 26, 76–93
overview of 1–28
real and financial sectors, interrelationships 25–6, 69–75, 136–9 structural instability, as key to 25, 33–51
see also debt deflation, model of financial markets

legacy of Minsky 20–25
money and finance, endogeneity of 4–8 overview of key issues 1–3
in relation to economic policy 18–20
in relation to profits and distribution 11–13
in relation to systemic fragility 15–18
in relation to taxonomy of positions 13–15
two-price model, Minsky 8–11
‘Wall Street’ paradigm 3–4, 76
see also banking system firms
behaviour, model and dynamic simulations of 103–10 budget equations of in debt-deflation model 142–4 debt/capital ratio, steady-state solution for in debt-deflation model 153 financial accounts of in growth cycle model 137, 138 heterogeneity of see heterogeneity of firms, impact on financial stability quantity adjustment mechanisms in debt-deflation model 146–7 rates of return in debt-deflation model 140–41
see also business cycle

G-7 countries, cyclical behaviour of corporate indebtedness 86–93
Galbraith, J.K. 60, 62–3, 65
Gallegati, M. 85, 87, 94, 111, 120, 121, 127, 199
Gardini, L. 120, 121, 127
general disequilibrium growth cycle model 133–77

General Theory (J.M. Keynes) 1, 21, 36–8, 40, 49, 51, 70, 115, 116, 120, 121, 122
Gertler, M. 101
globalization, impact on labour market 62

Goodwin, R.M. (growth cycle model) 41, 47, 58, 74, 135, 141, 154, 156, 160
government deficit see budget deficit
Granger causality tests, on Minsky hypothesis 92–3

Great Depression 2, 21, 25, 86, 133

Greenberg, E. 59, 60, 99, 103
Greenspan, Alan 134

Greenwald, B.C. 186, 196, 199
growth cycle models
debt-deflation model 140–77
Goodwin 41, 47, 58, 74, 135, 141, 154, 156, 160
Keen 140–41, 142, 143–4, 145–6, 154, 155–9, 160, 163, 176

and business cycle see business cycle ceiling and floor model, Minsky’s contribution to 53–4 foundations and interpretation of 113–27, 129–32
heterogeneity of firms, impact of 185–98
investment theory, macroeconomics of 26–7, 99–111
missing macroeconomic link in 26, 76–93
overview of 1–28
real and financial sectors, interrelationships 25–6, 69–75, 136–9 structural instability, as key to 25, 33–51
see also debt deflation, model of financial markets

legacy of Minsky 20–25
money and finance, endogeneity of 4–8
overview of key issues 1–3
in relation to economic policy 18–20
in relation to profits and distribution 11–13
in relation to systemic fragility 15–18
in relation to taxonomy of positions 13–15
two-price model, Minsky 8–11
‘Wall Street’ paradigm 3–4, 76
see also banking system
firms
behaviour, model and dynamic simulations of 103–10
budget equations of in debt-deflation model 142–4 debt/capital ratio, steady-state solution for in debt-deflation model 153 financial accounts of in growth cycle model 137, 138
heterogeneity of see heterogeneity of firms, impact on financial stability quantity adjustment mechanisms in debt-deflation model 146–7 rates of return in debt-deflation model 140–41
see also business cycle

fiscal and monetary authorities

financial accounts of in growth cycle model 139
short- and long-term debt policy 148–9, 153
tax income in debt-deflation model 144, 149

Fisher, I.
debt mechanism 134, 135, 160, 161, 174, 177
influence on H.P. Minsky 21
floors and ceilings 2, 20, 22, 23, 25, 47, 53–64, 126
fluctuations, economic 37–8, 40
see also business cycle

Franke, R. 120, 128
Frisch 196
full employment 2, 39, 41–2, 47, 104, 105, 146–7, 152

G-7 countries, cyclical behaviour of corporate indebtedness 86–93
Galbraith, J.K. 60, 62–3, 65
Gallegati, M. 85, 87, 94, 111, 120, 121, 127, 199
Gardini, L. 120, 121, 127
general disequilibrium growth cycle model 133–77

General Theory (J.M. Keynes) 1, 21, 36–8, 40, 49, 51, 70, 115, 116, 120, 121, 122
Gertler, M. 101
globalization, impact on labour market 62

Goodwin, R.M. (growth cycle model) 41, 47, 58, 74, 135, 141, 154, 156, 160
government deficit see budget deficit
Granger causality tests, on Minsky hypothesis 92–3

Great Depression 2, 21, 25, 86, 133

Greenberg, E. 59, 60, 99, 103
Greenspan, Alan 134

Greenwald, B.C. 186, 196, 199
growth cycle models
debt-deflation model 140–77
Goodwin 41, 47, 58, 74, 135, 141, 154, 156, 160
Keen 140–41, 142, 143–4, 145–6, 154, 155–9, 160, 163, 176
Index

growth, economic asymmetries and non-linearities 55–6 ceilings and floors, dynamic model for 56–8 constrained growth and the NAIRU 62–3 linear paradigm, limitations of 54–5 Minsky’s contribution to 53–4 overshooting mechanism 135 piecewise-linear curve, mathematics of 58–60 piecewise-linear Phillips curve 60–61 relationship to leverage ratios 77–8 sustainable and potential growth 63–4 see also investment

Hamilton, J.D. 59
Hansen, A. 21, 22
Harcourt, G.C. 77
Harrod–Domar models 23
Harrod, Roy 73
hedge-funding units 14, 15, 16, 18, 23, 43, 44, 86, 185 heterodox macrodynamic approach 41–2, 47 see also macrodynamic approach heterogeneity of firms, relationship to business fluctuations 190–95, 198 Hicks, J.R. 41, 46, 47, 56–7, 58, 70, 73, 125 Hicks–Goodwin non-linear accelerator model 46 homeostatic mechanisms 126 households
budget equations of in debt-deflation model 141–2
financial accounts of in growth cycle model 138–9 housing, stock of in debt-deflation model 146–7

IMF (International Monetary Fund) 133–4 impulse-propagation mechanism and business fluctuations 196–7 income accounts, in growth cycle model 137–8, 139 increasing risk, Kalecki’s principle of 79, 83, 114–15, 118, 120 inflation in debt-deflation model 147–8, 152–3 in dynamic macroeconomic investment model 105 fiscal preoccupation with 133–4 impact on aggregate demand 27, 105 impact on economic growth 59, 60–61, 62–3 threshold level within piecewise-linear Phillips curve 60–61 triggered by increase in money supply 49 see also debt deflation, model of instability, concepts of 34–6 institutional dynamics, in a Minskyan perspective 114, 124–7 institutional reform, importance of in thwarting financial crises 49 interest rates
central bank policy 148–9, 151 of commercial banks 79
as determinant of opportunity cost of internal funds 100 dynamics of on loans in debt-deflation model 145–6 impact of real rates on debt-equity ratios 92 impact on financial system 14–15, 16–18, 126 impact on leverage ratios 26, 78
impact on money supply 5–6, 7–8, 23, 39, 126 lowering of as pre-emptive strike against inflation 134 as measure of financial fragility 43–4 in Minskyan business cycle model 115–16, 117, 120–22, 126 relationship to marginal efficiency of capital 115–16 inventory/capital ratio, steady-state solution for in debt-deflation model 152 investment
debt-financed, deflationary risks associated with 133–77 Keynes’s analysis of 77 link to profits 80–85
Minsky’s graphical representation of investment decision of firm 79–81 in model of economy with asymmetric information 186–8 and production, model of 27–8, 185–98 relationship to savings 78–9, 84 relationship to unrealized expectations 69–75 involuntary unemployment 38
IS–LM framework 23, 77

Isenberg, D.L. 86

John Maynard Keynes (H.P. Minsky) 2, 69–70, 79, 80, 81, 85, 118, 127
Journal of Economic Issues (1980), Minsky article in 79, 83

Kahn, R.F. 77
Kaldor, N. 72, 77
Kalecki, M.
formulation of investment decisions 114–18, 127 profit equation and principle of increasing risk 1, 12, 22, 24, 74, 77, 79, 83, 94, 114–18
Kenyon, P. 77
Keynes, J.M.
on capital market imperfections 51, 198 impact on thought of Minsky 1–28, 33–51, 69–75, 76–82, 114–18 Keynes effect 154, 174–5 on savings and investment 94
see also General Theory (J.M. Keynes)
King, J. 83
Kirman, A.P. 56
Koop, G. 59

labour market, constraints on 62 productivity, in Minskyan business cycle model 119–22
see also employment; wages Lange, O. 21, 22

Lavoie, M. 84–5
lender’s risk 79, 80, 100–102, 115, 117–18 lender-of-last-resort function, central bank 1–2, 8, 18–19, 21, 25, 48–9, 50–51, 126–7 leverage ratios effects of balance-sheet conditions on 111 impact of effective demand on 83 impact on liability structure 14
in Minsky’s two-price model 9–11 relationship to business cycle 117–18, 121 relationship to economic growth 26, 77–8, 80–81, 84, 85, 86–7, 101, 102 Levy, D. 111
liability structure 6–8, 11, 14–21 ‘limitation upon the attainable’ theorem 24 linear models limitations of linear paradigm 54–5 piecewise linear models 23, 56–61, 64 lip diagram, Minsky 100–102, 114 liquidity preference 6, 11, 21, 25, 39–40, 116 loan financing
deflationary risks associated with 133–7 law of motion for interest on in debt-deflation model 149 see also debt-financing loanable funds approach, Minsky 78–9, 83, 85 long-term bond prices in debt-deflation model 148 long-term government debt, dynamics of in debt-deflation model 148–9, 153 long-term interest rate 5–6, 116–17, 120–22 Lucas, R.E. Jr 51, 52

macrodynamics of debt inflation 133–77 macroeconomics see micro–macro perspective on Minsky’s financial instability hypothesis
Index

Malliaris, A.G. 55, 65
‘manna’ money 76
marginal efficiency of capital 25, 39–40, 115–16, 117 Markov chain, piecewise-linear models 59
Marx, influence on H.P. Minsky 22
Matthews, R.C.O. 65
McKenna, E.J. 94
Metzler effects, inventory adjustment mechanism 155, 159–60 micro–macro perspective on Minsky’s financial instability hypothesis assessment 110–11
dynamic simulations 104–10 macroeconomic framework with cash flow 103–4 Minsky’s macroeconomic theory of investment and business cycle theory 102–3 Minsky’s microeconomic theory of investment 100–102
missing macroeconomic link in 26, 76–93
overview of issues 26–7, 99
Minsky, H.P. see financial instability hypothesis, Minsky Mishkin, F. 177
monetary dimension of constraints 53 ‘Monetary Keynesianism’ 76 monetary policy see central banks; debt deflation, model of; interest rates; stabilization policies Money and the Real World (P. Davidson, 1972) 80, 85 money supply
increase in leading to inflation 49
in Minskyan business cycle model 1–28, 120–22, 125, 126 relationship to employment equilibrium 39 see also central banks; financial markets multiplier–accelerator model 41, 56–7, 71
Mundell effect, price inflation and deflation 154, 161, 174
Murphy, C. 178
NAIRU (non-accelerating inflation rate of unemployment) and constrained growth 25, 62–3, 64 deviation from in debt-deflation model 144–5 Nasica, E. 114, 125
near-mornings, creation of 7, 11 Nebraska Journal of Economics (Minsky article in) 83 neoclassical equilibrium approach to business cycles 3–4, 36, 41, 42, 47–8, 51, 54 neoclassical flex-price model 23 neoclassical ’village-fair’ image of capitalism 76 ‘new growth theory’ 58
non-linear accelerator model, Hicks–Goodwin 46 non-linearities in business cycle 46, 53, 55–6 see also asymmetric information, financial instability resulting from; piecewise linear model Orléan, A. 79
orthodox macrodynamic approach 46–7, 48 see also macrodynamic approach overheating (OH) variable, TAR models 59–60 overshooting mechanism, economic growth 135 Papadimitriou, D.B. 83
parametric instability 36, 39–40, 46
Pesaran, M.H. 57, 59–60, 65
Phillips curve
in debt-deflation model 144–5, 147–8 in relation to NAIRU in ceilings and floor model 25, 62–3, 64, 65
piecewise linear models assessment of 64
mathematics of 58–60
multiplier–accelerator model 41, 56–7, 71
piecewise-linear Phillips curve 60–61
use of by H.P. Minsky 23 policy implications, structural instability 18–20, 46–9, 50–51, 74–5, 125, 127 restrictive monetary policy, impact of 6–8 Pollin, R. 77, 111
Ponzi finance units 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 23, 43–4, 86, 185 ‘positions’ financing of 4–6, 18
nature of 3
taxonomy of 13–15
potential output, ceiling as an expression of 63–4 Potter, S.M. 57, 59–60, 65
Powell, A. 178
precautionary demand 16
prices
in debt-deflation model 134, 144, 145–6, 147–8, 152–3, 159–65 Minsky’s two-price model 8–11
see also inflation production
accounts, in growth cycle model 137, 138 and investment, model of in economy with asymmetric information 27–8, 185–98 profit and distribution, according to Minsky’s financial instability hypothesis 11–13 impact of debt accumulation on 155–9 impact of debt deflation on 159–65 impact on investment 80–85 Kaleckian equation for 1, 12, 22, 24, 74, 77, 79, 83, 94, 114–18 link to demand and cash flows 26–7, 99–111 maximization problem 79, 103–10
in Minskyan business cycle model 119–22
rates of return in debt-deflation model 140–41 role in constraining floor to economic growth 54 ‘Stickers and Snatchers’ 70, 73
see also expectations public debt see budget deficit public expenditure, structure of 48, 49 quantity adjustment mechanisms on the market for goods 146–7 Rajan, S. 111
ratchet effect, TAR models 59
Ravn, M.O. 59
raw materials markets, impact on Phillips curve 61 real and financial sectors of economy, interrelationship between 25–6, 69–75, 136–9 real business cycle (RBC) theories 54, 55, 71 refinancing, of debts 5, 14, 19, 84 reflation, need for 133–4 regime-switching technique, piecewise-linear models 59, 60 regimes, inflationary 60–61, 62–3 regulated Brownian motion approach, piecewise-linear models 59 regulation, importance of in thwarting financial crises 49 representative agents and business fluctuations 190 retained earnings, as source of finance 81–2, 136 ‘revolving fund’ of bank finance 72 risk
in General Theory (J.M. Keynes) 115
in Minsky’s two-price model 8–11 principle of increasing risk, Kalecki 79, 83, 114–15, 118, 120 risk-averse borrowers 101
see also borrower’s risk; lender’s risk Robertson, D.H. 74–5
Robinson, J. 77
‘robust’ finance 1, 14, 18, 85
Rose effect 154, 160, 161, 174, 177
Samuelson, P.A. 41
savings, relationship to investment 78–9, 84, 92
Schumpeter, J.A. 22, 53, 79
Scott, A. 55, 56
Seccareccia, M. 86
Semmler, W. 120, 121, 128
Shapiro, N. 111
sharpness asymmetry 55
‘shifting equilibrium’ 38 shocks impact on economic cycle 39, 41–7, 192–5, 196–7 stabilization policies 18–20, 46–9, 50–51, 74–5, 125, 127 short-run unemployment equilibrium 39 short-term government debt, dynamics of in debt-deflation model 148–9, 153 short-term interest rates 5–6, 7, 16–17, 116, 117 Simons, H. 21–2
Sinai, A. 85
Slutsky 196
'Snatchers' 70, 73
Solow, R.M. 63, 65
Solva, M. 59
'sound finance' 14
speculative dynamics, in Minsky's two-price model 10, 11 speculative financing units 14–15, 16, 17, 19, 23, 43, 45, 49, 72, 86, 126, 185 stabilization policies 18–20, 46–9, 50–51, 125, 127
Stabilizing an Unstable Economy (H.P. Minsky) 2–3 stagflation 2
stationary state, existence of 129–30 steady states and dynamic movements in debt-deflation model 151–4, 155–65 and fluctuations, in model of economy with asymmetric information 188–97 steepness asymmetry 55
Stein, J.L. 55
'Stickers' 70, 73
Stiglitz, J.E. 186, 196, 199
stochastic framework, piecewise-linear models 58–9 structural instability assessment 49–51 business cycles and instability, Minsky on 40–46 instability, concepts of 34–6 Keynes, Minsky on 36–40 overview of Minsky's message 25, 33–4 policy implications 46–9 see also financial instability hypothesis, Minsky structural stability 42, 46–7, 49 supply decisions, of firms in model of economy with asymmetric information 186–8 price, in Minsky's two-price model 9–11 sustainable growth, ceiling as an expression of 63–4 systemic fragility 15–18 see also financial instability hypothesis TAR (threshold autoregression) models 59–60 tax income of government in debt-deflation model 144, 149 taxonomy of 'positions' 13–15 Taylor interest rate policy rule 145, 151 technical change, relationship to economic depression 63–4 Thames Papers in Political Economy (Minsky article in) 83 threshold autoregression (TAR) models 59–60 thwarting mechanisms 20, 48, 49, 50–51, 53, 125–7 time-dependent debt-equity ratio, dynamic simulation 105–10 Tinbergen 51 Tobin, J. 23, 64, 65
Tong, H. 59
'tranquil growth' 1, 7, 13, 14, 15, 54
Treatise on Money (J.M. Keynes) 21, 38, 79 trigger points, multiplier-accelerator model 57 'turning points' in business cycle 18–20, 37 unemployment asymmetric patterns in 56 barriers within piecewise-linear Phillips curve 60–61 concepts of 63–4 equilibrating and disequilibrating tendencies 38–40, 46–7 NAIRU 25, 62–3, 64 see also full employment upward-sloping supply price for investment 80–81
Index

Variato, A.M. 101, 111
velocity of money 7, 120, 125, 126
Vercelli, A. 52
‘village fair’ paradigm 3, 76 wages
  asymmetric patterns in 56
dynamics of in debt-deflation model 134, 141, 144–5, 147–8, 153–4, 155–65 stickiness 105
‘Wall Street’ (‘City’) paradigm 3–4, 76
Walrasian general economic equilibrium 24
Wolfson, M.H. 86
Wood, A. 77
World Bank 134
Wray, L.R. 83
Zannoni, D.C. 94