

Index

---

Titles of publications are in italics.

- absolutist notions of poverty 4
- ageing population 123–5
- anti-discrimination laws, disabled people 104–5
- Austria
  - benefits see social transfers
  - lone parent population 81–6
    - employment support 87–91, 93
    - poverty 94–100
  - non-monetary deprivation 38–46
  - poverty, risk groups 33–6, 147
  - retired population 28, 124–9
    - pensions 129–33
    - poverty 134–40, 144
    - social relations 141–3
  - risk group distribution 28, 30, 31
  - sick and disabled population 102, 107–10
    - benefits 103
    - poverty 111–18, 120–21
  - social transfers 47–9, 147
    - disabled people 103
    - lone parents 87–8
  - young adult population 28, 54
    - education 55–8
    - employment 59–62
    - household situations 63–7
    - poverty 69–77
- benefits see social transfers
- childcare provision 90–93
- Concerted Strategy for Modernising Social Protection, A* 151–2
- deprivation, non-monetary see
  - material deprivation 36–46
- disability see sick and disabled people
- durable goods, deprivation indicator 37
- Eardley T. 46
- early retirement 126–9
- ECHP (European Community Household Panel) 8, 14, 17–22, 152–4
- education
  - sick and disabled people 109–10, 114–15, 117
  - young adults 55–8
- employment
  - lone parents 86–93
  - sick and disabled people 115, 105
  - young adults 58–62
- Europe
  - poverty policy 150–52
  - poverty research 12–15
- European Community Household Panel (ECHP) 8, 14, 17–22, 152–4
- Eurostat 14–15
- families
  - care for sick and disabled people 105 and young adults 65–7
- family structure, effect on poverty 148
- financial assistance see social transfers
- Foster, J.E. 27
- France, social exclusion 6
- Gallie, D. 14
- gender and poverty
  - retired people 131, 137, 144–5
  - sick and disabled people 112–13
- Germany
  - benefits see social transfers
  - lone parent population 81–6
    - employment support 87–91, 93
    - poverty 94–100
  - non-monetary deprivation 38–46
  - poverty, risk groups 33–6, 147

- Germany (cont.)
 retired population 28, 124–9
 pensions 130–33
 poverty 134–40
 social relations 141–3
 risk group distribution 28, 30, 31
 sick and disabled population 102, 107–10
 benefits 103, 106
 poverty 111–18, 120–21
 social transfers 47–9, 147
 disabled people 103
 lone parents 87–8
 young adult population 28, 54
 education 55–8
 employment 59–62
 household situations 63–7
 poverty 69–77
- Goodin, R.E. 15
- government policy, effect on poverty 148–9
- Greece
 benefits see social transfers
 lone parent population 81–6
 employment support 87–91, 93
 poverty 94–100
 non-monetary deprivation 38–46
 poverty, risk groups 33–6, 147
 retired population 28, 124–9
 pensions 129–33
 poverty 134–40
 social relations 141–3
 risk group distribution 28, 30, 31
 sick and disabled population 102, 107–10
 benefits 103
 poverty 111–18, 120–21
 social transfers 47–9, 147
 disabled people 103
 lone parents 87–8
 young adult population 28, 54
 education 55–8
 employment 59–62
 household situations 63–7
 poverty 69–77
- household composition 82–6
 lone parents 83–6
 sick and disabled people 107–9
 young adults 63–8
- household income 25–7
- household necessities, deprivation indicator 37–8
- housing conditions 36–7
- income household 25–7
 retired people 129–33
- income poverty 4, 14–15
 lone parents 32–3, 34–5
 retired people 134–7
 sick and disabled people 111
 young adults 68–72
- Levitas, R. 6
- Lewis, J. 100
- London School of Economics, Centre for the Analysis of Social Exclusion 16
- lone parents risk group 10–11, 31, 79–100
 income poverty 32–3, 34–5
 non-monetary deprivation 40–45, 94–8
- Luxembourg Income study (LIS) 13–14
- marital status
 sick and disabled people 107–9, 112–13, 116
 young adults 67
- material deprivation 36–46
 lone parents 94–100
 retired people 138–40
 sick and disabled people 119–20
 young adults 72–4
- Millar, J. 90
- Modernising and Improving Social Protection in the European Union* 151–2
- modified OECD scales 26
- mothers, working 88–90
- multi-dimensional disadvantage 7–9
 European research 16–17, 20–22
 risk groups 42–6
- non-monetary deprivation see material deprivation
- Norway
 benefits see social transfers

- lone parent population 81–5
  - employment support 87–91, 93
  - poverty 94–100
- poverty, risk groups 147
- retired population 124–9
  - pensions 129–31
  - poverty 138–9
  - social relations 141–3
- sick and disabled population 102, 107, 109
  - benefits 103, 104
  - poverty 111–12
- social transfers 147
  - disabled people 103, 104
  - lone parents 87–8
- young adult population 54
  - education 55–8
  - employment 59–62
  - household situations 63–7
  - poverty 69
- Panel Comparability Project 14
- parental leave 90–93
- Paugam, S. 6, 16
- pensions 129–33, 134–5, 144–5, 152
- Pillinger, J. 6
- Portugal
  - benefits see social transfers
  - lone parent population 81–6
    - employment support 87–90, 92–3
    - poverty 94–100
  - non-monetary deprivation 38–46
  - poverty, risk groups 33–6, 147
  - retired population 29, 124–9
    - pensions 129–33
    - poverty 134–40
    - social relations 141–3
  - risk group distribution 29, 30, 31
  - sick and disabled population 102, 107–10
    - benefits 103
    - poverty 111–18, 120–21
  - social transfers 47–9, 147
    - disabled people 103
    - lone parents 87–8
  - young adult population 29, 54
    - education 55–8
    - employment 59–62
    - household situations 63–7
    - poverty 69–77
- poverty 3–4, 7–9
  - European research 12–15
  - lone parents 93–100
  - retired people 134–7
  - risk group analysis 25–7, 28–36
  - sick and disabled people 110–19
    - and social transfers 46–9
    - young adults 68–77
- Poverty Audit, UK 16
- rehabilitation, sick and disabled people 105
- relativist definitions of poverty 3–4
- residual benefits system 131–2
- retired people risk group 10, 11, 123–45
  - income distribution 27–31
  - non-monetary deprivation 39–40, 41
- Ringen, S. 4
- risk groups 9–12
  - income distribution 27–31
  - non-monetary deprivation 39–46
  - social exclusion 9–12
  - social transfers and poverty alleviation 47–9
    - see also* lone parents; retired people; sick and disabled people; young adults
- Room, G. 5, 146
- Rowntree, S. 3
- Sen, A.K. 4, 27
- sick and disabled people risk group 10, 11, 101–22
  - non-monetary deprivation 40, 41
  - poverty analysis 29–31
- single parenthood see lone parents
- Skevik, A. 84
- Smeeding, T.M. 26
- social exclusion 5–17
  - European policy 150–52
- Social Exclusion, LSE Centre for the Analysis of 16
- social policy and risk groups 11–12
- social relations
  - effect of poverty 148, 149
  - lone parents 98–100
  - retired people 141–4
  - sick and disabled people 119, 121
  - young adults 74–5

- social rights, women 152
- social transfers 46–9, 147, 151
  - disability 103–4, 106, 115, 118–19
  - lone parents 87–8
  - pensions 129–33, 134–5, 144–5, 152
  - young adults 71–2
- state pensions 129–33

- Townsend, P. 3–4

- UK
  - benefits see social transfers
  - lone parent population 81–6
    - employment support 87–90, 92–3
    - poverty 94–100
  - non-monetary deprivation 38–46
  - poverty, risk groups 33–6, 147
  - retired population 29, 124–9
    - pensions 130–33
    - poverty 134–40
    - social relations 141–3
  - risk group distribution 29, 30–31
  - sick and disabled population 102, 107–10
    - benefits 103, 104
    - poverty 111–18, 120–21
  - social exclusion policy 16
  - social transfers 47–9, 147
    - disabled people 103, 104
    - lone parents 87–8
  - young adult population 29, 54
    - education 55–8
    - employment 59–62
    - household situations 63–7
    - poverty 69–77

- unemployment
  - and social exclusion, France 6
  - young adults 60–62

- vocational training 59

- Williams, F. 6
- women
  - retirement income 131, 144–5
  - social rights 152
- working mothers 88–90

- young adults risk group 10, 53–78
  - income distribution 27–31
  - non-monetary deprivation 40, 41