Tables

2.1 Economic and social indicators for Latin America: c. 1900 14
2.2 GDP per head as percentage of US GDP per head: 1900–95 15
2.3 Structure of central government expenditure 1991–95 (%) 20
2.4 Structure of central government revenue 1991–95 (%) 21
2.5 Agricultural labor productivity: average annual growth rate (%) 23
3.1 Rank order of economies in Europe and Latin America according to GDP per capita 47
3.2 Long-term economic growth in Latin America and in four regions of Europe 49
3.3 Levels of GDP per capita and the severity of shocks in four regions of Europe and in Latin America 1870–1989 53
A3.1 GDP per capita in Europe and Latin America 1870–1989 66
A3.2 Long-term economic growth in Europe and Latin America 1870–1989 67
4.1a Macroeconomic indicators for East Central Europe (index) 76
4.1b Macroeconomic indicators for East Central Europe 77
5.1 Voting and long-standing urbanism in the Old Kingdom 107
5.2 Voting by population category 108
5.3 Romanian Gross Domestic Product 110
A6.1 Economic and social indicators of 10 post-communist countries 143
A6.2 Indicators of economic freedom, state capacity, and foreign direct investment in transition economies 144
A6.3 Indicators of social inequality in Eastern Europe and Latin America 144
A6.4 Labor protest in transition economies 145
A6.5 Relative income position of Hungary measured in GNP per capita at PPP in 1987 and 1997 145
7.1 Post-communist countries ranked by GDP per capita (PPP) in 1997 153
7.2 Lowest level of GDP in comparison with 1989 154
7.3 Average yearly rate of growth in 1990–97 156
7.4 Average yearly inflation, 1990–97 157
7.5 Rise of inequalities in post-communist countries 158
7.6 Increase of poverty gap in post-communist countries 159
7.7 Religions in the transition economies 178