

Tables

4.1	Distribution of consumption and long-term income elasticities in the USA	51
5.1	Main characteristics of three double-Kondratiev waves	72
5.2	Rates of catch-up on the per-capita GDP level of the leading country (USA), 1913–89	74
9.1	Average absolute change in stocks per GDP in 1981–85, 1986–90 and 1991–95	121
13.1	Neoclassical, macroeconomic and macro-organizational roles of government	166
14.1	Recent changes in the level of market imperfections in industrialized economies	192
15.1	Recent changes in the level of government failures in industrialized economies	205
18.1	Public sector expenditures of GNP in certain countries, 1880–1990	240
20.1	Real GDP growth, 1982–97	258
20.2	Rates of return on capital in the business sector	259
20.3	GDP/capita and its annual growth (1991 PPP)	260
20.4	Percentage change in export market share (total goods, national currency)	262
20.5	Specialization in high-technology exports (RCA*100)	264
20.6	GDP/capita relative to the leading country, 1981–97 (USA = 100)	266
21.1	Overall competitiveness indices and rankings of industrialized countries	274
22.1	Summary of regression results: 1980s and 1990s	279
22.2	Summary of regression results: 1980s	281
22.3	Summary of regression results: 1990s	284
22.4	Competitiveness performance and lagged economic growth	285