

Index

- absolute advantage see competitive advantage
- absorptive capacity, technology diffusion 110
- activism, environmental 82
- agents of production 13
- aggregate demand 93, 169, 219
- allocative efficiency 114
 - government failures 195
 - impact of IBAs 144–7
 - index of competitiveness 270
 - institutional framework 158
- anti-competitive behaviour 165, 178
- appropriability regime
 - innovatory incentives 157
 - outward direct investment 140
 - successful innovation 106–7, 108
- Arthur, Brian 76
- asset bubbles 54–5
- Australia
 - economic performance 261–2, 263, 268
 - income inequality 92
- Austria, economic performance 266, 268

- basic resources 100
- behavioural strategies, cognitive dissonance 61–4
- Belgium, economic performance 268
- beliefs, socio-economic integration 65
- benchmarking
 - competitiveness 32
 - organizational arrangements 250
 - see also* competitiveness indices
- best practice organizational paradigm 70, 223, 238–9
- blind men and the elephant metaphor 9
- Bohm, D. and Peat, D. 63–4
- bounded rationality
 - government failures 201
 - high coordination costs 221
 - information asymmetries 186
 - technical efficiency 115
- bureaucratic rent seeking 199
- business
 - globalization of 80–1, 95
 - see also* international business activities

- Canada
 - economic performance 264, 268
 - income inequality 92
- capital
 - investments, technology diffusion 109
 - rates of return on 259t
 - see also* equity and venture capital
- carrier branches 43, 179
- catching up
 - GDP growth 260
 - paradigm shifts 74–5
- chance events, dominance of inferior technology 76
- Chang, H.J. and Rowthorn, B. 234–5
- classical growth theory 13
- classical philosophies, interest in 65–6
- club goods 183, 185
- Club of Rome 81
- clubs, small groups of states 243
- co-specialized tasks 86
- Coase, Ronald 207–8, 216, 217
- codified information products 184
- codified knowledge 106, 110
- cognitive consonance 59
- cognitive dissonance 59–64
- collective behaviour, socio-institutional adjustment 67
- Common, John R. 153
- common property goods 183, 227
- communication
 - long distance 133–4
 - socio-institutional adjustment 68–9

- comparative advantage
 - of governments 196
 - living standards 4
 - traditional trade theories 5, 6
- competition policies
 - economic specialization 223
 - supranational 222–3
 - technological diffusion 158
- competitive advantage 3
 - standards of living 6–7
 - sustainability of 28–32
- Competitive Advantage of Nations, The* 19
- competitive markets 228
- competitive pressures 117
- Competitiveness: Dangerous Obsession* 4
- competitiveness
 - defining systemic 9–11
 - export market shares 264–7
 - government role 161–70
 - importance of 3–8
 - institutional framework 153–60
 - international business activities 135–52
 - international trade 15–19
 - literature review 12–21
 - organizational efficiency 113–24
 - product market characteristics 126–34
 - productive resources 100–3
 - systemic framework 26–8
 - technological innovation and diffusion 104–12
- competitiveness indices
 - benchmarking
 - early 1980s 297–304t
 - late 1980s 307–14t
 - early 1990s 317–24t
 - mid 1990s 327–35t
 - data sources and construction 272–4
 - nature of 269–72
- conflict, socio-institutional adjustment 64
- conflict management 235
- consumer learning 191
- consumer preferences, differentiation of 185, 224
- consumption demand 50
 - new ICTs 85
 - United States 51t, 94
- continuous positive experiences 58–9
- cooperation
 - coordination efficiency 120
 - inter-organizational, Japan 232–3
 - public and private sector 230–1
 - see also* supranational jurisdictions
- cooperative organizations 212–13
 - market failures 216–17
- cooperative provision, public goods 224, 227
- cooperative ventures see cross-border cooperative ventures
- coordination costs 180–2
 - organizational arrangements 220–2
 - public sector organizations 197
- coordination efficiency 119–23
 - government failures 196
 - impact of IBAs 149–50
 - index of competitiveness 270–1
 - institutional framework 158, 159, 160
- core technologies, new ICT paradigm 84–5
- corporate hierarchies
 - internationalization 241–2
 - market failures 220
 - structural adjustment 234
- costs of transition, technology diffusion 111
- crashes, financial 55
- created resources 100, 101–2, 102–3
- cross-border cooperative ventures
 - allocative efficiency 147
 - resource base 137–8
 - technical efficiency 149
 - technological innovation and diffusion 141, 143–4
 - see also* inter-firm networks
- cross-border mergers and acquisitions 222
- cyclical crises 46
- data sources, competitiveness indices 272–4
- decentralization, public sector activities 243–4
- deductive approach, competitiveness and growth 27
- demand characteristics, competitiveness 27

- demand factors, government failures 198–200
- demand patterns 50–3, 85, 87, 131–2
- demand problems
 - ICT paradigm 91–4
 - macroeconomic policies 169–70
 - policy implications 94–6
- demand-pull theory 36, 50, 106
- Deming, W.E. 120
- Denmark, economic performance 262, 268
- deregulation 67, 179–80
- derived demand 50–51, 84
- diamond framework 19–21
- differentiated preferences, public goods 185, 224
- digitized information products 184
- disembodied diffusion 108
- division of labor 44, 89, 102, 181, 187
- domestic demand patterns 131–2
- domestic markets 27
- domestic rivalries 130
- double-Kondratiev waves 70, 72–3t, 290
- Dunning, John 4–5, 101, 135, 148
- dynamic efficiency 125–6
 - government failures 196
 - index of competitiveness 271
- economic activities, geographical
 - concentration 87–90
- economic agents
 - market failures 186, 187
 - rent-seeking activities 154
- economic crises, neo-Marxian analysis 46
- economic development
 - late 1980s 259
 - technological innovation 38–40
- economic growth
 - government role 161–70
 - institutional framework 153–60
 - international business activities 135–52
 - organizational efficiency 113–24
 - product market characteristics 126–34
 - productive resources 100–103
 - Schumpeterian view 35
 - systemic framework 26–8
- technological innovation and diffusion 104–12
- theories 12–15
- Economic Institutions of Capitalism* 153
- economic organization
 - theoretical framework 207–14
 - trends in 238–44
- economic performance, industrialized countries 257–68
- economic specialization
 - comparative advantage 4
 - consumer learning 191
 - coordination costs, public sector 197
 - information and communications technology 84–5
 - large markets 89
 - market failures 178, 181, 188–9, 223
 - old technoeconomic paradigms 48–9
 - provision of public goods 217, 224
 - rent seeking 199
- economic systems
 - framework for analysis 26–8
 - indigenous innovation activity 105
 - nature of 23–6
 - overall competitiveness
 - early 1980s 304t
 - late 1980s 314t
 - early 1990s 324t
 - mid 1990s 335t
 - sustainability of systemic advantage 28–32
 - technology diffusion 109
- economic theories, traditional 5–6
- economists
 - lack of interest in competitiveness 3–4
 - perspective, competitiveness 9
- editors, mental paradigms 68
- efficiency see comparative advantage; market efficiency; organizational efficiency
- effort-utility functions 115–16
- electronic commerce 95, 176
- emergent new industries 89–90
- employment constraints, government failures 200
- endemic market failures 165, 180–6
- endogenous growth theories 13, 14, 15
- enforcement, institutional rules 154

- entrepreneurial activity, economic development 38–40
- environmental externalities, supranational jurisdictions 209
- environmental problems
 - crisis of twentieth century paradigm 81–2
 - increasing severity of 188
- equipment-embodied diffusion 108, 109
- equity goals 205
- equity and venture capital, index of competitiveness 269–70
- ethnic conflicts 188
- evolutionary change
 - paradigm of 49, 65
 - socio-economic systems 47, 58–9
- exchange rate policies 219
- exports
 - competitiveness and economic growth 264–7
 - technological innovation and diffusion 142, 144
- extensive Kondratiev waves 70, 71, 75–6
- externalities 188–9
 - industry clusters 89
 - organizational solutions 231–2
 - see also* environmental externalities; negative externalities; policy externalities; positive externalities
- factor-proportions theory 16–17
- Festinger, Leon 59
- financial speculation 54–5
- Finland, economic performance 260, 263, 265, 268
- firms
 - competitive performance 10, 27, 28
 - see also* inter-firm cooperation; inter-firm networks; inter-firm rivalry
- fiscal federalism 209, 219–20, 224
- fiscal policies
 - demand problems 94
 - organizational arrangements 218–19
- for-profit firms 208
- foreign direct investment
 - allocative efficiency 144–6
 - resource base 136–7
 - technical efficiency 147–9
 - technological innovation and diffusion 139–41
 - user-producer interaction 152
- forging ahead phenomena 75–6
- formal institutions 25, 154, 155, 157
- France, economic performance 265, 268
- free-riding 226–7, 229
- Freeman, C. 169
- functional purpose, organizations 24
- GDP growth 257–63
- GDP/capita growth 260t, 263–8
- general equilibrium 45
- general public, unlearning of old paradigms 68
- General Theory* 164, 168
- generalized resources 101, 102
- geographical concentration 87–90
 - information exchange 133
 - performance of local governments 196–7
 - technology diffusion 109, 112
- Germany, economic performance 265, 266, 268
- global competition
 - rent seeking 198
 - unemployment 200
- Global Competitiveness Report, The* 21
- globalization
 - of business 80–81, 95
 - economic activities
 - government failures 201, 203
 - government intervention 242
 - institutional market failures 217
 - national adjustment policies 236
 - structural market failures 223
 - economic uncertainty 187
 - macroeconomic policies 169
 - of markets 52, 180
 - private sector employment 200
 - product market disequilibrium 52
 - value-adding activities, market failures 176
- government failures 195–206
 - determinants and dynamics of 197–206
 - different types 195–7
- government intervention
 - conflict management 235
 - economic specialization 178

- economic uncertainties 231
- scale and scope economies 233
- structural market failures 222
- government role 161–70
 - competitiveness index 272
 - early 1980s 303t
 - late 1980s 313t
 - early 1990s 323t
 - mid 1990s 334t
 - creating cooperative networks 213
 - historical evolution of 161–3
 - long term growth in 239–41
 - perspectives on 163–7
 - problems with 167–70
- governments
 - decentralization of 243–4
 - facilitating structural adjustment 234–5
 - macro-economic policies 219
 - new macro-organizational role 245–50
 - principle characteristics 213–14
 - provision of public goods 185
- Gray, Peter 16–17
- Great Depression, towards a new 90–91
- group strategy, socio-institutional adjustment 69

- Hadenius, A. and Ugglå, F. 212
- Hayek, Friedrich 32, 114, 228, 234
- Hechter 153, 217
- Heckscher-Ohlin theory 16–17
- hegemonic leaders 184–5
- Hegner, F. 123
- Heilbroner, R. 44, 47–8, 52
- hierarchical organization 207
- hierarchy of needs 50, 59, 117
- high time discount of policy makers 203
- high-technology exports 266–7
- high-trust organizational arrangements 221
- Hirschman, Albert 115, 119
- historical path-dependency, economic systems 29
- historical shifts, private sector
 - organizational paradigms 238–9
- home demand patterns 131–2
- homogenous production functions 16–17

- human capital, index of competitiveness 270
- humanitarian externality problem 188
- Hume, David 13

- IBAs see international business activities
- ICT paradigm 37–8, 83–7
- ideological commitments, government failures 201–2
- imperfect imitability 29
- import competition
 - allocative efficiency 146
 - technology diffusion 144
- impure public goods 183, 223
- incentive traps, income transfers 95
- incentives, work effort 116–17
- income levels, demand 92
- income policies, organizational arrangements 219
- income redistribution 94–5, 162
- increasing returns, socio-economic adjustment 70–77
- incremental innovation 36
- induced branches 43
- inducement mechanisms, successful innovation 107, 157–8
- industrial divides 43, 44
- industrial property rights 177
- industrialized countries
 - changes in levels of government failures 205t
 - economic performance 257–68
 - low inflation 92–3
 - market failures 192t
 - overall competitiveness indices and rankings 274t
 - structural adjustment 92
- industry clusters 87–90
 - information exchange 133
 - performance of local governments 196–7
 - technology diffusion 109, 112
- industry standards 158
- inertial costs, work effort 118–19
- inferior socio-economic paradigms 76
- inflation, declining 92–3
- informal institutions 25, 153–4, 155
- information
 - new technoeconomic paradigm 85
 - public good properties 186

- information asymmetry and uncertainty
 - 186–8
 - organizational solutions 228–31
- information and communications
 - technology
 - codified knowledge 111
 - demand problems 91–4
 - government failures 201–2
 - index of competitiveness 270
 - learning economies 191
 - market failures 176, 177, 178–9, 181, 187–8
 - private institutions 217–18
 - rationing 185
 - see also* ICT paradigm
- information and knowledge exchange
 - coordination efficiency 122
 - industry clusters 88, 89
 - institutional framework 159–60
 - transaction costs 181
 - users and producers 132–3
- information products, codified 184
- information revolution 85
- infrastructures, new ICT paradigm 84
- innovations
 - effects of pressure 117
 - Schumpeterian definition 35
 - user-producer theory 132–4
 - see also* technological innovation
- input costs, crisis of twentieth century paradigm 81
- institutional arrangements, best practice 70
- institutional change 155
- institutional disequilibrium 155–6
- institutional framework 153–60
 - competitiveness 156–60
 - competitiveness index 272
 - early 1980s 302t
 - late 1980s 312t
 - early 1990s 322t
 - mid 1990s 332–3t
 - nature and evolution of 153–6
 - organizational arrangements 30
- institutional market failures 176–7
- organizational solutions 216–18
- institutional norms 25
- institutional paradigms, Kondratiev waves 70
- institutional renewal 235
- institutions
 - private and public sector cooperation 231
 - see also* product market institutions
- intangible assets 177
- intangible investments 84
- integration, of markets 52, 64–5
- integrative mechanisms, socio-economic systems 25
- intensive Kondratiev waves 74–5
- inter-firm cooperation 109, 223, 232–3
- inter-firm networks
 - Coase framework 208
 - increasing importance of 241
 - organizational advantage 210–11
 - weakness of 211–12
 - see also* cross-border cooperative ventures
- inter-firm rivalry 130
- interactions
 - economic systems 24, 31
 - socio-institutional adjustment 68–9
 - technoeconomic and socio-institutional systems 40–47
- interdependencies, economic systems 24, 31, 32
- interdisciplinary nature, of competitiveness 9
- international business activities (IBAs) 135–52
 - competitiveness index 271–2
 - early 1980s 301t
 - late 1980s 311t
 - early 1990s 321t
 - mid 1990s 331t
 - diamond framework 20, 21
 - globalization 80
 - old economic paradigms 53
 - organizational efficiency 144–50
 - product market characteristics 150–52
 - productive resources 136–8
 - technology 138–44
- international competitiveness
 - demand and supply characteristics 27
 - firm- and industry-level 12
 - non-price factors 169
- international public goods 184–5
- international trade
 - allocative efficiency 146–7
 - barriers, reduction in 95

- resource base 138
- structural market failures 223
- technical efficiency 149
- technological innovation and diffusion 141–2, 144
- theories 15–19
- Internet 95
- interrelatedness, technology diffusion 111
- interstitial coordination 119
- investment
 - costs, private supply of public goods 227
 - institutional framework 158
 - research and development 188
 - structural market failures 223
 - see also* capital investments; foreign direct investment; intangible investments
- invisible hand 13, 168, 246
- inward direct investment
 - resource base 136–7
 - technical efficiency 147–8
 - technological innovation and diffusion 139–41
- Ireland, economic performance 260, 261–2, 266, 268
- Italy
 - economic performance 265, 268
 - inter-firm cooperation 232–3
- Japan
 - cooperative ventures 144
 - economic performance 260, 262, 265, 266, 267, 268
 - inter-organizational cooperation 232
 - labor market 111
- Johnson, Mark 69
- journalists, mental paradigms 68
- Keynes, John Maynard 104, 164, 168
- Keynesian revolution 168
- Kindleberger, C. 184–5
- Knight, Frank 187, 229–30
- knowledge
 - macro-organizational policy making 249
 - new techno-economic paradigm 85
 - public good properties 186
 - see also* codified knowledge; information and knowledge exchange; scientific knowledge; tacit knowledge
- knowledge spillovers 108
- Kogut, Bruce 30
- Kondratiev waves 41, 70–76, 290
- Krugman, Paul 4, 6, 89–90
- Kuhn, Thomas 43, 289
- labor markets, technology diffusion 111
- large markets, industry clusters 89
- Laszlo, E. 68
- law of one price 81
- leadership
 - coordination efficiency 122
 - long-term competitive 30
- learning economies 190–91
 - organizational solutions 232–3
- legal framework, adjustment 67
- legal monopolies 233
- legitimation, values and institutional norms 25
- Leibenstein, Harvey 115–19
- Leontiev, Vassily 17
- limited liability corporations 231
- Lindbeck, Assar 242
- linkages, management of 120
- living standards
 - comparative advantage 4
 - competitive advantage 6–7
 - productivity 6
- local government, emphasis on 243
- local public goods 183, 184, 185
- locational advantages 29, 138
- long wave theories 70
- long-distance communication 133–4
- long-term competitive leadership 30
- low-trust societies, cooperation and systemic coordination 123
- Lundvall, Bengt-Ake 132–4
- lurch and learn 66
- macrodecoupling 199–200
- macroeconomic market failures 177–8
 - organizational solutions 218–20
- macroeconomic policies 21, 219
- macroeconomic theories 3
- macroeconomic view, government role
- market imperfections 166t
- problems with 167–70

- macro-organizational role, governments 164–5, 166–7t, 245–50
- Malaska, P. 51
- market efficiency
 - assumption of 13–14
 - government role 162–3
- market failures
 - endogenous growth theories 14
 - excessive publicity of 200
 - extent and pervasiveness 175–93
 - government role 166–7t
 - macro-organizational approach 165
 - new trade theories 18
 - organizational arrangements 209–10, 214, 216–36
 - shifts in best practice organizational arrangements 238–9
- market intermediaries 230
- market mechanism
 - imperfect information 228–9
 - information asymmetry 186
 - neoclassical theory 119, 163
 - new government analysis of 247
 - specialization of production processes 181
- market potential
 - institutional framework 157
 - successful innovation 105–6
- market pressures, lack of 204
- market size, technology diffusion 109
- market structure
 - technological innovation 106
 - technology diffusion 109–10
- markets
 - competitive 228–9
 - economic specialization 48
 - integration of 52, 64–5, 180
- Marshall, Alfred 14, 87–8, 188–9
- Marx, Karl 13, 40–41, 59, 70, 167
- Maslow, A.H. 50, 59, 117
- mass media
 - excessive publicity of market failures 200
 - mental paradigms 68
- maturing industries 90
- maturing technologies
 - crisis in twentieth century paradigm 82
 - technoeconomic paradigms 48–9
- medieval England, institutional framework 216
- mental inertia and rigidities
 - government failures 201–2
 - provision of public goods 185
 - socio-institutional adjustment 61, 62–3, 67–8
- mental paradigms
 - common social bonds 211
 - socio-institutional adjustment 59–70
- mental renewal, structural adjustment 289
- mental sets
 - evolutionary phases 59
 - specialization 187
- metropolitan governments 209
- microeconomic policies 3, 21
- microprocessor technology 85
- Mill, John Stuart 13
- MNEs see multinational enterprises
- mobile resources, production processes 6
- mode of regulation 45
- monetary policies
 - demand problems 94
 - supranational cooperation 219
- motive branches 43
- Multilateral Agreement on Trade and Investments (MAI) 223
- multinational enterprises (MNEs)
 - coordination efficiency 149–50
 - cross-border cooperative ventures 138
 - foreign direct investment
 - resource base 136–7
 - technical efficiency 147–9
 - technological innovation and diffusion 138–41
 - locational decisions, technology diffusion 143
 - mobile resources 6
 - product market structure 150–52
 - productive resources 102
- national champions 233
- natural resources 100, 102
- needs, hierarchy of 50, 59, 117
- negative externalities
 - Coase organizational analysis 207–8
 - resource-related costs 48

- Nelson, R.R. 9
- neo-Marxist school 45–7
- neo-Schumpeterian school 41–3, 46–7, 70
- neo-Smithian school 43–5
- neo-technology theories 17
- neoclassical theory 3
- adaptation 114
- economic growth 13–14, 14, 15, 104
- government role 163–4, 246
- market imperfections 166t
- problems with 167–70
- market mechanism 119
- perfect markets 175
- technical efficiency 114
- Netherlands, economic performance 262
- network-based organizations, alleviation of coordination problems 221
- New Institutional Economics 249–50
- new socio-economic paradigm, empirical study
- challenge of the new paradigm 289–90
- data sources and construction of indices 272–4
- economic performance of industrialized countries 257–68
- future research 292–3
- methodology 269–72
- policy implications 291–2
- summary of statistical results 276–88
- new trade theories 18
- New Zealand
- economic performance 261–2, 263
- income inequality 92
- nightwatchman state 246
- non-economic objectives, government failures 204–6
- non-price factors, competitiveness 169
- non-profit organizations 210
- Coase framework 208
- financing 225–6
- increasing importance of 241
- information asymmetries 230
- internationalization 242
- organizational advantage 211
- provision of public goods 224
- weakness of 211–12
- non-tariff barriers 95
- normal science 43
- North, Douglas 25, 153–6
- observable technologies 110–11
- occupational categories, new ICT paradigm 86
- Okun, Arthur 162
- older generation, new mental paradigms 66
- OLI paradigm 135–6
- Olson, Mancur 209
- openness, socio-economic systems 25–6
- opinion leaders 68
- organizational arrangements
- best practice 70, 238–9
- competitiveness index 270–71
- early 1980s 299t
- late 1980s 309t
- early 1990s 319t
- mid 1990s 329t
- crisis of twentieth century paradigm 82
- government intervention 249
- institutional framework 30
- mainstream economics 8
- market failures 216–36
- national differences 30
- new ICT paradigm 86
- old technoeconomic paradigms 48–9
- theoretical framework 207–14
- organizational capabilities, successful innovation 107
- organizational efficiency 113–24
- allocative efficiency 114
- coordination efficiency 119–23
- dynamic efficiency 125–6
- economic performance 12
- institutional framework 158
- international business activities 144–50
- Porter's analysis 20
- technical (X-) efficiency 114–19
- organizational inefficiencies
- decline in productivity 82
- endogenous growth theories 14
- organizational resources, successful innovation 107
- organizational slack 115
- organizations
- economic systems 24
- economic theories 14–15

- Oriental philosophies, interest in 65–6
 outward direct investment
 resource base 137
 technical efficiency 148
 technological innovation and diffusion 139–41
 oversupply crisis 95
 paradigms
 evolutionary change 49, 65
 see also ICT paradigm;
 socio-economic paradigms;
 socio-institutional paradigms;
 technoeconomic paradigms
 Parsons, Talcott 24–5, 49, 64–5, 153 path-dependency, economic systems 29 pecuniary incentives 117 per capita GDP, catch-up, leading countries 74t
 perfect markets 175 physical conditions, industry clusters 88 policy entrepreneurs 68 policy externalities, government failures 202–3 policy guidelines, diamond framework 20–21
 policy implications
 demand problems 94–6
 increasing returns, socio-economic adjustment 77 new technoeconomic frontier 291–2
 new trade theories 18
 policy instruments, conflict management 235 political influence, institutional framework 160 politicians, high rate of time discount 203
 Porter, Michael 19–21, 27, 88, 89, 90, 100–103, 120, 129–32, 156–7, 289
 Portugal, economic performance 260, 264, 266, 268 positive externalities, industry clusters 90 pressures innovation 117 work effort 117–19
 see also market pressures
 price competitiveness 169 primary wave, technological innovation 39, 40 private sector employment 200
 institutions 216–18
 organizational paradigms 238–9
 provision of information 229
 public goods 224, 226–7
 and public sector cooperation 230–1
 regulatory framework 247
 privatization, state-owned enterprises 241
 product market characteristics 126–34 competitiveness implications 126–9 competitiveness index 271
 early 1980s 300t
 late 1980s 310t
 early 1990s 320t
 mid 1990s 330t
 crisis of twentieth century paradigm 82–3 firm competitiveness 27–8
 influencing forces 129–32
 international business activities 150–52
 new ICT paradigm 86–7
 old technoeconomic paradigms 50–53
 user-producer interaction 132–4 product market institutions 129–30 product technologies, industry clusters 90 production demand 50–51 production functions homogenous 16–17
 neo-technology theories 17 see also universal production function production processes
 mobile resources 6
 productive resources 101–3 specialization, market failures 181, 187, 188–9 production technologies industry clusters 90
 maturing of 48
 uncertain 204
 productive resources 100–103
 competitiveness index 269–70
 early 1980s 297t
 late 1980s 307t
 early 1990s 317t
 mid 1990s 327t

- crisis of twentieth century paradigm 81–2
- firm competitiveness 28
- growth theories 13
- institutional framework 158–9
- institutional incentives 156
- international business activities 136–8
- neoclassical and macroeconomic perspectives 168
- old technoeconomic paradigms 47–8
- productivity
 - increasing demand through improving 94
 - standards of living 6
- property rights
 - appropriability 107
 - intangible assets 177
- public funding, non-profit organizations 226
- public goods
 - endemic market failures 182–6
 - organizational arrangements 223–7
 - private and public provision 224, 226–7
 - technological innovation 108–9
- public sector
 - activities 242–4
 - employment 200–201
 - expenditures of GNP, certain countries 240t
 - inefficiency 204
 - organizations
 - coordination costs 197
 - information asymmetries 230
 - and private sector cooperation 230–31
 - pure public goods 182–3
 - putting-out system 238, 239
- quasi-public goods 183, 185
- radical innovations 36–7
- rationing
 - ICTs 185
 - social desirability 183f
- real competitiveness 6–7
- recession 260
- redistributive policies 162
- reduction strategies, cognitive dissonance 61–4
- regime of accumulation 45
- regulation approach 45
- regulations, technological innovation 157–8
- regulatory framework
 - adjustment of 67
 - indirect incentive effects 247
 - technological diffusion 158
- Reich, Robert 94
- rent-seeking 154, 159, 160, 198–9
- reregulation 67
- research
 - competitiveness 9
 - economic growth 12–15
- research and development, investment 188
- residential commodity associations (RCAs) 225
- resource-based theory 30–31
- resource-related costs
 - crisis of twentieth century paradigm 81–2
 - technoeconomic paradigms 47–8
- resources
 - new ICT paradigm 84
 - see also* mobile resources; organizational resources; productive resources
- restrictive practices, MNEs 151
- revolutionary change, socio-economic systems 47
- Ricardian trade theory 4, 15–16
- Rifkin, J. 81
- rigid ideologies, government failures 201–2
- risks, private supply of public goods 227
- Rose-Ackerman, Susan 224
- ruling classes, social structure 47
- Russia, institutional disequilibrium 155–6
- Sabel, Charles 101
- Salter, W.E.G. 106
- scale economies 189–90
 - ICTs 179
 - organizational solutions 232–3
- Schmookler, Jacob 105, 106
- Schumpeter, Joseph 35, 36, 38–40, 104, 168

- scientific knowledge 270
- scientists, paradigm shifts 67
- scope economies 190
 - fiscal federalism 209
 - ICTs 179
 - organizational solutions 232–3
- second industrial divide 43
- secondary wave, technological
 - innovation 39, 40, 54, 84
- selection environment, technological
 - innovation 46–7
- selective factor disadvantages,
 - innovation 117
- skills
 - institutional preferences 156–7
 - new ICT paradigm 86, 94
- Smith, Adam 13, 44, 48, 89, 105, 146, 163, 168, 175
- social change, Marx's systemic view 40–47
- social learning 66
- social pioneers 62, 68
- social policies, early 161–2
- social security systems, ideal 95
- social tension, socio-institutional
 - adjustment 64
- socio-economic adjustment, increasing
 - returns 70–77
- socio-economic development, long
 - waves 36–55
- socio-economic paradigms
 - dominance of inferior 76
 - see also* new socio-economic paradigm
- socio-economic systems
 - openness 25–6
 - periods of change 47
 - problem of order 24–5
- socio-institutional adjustment 58–70
- socio-institutional paradigms, timing and
 - duration 70–77
- socio-institutional systems, and
 - technoeconomic systems 40–47
- solidaristic coordination 123
- Solow, Robert 93
- Soros, George 65
- sources of advantage, sustainable
 - competitiveness 29
- Spain, economic performance 260, 266, 268
- special interest groups
 - market failures 178, 179–80
 - rent seeking 198–9
- specialization
 - market potential 105
 - occupational 86
 - production processes 181, 187, 188–9
 - value-adding systems 102
 - see also* economic specialization
- specialized knowledge 228
- specialized resources 101–2, 102–3
- specialized supplier industries 88
- speculative booms 54–5
- speed, technology diffusion 142–3
- Spender, J.C. 186
- standardized technologies 178–9
- standards of living see living standards
- state-owned enterprises, privatization 241
- stock market boom, ICT 93–4
- Strange, Susan 169
- strategic frontier framework 126–9
- strategy scholars, perspective,
 - competitiveness 9
- structural adjustment
 - government role 197
 - industrialized countries 92
 - mental renewal problems 289
 - rigidities 191
 - organizational solutions 233–6
 - short-term policy making 203
- structural change 7–8
 - demand for public goods 186
 - economic uncertainty 188
 - government failures 199
 - macro-economic problems 177–8
 - organizational solutions 223
 - transaction and coordination costs 182
- structural crises 46
- structural inertia 133
- structural market failures 165, 178–80
 - organizational solutions 222–3
- structural unemployment, demand 92
- suboptimization, government failures 202
- subsidiary trades, industry clusters 88
- substitutable competitiveness factors 29
- supply and demand, decline in inflation
 - rates 93

- supply factors, government failures 200–206
- supply-side characteristics, competitiveness 27
- supply-side framework, competitive advantage 7
- supranational competition policies 222–3
- supranational jurisdictions
 - environmental externalities 209
 - geographical expansion of economic activities 218
 - reduction of market failures 243
- supranational organizations, benchmarking 249
- surplus above subsistence 119
- sustainable competitive advantage 28–32
- Sweden, economic performance 260, 262, 264, 265, 268
- Switzerland, economic performance 260, 262, 264, 265, 266, 268
- systemic competitiveness see competitiveness
- systemic goals, coordination efficiency 122
- systemic knowledge 228
- systemic level, organizations 24
- systemic properties
 - social change 40–47
 - technologies 111
- systemic vision 234–5

- tacit knowledge 106, 110
- Tainter, Joseph 49
- teachers, mental paradigms 68
- technical efficiency 114–19
 - coordination efficiency 124
 - government failures 195
 - impact of IBAs 147–9
 - index of competitiveness 270
 - industry clusters 89
 - institutional framework 158, 159
- technoeconomic paradigm shifts 8, 37–8
 - government policy outcomes 204
 - institutional market failures 177
 - neo-Schumpeterian school 42–3
 - neo-Smithian school 44
 - socio-economic adjustment 189
 - socio-institutional framework 59–70
- technoeconomic paradigms
 - crisis of established 47–53
 - crisis of the twentieth century 80–83
 - financial crises 53–5
 - timing and duration 70–77
 - see also* ICT paradigm
- technoeconomic systems, and socio-institutional systems 40–47
- technological determinism 40, 46
- technological gap theory 17
- technological innovation 7–8
 - demand-pull theory 50
 - economic development 38–40
 - economics of 105–7
 - industry clusters 90
 - institutional frameworks 157–8
 - international business activities 139, 144
 - public good characteristics 108–9
 - selection environment 46–7
 - socio-institutional change 40
 - typology of 36–8
- technological knowledge, technology diffusion 110
- technological opportunities, successful innovation 106
- technological spillovers
 - industry clusters 88–9
 - international 188
- technology
 - competitiveness index 270
 - early 1980s 298t
 - late 1980s 308t
 - early 1990s 318t
 - mid 1990s 328t
 - international business activities 138–44
 - systems, changes in 37
 - see also* core technologies; information and communications technology; maturing technologies; observable technologies; production technologies
- technology diffusion
 - economics of 107–12
 - institutional framework 158
 - international business activities 142–4

- technology-push argument 106 third industrial revolution 80–96
 crisis of twentieth century paradigm 80–83
 demand problems 91–4
 policy implications 94–6
 industry clusters 87–90
 new great depression 90–91
 new ICT paradigm 83–7
 third sector organizations advantage of 210, 211 provision of public goods 225
 regulatory framework 247
 weakness of 212
 Thurow, Lester 230–31
 total factor productivity (TFP) 14 trade barriers, international 95 trade theories, traditional 4–5 traditional economic theories 5–6 traditional trade theories 4–5
 international trade 15–19
 transaction costs 180–82
 organizational arrangements 220–22
 trust
 coordination efficiency 120
 institutional frameworks 221–2
 Turkey, economic performance 266 twentieth century paradigm, crisis of 80–83 uncertain production technologies 204 United Kingdom

 economic performance 263–4, 268
 income inequality 92
 United States
 consumption demand 50, 51t, 94 continuing economic lead 76
 deregulation 179–80
 economic performance 261, 263, 264, 266, 267 estimated transaction and coordination costs 180f income inequality 92
 labor market 111
 market potential and innovatory output 105
 residential commodity associations (RCAs) 225 universal production function 13 urban agglomeration, index of competitiveness 271 urbanization externalities, industry clusters 89
 Uruguay Round 223
 user-producer interaction 132–4, 152

 value-adding systems
 industry clusters 89
 network arrangements 210–11 specialization of 102, 189 values increasing socio-economic integration 65
 information asymmetries 187
 socio-economic systems 25
 Veblen, Thorstein 119
 Viner, Jacob 161

Wealth of Nations, The 105, 175 welfare services, public provision of 226 welfare state 162
 Whitley, Richard 123
 Williamson, Oliver 153
 Wolf, Charles 199, 200
 work effort incentives 116–17
 inertial costs 118–19
 institutional framework 159
 pressures 117–18
 utility 115–16 world economy
 government failures 206
 increasing demand problems 91–4
 World and Global Competitiveness Reports 273
 World Wide Web 176

 X efficiency see technical efficiency

 Yankolevitch, Daniel 66 younger generation, new mental paradigms 62, 66