

Contents

List of figures and tables	vii
List of contributors	viii
Preface	ix
Introduction: The economics of the constitutional moment in Europe Jean-Michel Josselin and Alain Marciano	1
PART ONE COMPETITION AND HARMONIZATION
1 Regulatory competition or harmonization of laws? Guidelines for the European regulator Roger Van den Bergh	27
2 How to predict the differences in uniformity between different areas of a future European private law? An evolutionary approach Jan M. Smits	50
3 Legal culture as (natural?) monopoly Anthony Ogus	71
4 Judicial competition, legal innovation and European integration: an economic analysis Sophie Harnay and Isabelle Vigouroux	87
PART TWO HARMONIZATION IN PRACTICE
5 European Union and public utility: a virtuous grouping? Lessons from the reorganization of Corsican external transport Thierry Garcia and Xavier Peraldi	103
6 The economics of harmonizing law enforcement Nuno Garoupa	119
7 Product liability and product safety in a federal system: economic reflections on the proper role of Europe Michael G. Faure	131
8 Vocational qualifications and the European labour market: the challenges and the prospects Jean-Baptiste Calendini and Christophe Storai	178

9	Decentralized interregional cooperation in Europe Sylvie Graziani and Michel Rombaldi	193
PART THREE COMPETITIVE DEMOCRACY AND THE FUTURE OF EUROPE
10	A Europe of variety, not harmonization Bruno S. Frey	209
11	Enlargement of the European Union and the Approximation of Law: lessons from an economic theory of optimal legal areas Dieter Schmidtchen, Alexander Neunzig and Hans-Jörg Schmidt-Trenz	224
12	Legal and economic principles for the common administrative law in Europe Jürgen G. Backhaus	240
	Index	253