

Index

---

- asset specificity 121
  - bank-based versus equity-based financial system 175, 182, 183; see direct financing, indirect financing
  - banking and financial industry 23–25, 96, 175, 182–183, 201–203; see corporate governance, financial crisis, loan regulation
    - deterioration of bank's monitoring function 23–24, 155–156, 202
    - prudential regulations 73, 195
    - real name financial transaction system 97–98, 217
  - big deals 84, 85, 159
  - Bishop, Isabella Bird 112–115
  - board of directors system 27, 70, 175–176, 203–204
  - cash ratio as a proxy for transaction costs 99–101, 116
  - Central Bank Law 23; see Commercial Bank Law
  - Chaebol*; see corporate governance, cross-debt guarantee, cross-shareholding, diversification, economic concentration, diversification, Fair Trade Commission, market concentration
  - anti-chaebol sentiment 4, 105–107, 109
  - chaebol* policy and reform 70–71
  - conglomeration 65–66
  - definition 1–2
  - problem defined 66
  - divestiture 193
  - formation and growth 27, 103–104
  - ownership and management structure 3, 27, 46–47, 66, 70, 104, 194–197
  - planning and coordination office 73–74
  - Chosun dynasty 94
  - Clague, Christopher 99
  - Coase, Ronald 176–179
  - Commercial Bank Law 23, 77; see Central Bank Law
  - competition 36–37, 131
    - as a discovery process 165–167
    - implications to economic performance 141
    - effect on diversification 131
    - promotion policy 199–200, 205–210
  - competitiveness
    - dynamic measure of 34
    - comparison with other countries 36–37
  - Confucianism 187
  - contestable market theory 41
  - corporate disciplinary system 173–177
    - external or market disciplinary system 174, 198–204
    - internal disciplinary mechanism 175
  - corporate governance 74, 171, 197; see chaebol ownership and management, corporate disciplinary system
  - definition 172
  - institutional factors influencing 180–183
  - theoretical framework 173–177
- cross-debt guarantee 48–50, 49, 73, 82–83, 138
  - cross-shareholding 46–47, 47, 82
  - curb market 97, 116
  - cycle of industrial policy 17–18, 160
  - Darwin, Charles 6
  - Dawkins, Richard 7
  - debt-equity ratio 28, 70, 73, 87; see uniform regulation
  - deregulation; see competition promotion policy
  - direct financing 27, 175; see bank-based

- versus equity-based financial system, banking and financial industry, indirect financing
- diversification 3, 12, 44–46, 45, 104–105, 125–126, 129–130, 135–138, 136, 137, 146–150
  - determinants of 105, 106, 122, 129–133; see property rights
  - regulation on 132; see big deals
  - unrelated businesses 65, 104–105, 127, 145, 148, 152
  - versus specialization 204–205
- DJ reform; see post-crisis reform
- economic concentration 31–33, 33, 35–38
- economies of scale and scope 108, 125–126, 132–134, 138, 152; see multi-product firm
- Eggertsson, Thrainn 8
- employment concentration 33, 36
- entry and exit barriers 20–23
- exogenous and endogenous variables 10, 184
- export-oriented development strategy 20; see Heavy and Chemical Industry (HCI) drive
- Fair Trade Act 5, 15, 28, 35, 48, 67–69, 77–83, 199, 207, 225; see loan limit system
- Fair Trade Commission 2, 28, 32, 38, 60, 207
- financial crisis 162–163; see post-crisis reform
- Financial Supervisory Commission 50
- financial system development as
  - institutional constraint 130, 141, 201–203
- first-stage policies and problems 67–69, 71–72, 193
- Five Year Economic Development Plan 18
- Fordist production system 126, 187
- foreign loans 19–20, 22
- formal institutions 91, 98, 108; see informal institutions, institutions, property rights
- Fukuyama, Francis 92, 115; see social capital, trust
- General Trading Companies 20
  - globalization 119, 167, 190–191
    - definition 123–124
- Goldsmith ratio 146
- Gort, Michael 126
- government-failure versus market-failure 164–165
- ‘government-led’ discrimination 166, 192, 206; see ‘market-led’ discrimination
- Hayek, Friedrich von 7
- Heavy and Chemical Industrial (HCI) drive 18, 20, 64, 97, 152, 155–8
- Herfindahl index 39, 42, 56–57, 146
- Heungbu* and Nolbu 15
- holding company 15, 74, 88; see corporate governance
- indirect financing 27, 175; see bank-based versus equity-based financial system, banking and financial industry, direct financing
- Industrial Bank of Korea 23
- industrial policy and restructuring 17–19, 23
- industrial structure 72, 119, 167
- informal institutions including culture, custom, and tradition 92, 181, 182, 210; see formal institutions, institutions, property rights
- institutions; see Eggertsson, government-failure versus market-failure, new-institutionalism, North, property rights, transaction costs
  - analytical framework 8–9
  - as determinants to economic growth 140–141, 151
- interest rates liberalization 67
- International Monetary Fund (IMF) 21, 216
- Jung, Yak-Yong 95, 110–112
- Keefer, Philip 99
- Knack, Stephen 99
- Kookmin Bank 23
- Korea Development Bank 24
- Krugman, Paul 156
- kwanchi kumyung* (government-

- controlled financial system) 30, 202
- kyun-yuk* (Equal Military Burden) Act 95
- legal system as institutional constraint 98, 130, 141
- Lemelin, Andre 131–132
- loan regulation 77–78
loan management system 67–69, 82
- M-type conglomerate 138
- 'market-led' discrimination 169, 184, 192, 195; see government-led discrimination
- market-led versus government-led development 165–167
- market concentration 29, 32, 38–44, 42, 58–59, 60
- Marshall, Alfred 6
- mergers and acquisitions 21, 22, 23, 84, 201, 216
- mobility statistics 34, 52, 53, 54
- Modigliani-Miller (M-M) theorem 87
- monetary policy 21
- monopoly
sources of 65–66
types 208–209
- moral hazard 162–163
- Mueller, Dennis 123
- multi-product firm theory 125–126
- National Investment Fund 23
- new-institutional economics; see Coase, corporate governance, institutions, new-institutionalism, North, property rights, transaction costs
analytical framework 9–10
difference from traditional neo-classical economics 8, 90
- neo-institutionalism 115; see new-institutionalism, institutions
- new-institutionalism 89, 121, 115; see Eggertsson, neo-institutionalism, North, institutions, property rights
- North, Douglass 91–92, 100, 129–130, 139, 177–179
- OECD countries 35–36, 100, 129
- OECD guidelines on corporate governance 172, 177, 198, 216
- Olson, Mancur 99
- path dependence 108, 183
- Penrose, Edith 120
- policy loans 24
- property rights 91–92, 93, 94, 101–102, 108, 210–211; see institutions, North, transaction costs infringement 94–99, 161
relation to diversification 120–123 size of firm 91–92, 93, 101–102
- post-crisis reform 70–71, 83, 196–197; see second-stage policies and problems
- protection of domestic firms 21
- public choice school 211
- regulation on economic concentration 5, 28, 29, 78–81
- resource allocation 41–43; see market concentration
- revisionist 164
- role of government 167–169, 214
- Ross, David 36
- 'rule of law' versus 'rule of person' 181, 182
- Samsung Motor Company 158–162
- sales concentration 32, 33, 36
- second-stage policies and problems 69, 73–75
- Scherer, Fred 36
- Scott, Kenneth 172
- shareholder rights 130, 141, 144, 145, 188, 216
- small and medium sized firms 101–102, 105, 107–108, 206; see chaebol
divestiture, Fair Trade Act, monopoly, transaction costs
- Smith, Adam 6–7
- social capital 92; see Fukuyama, trust
- sociobiology 7
- specialization 22, 45, 82, 204–205; see big deals, globalization, multi-product firm theory
- stabilization policy 22
- Stigler, George 125–126
- structuralist 41–42
- sunk cost or historical cost 194
- 'survival of the fittest' as an

- evolutionary mechanism 6–7
- theory of the firm 176; see Coase, transaction costs
  - Northian versus Coasian views 177–179
- Tirole, Jean 171
- ‘too-big-to-fail’ legacy 27, 138, 162
- total factor productivity (TFP) 157–158
- transaction costs 8, 122; see Coase,
  - diversification, property rights, international comparison and empirical evidence 99–101
- internalizable versus
  - non-internalizable 178
- relation to theory of firm 176
- trust 92, 101, 182
- two-stage decision making process
  - 62–64; see first-stage policies and problems, second-stage policies and problems
- uniform regulation 34, 73–74, 97, 208
- vertical integration 121
- Williamson, Oliver 121–123
- workout program 70, 83–84, 86, 200
- World Bank 164
- Willig, Robert 125–126
- yang-ban* class 113, 115