

Index

- ASEAN4 (Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Thailand), exports commodity composition of 64–5 growth of 61–2
trade patterns, changes in 62–4
- balance of payments 31
- bankruptcy
post-1997 crisis 138
“rescues” from 129–30
- banks 48–9, 50, 95, 96, 109
Japan 110–11
loan allocation, basis of 119–20, 122–4, 125, 128, 135
non-performing loans 136 ownership of 124, 128–9, 132, 135 recent strategies 130 reform/restructuring 131–2 role of 128
see also informal financial markets
- Baumol, W.J. 5
- behavioral compliance mechanisms 112–13
- bond markets 130–31
- bonds, “no questions asked” 141–2
- bribery 119, 128, 136, 141–2, 143
- bureaucrats, role in export promotion 26–7
- capital gains tax 96–7, 98–9
- capital–labor ratio 57, 58–61
- capital stock, increases 57
- catch-up process
nature of 1–2
preconditions for 6 “vehicles” for 14–15, 36
- chaebols*, see conglomerates, large
- Chen, M. 81
- China
catch-up process 1
exports 62, 63, 65
trade patterns, changes in 62–3, 64
comparative advantage 12–13 changes in 67–9, 70
and external economies 8–9, 19
- conglomerates, large advantages of 82–3
bankruptcy, “rescues” from 129–30 comparisons, Korea and Taiwan 51–2, 72 credit 75–6, 95–6, 119–20, 125–6, 127
development of 29
dominance, Korea 73, 75–6, 79, 93–4, 115 flexibility of 33
government policies 51–2, 74–6, 79, 85–6
Japan 82, 83, 87, 111
organization of 78, 82–3, 84
and trust 77
versus small firms 85–8, 115–16
weaknesses of 83–4
- corruption 119, 128, 136, 140–43
- credit
availability 94–6, 120, 121, 124–5
Japan 110–11
large conglomerates 75–6, 95–6, 119–20, 125–6, 127
long-term 122
credit rationing 50, 95, 96, 108–9 basis of 119–20, 122–4, 125, 128, 135 consequences of 127
and economic power 127
and growth 118
- crisis (1997) 136–8
- curb markets, see informal financial markets
- debt–equity ratio 135–6, 137
- democracy exploitation in 140
and growth 139

- “predatory pseudo-democracy” 140–42
- distributive equity 51, 91
 - government policy 100, 102
 - and growth 113–14
 - statistics 92–3
 - and taxation system 99
- dividend income, taxation of 98
- East Asian economies, see ASEAN4 (Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Thailand), exports; NIC4 (Hong Kong, Korea, Singapore, Taiwan)
- economic power, distribution of 51–2, 93–4, 100, 127
- economy (Korea)
 - development mechanisms 22–7
 - growth of 21–2
 - state of, 1950s 39–40
 - statistics 145–7
- education 34, 39, 40–41
- employment
 - increases in total 57–8
 - statistics 145–9
- entrepreneurship
 - allocation of, and incentives 5–6
 - barriers to 79, 126–7
 - and export promotion 20, 25–6, 32–3, 123
 - and growth 86
 - and import substitution 20–21
 - and loan allocation 123–4, 126–7
 - and modes of production 114, 115–16
 - nature of 127
 - supply of 32
- equity, see distributive equity
- exchange rates 43–4, 52
 - Japan 110
- export-oriented growth 12–14, 36–7, 134
 - advantages of 19–21, 23, 114
 - and comparative advantage, changes in 67–9
 - entrepreneurs, role of 20, 25–6, 32–3, 123
 - and exchange rates (Japan) 110
 - and import liberalization 30–32, 45
 - incentives 43–6, 55–6
 - “inevitability” of 41–3
 - and infant industries 11
 - initial conditions 38–41, 72–3
 - Korea versus Taiwan 51–4, 72–3
 - market intervention, government 15, 27–30, 46–8, 106
 - modes of production 114–16
 - policy development 24–7
 - see also* Taiwan, export-oriented growth
- exports
 - commodity composition 58, 59, 60–61, 63, 64–5, 69, 84–5
 - growth of, NICs 61–2, 116
 - small firms 72, 73
 - statistics (Korea/Taiwan) 24, 145–9
 - subsidies 19, 31, 46, 122
- external economies, infant industries 8–9, 18–19
- factor intensities, production/trade 57, 58–61
- FDI (foreign direct investment) 32–3, 65, 111–12, 114–15
- Fields, K.J. 74
- financial assets, long-term 130–31
- financial crisis (1997) 136–8
- financial deepening 120, 121
- financial systems 48–51, 52, 94–6, 108–9
 - and growth 118
 - Japan 110–11
 - reforms 124, 131–2, 135, 138
 - see also* credit; credit rationing
- financial transactions, use of borrowed/false names 98, 141
- firm size
 - Korea and Taiwan, reasons for differences 80
 - large versus small 85–8, 115–16
 - and trust 76–7, 80, 86
- firms, large, see conglomerates, large
- firms, small
 - advantages of 81–2
 - credit, sources of 125
 - export share of 72, 73
 - Taiwan 51–2, 72, 79–82, 84, 115–16
 - and trust 76–7, 86
 - versus large conglomerates 85–8, 115–16
 - weaknesses of 82

- foreign borrowing 136–7
 Fukuyama, F. 85–6
- Galenson, W. 23, 40 gift tax 98–9
 Gini coefficient 92, 93
 Gold, T.B. 47 government
 behavioral compliance mechanisms 112–13
 catch-up process, role in 2, 14, 23
 and distributive equity 100, 102 expenditure 99–100, 102 and industrial diversification 28–9, 33 infant industries, promotion of 19 influences on 35–6
 Korean “model”, shortcomings 140–43 and labor disputes 100, 101
 and large conglomerates 51–2, 74–6, 79, 85–6 market intervention 15, 27–30, 46–8, 106–9 systems of 139–40
 “youthfulness”, 1960s and 1970s 29–30
- Grossman, G.M. 86
 growth
 and attitudes/characteristics of Korean people 33–5
 and distributive equity 113–14
 entrepreneurship, role of 86 and financial system 118
 NIC4 (Hong Kong, Korea, Singapore, Taiwan) 104–5, 116 potential 3 reasons for 69, 70
 and rewards to labor 29
 statistics (Korea/Taiwan) 22, 145–9 strategies advocated, 1950s 43 and systems of government 139 and trade 12, 13–14, 21
 see also export-oriented growth; Taiwan, export-oriented growth
- Hamilton, A. 6–7, 9, 10–11, 12, 14–15
 Heckscher–Ohlin theorem 19, 69, 70
 Ho, S.P.S. 45
- Hong Kong
 business environment, role of government 107–8
 history of 105
 see also NIC4 (Hong Kong, Korea, Singapore, Taiwan)
- Hou, C. 46–7
 Hsiao, H.H.M. 74, 75, 80
- IMF (International Monetary Fund) 137–8
- import-substitution costs 19–20
 and entrepreneurship 20–21
 and import liberalization 32
 Taiwan 47
 and trade deficits 20
- imports competitive replacements 58, 59, 60 for export production 58, 60, 61 liberalization 30–32, 45 non-competitive 59–60 restrictions 30
 statistics (Korea, 1960–2000) 24
- income distribution, see distributive equity
- industrial development, sequence of 110
- industrial diversification, government encouragement 28–9, 33
- infant industries
 definition 18
 and economic organization 11–12
 and exports 11
 external economies 8–9, 18–19
 Hamilton and List, arguments of 6–12, 14–15 and resource utilization 7 and tariff protection/subsidies 9–11, 19
- inflation 95, 121
- informal financial markets 50, 76, 109, 121, 125
- inheritance tax 98–9
- institutions importance of 5–6 structure, problems with 15–16
- insurance companies 126, 128
- interest income, taxation of 49, 98, 141
- interest rates 49, 50, 94–6, 121

- and growth 118
- and investment efficiency 120, 121
- Japan 110
- low, consequences of 127–8
- Taiwan 49, 50, 113–14
- invasion, fear of 41
- investment
 - efficiency, and interest rates 120, 121
 - funds, utilization of 52–3
 - returns, and mobilization of savings 4–5
 - see also* FDI (foreign direct investment)
- Japan
 - behavioral compliance mechanisms 113
 - catch-up strategies 14
 - colonial rule of Korea 21, 34, 39
 - colonial rule of Taiwan 40
 - economic “slowdown”, 1990s 113
 - exchange rate 110
 - exports, and changes in comparative advantage 67
 - FDI (foreign direct investment) 65, 111–12
 - financial system 110–11
 - growth 104, 110
 - large conglomerates 82, 83, 87, 111
 - production system 85
 - small firms, lack of encouragement 87–8
 - trade patterns 63–4, 111–12
- Kemp, M.C. 6
- Kim, K.S. 69
- Komiya, R. 85, 110
- Korean people, attitudes/characteristics 33–5; see also trust
- Korean War, effects of 41
- Kuo, S. 45
- Kwack, T.-W. 99
- labor disputes 54, 100–101
- labor-intensive manufacturing, and comparative advantage 12–13, 19, 67–8
- labor, rewards to 29, 57–8, 91, 101; see also distributive equity
- land
 - ownership 92–3
 - taxes 96–7
- legal infrastructure 77–8
- Levy, B. 72–3, 79–80, 85
- List, F. 6, 7–10, 11–12, 14–15
- Little, I.M.D. 43, 46
- loans, see credit; credit rationing
- manufacturing, share in GDP (statistics) 145–9
- market transactions
 - costs 78–80
 - and legal infrastructure 77–8
- Mason, E.S. 39, 45–6, 112
- materialism 33–4
- motor vehicle taxes 97–8
- Myint, H. 14
- NIC4 (Hong Kong, Korea, Singapore, Taiwan)
 - commodity composition, exports 64, 65
 - comparative advantage, changes in 68
 - economic growth 104–5, 116
 - exports, growth/promotion of 61–2, 116
 - FDI (foreign direct investment) 114–15
 - history of 105–6
 - market intervention, government 106–9
 - modes of production 114–16
 - trade patterns, changes in 62–4
- non-bank financial intermediaries (NBFIs) 50, 124, 126, 129, 135, 136
- North, D.C. 5
- Nugent, J.B. 73
- Olson, M. 134, 139–40
- Park Chung-Hee, President 15
 - as “benevolent despot” 134–5
 - and growth, “carrot and stick” method 35
 - leadership skills 26–7
- political system 3, 15–16, 140–44
- power, see economic power
- profits, and interest rates 49
- property taxes 96–8

- protection, infant industries 9–11
public goods 140
- R&D 53, 66
reconstruction programs 41–2
- Samsung, tax avoidance 99 savings and interest rates 49, 94–5, 120, 121 mobilization of 4–5, 48–9, 94–6, 109
 statistics 145–9
Scitovsky, T. 22, 49, 113–14
Shinohara, M. 110, 111
Singapore
 exports, encouragement of 114
 history of 105–6
 see also NIC4 (Hong Kong, Korea, Singapore, Taiwan)
“slush” funds 140
Smith, A. 12
social capability 3–4 social mobility 34
social overhead capital (SOC), investment in 53
social security expenditure 99–100, 101–2
Soviet Union, catch-up process 1–2 stock markets 50–51, 96, 130 stocks and shares, ownership 93–4
subsidies
 exports 19, 31, 46, 122
 interest 95
- Taiwan
 FDI (foreign direct investment) 112
 financial system 48–51, 52, 109, 124–5
 history of 40, 105
 interest rates 49, 50, 113–14
 labor disputes, lack of 54
 R&D, encouragement of 53
 statistics 148–9
 trust 76, 85
 see also NIC4 (Hong Kong, Korea, Singapore, Taiwan)
- Taiwan, export-oriented growth
 commodity composition, exports 84, 85 incentives, institutionalizing 43–5 “inevitability” of 41–3
 initial conditions 38, 40–41, 79–80
 investment funds, utilization of 52–3 Korea, comparisons with 51–4, 72–3
 and large conglomerates 72, 74–5
 market intervention, government 46–7, 48
 and reconstruction programs 41–2 and small firms 51–2, 72, 79–82, 84, 115–16
- tariffs
 and export promotion 55
 protection, infant industries 9–11
- tax capital gains 96–7, 98–9 distributive issues 51, 99
 and export promotion 44, 48, 55
 inheritance/gift 98–9 interest income 49, 98, 141 motor vehicles 97–8 non-wage income 98
 property 96–8
 total revenue 99
 types, relative proportions 97
- technology-intensive production,
 development of 65–7
- time preference 4
- trade benefits/gains 22–3, 68–9 deficits 20 dynamic nature of 68
 and growth 12, 13–14, 21
 statistics, Korea 24, 63
 surpluses, Taiwan 52
 see also comparative advantage;
 export-oriented growth;
 exports; import-substitution;
 imports; Taiwan, export-oriented growth
- trade unions 54
transaction costs 78–80
trust 76–7, 80, 85–6
Tsiang, S.C. 49
tyranny, and growth 139
- US aid 41–2, 105
- Wade, R. 15
wages, see labor, rewards to
- Yu, T. 45