

Index

- alliances 4, 72, 103
 - business efficiency 103
 - collaboration with large firms 103
 - impact of e-commerce 95
 - key success factors 92–4
 - and outsourcing 4
 - partnership with large firm 100
 - relation with overseas companies 99
 - subcontracting 103
 - support for innovation 95
 - use of Internet 94–5
- Austrade 89
 - diffusion of technology 95
 - integration with triad countries of
 - North America, EU and Japan 92
 - lack of export culture 97
 - lack of well-defined industry policy 97
 - low labour productivity 98
 - slow growth of IT 95
 - use of IT 95
- Australia
 - closer economic links with New Zealand 87
 - deregulation 85
 - foreign investment 86
 - government trade offices 87
 - industrial policy 9
 - national vs local policy 9
 - national competition policy (NCP) 87
 - protective policies 87
 - reform initiatives 86, 88
 - role of SMEs 86
 - trade links with ASEAN 87
- Australian SMEs
 - attributes 91–2
 - characteristics
 - 50% single-family controlled 91
 - 83% family owned 91
 - 96% less than 200 employees 86
 - few professional managers own shares 91
 - handicaps 91
 - manager's characteristics 94
 - owned and managed 91
 - rudimentary management 91
 - slow to restructure 91
 - strategies
 - downsize 90
 - exporting strategy 93
 - increase exports 90
 - internationalize operations 90
 - outsource 90
 - R&D and near-term strategy 96–7
 - role of innovation 96
 - subcontract 90
 - use of internet 94
 - virtualization 91
 - vulnerability 91
- 'born global' 5, 231, 239
 - Siebel's instantaneous worldwide presence 234
 - vs 'born domestic' 61
- capital formation basis
 - network capital 9–10
 - social capital 10, 131
 - co-ethnic employees 10, 131, 138
 - co-ethnic sources of finances 133
 - co-ethnic supplies 133
 - family-based 138
 - family labor 138
- central processing units technologies
 - CISC-based 231
 - RISC-based 231
 - SPARC 231
- Christchurch regional cluster
 - access to local network 119
 - externalities 115
 - family-based origin 116
 - government support 115, 117–19

- Christchurch regional cluster (continued) incentives 115
 inter-firm relation 118 organic development 119–20
 soft networks 118
- cluster characteristics
 cost minimization 108 technology spillover 107 transaction cost minimization 108 transport cost minimization 108
- cluster development policies and practices 9, 106, 184 formation of hard business networks 111
- collaborative linkages between small and large firms 12
 COLEP 50
 Dana 30
 Logoplaste 51–2
 Millennium 232
 MIPS 231
 Siebel 234
- companies involved in special relations and alliances
 Accenture 234
 Alcatel and Logoplaste 52
 Andersen Consulting 234
 Chrysler 39
 Coca Cola and Logoplaste 51
 COLEP 50
 Dana 39
 Danone and Logoplaste 51
 Fujitsu–Amdahl 230
 Honeywell 230
 Kubota 231
 L'Oréal and Logoplaste 52
 Logoplaste and partners 51–2
 Millennium Pharmaceuticals 232
 MIPS 231
 Motorola 230
 Nestlé and Logoplaste 51
 Nixdorf 231
 Olivetti 231
 Prime 231
 Samsung 231
 Seibel 234
 Siemens 231
 Sun Microsystems 230–31
 Toshiba 230–31
 Yamatake–Honeywell 230
- Yokogawa and Hewlett and Packard 230 comparison of three-country knowledge practices 200 common knowledge practices 202 implications 202
 for international entrepreneurs 202
 lessons 200
 variations and differences 200–201
- competition
 position in the network 13
 unit of competition in the conventional model 13 in the emerging model 13
- competitiveness issues and in-bound FDI 8
 and industrial policy 9
 and labour productivity 8
 and public policy 8
- corporations
 Accenture 234
 Alcatel 52
 Andersen Consulting 234
 Bell Lab 191
 Buyer AG 233
 Coca Cola 51
 COLEP 50
 Danone 51
 Eli Lilly 233
 Fujitsu–Amdahl 230
 Fuji–Xerox 229
 Hewlett and Packard 191
 Hoffman la Roche 233
 Honeywell 230
 IMB 229
 Kubota 231
 L'Oréal 52
 Logoplaste 51–2
 Lundberg 233
 Microsoft 234
 Millennium Pharmaceuticals 232
 MIPS 231
 Monsanto 23
 Motorola 230
 Nestlé 51
 Nixdorf 231
 Olivetti 231
 Oracle 234
 Peoples Soft 235

- Prime 231
- Samsung 231
- SAP 235
- Seibel 234
- Siemens 231
- Sun Microsystems 230–31
- Toshiba 230–31
- William Shokley Semi-Conductor 191
- Xerox 229
- Yamatake–Honeywell 230
- Yokogawa and Hewlett and Packard 230
- countries/regions
 - Australia 8
 - Brazil 51
 - Great Britain 5
 - Netherlands 11
 - New Zealand 9
 - Christchurch 9
 - Portugal 6, 51
 - Singapore 11
 - Spain 51
 - Thailand 210
 - Chiangmai 210–12
 - United States
 - California 11
- cross-cultural differences 184
- customer-relations
 - management (CRM) 234
- e-business systems 234
- Czech and Japanese women
 - entrepreneurs 159–69
 - business education and training 168–9
 - business or gender problems 163–6
 - decision-making and leadership style 166–8
 - definition of success 161–3
 - demographics 159–61
- demand-side structural characteristics 69
 - competitive forces 70
 - size of domestic market 70
 - standardized market demand 69
- e-commerce 12
 - advantages for SMEs 209
 - commitment 12
 - complexity 12
 - customization 12
 - management expertise 12
 - use for management of
 - accomplishing joint outcomes 224
 - mutual benefits 224
 - relations 223
 - synergy 224
- e-commerce potential capabilities
 - for acquiring and collecting information 217
 - to aid internationalization 208
 - to aid SME exports 212
 - conceptual framework 213
 - definition 208
 - for developing higher technological products 215
 - for developing higher value products 215
 - to empower SMEs to exporting
 - managing SME's international experience 216
 - to perform marketing differentiation 214
 - for targeting specific customer 214
- entrepreneurship/entrepreneurs
 - aspiration 35
 - ethnic 10
 - minority 10
 - women 10, 152–60
- environment
 - ambiguity 8
 - vicious and virtuous 8
- ethnic entrepreneurial theories 125–30
 - 'Cultural Theory' 129
 - 'Enclave Theory' 128
 - 'Middleman Theory' 128
 - 'Situational Theory' 129
 - 'Structural Theory' 129
 - 'Theories of Immigration' 128–9
- ethnic entrepreneurs' networks and enclave 125
- ethnic minority entrepreneurs 128
- ethnic-based social networks
 - action set 141–2
 - network set 134–40
 - role set 141
- experiential learning 5

- exporting
 - and asset structure 19, 29
 - balance of payment effects 15
 - and business growth 29, 30
 - business location of 21, 30
 - and business size 17, 29
 - economics of 15
 - employment of 15
 - financial leverage 19, 29
 - and firm's age 17
 - fixed asset as ratio of total assets 19
 - gearing 19
 - growth motivation 20
 - impact of business location 21
 - and impact of business sector 21, 31
 - impact of infra-structure 21
 - impact of management 18
 - impact of proximity to large markets 21
 - impact of resources 18
 - impact of size 18
 - impact of time factor 22
 - implications
 - and industry type 21, 31
 - and innovation 15
 - and operating risk 18, 29
 - and product design 20
 - and R & D 19–20, 30
 - and technological intensity 19, 30
 - of British-based SMEs 5
 - for managerial decisions 28, 33
 - optimal strategy 16
 - organizational determinant 16, 17
 - passive and active 16
 - for policy formulation 28–9
 - profitability 20, 30
 - state of economy 22, 31–2
 - exporting strategy and impact of firm's age 27, 33
 - asset structure 29
 - business growth 30
 - financial gearing 29
 - growth 20
 - location 30
 - managerial implication
 - of annual turn over 33
 - of asset structure 33
 - of expertise 33
 - for exporting SMEs 33
 - of firm's age 33
 - of inter-firm relations 33
 - of R&D expenditures 33
 - of resources 33
 - of size 33
 - operating risk, 29
 - profitability 30
 - R&D expenditure 30
 - sector 31
 - size 33–4
 - state of resources 32
- gender issues and discrimination
- geographical co-location and clustering 9, 106, 190–92
- glass ceiling 10
 - in Asia 10
 - in Czech Republic 10
 - in Europe 10
 - and international commerce 11
 - in Japan 10
 - in North America 10
- globalization
 - impact on Australian SMEs
 - impact on SMEs
 - and role of knowledge 85, 88
- globalization and structural change
 - change in Australian economy 86
 - foreign investment in Australia 86
 - globalization of supply chain 85
 - impact of reforms on SMEs 89
 - increased access to knowledge sources 85
 - increased competitiveness and competition 85
 - increased deregulation 85
 - internationalization of Australian SMEs 85
 - technological change in communication 85
 - traditional shift in advantage 87
- Hymer's theory of internationalization 4, 224–5
- impact of corporate structure
 - organization chart 53
 - outstanding contract 54

- integration
 - horizontal integration see regional and industrial cluster developments; regional and industrial cluster models
 - integrated outsourcing 7, 42
 - basic conflicts in sourcing 39
 - competitive pressures 42
 - concept 7
 - control coordination 43–60
 - cost 45–6
 - definition 41–2
 - diffusion of information 42 and direct exporting 7
 - efficiencies 7
 - impact on size 43
 - interdependence 43
 - risk sharing 46
 - scale 7
 - technological change 42
 - theoretical extension 7
 - worldwide competition 42
 - vertical integration
 - administrative overhead 44
 - coordination and control 43
 - cost aspects 43–4
 - costs 45
 - impact on core business 44
 - impact on size 44
- intellectual capital content and issues 184
- interdependent product development and manufacturing 231
- interdisciplinary investigation in exporting 35
- inter-firm relationships
 - co-dependence 230
 - co-evolutions 230
 - dependence of young subsidiaries on corporate parents 228
 - internal markets 226
 - members of MNE's supply chain
 - network of sister subsidiaries 228–9
 - independence 224–5
 - interdependence 229
 - privileged 228
- internationalization and international expansion 5
 - advantages
 - barriers 3
 - collaboration with large firms 103
 - firm specific 4
 - location specific 4
 - and competitiveness 8
 - decision to expand
 - exporting 16–22
 - increase debt to asset ratio 5
 - invest
 - make partnership 51–4
 - make–buy 38
 - outsourcing 38
 - by exporting 5
 - and home and host environments 8
 - and home and host government policies 8
 - by integrated partnership 5
 - and labour productivity 8
 - process 3
 - of small companies 56–9
 - through alliances 103
 - through foreign direct investment 5
 - through subcontracting 103
 - international expansion theories 225
 - FDI 225
 - inbound FDI and competitiveness 8
 - Hymer's theory of
 - internationalization 4, 224–5
 - Scandinavian models 225
 - stage model 5, 225
 - theory of multinationals 225
 - use of parent–subsidiary relations 225, 228–9
 - use of proprietary advantages to overcome local disadvantages 225
 - transaction cost theory 226
 - internationalization
 - and accumulation of experiential knowledge 227
 - issues
 - by e-commerce 12
 - by ethnic networks and entrepreneurship 10
 - home government policy 8
 - home and host environments 8
 - host government policy 8
 - modes 8
 - public policy 8

- internationalization (continued)
 - of small companies 59–60
 - social networks 9
 - virtuous and vicious environments 8
 - locus of control 228
 - through stages model 227
 - and use of psychic distance concept 227
- knowledge concepts and practices
 - carriers of knowledge 189
 - communities of knowledge practice 190
 - knowledge content 188
 - knowledge conversion modes 189
 - knowledge culture 188
 - knowledge infrastructure 189
 - knowledge intensive firms 11
 - experimentation 11
 - knowledge intensive process 189
 - sharing knowledge 11
- knowledge intensity and high technology 11
- knowledge intensive communities and characteristics 191
- knowledge management 11
 - assumption 185
 - gap 11
 - knowledge intensive management 185
 - network 185
 - organizations 184, 185
 - similarities and differences 185
- knowledge practices survey 194
 - knowledge content 194
 - knowledge culture 194
 - knowledge infrastructure 194
 - knowledge practices of 194
 - knowledge process 194
- knowledge-related issues
 - explicit 184, 187
 - management of 184–5
 - tacit and explicit 184, 187
- managing inter-firm relations 12
- methodology/methods 25
 - panel data 22
 - results and findings 27
 - time series databases 26
 - variable intercept model 26
- minority and entrepreneurial networks
 - ethnic 10
 - women 10
- models of inter-firm symbiotic synergy
 - Millennium's partnership model 232–4
 - Siebel's partnership model 234–6
 - Sun Microsystems' supply partner's model 230–32
- multi-level partnerships and alliances
 - characteristics
 - and 'born global' 231, 239
 - feedback and feed-forward loops model 235
 - leveraging partner's resource 239
 - multi-level 'creative destruction' 235
 - risk and rewards of partnership 235
 - risk of takeover by partners 235
 - and sequential growth 239
 - symbiotic value of partnership 238
 - synergistic value of partnership 238
 - Millennium's model 232–4
 - Siebel's model 234–6
 - Sun Microsystems' model 230–32
- networked firms
 - advantages 9
 - co-ethnic types 10
 - density 10
 - ethnic minority networks 128
 - family-based 10
 - informal type 9, 10
 - networked firms 11
 - management 128, 186–7
 - organizational synergy 126
 - position of firm in the network 13
 - social type 9
 - trans-local networks 120
 - network age 187
 - network theory building 128, 144–6
 - ethnic-based social network propositions 145
 - social capital propositions 144–5
 - theoretical propositions 144–6
- networks
 - density 142–3

- ethnic 125–7
- ethnic minority 128
- formal/informal 127
- kinship 125
- patterns 143
- social 101, 108–9
- supportive 125–6
- New Zealand 9
 - Christchurch 9
- oligopolistic reaction and rivalry
 - among firms 70
- organizational synergy in networks 126
- outsourcing 4
 - and direct and indirect exporting 6
 - integrated 6
 - and short term costs 6
 - and synergy 6
 - and vertical integration 6
 - vs exporting 7
- partnership
 - benefits 54
 - community of interest 47
 - contracts 47
 - coordination and control 45–7
 - dependability 45–7
 - flexibility 45
 - lessons 54–5
 - monogamic 56
 - polygamic 56
 - synergistic opportunities 47
- partnership characteristics of SMEs
 - reliance on partner 224
 - symbiosis 225
 - symbiotic synergy 224
 - synergy 224
 - trust 224
- profiling organizations' knowledge
 - practices 194
 - Dutch firms 199
 - Silicon valley firms 198
 - Singapore firms 197
- re-engineering and re-organization 235
- Regional and industrial cluster developments
 - Baden-Wuerttemberg 106
 - Boston's Route 128 106
- issues
 - comparative advantage 107
 - competitive advantage 107
 - dynamic economic development 106–7
 - dynamic inter-firm development 106
 - New Zealand's Christchurch area 9, 107, 111–14
 - New Zealand's Christchurch cluster 107, 111–14
 - Northern Italy 106
 - recommendations for clusters 120–21
 - Silicon Valley 6, 106
- Regional and industrial cluster models
 - Netherlands' innovation center 192
 - Polder model 192
 - day-to-day characteristics 193
 - Rhineland model 192–3
 - Silicon Valley's characteristics 191
 - Singapore 193
 - development board 194
 - productivity and standards board 194
 - Small Enterprise Bureau 194
- relations between firms
 - management of inter-firm relations 12
 - symbiotic types 12
 - synergetic types 12
- relationships
 - between exporting and time 5
 - export intensity and age of the firm 5
 - export intensity and financial gearing 5
 - export intensity and intangible assets 6
 - intensity 5
 - relationship-based privileges at internally privileged prices 226
 - access to corporate R&D 226
 - access to headquarters resources 226
 - access to MNE's network of subsidiary 226
 - access to resources 226
- relations-related issues
 - interdependence 13
 - inter-firm collaboration 10–12

- relations-related issues (continued)
 - management of 12, 228–36
 - symbiotic 12, 224
 - synergistic 12, 224
 - unidirectional 13
- risk-related concepts
 - risk exposure and exporting 18
 - risk tolerance and exporting 19
 - risk tolerance in exporting 18
 - risks of constrained resource 60
- Small multinational and related issues
 - demand side factors 7
 - foreign direct investments 7
 - public policy implication of small multinationals 77
 - rise of small multinationals 7, 60
 - supply side factors 7
 - theoretical model 7
 - theoretical perspective 7
- SMEs
 - Australian-based 8
 - British-based 5
 - characteristics
 - constrained resources 205, 207
 - customer orientation 205
 - flexibility 205
 - qualitative 205
 - quantitative 205
 - conventional exporting 207
 - exporting through electronic commerce 208–9
 - global expansion 3
 - growth strategy/motivation 20
 - internationalization mode of entry 207
 - Czech-based 10
 - New Zealand-based 9
 - Portuguese-based 6
- social capital 131
 - co-ethnic employees 131
 - co-ethnic sources of finances 133
 - co-ethnic supplies 133
 - family labor 138
- sourcing
 - basic conflicts 39
 - in-sourcing 39
 - integrated outsourcing 39–40
 - inter-firm conflicts 39
 - investment decision 38
 - joint development decisions 41
 - make-buy decision 38
 - market mechanism vs contractual relations 39
 - outsourcing 39
 - strategic partnership 40
 - Sun's partnership model 231
 - and partnership standards and expectations 232
 - and Sun's score card system 232
 - Sun-MIP partnership model 231
 - vs formal partnership management 231–2
- techno-culture 183
 - divergence and convergence 190–91
 - English and German cultural elites 183
- Thai SMEs' product offerings
 - e-commerce as a new form of internationalization for SMEs 223
 - handicraft 210
 - standardized and customized 204–210
- theories
 - international business 61
 - internationalization of entrepreneurship 61
 - internationalization of firms 62
 - and advertising outlays 67
 - by alliances 72
 - capital cost 67
 - impact of competitive forces 69–73
 - demand size forces 69
 - industry age 68
 - industry characteristics 63
 - industry growth 68
 - network of support groups 72
 - scale economies 65
 - supply side forces 63–9
 - supply side structural characteristics 64
 - technological intensity 66
- trade
 - Australia 92–8 see also Austrade
 - New Zealand 111
 - Trans-local networks 120–21

- vertical integration
 - administrative overhead 44
 - coordination and control 43
 - costs 45
 - cost aspects 43–44
 - impact on core business 44
 - impact on size 44
- vicious and virtuous environments 8
- women entrepreneurs and small
 - business characteristics
 - American 155
 - Czech Republic 153–4
 - Japan 153–4
- women's entrepreneurship
 - discussion 174–6
 - findings and results 157–72
 - implication of recommendations 176–7
- women's entrepreneurship, cultural aspects
 - entrepreneurial approaches 169–71
 - comparison of Czech and Japanese approaches 171
 - Czech and Japanese environmental approaches 172
 - Czech traits and behavioral approaches 169–70
 - Japanese traits and behavioral approaches 169–70
 - expected roles 155
 - masculinity and femininity 154–5
 - research questions for women entrepreneurs 156
 - behavioral approaches 157, 174
 - environmental approach 156, 172
 - glass ceiling 157
 - North American conceptions of entrepreneurship 156–8
 - rejection model 156
 - traits attributes and approaches 157, 174

