

Tables

1.1	Resource endowments and economic growth in developing countries	2
1.2	Structure of the economies of Botswana, Namibia and South Africa in 1999	6
1.3	Structure of environmental asset accounts	12
2.1	World production of major minerals and shares produced by Botswana, Namibia and South Africa, 1999	28
2.2	Countries that have constructed mineral accounts	33
2.3	Minerals in the asset accounts of Botswana, Namibia and South Africa	33
2.4	Extraction of minerals in Botswana, Namibia and South Africa, 1980–99	40
2.5	Resource rent from mining in Botswana, Namibia and South Africa, 1980–97	42
2.6	Resource rent per unit of mineral for different rates of return to fixed capital in Botswana, 1980–96	43
2.7	Resource rent for different rates of return to fixed capital in Namibia, 1980–98	45
2.8	Total mineral wealth in Botswana, Namibia and South Africa, 1980–97	47
2.9	Value of mineral assets by type of mineral in Botswana and South Africa, 1980–97	49
2.10	Taxes on resource rent in Botswana, Namibia and South Africa, 1966–97	51
A.1	Physical asset accounts for minerals in Botswana, 1980–99	60
A.2	Physical asset accounts for minerals in South Africa, 1980–99	63
A.3	Monetary asset accounts for minerals in Botswana, 1980–97	65
A.4	Monetary asset accounts for minerals in Namibia, 1980–97	68
A.5	Monetary asset accounts for minerals in South Africa, 1980–98	69
3.1	Flow benefits of F&WL resources in South Africa	74
3.2	Net change in asset values of F&WL resources in South Africa	90
3.3	Adjusting national accounts for the missing values of F&WL resources in South Africa	94
B.1	Distribution and extent of woody resources in South Africa	100

B.2	Stock accounts for cultivated forests in South Africa for 1981–96	102
B.3	The original area of fynbos in the Western Cape classified by quality categories reflecting various impact levels of infestation by alien species	103
B.4	Value of water abstraction externality due to run-off reduction with afforestation	104
B.5	Provincial and national direct use value estimates	105
B.6	National non-use value estimates	106
B.7	Estimates of value flows derived from fynbos resources in the Western Cape Province at 1997 prices	107
B.8	Net national product adjusted for net accumulation in timber and carbon stocks	108
B.9	Estimates of lost value flows derived from fynbos resources in the Western Cape Province at 1997 prices	109
4.1	Exploitation of fish stocks in relation to maximum sustainable yield	112
4.2	Quota levy rates by fishery and ownership	119
4.3	Countries compiling accounts for fisheries	123
4.4	Physical accounts for hake, pilchards and horse mackerel in Namibia, 1990–2000	130
4.5	Resource rent for pilchards, hake and horse mackerel, 1990–98	134
4.6	Monetary accounts for hake, pilchards and horse mackerel in Namibia, 1990–98	136
4.7	Fisheries resource management costs and revenues received, 1994–99	138
4.8	Resource rent accruing to the private sector, 1990–98	141
5.1	Countries that have constructed water accounts	162
5.2	Classification of sources of water for Botswana, Namibia and South Africa	165
5.3	Water use by sector in Botswana, Namibia and South Africa, 1996	176
5.4	Water use by source in Botswana, Namibia and South Africa, 1996	177
5.5	Unaccounted-for water in Botswana	179
5.6	National income generated per cubic metre of water used by sector in Botswana, Namibia and South Africa, 1996	180
5.7	Water subsidy by supplying institution in Botswana, Namibia and South Africa	182
5.8	Water subsidies by economic sector in Namibia and South Africa, 1996	184

C.1	Water use by supplying institution and natural source in Botswana, 1993–98	190
C.2	Water use by detailed economic sector in Botswana, 1993 and 1998	192
C.3	Percentage distribution of water use, national income and employment by economic sector in Botswana, 1993 and 1998	193
C.4	Use accounts for water by source and economic activity in Namibia, 1993 and 1996	194
C.5	Distribution of water by institution and natural source in Namibia, 1993 and 1996	196
C.6	Economic contribution of water by sector in Namibia, 1993 and 1996	197
C.7	Water supply by institutional source in South Africa, 1998	198
C.8	Use of water in South Africa, 1998	200
C.9	Economic contribution of water by sector in South Africa, 1998	202
6.1	Total wealth in Botswana and Namibia, 1980–98	210
6.2	Distribution of wealth by type of asset in Botswana and Namibia, 1980–98	212