

Index

- Aaron, H.J. 20, 25
Abe, Y. 137, 138–40, 145–6, 147, 152, 155–7, 167
Abraham, K.G. 33
accessibility 9–10, 278–307 estimation of WTP for improving 279–80, 285–300 optimal public investment policy for improving 279, 280–85 accounting standards 171, 177, 188 accumulated benefit obligations (ABOs) 187 active employees, old-age pension for see old-age pension system for active employees actuarial reserves 43, 72 additional employee contributions 181–2, 187 age medical costs by age group 222 retirement see retirement age women's, child-care policies and fertility 234, 236, 238, 240, 241, 242, 243 and WTP for improving accessibility 286, 292, 295–6 age-phasing 203, 206–8, 212–15 ageing population viii–ix, x–xi economic growth and investment for improving accessibility 280 effect on medical costs 220–25 social security and financial markets 204–8 agency theory 32–3 aggregate consumption 99 aggregate wealth
 share held in risky assets 98–9, 122–32, 133
 stock of 94–5, 97, 129–31, 132
Amemiya, T. 152
Americans with Disability Act (ADA) 279
Anderson, J. 182, 183, 184, 195, 196 annuities 82, 90, 185, 189, 211 efficiency of annuity market 122, 126, 127, 128, 133 equity indexed 210
 US cash balance pensions 192
Asia Agenda International 177
Atkinson, A.B. 21, 22, 25
Auerbach, A. 77, 86
Auerbach–Kotlikoff model 6
Australia 185, 202 automatic adjustments 43, 44–5 see also indexation awareness of possibility of becoming disabled 290–91

backward shifting 35–8 balanced portfolio strategy 205–8, 212–15
Balfour, F.S. 36
BankAmerica 190 barrier-free infrastructure for the disabled 5, 9–10, 278–307
 optimal public investment policy 9–10, 279, 280–85, 301
 WTP for barrier-free investment 10, 279–80, 283–4, 285–300, 301
Barro, R.J. 37
Barro–Grossman employment model 37
Basak, S. 209, 210 basic part of public pension 3, 27, 133–4, 136–7
Bateman, H. 185, 210
Beach, C.M. 36
Becker, G.S. 32
Bell, F.C. 70
benefit of caring for children 234–5, 236, 237–45

- Benninga, S. 86 bequest motive 87–8
 Bessho, M. 224
 bill rate 204, 205 birth rate 5
 child-care policies and 8–9, 233–48
 Blake, D. 24
 Blomquist, N.J. 37
 Bodie, Z. 210, 212 borrowing constraint 79
 Break, G. 36
 Brennan, M.J. 209
 Brittain, J.A. 36
 Brown, J. 90, 185
 Brown, K. 193
 Bryan, S. 235 budget constraint 78–9
 Butler, J.S. 238
- Cairncross, A. 49–50
 Cairns, J. 235
 Campbell, J.Y. 209
 cap system 226–7 capability 9, 278, 279–80, 280–81 capability equity criteria 284–5 improved resulting from barrier-free investment 297–8 capital/labor ratio 84, 96–8, 132 capital/output ratio 96, 122–32 capitalism 15
 Cardin, B. 181 career break, women's 249, 250–51
 Cargill, T. 177
 Carter, L.R. 48, 54
 cash balance pension plans 186, 188, 190–92, 193–5, 196–7
 Cerulli Associates 170, 177, 180, 181, 182, 183, 186, 190, 196
 Chacko, G. 209 child-care arrangements, consideration of 253 child-care fees, subsidies for 252 child-care leave 4–5, 9, 249–77 existence of child-care leave systems 255, 257–60 features of systems 254–6 further reform 269–72 length 255–6
 and number of children 234, 234–5, 236, 237–45 probability of taking 256–7, 258–9 problems with current system 257–69, 270–71 systems in firms 254–7, 258–9
 Child-care Leave Law 249, 252–4 child-care policy 8–9, 233–48 policy simulation and fertility 243–5 see also child-care leave children
 age and mothers' labor force participation 250–51 number of see number of children
 Chile 202
 Choy, J. 188
 Chuma, H. 140
 Chunhong, C. 176, 177
 Clark, R.L. 172, 174, 190, 191, 192, 193, 216 cohort life expectancy 46
 coinsurance rate 226–7
 Commission on the Promotion of Women's Activity 272 conjoint analysis 8–9, 233–48 data 234–5, 236
 empirical results 239–43 estimation model 237–9 explanation of 235–7
 policy simulation 243–5
 Conrad, H. 170, 173, 179, 187 constant proportion Merton rule 208–9, 212–15 consumer demand 227–8 consumption 99–100, 132
 distribution of retirement consumption 104–22, 133–4 intertemporal 208–10
 intertemporal substitutability of 86–7
 contingent valuation method (CVM) 279, 285–300 contribution rates 76–7, 85 alternative pension reform strategies 90–132
 issues pertaining to DB pensions 186–8
 DC pensions 180–82
 Cooley, T. 86
 Cornell, A. 196
 Corporate Income Tax Law 176

- cost saving, other than to gain a tax advantage 34–5
- Council on Economic and Fiscal Policy 227, 228
- Crane, D.B. 210
- Cutler, D.M. 222

- Deaton, A. 83
- deferred compensations 32
- defined benefit (DB) pensions 3–4, 172–4, 195
 - developments in US 189–92
 - funded 67–8
 - indexing 59, 65
 - new DB plans 177–89
 - unsettled issues 186–9
 - unfunded 67, 69
- defined contribution (DC) pensions 3–4, 7
 - funded 68
 - indexing 59–60, 61, 65
 - new DC plans 177–89, 193, 196–7
 - unsettled issues 180–85
 - retirement provision and security 8, 202–18
 - unfunded 68–9
 - US 189–90, 191, 193–5
- demand, consumer 227–8
- demographic projections 43–58, 69–71
 - implications for pension policy 56–8
 - indexing of pensions and 60–63, 64–5
 - mortality rates 69–71
 - population estimates 71
 - scenarios 45–52
 - uncertainty 52–6
- Denki-Rengo 30
- deregulation, financial 177
- Detemple, J. 209
- Diamond, P. 20, 25
- dichotomous choice structure 286
- difference-in-differences method 7, 147–57, 158–66, 167–8
- disabled people
 - barrier-free infrastructure for 5, 9–10, 278–307
 - consciousness among non-disabled of becoming disabled 290–91
 - frequency of going out 289, 294–5, 301
 - public infrastructures frequently used by 289–90
 - state of disability 288–9
 - WTP for barrier-free investments 292–3, 296–7, 298–300, 301
- discount rate 187
 - negative 86
- Disney, R. 24
- distribution: retirement consumption and lifetime utility under different pension arrangements 104–22, 133–4
- diversification 188–9
- Dow Jones 196
- dual structure of social services 16
- dynamic labor supply models 7, 158–66, 167–8

- early retirement subsidies 190–92, 192–3
- earnings see wages
- earnings tests 142, 143, 147–8, 168
- economic growth 2
 - ageing society 280
- Economic and Social Research Institute (ESRI) project vii–xii
- education
 - of investors about risk and return 184
 - and off-the-job training 268
 - and take-up of child-care leave 256, 257, 258, 262
- Edwards, R. 57
- elderly
 - debates on comprehensive reform of health insurance for 225–9
 - labor supply of elderly male workers 7, 136–69
- Elmendorf, D.W. 210
- employee compensation, structure and composition 193
- employee contributions 181–2, 187
- employee participation 180–81
- employee pension funds (EPFs) 173, 175–7, 177, 186–7, 189, 207
- Pension Reform Bill 179, 180
- Employees' Health Insurance (EHI) 225, 226
- Employees' Pension Fund Association 175, 176, 188

- Employees' Pension Insurance (EPI) 171, 172–4, 179, 207
- employer-backed minimum guarantees
210
- employment employment/population ratio 137–8, 139, 148–52, 153
impact of pension reform 146 tax rate and 37
see also labor force participation;
labor supply
- Employment Insurance Law 140
- 'Employment of Older Persons' surveys 152, 153–4
- employment promotion systems for older people 140–41
- 'Employment Status Survey' 251
- enterprise pensions 3–4, 7, 170–201
DC and new DB plans 177–89
Pension Reform Bill 178–80
unsettled issues in DB plans 186–9
unsettled issues in DC plans 180–85
- Japanese company pension plans 174–7
- enterprises/firms 2, 5–6, 13, 23–4, 26, 39–40
child-care leave systems 254–72
problems with current system 257–69, 270–71
firm size 256–7, 258 large and welfare provision 16–18 payroll tax incidence 35–8 reasons for contributing to welfare provision 32–5
role in welfare provision 31–5 policy recommendations 38–9
- entry conditions to day care for children 234–5, 236, 237–43
- environmental problems ix–x, x–xi
- Equal Employment Opportunity Law 269–72
- equity-based investment strategy 205–8, 213–15
- equity indexed annuities 210
- Europe 12–15
- European Union x
- evidence-based medicine 228
- evolution 46–7
- exempt amount 147, 168
- expected lifetime utility 100–104, 131
- extrapolation, historical 47–9
- factor analysis 298–300
- factor prices
endogenous 84 exogenous 85
- families 2, 13
harmonization of family and work 249, 253
see also child-care leave; child-care policy
- family-care arrangements, consideration of 253
- family-care support 252
- family-friendly programs 249–50, 252, 271–2
- family support advisors 253
- Farrars, S. 235
- fee-for-service schedule 229
- Feinberg, P. 186, 188, 196–7
- Feldstein, M.S. 20, 22, 36
- fertility 56, 170, 249
effect of child-care policies on 8–9, 233–48
- Fidelity 183
- financial benefit of caring for children 234–5, 236, 237–45
- financial deregulation 177
- financial engineering 203, 204–15
- financial investment strategies see investment strategies
- financial markets 204–8
- firms see enterprises/firms
- fixed component of basic pension 3, 27, 133–4, 136–7
- fixed effects models 237
- flat-rate element of public pension 3, 27, 133–4, 136–7
- flat-rate unfunded pensions 126, 129
- Fleming, W.H. 209
- forward shifting 36, 37
- frailty model 51
- France 1, 251
- free market economy 15
- Freeman, R.B. 34
- frequency of going out 289, 294–5, 301
- frequency of use of public infrastructures 289–90
- Friedberg, L. 147

- Fries, J. 47 fringe benefits, non-statutory 16, 18, 31–5 funded pension systems 66, 76, 104–34 alternative parameterizations 122–32
 DB 67–8
 DC 68
 distribution of retirement consumption and lifetime utility under 104–22 gender 286
general equilibrium model of Japanese economy 77–90 calibration 86–7 income profile 87–8 income volatility 88–9 returns 89–90
Germany 1, 59–60, 61, 251
Global Custodian 184, 188, 189 going out, frequency of 289, 294–5, 301
Goldman Sachs 177
Gompertz–Makeham function 52, 54, 72
Gordon, B. 176, 177
Gordon, R.J. 38 government sector see public sector
Greene, W.H. 238
Grossman, H.J. 37
Grossman, S. 87, 210
Gruber, J. 147 guarantee for bank savings deposits 184
Haley, J. 191
Hall, R. 87
Hamermesh, D. 36–7
Hansen, P. 86–7
harmonization of work and family 249, 253
 see also child-care leave
Harris, J. 49–50
Hart, R.A. 32
Hatta, T. 174
Hausman, J. 237
Hayflick, L. 46 health costs 57–8
health insurance 4, 8, 225–9
health policy 8, 219–32
 effect of ageing on medical costs 220–25
 debates on reform of health insurance 225–9 promotion of managed care 228–9
Health Service for the Elderly (Roken) 226–7
Higuchi, Y. 249 historical explanation 47–9
Holmlund, B. 38
Honda Motor Company 189
Horioka, C. 88
Household Economic Research Center, ‘Panel Survey of Consumers’ 254, 256–7, 265
Hubbard, G. 83, 87, 88
Hughes, G. 36
Hughes, J. 235
human capital 209
Hurd, M. 86
hybrid pension plans 186, 188, 190, 210
Ii, M. 237 immigration 54–6
Imrohorglu, A. 86 income distribution 88–9, 287 loss of and child-care leave 262–3 profile 87–8 volatility 88–9 and WTP for barrier-free investment 299–300 see also wages income support 233–4 replacement rate of during child-care leave 234–5, 236, 237–45
income taxes 282
inconsistency problem 237 independent causes model 50–51 indexation 6, 58–66
 demographic variables 60–63, 64–5 how much is desirable 63–6 other potential forms 59–60, 61 price 58–9, 64, 174 wage 58–9, 64, 174 individual accounts 193–4 individuals: change in behavior x industrial relations 35 industrialization 2

- inflation 223
- infrastructures 5, 9–10, 278–307
 optimal public investment policy for improving accessibility 9–10, 279, 280–85, 301
 WTP for improving accessibility 10,
 279–80, 283–4, 285–300, 301
- insurance health 4, 8, 225–9 investment strategy and 210–11 life 177, 203, 210
 portfolio 203, 210
- international accounting standards 177, 188
- International Monetary Fund (IMF) 15
- Internet browsing 287–8
- intertemporal consumption 208–10
- intertemporal substitutability of consumption 86–7
- investment
 Japanese investment behavior and privatization 25
 management of pension plans
 DB 188–9
 DC 183–4
 public see public investment saving and 85
 strategies see investment strategies
- investment risk 190
- investment strategies 8, 202–18
 ageing, social security and financial markets 204–8 for lifetime security 211–15
 theoretical considerations 208–11
 how to invest 208–10
 insurance 210–11
 protecting assets 210
- Irifune, T. 223, 224
- Iwamoto, Y. 136, 137, 146, 223, 224, 230
- Jagannathan, R. 209
- Japan Institute of Labor (JIL) 179 ‘Survey on Women’s Work and Family Life’ (JIL survey) 254, 257–64
- Japan Securities Dealers Employees Pension Fund 195
- Johnson, S. 176, 183, 196
- Kaneko, N. 249
- Kato, R. 86, 87
- Kawaguchi, A. 249, 260, 265, 269, 272
- Kawai, H. 229
- Khorasanee, M.S. 210
- Kim, T.S. 209
- Kimball, M.S. 210
- kink point 144–5, 155, 156, 157
- Kirwan, F.X. 36
- knowledge of barrier-free issues 288
- Kocherlakota, N.R. 86, 209
- Kogan, L. 211
- Koo, H.-K. 209–10
- Kotlikoff, L. 20, 77, 86
- Kyoto City 279, 285, 286
- labor costs 16, 17
- labor demand 141 elasticity and payroll tax incidence 36–7
- labor force participation elderly men 137–46, 148–52
 women 4–5, 136, 249, 250–51
- labor income see wages
- labor market ageing population and viii–ix changes in 195
- Labor Standards Law 153
- labor supply 21–2
 elasticity and payroll tax incidence 36–7
 elderly male workers 7, 136–69
 difference-in-differences method for effects of old-age pension for active employees 7, 147–57, 158–66, 167–8 labor force participation rates 137–46, 148–52
- laissez-faire* equilibrium 283–4
- Langford, I.H. 286
- Law Concerning Stabilization of Employment of Older Persons, amendments to 140
- Lazear, E.P. 32–3
- Lee, R.D. 48, 54, 57
- Lester, R.A. 34
- Leuthold, J.H. 37
- liberalism 13–15
- libertarianism 13–15

- life expectancy 45–52
- life insurance 177, 203, 210
- lifetime budget constraints 281–2
- lifetime security, investing for 211–15
- lifetime utility 100–104, 131
 - distribution under different pension arrangements 104–22
- lifetime utility function 78, 281
- limited reliability model 51–2
- Lincoln, E.J. 177–8, 183
- Lindbeck, A. 15
- linear estimation 243, 248
- Litan, R.E. 177–8, 183
- Liu, J. 209
- log of working hours models 164–5, 166, 167–8
- lump-sum benefits 182, 185, 186, 192

- MacDonald, J. 189
- MacIntyre, D. 177
- macro economy viii–ix
 - general equilibrium model 77–90
- Maeda, M. 250
- male workers
 - labor supply of elderly 7, 136–69
 - take-up of child-care leave 264, 272
- managed care 228–9
- Mankiw, G. 86–7
- market mechanism xi, 10–11
- Markowitz, H.M. 208
- married women, and employment 4–5, 249, 250–51
- Maruyama, S. 229
- Matsuura, T. 196
- McDermed, A. 190
- McGill, D. 185
- mean rate of return on risky assets 89–90, 92, 95–8, 122–32
- medical expenditure 8, 219–32
 - debates on reform of health insurance 225–9
 - effect of ageing on medical costs 220–25
 - future projections 222–5
 - past experiences 220–22
- Medical Insurance Council 225
- medical insurance 4, 8, 225–9
- medical science 49–50
- Medoff, J.L. 33, 34

- membership of pension plans
 - DB 186–8
 - DC 180–82
- Mercer, W.M. 178
- Merton, R.C. 208–9, 210, 212
- Miles, D. 89
- Millennium Project vii
- Ministry of Finance 30–31, 176, 180, 227
- Ministry of Health, Labor and Welfare (MHLW) 30–31, 173, 249, 262
 - DB plans 180
 - EPFs 176
 - medical expenditure 220–21
 - projections 222, 223
 - reform of health insurance 226–7
- Ministry of Health and Welfare 225, 226
- Ministry of Labor Women's Bureau see Women's Bureau, Ministry of Labor
- Mitani, N. 141, 146
- Mitchell, O. 90, 182, 185
- Miyatake, G. 171, 173, 175
- Moffitt, R. 22, 238
- molecular biology 49–50
- Moorhead, P. 46
- Morita, Y. 249
- mortality rates 69–71
 - demographic scenarios 45–52
 - indexing pensions and 60–63, 64–5
 - Japan 70–71
 - models of mortality 50–52
 - US 69–70
- Mumy, G.E. 33
- Munzenmaier, F. 193

- Nash equilibrium 283–4
- National Health Insurance (NHI) 225–6
- national minimum amount 27
- National Pension (NP) 171, 171–4, 179
- National Pension Fund Association 185
- natural limit hypothesis 46–7
- natural selection 46–7
- Newhouse, J.P. 222
- Ng, H.K. 210
- Niki, R. 222, 223, 224
- Nikkei index 204–5

- Nikko Securities Company 195
 Nishimura, S. 223, 224–5, 230
 Nissan Motors 195
 Noda, T. 34, 35
 nominal medical costs 223
 Nomura Securities Company 195 non-contributors 18–19, 24, 25–6 non-participation 18–19, 24, 25–6 non-statutory fringe benefits 16, 18, 31–5 non-wage labor costs 16–18 normalization 279 number of children 8–9, 233–48 actual 236, 237, 238, 239, 241, 243 planned 236, 237, 239, 240, 242, 243 nursing-care leave 253, 263–4

 objective uncertainty 63
 Obuchi, K. vii occupational distribution 286–7 off-the-job training 268–9, 270–71
 Ogawa, H. 141, 145, 146, 152
 Ogawa, N. 174
 Ogura, S. 223, 224
 Ohkusa, Y. 234, 237, 238, 249
 Okamoto, A. 28–30
 old-age pension system for active employees 141–6 effects of reforms on employment behavior of the elderly 147–57, 158–66, 167–8 major changes 142–3, 148
 Omberg, E. 209
 on-site child-care centers 252
 optimal public investment policy 9–10, 279, 280–85, 301
 equity of capability 284–5 inefficiency of laissez-faire equilibrium 283–4 model setting 280–82 social optimality conditions 282–3 Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) labor force participation and employment of elderly men 137–8 social expenditures 13
 tax revenues and social security contributions 13, 14
 Orszag, P. 147

 Oshio, T. 20
 overlapping generations (OLG) model of Japanese economy 77–90 overtime exemptions 253

 ‘Panel Survey of Consumers’ 254, 256–7, 265
 Papke, L. 190
 parametric reforms 24, 76 part-time work 181 child-care leave system 266–7, 268 working mothers 249, 250–51 partial pension 3, 136–7
 Pasona, Inc. 181
 Patrikis, E. 177 pay see wages pay-as-you-go pension systems 12, 18, 19, 66
 alternative pension reform strategies 76–7, 85, 90–92, 104–22, 129–31 flat-rate 126, 129
 DB 67, 69
 DC 68–9
 payment schedule 228–9 payouts, issues pertaining to 184–5, 189 payroll contribution rates see contribution rates payroll tax 146 incidence 35–8
 Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) 189 pension budget deficit 18–20 pension eligibility 166
 Pension Fund Investment Fund 180
 Pension Reform Bill 2001 7, 178–80, 197
 pensions enterprise see enterprise pensions public see public pensions size of Japanese pension system 170 system at end of 20th century 3–4, 171–7 period life expectancy 46
 Perry, G. 38
 Phillips curve 38 physical capital 85 planned number of children 236, 237, 239, 240, 242, 243
 Poisson regression 243, 248

- policy evaluation
 - barrier-free policy 293
 - effect of child-care policies on fertility 8–9, 233–48
- policy simulation 243–5
- population estimates 71
 - see also* demographic projections
- portability 184–5, 194
- portfolio allocation 83, 131, 133, 176
- portfolio choice 203, 208–10
- portfolio insurance 203, 210
- Portman, R. 181
- positive action 269–72
- post-leave work position 263, 264
- Poterba, J.M. 34
- precautionary principle x
- Prescott, E. 86
- preservation age 185
- price indexation 58–9, 64, 174
- prices 204, 205
 - factor 84, 85
- privatization of public pensions 15, 20, 22, 24–6
- probability of taking child-care leave 256–7, 258–9
- probit estimations
 - conjoint analysis and effect of child-care policies 237, 238–43
 - labor supply 160–61, 167
 - probability of taking child-care leave 256–7, 258–9
- production function, share parameter of 86
- promotion 263
- progressive expenditure taxes 28–30
- proportional part of public pension 3, 136–7
- prospective indexing 6, 64–5, 65–6
- prospective payment system (PPS) 228–9
- protection of assets 210
- public buildings
 - frequency of use 289–90
 - not usable because of disabilities 290
 - WTP for improving accessibility 291–3, 297–300
- public investment, in infrastructure 9–10, 278–307
 - optimal investment policy 9–10, 279, 280–85, 301
 - WTP 10, 279–80, 283–4, 285–300, 301
- public pensions 3, 136–7, 170–71, 171–4
 - alternative reform strategies 6–7, 75–135
 - alternative parameterizations 122–32
 - base case results 90–104
 - distribution of retirement consumption and lifetime utility 104–22, 133–4
 - general equilibrium model of Japanese economy 77–90
 - overview 76–7
 - basic part 3, 27, 133–4, 136–7
 - current problems 18–19
 - effect on labor supply of elderly male workers 7, 136–69
 - Pension Reform Bill 2001 179
 - predicted budget deficit 18–20
 - privatization 15, 20, 22, 24–6
 - proportional part 3, 136–7
 - reforms 5–6, 20, 24–31
 - actual reform policy 26–31
 - arguments for policy reform 24–6
 - reforms of 2000 174
 - uncertainty 6, 43–74
 - demographic scenarios 45–52
 - demographic uncertainty 52–6
 - how much indexation is desirable 63–6
 - implications for pension policy 56–8
 - pension design to cope with 58–63
 - types of pensions 66–9
- public sector
 - child-care leave take-up in 257, 258
 - role in welfare provision 10–11, 21–4, 28, 228
 - welfare states 1, 10, 12–15, 21
- Purcal, S. 210
- quality of medical services 229
- questionnaires (surveys) 233–4
 - barrier-free investment in public infrastructure 286, 303–7
 - see also* conjoint analysis

- random effects models 237, 238–43 rates of return 79, 80–82, 84, 89–90, 176 alternative investment strategies 211–15
 alternative pension reform strategies 92–104
 mean rate of return on risky assets 89–90, 92, 95–8, 122–32
 rating scale method 235 real medical costs 223–5 record keeping 182–3, 188
 Reform Work Schedule (Kaikaku Kotei Hyo) 228 regulation 194
 financial deregulation 177
 Regulatory Reform Council (Sogo Kisei Kaikaku Kaigi) 228 relief workers lack of 261–2
 subsidy for employing 252 replacement rates for state pensions 77, 85–6, 132 reserves, actuarial 43, 72 resource/environmental problems ix–x, x–xi retention of older employees 194–5 retirement age 77, 185 extension of 140 retirement consumption 104–22
 retirement plan design 192–3 retirement plan type 193–4 retirement provision 8, 202–18 ageing, social security and financial markets 204–8 investing for lifetime security 211–15
 theoretical considerations 208–11 retrospective indexing 6, 64, 65 returning to work programs 252 returns see rates of return
 Reynolds, L.G. 34
 Rice, R. 32
 Richard, S.F. 210 risk 77
 cash balance plans and 190
 investing for lifetime security 211–15
 risk aversion 78
 coefficient 86–7, 122–4 risk constancy 212–15
 risky assets 78
 mean rate of return 89–90, 92, 95–8, 122–32 share of wealth in 122–32, 133 roads, barrier-free investment in 293–7, 300, 301
 Ruffell, C. 183, 195
 Ryan, M. 235
 ‘safe’ investment strategy 206–8, 212–15
 Sakamoto, J. 170, 173, 176, 177, 179, 180, 187
 Samuelson, P.A. 208
 ‘Samuelson rule’ for public goods 283
 Sandmo, A. 25 savings 22
 alternative pension reform strategies 85, 92–4, 96, 122–32
 Schieber, S. 191, 192, 193
 Seike, A. 138, 145, 152, 170, 175, 196
 Sekine, K. 176
 self-interest 298–9
 Sen, A.K. 9, 278
 Sethi, S.P. 209
 severance benefit plans 175, 177, 180
 Shigeno, Y. 234, 238, 249
 Shiller, R. 87
 Shimada, H. 152
 Shimono, K. 152
 Shoven, J.B. 20, 25
 sidewalks, barrier-free investment in 293–7, 300, 301
 Singer, J. 195
 Singleton, K. 86–7 small open economy 127–9, 130
 social expenditures 13, 280
 social experiments 233
 Social Insurance Bureau 27, 31 social optimum level of investment 9–10, 279, 280–85, 301 Social Security Administration (SSA) (US) 52–4, 216
 social security benefits 1, 207–8 social security contributions 1, 21–3 ageing, financial markets and 204–8
 OECD countries 13, 14
 social security reform 5–6, 12–42 current problems of welfare provision 18–19

- Japan's approach to welfare
 - provision 1–2, 10, 12–18
 - policy recommendations for firms 38–9
 - policy reform in pension programs 24–31
 - reform in welfare programs 19–24
 - role of firms in welfare provision 31–5
 - tax incidence 35–8
- social security systems viii–ix
 - features of Japanese system 1–5
- social welfare maximization 282–5
- Sony 189
- standard gamble method 235
- stochastic forecasting 57
- stochastic general equilibrium model of Japanese economy 77–90
- structural reform 202
- subjective uncertainty 63
- subsidies
 - Child-care Leave Law 252
 - early retirement 190–92, 192–3
 - employment of older people 140–41
- Sumitomo Chemical 195
- 'Supplement of the Survey of Living Standards in Japan' 234
- Suruga, T. 22
- 'Survey on Employment and Life of Workers Taking Care of Children and Family' (ML survey 2000) 254, 257–64
- 'Survey on Female Employment Management' 254, 257–64, 269
- 'Survey on Women's Work and Family Life' (JIL survey) 254, 257–64
- surveys see questionnaires (surveys)
- sustainability xi
- Suzuki, W. 230
- Sweden 1, 251

- Tachibanaki, T. 2, 13, 16, 18, 21, 22, 25, 26, 28–30, 34, 35, 38, 152
- Taishokusha Iryo* 227
- Takagi, Y. 229
- Takahashi, S. 71
- Takayama, N. 174, 216
- take-up of child-care leave 255
- Takeshita, S. 224
- Takeuchi, K. 286

- tax advantage theory 33–4
- Tax Bureau 27, 31
- tax incidence 35–8
- tax-qualified cap on employer contributions 181–2
- tax-qualified pension plans (TQPPs) 173, 175–7, 179, 180, 184, 186, 187
- tax revenues 1, 173–4
 - and financing public pensions 20–21, 25, 26–31
 - OECD countries 13, 14
- taxation
 - income taxes 282
 - on inside buildup for new pension plans 184, 187–8
 - policy changes in US 194
 - and reforms in welfare programs 21–3
- technology
 - changing and medical costs 221, 223
 - evaluation of medical technology 235
 - resource and environmental problems ix–x, xi
- telomeres 46
- Terada, N. 188
- Thatcher, M. 15, 59
- Third Millennium 193
- time preference 86, 124–6
- time trade-off method 235
- time-varying investment opportunity 209
- Timmermann, A. 89
- Tobin, J. 208
- Tokita, T. 223, 225
- Tolley, G. 235
- Tomita, Y. 249
- training, off-the-job 268–9, 270–71
- transformation function 281
- Tsukahara, Y. 233, 238
- Turner, J. 210

- uncertainty 77, 78
 - and pension policy 6, 43–74
 - demographic uncertainty 52–6
 - inescapable uncertainty 44–5
 - pension design to cope with uncertainty 58–63
 - see also* risk
- underfunding 176–7, 186, 187

- unemployment 141
- unfair treatment 252–3
- unfunded pension systems see pay-as-you-go pension systems
- unionized firms 34
- United Kingdom (UK) 1, 20, 21, 202, 251
 - pension indexation 59, 59–60, 61
- United States (US) 222
 - approach to welfare provision 12–15, 22–3
 - confidence intervals for social security system 57
 - demographic projections 52–4, 56
 - life expectancy 48–9
 - mortality rates 69–70
 - population estimates 71
 - earnings test and labor supply of older workers 147
 - enterprise pensions 7, 180, 181, 185, 189–95, 202
 - developments in DB pensions 189–92
 - implications for Japanese pension plans 194–5
 - retirement plan design 192–3
 - worker preferences for retirement plan type 193–4
 - health insurance 228
 - labor force participation of married women 251
 - pension indexation 58–9, 59–60, 60–63
 - social security benefits 1
 - tax revenues and social security contributions 1
- Uppal, R. 211
- Ushimaru, S. 30
- Van der Pol, M. 235
- vesting 184–5
- Viceira, L.M. 209
- Vickerman, R. 280
- volatility, income 88–9
- volunteer experience 287
- Vroman, W. 38
- Wachter, J. 209
- wage indexation 58–9, 64, 174
- wages 84, 204, 205
 - age-related element 79–80
 - agent-specific element 80
 - child-care leave and 252–3, 263, 264–8, 269
 - earnings distribution for older employees 155, 156, 157
 - old-age pension system for active employees 141–6, 147–8
 - women 250–51
- wealth
 - aggregate
 - share held in risky assets 98–9, 122–32, 133
 - stock of 94–5, 97, 129–31, 132
 - wealth/national income ratio 129–31
 - website browsing 287–8
- Weismann, A. 46
- welfare
 - pension reform strategies and 102–4, 129, 130, 131
 - social welfare maximization 282–5
 - welfare program expenditures 13, 280
 - welfare provision 5–6, 12–42
 - current problems 18–19
 - Japanese approach to 1–2, 10, 12–18
 - reform in welfare programs 19–24
 - role of firms 31–5
 - role of public sector 10–11, 21–4, 28, 228
- welfare states 1, 10, 12–15, 21
 - Japan not regarded as a welfare state 1–2, 12–18
- Wilhelm, M. 22
- willingness to pay (WTP) 234, 235
 - for barrier-free investments 10, 279–80, 283–4, 285–300, 301
 - factor analysis 298–300
 - improved capability 297–8
 - survey 286, 303–7
 - survey results 286–97
- Wilmoth, J.R. 48, 54, 70–71
- women
 - interrupted careers 249, 250–51
 - labor force participation 4–5, 136, 249, 250–51
- Women's Bureau, Ministry of Labor
 - 'Survey on Employment and Life of Workers Taking Care of Children and Family' (ML survey 2000) 254, 257–64

- 'Survey on Female Employment Management' 254, 257–64, 269
- Woodbury, S.A. 32, 34
- work-family harmonization 249, 253
 - see also* child-care leave
- work position, after child-care leave 263, 264
- worker preferences
 - and firms' contribution to welfare provision 34
 - for retirement plan type 193–4
- working hours
 - child-care leave legislation and 253
 - old-age pension system for active employees and labor supply 148–52, 153, 154, 162–5, 166, 167–8
 - log of working hours models 164–5, 166, 167–8
 - workplace atmosphere 260–61
- World Bank 15, 22
- Yokoyama, Y. 38
- Zariphopoulou, T. 209
- Zeldes, S. 83, 87
- Zhou, Z. 210