Index

academic institutions, financial pressures 135–7 academic job contract, life-cycle model see ARM Academic Retirement Model see ARM Conley, Valerie Martin 32, 250 consumer driven health care plans, rejected at SU 174 contract faculty see non-tenure-track faculty contribution caps see employer contribution caps Cool, Kenneth E. 81, 91 cost reduction 10
cost-sharing of retiree health benefits 119, 124–5, 165–6 Costello, Declan 115
CSU see California State University
DB plans see defined benefit (DB) plans DC plans see defined contribution (DC) plans declining enrollments 10 defined benefit (DB) plans compared to DC plans 213 defined 212
and early retirement plans 259–60
and private/public institutions 213
and retirement decisions 10–12, 198, 213 trend away from 282 defined contribution (DC) plans and buyout programs 224 compared to DB plans 213
defined 212–13
and phased retirement policies 192, 220–21
and private/public institutions 213–14
and retirement decisions 10–12, 187, 213
trend toward 282
see also early retirement plans, in DC environments; notional defined contribution plans DEFRA see Deficit Reduction Act departmental impact, of phased retirement 244–5 dependents, number of, and post-doc position takeup 62 Dertouzos, J.N. 234
disclosure requirements see accounting standards doctoral institutions and buyout programs 224 early retirement plans 14–15 expected preference for phased retirement 189–90
and phased retirement policies 221
see also research and doctoral institutions Dopkeen, Jonathan C. 119
d’Ambrosio, Madeleine 12
eyear and mid-career faculty defined 95 issues influencing retention 97 research project on 93–8 eyear retirement plans 14–16, 284 see also pre-65 retirees; retiring at 70, probability of year retirement plans, in DC environments bonus size 263
design features 259–61
potential benefits 262–3 potential drawbacks 263–4 earned doctorates, taking post-doc positions on graduation 56–67 earned doctorates, trends in 26–7 earth science and oceanography post-docs 65, 68 economic conditions, and retirement rates 11, 265–6 Ehrenberg, Ronald G. 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 19, 48, 49, 191, 208, 213, 214, 215, 217, 218, 219, 220, 223, 234, 236 employer contribution caps 119, 124–6 employer-sponsored health insurance see health benefits engineering, PhD production 26 engineering post-docs 55, 65, 68–9 enrollments and retirements 10 ERISA (Employee Retirement Income Security Act, 1974) 120 explicit retirement incentives 216–18 faculty compensation preferences 280 composition changes 33–7 employment levels vs. for-profit sector 128–9 Index
289 proportion over 50 vs. industry 129–30 retirement patterns 240–41

Faculty Early Retirement Program (FERP) 254 Faculty Family Leave Benefits policy 177–9 faculty-planning model 8–9 Faculty Retirement Incentive Program (FRIP) see Stanford University early retirement plan family-friendly policies 177–9 family leave policy see Faculty Family Leave Benefits policy Farber, Henry S. 230
FASB (Financial Accounting Standards Board) 116–20
FERP see Faculty Early Retirement Program Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) 116–20
financial advice for faculty 262
Finegan, T. Aldrich 49
Fischer, Stanley 112
flexible health benefit plans 106 forecasting, severance behavior 227–30, 232 Freudenheim, M. 17, 143
FRIP (Faculty Retirement Incentive Program) see Stanford University early retirement plan Fronstin, Paul 107
full-time faculty, and health insurance 16 future retirement plans 12, 14 gaining acceptance for policies 182–3
Garrison, Howard H. 77
GASB see Governmental Accounting Standards Board gender differences 83
generational turnover 80
Gerbi, Susan A. 77
Ghent, Linda S. 4, 5, 7, 11, 13, 198, 203, 208
Giroux, Robert 4, 5
global change 23–5
Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) standards 120–21, 131 graying of America 25
GSS (Graduate Student Survey) see Survey of Graduate Students and Postdoctorates in Science and Engineering Hamermesh, Daniel S. 235
Hammond, Brett 19
Hansen, Lee 19
Harrington, Charles 49
HCAC see Health Care Advisory Committee, Syracuse University health benefit costs, and worker productivity 112–15 health benefits as part of compensation package 110–12 and post-doc positions 72 and senior faculty 90, 91 see also retiree health insurance health care costs 107–10
HR practices at SU 170–76 spending 107–8, 114–15
Health Care Advisory Committee, Syracuse University (HCAC) 173–6 health insurance and academic institutions 16–18 cost control 106–7
coverage of population 107–8 history of employers’ role 105–7, 115–16 importance as retirement incentive 217
see also Medicare
health sciences, PhD production 26
HMOs (health maintenance organizations) 103, 106–7 Holden, Karen 19
implicit retirement incentives 216 income levels for retirement 87–8 India, investment in education 27 inflation, of health care costs 109 institutions of higher learning and accounting standards 120–21 market pressures vs. corporates 121 survey of benefits provided 122–4 Ireland, investment in education 27 job prospects, and post-doc positions 66
Karoly, L.A. 234
Kepple, Thomas R., Jr. 235
Kim, Seongsu 230, 236
Klaff, Daniel B. 48
Kotlikoff, Laurence 20

laboratory space for retired faculty 217–18, 242, 256 see also office space for retired faculty late-career faculty (age 50+) benefitting institutions 98, 242–3, 243 demographic profile 82–3 as highly productive 91–2 motivators 86–7
plans for retirement 87–93 professional profile 83–4 proportion of faculty 81 survey 81–2
work patterns 84–6
Lazar, Edward P. 235
Leslie, David W. 250
Levin, Sharon G. 235

limiting retiree health benefit liabilities methods used by academic employers 124–6 methods used by corporates 118–19 pressure on corporates to 121 see also retiree medical accounts Long, Bridget Terry 49
Lumsdaine, Robin L. 234
Lyman, Peter 30
Lynch, Gerald J. 49

management style, and phased retirement plans 192–3, 195 mandatory retirement, ending of 6–7, 136, 209–12 mass retirements/hirings 80 maternity leave, at SU 178 mathematics, PhD production 26 mathematics post-docs 65, 68
McDermed, Ann 11
McDevitt, Roland D. 118, 119, 120, 124, 126
McGill, Dan M. 129
McPherson, Michael S. 234

Medicaid 102–4
see also Medicare
medical fields post-docs 65, 68 Medicare
and ARM predictions 166–7 background 102–4
and employer obligations 132 faculty retiree costs 130 incomplete cover 16
and retirees 17
see also post-65 health care Medicare wrap-around coverage 174–5 merit pay 86–7
mid-career faculty see early and mid-career faculty Mitchell, Olivia S. 234
Moe, Michael T. 30
Morgan, Harriet 19
motivators
for retirement 87–91
for senior faculty 86–7
Mueller, Marjorie Smith 107

National Survey of Postsecondary Faculty (1998) 240 NIH (National Institutes of Health) budget, and post-doc positions 66 non-profit institutions of higher education, and accounting standards 120 non-tenure-track faculty concern over 47 demand for 37–43
see also faculty, employment levels vs. for-profit sector increase in 18–19
new hires 43–6
proportion of 33–5, 37, 51 notional defined contribution plans 118–19

OBRA see Omnibus Budget and Reconciliation Acts oceanography see earth science and oceanography post-docs office space for retired faculty 90, 92, 205, 217–18, 261 see also lab space for retired faculty Oi, Walter Y. 237
Index

Omnibus Budget and Reconciliation Acts (1989/90) 118 Oster, Sharon M. 235

parental leave, at SU 178–9 part-time faculty growth of 35–6, 277–9
and health insurance 16 sponsored health care plan at SU 174 pay-as-you-go retiree benefits 121–2 Pencavel, John 15, 236
pension benefits, and post-doc positions 72, 74 pension plans, and retirement patterns 212–15 permanent personnel policies 215–16 see also phased retirement plans phased retirement plans 283
as humane 243
incidence of 12–14, 189–95, 220–21 and on-campus workloads 200–201 outcomes for individuals 246–8 problems addressed by 185–6 questions institutions should ask 250
and retirement decisions 91–2, 202–4 at Syracuse University 179–81
at University of California 252–7 University of North Carolina case study 195–206 value for faculty 186–7, 200–202, 206 value for universities 188–9, 202–7, 241–6, 248–9 see also Stanford University early retirement plan, half-time jobs PhDs see earned doctorates, trends in Phelan, C. 139
physical sciences, postdoctorate population 55 physics, PhD production 26 physics post-docs 65, 68–9 Pikrell, Jesse F. 105
planning, role of institutional research 7–9 Plus 5 program 226–7
post-65 health care 174–5 postdoctoral position duration 67–76 postdoctoral position takeup 56–67 postdoctorate associations 53 postdoctorate population growth 53–6, 279–80 pre-65 retirees 115
private institutions
and buyout programs 224
and DB/DC pension plans 213–14
early retirement plans 14–15
and phased retirement plans 13, 192
and phased retirement policies 221
proportion of non-tenure-track faculty 33–5, 37, 51 proportion of part-time faculty 35–6 proportion providing retiree health benefits 122–4 retirement plan types 10–11 probit analysis 193
productivity of faculty, and phased retirement 188 Professors of the Practice see part-time faculty promotional prospects 6 public institutions accounting standards 120–21
and buyout programs 224
and DB/DC pension plans 213–14
and phased retirement policies 221
proportion of non-tenure-track faculty 33–5, 37, 51 proportion of part-time faculty 35–6 proportion providing retiree health benefits 122–4 retirement plan types 10–11
Purcell, Pat 11
Quinn, Joseph 20
recruitment, developing new policies 277–80 Rees, Albert 19
research (into Three Rs), need for 267–75, 285 data user needs 271–2 faculty demographics 268–9 impact of funding variation 269–71 model for collaborative research 274–5 standardizing measures 272–3 research and doctoral institutions 13 see also doctoral institutions restructuring faculty 10

Robert L. Clark and Jennifer Ma - 9781845425548
Downloaded from PubFactory at 09/15/2023 10:52:49AM via free access
Index

Sass, Steven A. 116, 131
SCFRP see Survey of Changes in Faculty Retirement Policies Schapiro, Morton Owen 234
Schibik, Timothy 49
SDR see Survey of Doctorate Recipients SED see Survey of Earned Doctorates senior faculty see late-career faculty severance behavior forecasting 227–30, 232
Shapiro, Mark 18
Siegfried, John J. 49
Smallwood, Scott 49
Smith, Sharon 19
stable enrollments 10
Stanford University early retirement plan 264–6 adverse selection problem 263
bonus size 263
call-back status 235, 261 eligibility 260
financial advice for faculty 262 half-time jobs 264
state defined benefit plan 11–12
Stein, Herb 112
Stephan, Paula E. 235
stock market performance, and retirement rates 11, 265–6 Strong, Jay V. 105, 107
SU see Syracuse University Supported Resignation Program 179 see also Tenured Faculty Voluntary Phased Retirement Program Survey of Changes in Faculty Retirement Policies (SCFRP)
12–13, 189–95, 211
Survey of Doctorate Recipients (SDR) 67
Survey of Earned Doctorates (SED) 56 Survey of Graduate Students and Postdoctorates in Science and Engineering 54–5 surveys, of faculty attitudes 8–9 Switkes, Ellen 15, 236, 253
Syracuse University (SU) Family Leave Benefits policy 177–9
gaining acceptance for policies 182–3

Robert L. Clark and Jennifer Ma • 9781845425548
Downloaded from PubFactory at 09/15/2023 10:52:49AM via free access Index

health care HR practices 170–76 phased retirement 179–81

Take 5 program 226–7
technology changes, and health care costs 110
temporary personnel policies 215–16

tenure
and phased retirement policies 190–92, 193–5
relinquishment of, vs. retirement 212

Tenured Faculty Voluntary Phased Retirement Program 179–81

Thompson, Lawrence H. 117

Three Rs 267
TIAA-CREF Institute 29, 81, 93, 189, 274, 280
TIAA-CREF Institute Three Rs conference 267, 285
Trotman, Carroll-Ann 97
Trower, Cathy A. 97

UC see University of California UCFW see University Committee on Faculty Welfare
UM see University Minnesota
UNC see University of North Carolina universities see institutions of higher learning

University of California (UC) administration-faculty retirement program discussions 252–7

buyout program case study 224–32
early retirement plans 15
University Committee on Faculty Welfare (UCFW) 254–7
University Minnesota (UM) 82–93, 88 University of North Carolina (UNC) age structure of faculty 3–5, 28 faculty growth needs 28–9 faculty income levels 88
phased retirement plans 14, 29–30, 195–206, 219
relinquishment of, vs. retirement 212 retiring at 70, probability of 7 senior faculty 82–93
US health care financing 102–4

Varian, Hal 30

verips (Voluntary Early Retirement Incentive Programs) 225–32, 253

Watts, Michael 49

Weiler, William C. 237
Wergin, Jon F. 87
window policies 216
see also buyout programs Wise, David 20
wrap-around coverage see Medicare wrap-around coverage

Zhang, Liang 49