Tables

4.1 Characteristics of international rankings 69
4.2 Profile of the Business Week full-time MBA ranking 74
4.3 Profile of the Financial Times full-time MBA ranking 74
4.4 Profile of the Wall Street Journal full-time MBA ranking 75
4.5 Profile of the Economist Intelligence Unit full-time MBA ranking 76
4.6 Deans’ ratings of ranking criteria 91
4.7 Composite measures of ranking criteria, mean values 92
5.1 The top 30 positions in five international rankings 99
5.2 The position of European business schools in international rankings 102
5.3 Top European business schools in international rankings 104
5.4 Reasons and experienced pressures to participate in rankings 106
5.5 Reputation influences 108
5.6 Reasons and experienced pressures to participate in rankings and accreditation 110
5.7 MBA rankings and stated current position of business schools 116
5.8 Referenced European business schools 122
6.1 Perceptions of performance measures in the different rankings 133
6.2 Ranking the rankings 134
6.3 Evaluation of interest groups identified in the rankings 135
6.4 The importance of rankings for business schools 144
6.5 Initiated changes in response to rankings 146
B.1 Rotated factor matrix for factor analysis of ranking criteria 190
B.2 Communalities table for factor analysis of ranking criteria 191
C.1 Rotated component matrix for school features 192
C.2 Communalities table for factor analysis 192
D.1 Correlation ‘academic focus’ of business school and groups of ranking criteria 193
D.2 Correlation ‘business focus’ of business school and groups of ranking criteria 193
D.3 Correlation ‘MBA programme’ and groups of ranking criteria 194
E.1 Comparing reasons for participation in rankings and accreditation 195