Index

AACSB accreditation system 68, 139, 185 academic-business continuum 46, 51, 63, 79 accreditation basic function 113
  participation in 195
  and rankings 107–10, 139
  as screening mechanism 68 agency
  arenas for 181–2
  concept 30
  and fields 29–30
  and structure 23–4
Albert, Stuart 30
Alford, Robert R. 23
AMBA accreditation system 68, 139, 185 AméricaEconomica, as ranker 109 analytical themes 4–5, 39–41
  autonomy 40–41
  positions 40
  templates 40
arenas 170–84
  classification systems as 35–41, 171–5
  concept 35, 128, 171
  European 131–8
  interest groups, evaluation 135 management education, European 129–41 performance measures, perceptions 133 for power and agency 181–2 ranking of rankings 134
Aristotelian classification systems 37, 40, 97
Association of MBAs 186 audit society/activity 9–10 Austria, business schools established in 43 authority, epistemic 28
autonomy
  analytical themes 40–41
  and business school rankings 128–51, 175
  credibility contests 28
benchmarks, and prototypes 121–6
Bocconi University, business school established 43, 45
Bologna declaration (1999) 12
bonus systems, business-oriented business schools 55
boundaries
  'academy-business' 155–8
  and boundary-work 27–8
  cognitive character 29
  benchmarks, and prototypes 121–6
  and business school rankings 128–51, 175
  credibility contests 28
benchmarks, and prototypes 121–6
Bocconi University, business school established 43, 45
Bologna declaration (1999) 12
bonus systems, business-oriented business schools 55
boundaries
  'academy-business' 155–8
  and boundary-work 27–8
  cognitive character 29
  benchmarks, and prototypes 121–6
  and business school rankings 128–51, 175
  credibility contests 28
benchmarks, and prototypes 121–6

Bourdieu, Pierre 4
  on agency/habitus 23
  on boundaries 173
  on capital 173
  on fields 20–3, 24–5, 184–7

Downloaded from Elgar Online at 01/29/2019 04:09:27AM via free access
Index

and rankings 39
on hierarchies of classification systems 40–41 Bowker, Geoffrey C. 37, 97–8, 118 brands/branding 58, 144
British Research Assessment Exercise 134 Brunsson, Nils 182
business school templates 65–96
assessment indicators 73 and business values 85 confirming conformity with 110–12 customer approach 70–72
factor analysis 90
feature criteria 72
financial gain 90–91
formation 76–7
gender diversity 90, 189
graduates, employability 72–6 identification with 77–86
international 67–70
international diversity 90, 191
narratives 85
outcome measures 73
output measures 73
and rankings 66–77
international 69
reputation criteria 72–3 screening mechanisms 68 selection mechanisms 68–9 see also templates business schools academic-oriented see university setting, business school in business-oriented see business-oriented business schools capital of, and rankings criteria 92–4 doctor, confirming belonging to 103–12 European, boundaries/boundary-work 155–63 international 5–7, 8, 49–51
media, ranking of international schools in 5–7 perceived current position, and MBA rankings 116 ‘practical’, and ‘academic’ university departments 43 rankings and position of 98–103 templates see business school templates; templates top, international rankings 104 university settings see university setting, business school in versus executive training institutions 82–84 versus university department 80–82 business values, and business school templates 85 Business Week rankings
business school templates 67, 70, 71, 72, 73, 88–9
European business school deans on 131
and Financial Times rankings 130
MBA programmes 6, 71, 74
methodological approaches 132
ranking lists 1
non-US schools 7
business-academia continuum 46, 51, 63, 79 business-oriented business schools 51–8 academic organization 53 academic titles, non-existence 53 academic-oriented schools compared 53, 58–63
billable 54
bonus system, research 55 branding 58
business advisory council 56
citizenship 54
comparisons/competition 58 director, executive training/development 52–3 directorate, faculty motivations 60 management team 54
MBA programmes 57–8
academic-oriented schools compared 61–2 efficiency, executive 52
research 55–7
academic-oriented schools compared 59–61
teaching 60
tenure concept, abolition 53 time ratios 54
workload 55
California Management Review 89
California University, business school established 43 capital 21
concept 21
Carnegie graduate school 43
Challenges, as ranker 109
Chicago, GBS campuses (Europe and Asia) 8 Chicago University, business school established 43, 51
citizenship 54
classifications
as arenas for boundary-work (of fields) 35–41 Aristotelian 37, 40, 97 and authority 173
as credibility contests 27, 174–5 as governance mechanisms 36 and groups 37
and hierarchies 37, 40–41, 174 measurement techniques 36, 38 multiple systems 26
organizational fields, role in 20–41 and positions 112–13
prototypical 37, 97, 98, 172 rankings as 3, 15, 38–9 visibility through 36–8 competition
academic-oriented business schools 51
business-oriented business schools 58
in international field 139–41 and participation in rankings 107 rankers, between 7
Corley, Kevin G. 149
credibility contests
classification systems as 27, 174–5
genres 28
science as 27
cultural capital 22
cultural fields 21, 97
Czarniawska, Barbara 30, 32
Daniel, Carter 5, 45, 46, 67 data analysis 187
Davis, Joseph E. 31
departments, university and business schools 47–9, 80–2 Dichev, Ilia D. 2
Duke ‘Cross Continent’ MBA programme 8
Ecole des Hautes Etudes Commerciales (Paris) business school established 43 economic capital 22
The Economist 1, 7, 68, 71
Economist Intelligence Unit, MBA ranking 71, 73, 76 elite groups, boundaries of 160–63
Elsbach, Kimberly D. 2, 70, 174
Emirbayer, Mustafa 30 empirical data 17, 25
Engwall, Lars 44
epistemic authority 28
EQUIS accreditation systems 185
business templates 68
development 139
positions 113, 114
Europe
accreditation systems, and business
templates 68
business schools established in 43, 44
business templates 85–6
accreditation systems 68 management education 1, 5, 7–10
positions of business schools 101 and United States, boundaries between 158–60 European arenas, boundary-work authoritative 131–6
need for European arena 136–8 European business schools boundaries/boundary-work 155–63 and Financial Times 130 expansion, credibility contests 28 expulsion, credibility contests 28 external relations 148–50
factor analysis 90, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192 field frames and logics 22 field structuration 25, 26–7 field struggles, classification systems as Elsbach, Kimberly D. 2. fields and agency 29–30 boundaries and boundary-work in see boundaries; boundary-work ‘business school’ 63
capital, struggle for 21–3 change in 177–8
classification systems, role in 20–41 concept/definition 14, 21, 26 cultural 21, 97
formation 34–5
and communities of organizations, formation 175 and identity concept 15, 34–5 incremental field change 176–8 issue-based 22–3
management education, European expansion 7–10 market demand, and regulatory pressures 10–13 MBA programme, diffusion 8–10 media, international business school rankings in 5–7 membership of 173
norms and values 23
organizational see organizational fields perpective of 4–16 social 21
structure and agency, linking of 23–4 top-down conceptualizations 36 Financial Times rankings academic-business boundary 156 boundaries between Europe/United States 158, 159, 160 boundaries of elite group 161 business education coverage 6, 7
business school templates 73
boundary-work, and ranking criteria 86, 87
customer approach 71
graduate employability 75 international schools 67, 68
ranking criteria 86, 87–8, 90, 92
criticisms 2, 137
development 129, 130
European criteria used 136
European management education organizations, positioning 166 European schools 134
expansion of rankings, explaining 153 international business schools, rankings of 16 international coverage 17 MBA rankings 74, 115
methodological approach 132 and paradoxes 168
positions 117–18, 120
and MBA rankings 115
superior status 131, 132, 133, 134, 136
Fligstein, Neil 167
Forbes 1, 75, 101
Foucault, Michel 21, 38, 114
Francebusiness schools established in 43, 44
MBA programmes in 44
university system 44–5 Friedland, Roger 23
gender diversity 90, 189
generalized other 66
and self 33–4
Germany
applied and pure fields 45
business schools established in 44
Giddens, Anthony 24
Gioy, Thomas F. 14, 27, 28, 35, 40, 173–4
Gioia, Dennis A 149 globalization/global society 9
Goffman, Erving 31
Graduate Management Admission Council (GMAC) 140
graduates, employability 72–6 grandes écoles, management education developed in 44 Greenwood, Royston 25, 26, 171 groups, and classification systems 37
The Guardian, as ranker 109 habitus, concept 23, 24
Handelschochschulen (Germany) 45
Harvard Business Review 89
Harvard graduate school 43, 51, 58 hierarchies, of classification systems 37, 40–41, 174
Hoffman, Andrew J. 22
Index 209
Linda Wedlin - 9781847200273
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 01/29/2019 04:09:27AM via free access
Index

identification 31–3
with business school templates 77–86 identity formation
and boundary-work 34–5, 84–6
and business school field 62–3 local processes 34
self, notion of 32, 33, 34 identity/identities boundaries/boundary work, and identity theory 155
concept 15, 31–2, 33
‘essential self’ definition 30
and fields 15, 34–5
formation see identity formation and narratives 32–3, 42, 58–63 rankings, as identity threats 2 in social theory 30, 31–3 uncertainty 181
INSEAD business school and American model 44–5, 158 boundaries between Europe/United States 158
MBA programme launched by 45
Singapore campus 8
institutional logics 22 institutional theory 25 intellectual capital 88–9 interest groups, evaluation 135
international diversity 90, 191
international rankings position of European business schools 102–3, 104
top 30 positions 99–100 interviews, studies of rankings 17–18 isomorphism 25, 28, 179, 180 issue-based field, concept 22–3
Italy, business schools established in 43, 45
Kramer, Roderick M. 2, 70, 174
Lamont, Michèle 29, 34
Le Figaro, as ranker 109 league tables, international 1–2 Locke, Robert 43, 44
logics 11, 22
editorial 11
London School of Economics 43, 44
Lounsbury, Michael 22
management education
European 1, 5, 7–10
arena for creating European perspective 129–41
field of 43–6
international market for 163–7 organizations 42–64
Manchester Business School 43, 44, 124
market demand, regulatory pressures 10–13
market logic 11, 22
markets
concept 11
international, making 166–7
MBA magazine, ranking by 5
MBA programmes
academic-business boundary 157
academic-oriented business schools 49–50
business school templates 67, 71–2, 73–5, 79–82
boundary-work and ranking criteria 83, 87, 93
and positions 111
Business Week ranking 6, 74
business-oriented business schools 57–8
academic-oriented schools
compared 61–2
conflicts of interest 45–6 diffusion 7–10
elites, business school 105 employability of students 73, 75 executive 52
expansion, Europe 8–9, 81 expansion of rankings, explaining 153
Financial Times ranking 1, 74 in France 44
full-time, business-oriented business schools 52
international management education, position in 79
international market, management education 164, 165
origins 8
Index

analytical themes 39, 40
benchmarks and prototypes 121–6 business school elite, confirming belonging to 103–12 business school templates, confirming conformity with 110–12 and classification systems 112 continuously formed/re-formed 128 creation 119–21 distinction/distinctive, creating 112–21 existing, confirming 117–19
and rankings 98–103, 107–10
MBA, influence on perceived positions 115–17 templates distinguished 172 power, arenas for 181–2
Power, Mike 9–10
PR activities 149–50
prototypes, and benchmarks 121–6 prototypical classification systems 37, 97, 98, 172
ranking criteria
and boundary-work 86–94
and business school focus 193 and capital of business schools 92–4 deans’ ratings of 91
debating 87–9
and MBA programme 194
varying perceptions 89–92 ranking game 2, 141–50, 182–4 brands, building 144 changes, introducing 145–8
external relations 148–50
MBA recruitment 143–4
ranking lists
and position of business schools 98 proliferation 1–2, 7, 11–12 role 3
rankings
and accreditation 107–10, 139 anxiety 2–3
and autonomy of field 128–51
and business school templates 66–77 as classification systems 3, 15, 38–9 construction, as commensuration process 157
and business school templates 111
profiles/roles 61–2 and ranking criteria 194 rankings, influence on perceived positions 115–17 recruitment, influencing 143–4 structure, and ranking of school 2–3 Wall Street Journal ranking 75 Mead, George Herbert 30, 34, 66, 183 measurement problems, rankings 3 media international business school rankings in 5–7 and PR activities 149–50
Miller, Peter 11
Mische, Ann 30
Moon, Hyeyoung 6, 9
narratives
business school templates 85
and identities 32–3, 42, 58–63 neo-institutional theory 28
New York Times 89 norms and values, fields 23
Nouvel Economiste, as ranker 109
Oakes, Leslie S. 25, 34, 36
Ocasio, William 11
organizational fields
classification systems, role in 20–41
concept 4, 20
organizational identity, defined 30 organizations, management education academic-oriented business schools 46–51
business-oriented business schools 51–8 fragmented field 43–6 narratives and identities, similarities and differences 58–63
research 55–7
paradoxes, ranking 167–9 pedagogic practice, business planning as 36 personal identity 31 political technologies, audits as 36
positions
accreditation and rankings 107–10
rankings (cont.):
- as identity threats 2
- identity-formation processes, role in international rankings
- ‘mathesis’ of 179
- MBA programmes, influence on perceived positions 115–17
- measurement problems 3
- methodological approaches 132
- national 109
- paradoxes 167–9
- participation in, reasons/pressures 105, 106, 107, 110, 195
- and positions of schools 98–103, 109
- ranking of 134
- reputation influences 108
- studies 16–19
- volatility 3

Rao, Hayagreeva 178

regulatory logic 22

research
- academic-oriented business schools 48
- assessment, journals used in 137, 138
- business schools compared 59–61
- business-oriented business schools 55–7

Scandinavian 15

Røvik, Kjell-Arne 25

Sahlin-Andersson, Kerstin 171, 182

St Gallen, business school established 43

Scandinavia
- business schools established 43
- management education, development 45
- research in 15

science, and boundaries 27, 28

Scott, Richard W. 24, 25, 35–6, 73

Segev, Eli 2–3, 76–7

self, concept of 33–4

Sevón, Guje 171

Shore, Cris 10

Silverman, David 187

Sloan Management Review 89

Sloan School of Management 51, 58 social capital 22

social fields 21

social identity 31–2, 33

social theory, 30, 31–3 socialized agents, agency as 23–4

Spain, business schools established in 45

Star, Susan Leigh 37, 97–8, 118

Stockholm School of Economics 43 structuration, field 25, 26–7 structure, and agency 23–4 studies of rankings 16–19 symbolic capital 14, 21–2 taxonomies 38

teaching and research, role in business schools 59–61

templates
- analytical themes 39, 40
- business school see business school templates
- concept 65–6
- continuously formed/re-formed 128
- mediating role 178–80
- positions distinguished 172

Thornton, Patricia H. 11

Thunderbird, Garvin School of International Management 58

The Times, as ranker 109

Times Higher Education Supplement, ‘World University Rankings’ 1

UCINET software programme 124

UCLA graduate school 43

United Kingdom
- accreditation systems, and business templates 68
- business schools established 43, 44

United States
- accreditation systems, and business templates 68
- American education model 43–4, 137, 138, 158
- establishment and expansion of business schools 43
- and Europe, boundaries between 158–60

MBA programme, origins in 8 prominence of business schools 101 rankings of business schools appearing in 5, 6, 7 university setting, business school in 46

Index

'academic' departments, and
'practical' business schools 43 aim 47–8 business-oriented schools compared 53, 58–63
commercial fee paid 50 corporations/competition 51 department 47–9 faculty motivations 60
faculty time 48
international business school, status as 49–51
MBA programmes 49–50
business-oriented schools
compared 61–2
PhD programmes 48
reputation 50
research priorities 48
business-oriented schools
compared 59–61
teaching 48, 60
US News & World Report, as ranker 6
and Financial Times rankings 130 Wall Street Journal rankings 1
business school templates 71, 75, 88, 89 international schools 68
European business school deans on 131 first ranking of business schools 7 full-time MBA ranking, profile 75
methodological approaches 132
Warwick Business School 124, 125 Wharton School of Finance and Commerce 43, 58
Whetten, David 30
Whitley, Richard 13–14
Wright, Susan 10
Zamagni, Vera 44