

Contents

---

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| List of contributors  | vii |
| Introduction: navigating in the dark when bits have no bordersSean A. Pager and Adam Candeub                                    | 1   |
| 1 The challenge(s) of cyberlawDavid G. Post   | 18  |
| 2 Copyright, culture and the CloudDaniel J. Gervais   | 31  |
| 3 Addressing “libel tourism”Lili Levi   | 55  |
| 4 YouTube from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe: tyrannize locally,censor globallyHannibal Travis                                    | 76  |
| 5 Balkanizing the InternetKevin W. Saunders   | 107 |
| 6 Timid liberalism: a critique of the process-oriented norms forInternet blockingMilton Mueller                             | 124 |
| 7 Internet creativity, communicative freedom and aconstitutional rights theory response to “code is law”Christoph B. Graber | 135 |
| 8 Diminished, enduring, and emergent diversity policy concernsin an evolving media environmentPhilip M. Napoli              | 165 |
| 9 Cultural protectionism 2.0: updating cultural policy tools forthe digital ageMira Burri                                   | 182 |
| 10 Copyright, complexity, and cultural diversity: a skeptic’s viewMichal Shur-Ofry  | 203 |

|    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 11 | The Nigerian film industry and lessons regarding cultural diversity from the home-market effects model of international trade in filmsMark F. Schultz | 231 |
| 12 | Digital content production in Nigeria and Brazil: a case for cultural optimism?Sean A. Pager  | 262 |
| 13 | Decolonizing networked technology: learning from the street danceLarisa Mann  | 288 |
| 14 | Balancing act: the creation and circulation of indigenous knowledge and culture inside and outside the legal frameKimberly Christen                   | 316 |
| 15 | Localism as a production imperative: an alternative framework for promoting intangible cultural heritageJon M. Garon                                  | 346 |
| 16 | Cross-country comparison of audience tastes in Hollywood movies: cultural distance and genre preferencesW. Wayne Fu                                   | 370 |
| 17 | Protecting and promoting national cultures in a world where bits want to flow freelySang Yup Lee and Steven S. Wildman                                | 389 |
|    | Index   | 411 |