Index

accounting systems 206, 352, 359 action research 80–81, 307, 319–20, 329 see also extended value chain innovation study; user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study Activity Based Costing (ABC) 352–6 see also co-innovation for profitability study
Actor Network Theory (ANT) 27, 28, 79–80, 91–4, 95 actors 73, 75, 76, 77–8, 79, 85–6, 87–8, 91–2, 94 see also Actor Network Theory (ANT); extended value chain innovation study; innovation groups; stakeholders; users ‘add-ons,’ in servitization 181–2 administrative innovation/reforms 159, 162, 163, 207 administrators 234–5 affinity diagram 313
affordability 155–6
after-innovation, users’ roles 11, 369–70, 388 after-sales services 177, 178, 185 see also consulting services;
preventative maintenance;
repair and maintenance services; user training agency 254, 265, 266–7, 270 airline industry 357–8
see also co-innovation for
profitability study
airplane seat redesign 360–61, 363, 367
Alam, I, 11, 14, 103, 104, 115, 125, 147, 183, 304, 323, 326, 347, 348, 379
Alford, J. 8, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 236–7 Amit, R. 123, 169, 170
anthropology 40, 50, 61–2, 67, 327 Antos, J. 352, 353, 355, 356 architectural innovation 78, 79, 81 artefacts see boundary objects; physical artefacts
Asian markets 167, 168, 357 attitude change 178, 185, 193 attitudes
employee-driven innovation (EDI) 255, 260, 265 innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 164, 170 ‘othering’ in service encounters study 45, 49, 50, 52, 53, 57–8, 63, 64, 66, 67 automation of services 354, 355–6, 363–4, 368, 377 back-office employees
service blueprinting 380
service innovation 324, 326
user-driven innovation in tourism:
an experimental study 327, 328, 330, 331–2, 336–9, 340, 341, 342
Baden-Fuller, C. 123, 128
Baines, T. 177, 178, 179, 180, 182 Baker, T. 25, 30, 31, 37 balanced empowerment 3–4, 326 before-sales services 185 Belderbos, R. 151
benchmarking 106, 109, 110
beneficiaries
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 240, 241, 242, 247
public services 229–30, 232, 233, 234, 236
in user definitions 227
Beresford, P. 204, 215
Bessant, J. 73, 106, 255–6, 326, 342
User-based innovation in services

Bitner, M.J. 232, 310, 325, 354, 375, 380 bonds 46
boundaries 55 boundary objects 125–8, 130, 141
Bovaird, T. 234
Bowonder, B. 148, 150, 152, 169 branding 163, 192, 361 breakthrough innovation 102, 107 see also KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study bricolage: user-based innovation in services studies background: innovation concept and theories 25–9 bricolage concept 27, 29–32 case studies 32–40
discussion and conclusion 41–2 Brimson, J.A. 352, 353, 355, 356 brokering 106, 233
budget crises 83, 90–91 bundles of goods and services 181 bureaucracy barrier to service innovation 326 constitutional responsibilities, as necessary for 221 Public Administration 204, 206, 207, 208, 210, 211, 213–14, 215 business advisory services 185
business models 122–8, 129–31, 155, 168 see also business models in user-based development of services study business models in user-based development of services study case study on internationalization of KIBS 131–40 concluding discussion 140–42 internationalization of KIBS and the business model 121–2, 128–31 structure and function of business models 122–8 business processing outsourcing (BPO) 146, 147 business-to-business situations 6, 73, 195, 365–6, 368 see also business models in user-based development of services study; extended value chain innovation study; KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study; service innovation as an experience study Buur, J. 256, 259, 313
cafés 78–9, 81–2, 85, 88, 91–2
see also ‘othering’ in service encounters study callers 241, 242–3, 244, 245 Campbell, J.L. 25, 30, 31 capabilities
business models 124, 125, 126, 130, 133, 135
definitions 153, 156–7
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry 155, 156–7, 159, 163–5, 168, 169, 170 outsourcing in the IT services industry 150, 151
resource-based view 154, 157
servitization 183
strategic management 152–3 see also competences; dynamic capabilities theories; knowledge; skills capital cost savings 181, 195 capital investment 353, 355, 360–61, 367
Carlile, P.R. 127, 384
Carlzon, J. 257, 258, 270 case study methodology 32, 107–8, 187, 307 see also semi-structured interviews; unstructured interviews catering sector see cafés; hotels; ‘othering’ in service encounters study; restaurants CEOs 262–3, 264
Chadée, D. 155
champions 152, 253–4 change, versus innovation 25–6 change agents 76, 77, 106, 107, 253, 269 Chesbrough, H. 4, 76, 101, 103, 123 choice 206, 207, 210, 212, 214, 215, 244, 350 Christensen, C.M. 101, 103, 151
Index

Christensen, T. 205–6, 207–8 Christmas lunches 83, 86, 90–91, 92 citizen as co-producer 211–12, 214, 216, 218, 223 citizen as consumer 206–8, 214, 215, 216–17, 219, 222, 223, 228, 232–3 citizen as user 203–4, 214–21, 223 citizen engagement 212 citizens
   concept 6
   multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245
   public services 214, 233, 235, 236, 237
   responsibility 216, 217 roles 203–4, 206–8, 211–12, 214–21, 222, 223, 228, 232–3 value of public services 229–30, 231, 232
   citizenship 207, 208, 216–21 Clarke, J. 8, 206, 207, 210, 211, 215–16, 219, 220 clients
   co-innovation for profitability study 348
   multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 240 Public Administration 204, 214–15
   public services 232, 233, 236
   in user definitions 6, 7, 227
see also consumers; customers; users closed innovation 4, 76
co-creation 5, 11, 230, 231, 252, 257, 264–8, 270–74, 285
co-development 6, 11, 304–6, 382
see also user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study
co-innovation for profitability study analysis of the user-based approaches in the case projects 366–70 case study of the integration of profitability and user-orientation 356–66 concluding remarks 371–2 profitability and cost management in services 350–56 co-innovators 246–8 cognitive rationalization 355 collaboration
   co-creation 252
   innovation in the IT services industry 149
   multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 241, 244, 246–8
   public services 215–16, 230, 231, 234, 236, 237
   user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 325
users’ roles 7–8
commonality of experiences 54, 55 communication
   bricolage in user-based innovation in services 33–4, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40
   business models 124, 125–6, 127–8, 131, 140, 141
   innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 165, 171 internationalization 129–30
   user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 339 see also information; information and communication technologies; knowledge acquisition; knowledge sharing; networks; technology transfer communities 216, 217, 234 communities of practice 125, 127, 131 communities of users 12, 234, 349, 370 community development initiatives 204–5 competence deficits 191, 327, 331, 340

Jon Sundbo and Marja Toivonen - 9780857931962 Downloaded from Elgar Online at 02/12/2019 01:35:48AM via free access competences
Activity Based Costing 353, 355
business models in user-based development of services study 135, 139–40
cost-effective 252 cost-effective for profitability study 362–3, 371, 372
definitions 153
employee-driven innovation 256
extended value chain 91
IT services industry 146, 150, 164, 172
Network Governance approaches to 212–13
public services 209, 216, 220, 231, 242, 248–9
service innovation 11, 74
spaces of living 54
strategic management 152
conflict 171, 247–8
cost-effective responsibilities 221 construction costs savings 135, 136, 137 construction sector see service innovation as an experience study consulting services 101–2, 177, 178, 184, 185, 186, 188, 191–4, 195 see also KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study consumers 6, 8, 207, 214, 215–16, 222, 223, 227, 233 see also consumer as consumer; clients; consumerism; consumption of services; customers; users consumption of services multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 242–3
user-driven innovation in tourism:
an experimental study 325
users’ roles 7–8, 231, 232–3, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239
value 5

content analysis 134, 159, 240
Cooper, R.G. 13, 81, 89, 102, 156, 304, 378, 387 content analysis 38–40, 151, 160, 211, 212, 214, 343 core competences 153, 179 core IS capabilities 157 core products 181–2 core users 37
cost management
Activity Based Costing 353, 354
airline industry 357–8
business models in user-based
development of services study 135, 136, 137
co-innovation for profitability study 356–7, 359, 361–4, 367–8 innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry 150, 155, 161 issues in the services context 350–56
IT services industry 145, 150
KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study 109
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 243, 244
New Public Management 206 versus quality of services 350–52
servitization 181
user-based service innovation 347 see also accounting systems; Activity Based Costing (ABC); cost sharing; costs; revenue streams cost sharing 110, 115, 161 costs
business models 124, 125, 126, 133, 136
internationalization 129
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 243, 244, 247
public services 235, 237
versus quality of services 350–52
user-based innovation in services 103, 104
see also affordability; cost management; cost sharing; knowledge acquisition costs; labour costs; low cost carriers (LCCs); overhead costs; pricing; transaction cost economics; variable costs creativity
bricolage in user-based innovation in services 30–31, 35, 37, 40, 41
coop-development 304
extended chain value innovation study 92–3
in innovation definitions 25
KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study 109, 111, 115, 116, 117
user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study 251, 261, 262, 269, 271, 273
user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 336, 340
creativity deficits 256 critical incident technique 32
see also bricolage: user-based innovation in services studies Crouch, C. 219
crowdsourcing 150, 168 cultural consumption theory 8 culture 121, 130, 131, 133, 155, 167 see also cultural consumption theory; innovation culture; multi-culturalism; service culture customer acquisition costs 181, 195 customer as user 105, 115, 117, 147, 149 customer base 191–2, 193 customer interface 124, 125, 126, 128, 129 customer relationship
business models 124, 125, 126, 128, 132, 135, 139
service marketing 9
servitization 183, 184, 185, 186
user-based innovation in services 76, 104, 105
user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study 318–19 users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study 190, 193
value 8
customer satisfaction 76, 257, 305, 326–7, 332–3, 334, 335, 336, 363 see also customer satisfaction surveys; user information; user needs customer satisfaction surveys
coop-development 305
coo-innovation for profitability study 360, 366, 367, 371 critique 327–8, 341–2
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 241, 245, 246
service innovation as an experience study 285, 297
service marketing 10
user-based innovation in services 46, 254
user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 329–31, 332–41, 342 customer service orientation 206, 207, 208, 209, 260, 261 customers
co-innovation for profitability study 348
concept 6, 7, 8, 227
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 240, 244
New Public Management 207, 208, 214
public sector 8, 215
role 7–8
see also clients; consumers; customer as user; key customers; life-span of customership; paying customers; services supporting the customer (SSC); target customers; users customization 47, 57, 147, 170, 185, 313, 316, 352, 378 dairies 78, 79, 81, 82, 85, 87, 88, 92 data mining 360, 367
de-politicization of public services 206–7, 208, 209–10, 214, 219–21 decentralization 206, 209, 210, 216 decision-making decision to acquire the service 231, 232, 235, 238, 239, 242, 243 extended value chain innovation study 88–9
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 163, 164, 166, 167, 169, 172 production of public services 233–4
productization in services 383 demand for user-based innovation in services 64 democratization of work 256–7, 258 Denmark 12–13, 33–40, 41, 42, 213 see also extended value chain innovation study; KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study; ‘othering’ in service encounters study; user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study deregulation 155, 357
design 349, 350
see also design game; design thinking competence; participatory design; product design; service design; service redesign design game 313
design thinking competence 257–8, 268 developed countries 145, 146 developing countries 145, 146, 147 Development Partnership 38–40, 41, 42 development team integration 104, 105 diagnosis 106, 107, 307, 347 dialogue 349–50, 368, 369, 370–71 see also employee discussions; user discussions different knowledge 55, 58–9, 63, 65, 66 differentiation 351, 360–61
see also different knowledge; differing interests; interpretative differences; ‘othering’; pluralism differing interests 384, 386 diffusion 31, 40, 41, 146, 151, 228 digitization of services 35, 122–3, 155, 258–9, 353, 355–6, 363–4, 366, 368, 370 disassembling 313, 315

disruptive innovation 155 distribution channels 78, 79, 124, 125, 126, 128, 132, 135, 138–9 distrust 39
Djellal, F. 2, 7, 252, 284, 352, 355 domestic markets 121, 129, 133, 136, 137, 138, 139, 141 domination 61, 62, 66
double stimulation 261
downsizing 347, 353, 356–7, 359, 362–3, 365, 368 Du Gay, P. 206, 209–10, 211, 221 dynamic capabilities theories 27–8 economic recession 259–60, 330, 356 economic values 205–6, 207 education services 231, 247 Edvardsson, B. 3, 5, 46, 73, 81, 126, 230, 231–2, 282, 283, 325, 326, 375, 379, 382, 384 effectiveness
  bricolage in user-based innovation in services 27, 30, 36, 38
cost–quality dilemma 351–2
definitions 352
New Public Management 205, 206, 209, 214, 222
productization in services 376, 384

efficiency
  Activity Based Costing 355–6
  airline industry 358
  co-innovation for profitability study 360–61, 362–3
cost–quality dilemma 351–2
  definitions 352
  extended value chain innovation study 87, 88–9, 95
  innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 147, 161, 162
  New Public Management 205–6, 207, 209, 214
  R&D in the manufacturing sector 73
  service innovation as an experience study 290, 295
  servitization 180
  user-based service innovation, relationship with 347, 375
  user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 338–9, 340, 341, 342 see also productization in services employee engagement 251, 258, 259, 265, 271, 274 employee experiences

  bricolage in user-based innovation in services 30, 33–4, 35, 39, 40
  user-based innovation in services 26–7
  user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study 263, 265, 266, 269, 271, 274
  see also service innovation as an experience study employee ideas 164, 326, 331–2 employee motivation 110, 262 employee participation
  cognitive rationalization 355
  productization in services 375, 379, 383, 385, 386–7
  user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study 265, 269
  user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 331–2 employee responsibilities 256, 257, 258 employee training 39, 40, 41, 42
employees
  job satisfaction 52–3, 65, 189, 256, 259
  skills 2, 30, 39, 257, 258, 284, 355, 371, 372, 375
  well-being at work 251, 258–9, 268, 270, 271, 273 see also back-office employees; employee commitment; employee control; employee discussions; employee-driven innovation (EDI); employee empowerment; employee engagement; employee experiences; employee ideas; employee motivation; employee participation; employee responsibilities; employee spaces of living; employee training; employee–user

Ekeledo, I. 129, 130, 131 elderly care 38–40, 41, 42 electronic billing for small-sized enterprises see service innovation as an experience study employee commitment 110, 117 employee control 258 employee discussions 33–4, 35, 39, 40 employee-driven innovation (EDI) 255–8, 362–3, 370, 385, 386–7, 390 see also user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study; user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study employee empowerment 256, 260, 265, 326 interactions; entrepreneurial employees; front-line employees; labour costs empowerment 3–4, 206, 212, 215–16, 256, 260, 265, 326 end-users 5, 230, 231, 241 engineering consultancies see KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study entrepreneurial employees 171, 326 entrepreneurial experiences 30, 31 entrepreneurial management 35–7, 41, 42 entrepreneurship extended value chain innovation study 77, 84, 88, 91–2, 94, 95 innovation theories 253–4 New Public Management 209 Reinventing Government 205, 206 see also entrepreneurial employees; entrepreneurial experiences; entrepreneurial management; entrepreneurship deficits entrepreneurship deficits 90 environmental factors 164, 170, 179–80 Environmental Trailer 111–14, 115, 116, 117 ethnographic fieldwork 49–51, 67 see also ‘othering’ in service encounters study Europe 145, 146, 357 European markets 167, 357 evaluation 261, 264, 267, 381, 382 Event-Based Narrative Inquiry Technique (EBNIT) 286–7 see also service innovation as an experience study events 30, 284 see also Event-Based Narrative Inquiry Technique (EBNIT); imaginary events; lived critical events; other lived events Evetts, J. 47–8, 59 excluded labour force 84, 86, 90–91, 94 experiences of services co-development 305 concept 282–3 concept in the context of service innovation 283–4 extended value chain innovation study 74, 75, 78, 79, 80, 81, 88, 93, 95 supply chain innovation models 76 see also employee experiences; experiential knowledge; phenomenology; service innovation as an experience study; shared experiences; user experiences experiential knowledge 47, 59 experimentation 111–14, 115, 116, 117, 264 see also field experiments experts co-innovation for profitability study 362, 364, 365–6, 371, 372 extended value chain innovation study 82, 83, 85, 88, 89 KIBS 104, 106, 110–14, 116, 117 productization in services 388 user-based innovation 254 explicit information 127 exploration 31, 41 extended value chain innovation study conclusion 94–6 method and development of the research 80–86 results 87–91 theoretical understanding: extending actor network theory 91–4 theory and modelling 72–80 external actors 77 external demand for professionalism 47–8, 52 facilitators extended value chain innovation study 75, 76, 81–3, 84, 89, 90, 92 KIBS 106 user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study 315 user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study 260–61, 263, 264, 268 user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 330 farmers 78, 79, 81, 82, 83, 85, 87, 88, 95 feedback 164, 165, 316 see also feedback interviews; user feedback feedback interviews 265, 268 field experiments 80–81, 328–9, 342–3 see also extended value chain innovation study; user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study filters 386, 390
financial crises 83, 90–91, 357, 358 financial resources 124, 125, 126, 153 see also capital investment; cost management; costs; financial support; payment financial sector see user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study financial support 109, 110, 234, 235 Finland 12–13 see also business models in user-based development of services study; multiple voices of the user in public sector services study; user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study; user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study; users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study firm growth 149, 153–4, 193, 194 see also future firm growth firm size 151, 191
flexibility
bricolage: user-based innovation in services study 39
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 162, 167, 168, 169, 171, 172
New Public Management 206, 207, 208
Reinventing Government 208
Flyvbjerg, B. 32, 107–8 focus groups 46, 304, 364 food and drinks sector see cafés; farmers; food wholesale sector; gastronomic pasta; hotels; organic cappuccino milk; ‘othering’ in service encounters study; restaurants food wholesale sector 78, 79, 81, 82, 83, 85, 92 foreign direct investment (FDI) 129, 130 foreign markets 121–2, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 136, 137, 138, 139, 141 see also Asian markets; European markets; German markets; global markets; Russian markets foresight methods see future orientation formal procedures 31–2, 33, 34, 35 free agents 79, 94
Freidson, E. 47
Friedli, T. 178, 181, 184
front-line employees
co-innovation for profitability study 362, 363, 364, 368, 370
cognitive rationalization 355
productization in services 386–7, 390
service blueprinting 380
service encounters 46
service innovation 324, 326
user-driven innovation in tourism 327, 328, 330, 331, 332, 336–9, 340, 341, 342 see also home helpers; ‘othering’ in service encounters study; user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study; waiters frustration 59, 170, 268, 270, 273, 294, 297 Fuglsang, L. 4, 31, 33, 204, 252, 324, 326 future firm growth 159, 160, 167, 168 future orientation 9–10, 303, 306–7 see also future firm growth; future-oriented 3D concept generation; trend analysis; user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study; weak signals future-oriented 3D concept generation 312–17, 318, 319 Gaebler, T. 205, 207
Gallouj, F. 2, 3, 5, 7, 75, 77, 95, 101,
User-based innovation in services

102, 107, 117, 230, 252, 284, 294, 323, 325, 326, 352, 355

Gastronomic pasta 82–3, 85, 92, 93

Gebauer, H. 178, 180–81, 184 generalization 329, 343 generalized other 61, 62, 63 generic management 205–6, 209 geographical distribution 127
German markets 134, 137, 138, 139, 140 Gilmore, J.H. 5, 71, 74, 93, 283, 298 global disasters 357 global IT services industry 145–6 global markets 167
globalized work life 258–9 Goncalves, A.P. 7, 257–8

goods see products governance versus government 210–11 governments 147, 160, 210–11, 221 see also municipalities; public sector Govindarajan, V. 152, 154
Grant, R.M. 154
Griesemer, J.R. 127
Grönroos, C. 5, 46, 73, 88, 93, 230, 378 grouping, future-oriented 3D concept generation 313, 314, 315–16 guest space of living 51, 53, 54–5, 56–7, 62–3, 65

Hamel, G. 151, 153
Hartley, J. 204, 207, 212, 213, 216
Hasu, M. 7, 11, 254, 255, 273
Hatton, E. 25, 30, 31
Hauknes, J. 217
health care sector 251–2, 256 see also multiple voices of the user in public sector services study; user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study heating, ventilating and air conditioning (HVAC) industry see users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study heavy users 348, 362, 363, 364, 366, 370, 371 Helkkula, A. 281, 283, 284, 286, 296, 297, 298 help desks 36

see also multiple voices of the user in public sector services study heterogeneous resources 28, 31 hiring personnel 163, 164 Holopainen, M. 303, 308, 382, 389 home helpers 33–5, 41, 42 Hoover, W.E. 183, 376 hospitals 251–2
see also user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study hotels 83, 86, 90–91, 92 Howells, J. 183, 347
Huberman, A.M. 107–8, 240 human resources 2, 153, 162, 163, 168, 171, 355 hybrid products 2
hyperprofessionalism 53, 57, 59–60, 65–6 ideas 168, 311, 312, 315, 317, 318, 319, 325 see also employee ideas; service provider ideas; user ideas imaginary events 286, 287, 289, 290, 294, 295, 296 imaginary experiences 283, 286, 287, 297 imaginary services 310–11, 315, 316 imitation hindrance 170–71 immediate users 5, 177 implementation

bricolage in user-based innovation in services 34, 36, 37, 39, 40, 41
co-development 305
innovation models 11
Not-Invented-Here Syndrome 343
service blueprinting 380, 381
user-based innovation in services 64
user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 325 improvization 31–2, 33, 34, 35, 37 see also ‘jugaad’; ‘making do’ in-flight meals 361–2, 367 incremental innovation

bricolage in user-based service innovation 30, 31, 34, 35, 37, 40, 41–2 employee-driven innovation 257
Index

extended value chain innovation study 89
importance 1
user-based service innovation 26–7
see also stepwise servitization Indian IT services sector 145, 146–8, 150, 151, 154, 155, 160, 172 see also innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study indigenous peoples 61, 62 individual citizens 230, 231, 232 individualized care 33, 34, 39 individuation 27, 28–9, 41–2 industrialized services 6, 377–8 inefficiency 73
information 30, 35–6, 37, 38, 166–7, 168, 180, 186 see also customer satisfaction surveys; employee discussions; explicit information; information and communication technologies; information exchange; interviews; knowledge; service information; tourist informational needs; user discussions; user information; user information deficits information and communication technologies 11, 35–7, 134, 258–9 see also digitization of services; information technology services industry; Internet information and technology outsourcing (ITO) 146, 147, 150, 154, 155 see also innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study information exchange 10, 127, 156, 157, 159, 166, 168, 171 information systems (IS) 146, 149 information technology services industry 145–6, 147, 148–52, 154, 155, 157 see also Indian IT services sector; innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study infrastructure management 124, 125, 126 innovating service firms, role in innovation
business models 123
versus change 25–6 concept and definitions 2, 25–7, 102, 156, 204 health care sector 251–2, 256 versus invention 154
manufacturing sector 2
models see linear model of innovation; stage gate models of innovation practice-based theories 27–8
public sector 203, 204–5, 206–10, 212–14, 215, 218–19, 220–21
theories 1–2, 4, 253–9
users’ roles 9, 10–12
well-being at work as a prerequisite 258–9 Innovation Board 109, 110 innovation culture 152, 159–60 innovation groups 79, 80, 82–3, 84, 85–6, 87–8, 90, 94, 95 innovation networks 76–7, 101, 254–5 innovation processes 12, 75, 149, 150 innovation projects 77, 109, 110–14
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study background: rise of Indian IT services and growth of global IT 145–8 conclusions and implications 169–72
data and methods 157–9
results 159–69
findings related to capabilities 163–5, 168 findings related to performance 165–8 findings related to resources 161–3, 168 general findings 159–61 theoretical framework and central concepts 148–57 innovative work behaviour 257, 258 installed base (IB) 177, 178, 179–80, 181, 184, 195 insurance sector see user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study intangible resources 2, 153, 163 integrated solutions 183–4, 186, 195 see also users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study integration, in innovation 77 inter-firm cooperation 151, 160 inter-firm coordination 156, 157, 159, 164 internalized professionalism 47–8, 52–3 internationalization 128–31, 188, 191, 194

see also business models in user-based development of services study; innovation strategies in the Indian IT service industry study Internet 145, 151, 154, 294, 296, 349, 370 interpretative differences 383–5 interviews 254

see also Event-Based Narrative Inquiry Technique (EBNIT); feedback interviews; semi-structured interviews; unstructured interviews invention 4, 154
Jaeger, B. 227, 232
Jeppesen, L.B. 103, 104, 105, 349
Jessop, R. 210, 211, 212–13, 216
job satisfaction 52–3, 65, 189, 256, 259
Johnson, G. 152–3, 171
Jos, P.H. 229, 233, 237, 244
‘jugaad’ 149, 155–6, 168, 170–71
Jugulum, R. 150, 151
Kallenberg, R. 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183–4, 195
Kaplan, R.S. 124, 352, 353, 354, 357 Kaulio, M. 349–50
key customers 348, 363, 364, 366, 367, 368, 369–70 KIBS 101–2, 106–7, 128–31, 326, 389

see also business models in user-based development of services study; global IT services industry; Indian IT services sector; innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study; KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study; KIBS-user interaction; users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study
KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study case company: Rambøll Denmark 109–14
conclusion 116–18
discussion 115–16
KIBS as a specific type of service organization 101–2, 106–7 research method 107–8 user-based innovation in services theories and models 102–6 KIBS-user interaction 110–14, 115–16
Kim, W.C. 81, 183, 376
King, C.S. 209, 212, 218
Kline, S.J. 10, 103, 253 knowledge 2, 160, 254, 331–2, 340–41, 342, 384 see also capabilities; competences; different knowledge; experiential knowledge; information; KIBS; knowledge acquisition; knowledge deficits; knowledge institutions; knowledge sharing; professional knowledge; skills; tacit knowledge knowledge acquisition

extended chain value innovation study 78, 79, 93
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 166
productization in services 385
user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 336, 337, 338, 339, 340 users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ 181, 191, 192, 194, 195 knowledge acquisition costs 181, 195 knowledge deficits 327, 331, 340 knowledge institutions 75, 78 knowledge-intensive business services

see KIBS knowledge sharing 40, 41
bricolage in user-based innovation in services 40, 41
communities of practice 127
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 166, 167
productization in services 384, 385, 386–7, 390
user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 327, 332, 339, 340, 341, 342 Koch, P. 14, 26, 204, 209, 217
Kotler, P. 2, 4, 177, 185
Kvale, S. 108, 134
labour arbitrage 163, 165, 167 labour costs 353, 354–5, 362–3, 367–8 Laegreid, P. 205–6, 207–8 language skills 138, 162, 163 Latour, B. 27, 72, 79, 91, 93, 94 lead users
co-innovation for profitability study 348, 361–2, 364, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371 innovation theories 4
roles in service innovation 9, 11–12, 254, 327
user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study 272 leadership 171, 265, 269, 270 leading entrepreneur 91–2 learning 212, 213, 252, 258, 261, 264–5, 269–73 see also organizational learning; user-based learning Lévi-Strauss, C. 25, 29–30, 41
Levitt, T. 6, 377
life-cycle cost savings 135, 136, 137 life-cycle perspective 12, 183, 184 life-span of customership 317–18 linear model of innovation 10, 103, 253–4 listening 342, 349–50, 366–9 lived critical events 286, 287, 288, 290–93, 294, 295 lived experiences 10, 283, 287, 288, 298, 299 low cost carriers (LCCs) 357–8, 364–5 loyalty 9, 46, 156, 165, 370 Lundkvist, A. 103, 104, 105
Magnusson, P.R. 104, 105, 115, 154, 170, 281, 284
’making do’ 30, 33, 34
see also improvisation; ‘jugaad’ management 154
see also CEOs; cost management; entrepreneurial management; generic management; infrastructure management; managerialism; managers; New Public Management; operational management; self-management; strategic management; top management manager control 252, 257 manager ideas 331–2 manager involvement 261–3, 264, 266–7, 268–9, 271, 272, 273 manager responsibilities 257, 331–2 manager support 152, 252, 268–9, 273 managerialism 205–6, 209, 215, 220 managers
co-innovation for profitability study 363, 364, 366, 367, 369, 370
creativity deficits 256
service blueprinting 380
user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study 251
user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 327, 328, 329, 330, 331–2 manufacturing processes 78, 79, 80
manufacturing sector
extended value chain innovation study 74, 75, 78, 79, 80, 93, 95
innovation 2
productization in services 377, 378
R&D 73
users 5
see also servitization; users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study mapping of trends and weak signals 408

User-based innovation in services

- markets
  - business models in user-based development of services study 141
- consumer concept 6, 8
- de-politicization of public services 219
- extended value chain innovation study 77, 78, 79, 83, 85, 87, 88, 89
- innovation theories 4
- New Public Management 206, 207, 208, 214, 216
- productization in services 377
- see also Asian markets; domestic markets; European markets; foreign markets; German markets; global markets; new markets; Russian markets
- Martinelli, A.S. 209, 212, 218
- Mashelkar, R.A. 148, 153, 154, 155, 156, 169
- mass customization 170, 352, 378
- material elements 79–80, 88, 93
- see also raw materials
- Mathieu, V. 177, 185, 186
- Mattelmäki, T. 255
- Matthews, B. 256, 259, 313
- Mattsson, J. 154, 171, 323
- Mauborgne, R. 81, 183, 376
- McLaughlin, H. 207, 214, 215
- Mead, G.H. 61, 63
- members of the public 234–5, 236, 241, 244, 245, 246, 248
- mergers 188, 190–92, 194, 196
- meta-stability 27, 28, 29, 35, 37, 40, 41
- metals sector see service innovation as an experience study
- metaphors 287, 289
- middleman role 169
- Miles, I. 2, 7, 15, 101, 106, 107, 121, 129, 154, 296, 377
- Miles, M.B. 107–8, 240
- model-building 313, 314, 315
- see also business models; linear model of innovation; role models; stage gate models of innovation
- modulization 194, 248, 378
- Molin, M. 103, 104, 105
- ‘moments of truth’ 257, 258, 268
- Momentum 38–9, 40
- Morgan, M.S. 123, 128
- motivation 81, 92, 94, 95, 164, 165, 188–90
- multi-culturalism 162, 259
- multiple user roles 11–12
- multiple voices 227–8, 237–8, 298
- see also multiple voices of the user in public sector services study
- multiple voices of the user in public sector services study
  - conclusion and discussion 245–9
  - data and methods 238, 240
  - identifying user voices in public sector services 229–38, 239
  - introduction 227–9
  - users’ voices in a help desk service 240–45
- municipalities
  - bricolage: user-based innovation in services study 38–40, 41
  - extended value chain innovation study 84, 86, 90, 94
  - multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 241, 242, 243, 244
  - mutual benefit 170
- Nambisan, S. 103–4, 105, 115, 147, 149, 343
- narratives 286–7, 296, 384–5, 386
- see also service innovation as an experience study
- NASSCOM 146, 147, 160
- Neely, A. 177, 179, 180, 376
- negative experiences 287, 288, 290, 291, 292, 294, 362, 367
- negative user feedback 263
- Nelson, R.E. 30, 31, 37
- Network Governance 38–40, 41, 42, 210–14, 216, 218, 220
- networks 151, 166
- see also Actor Network Theory (ANT); innovation networks; Network Governance; relationships; social interaction; social networks new markets 152
new product development 103, 104–5, 110–14, 152, 306
New Public Management 47–8, 205–10, 214, 215, 216–17, 220, 228, 260
new service development 152, 180, 353, 356, 364–6, 368 see also business models in user-based development of services study; New Service Development; users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study
New Service Development (NSD) 3, 304–5, 317, 375, 376, 378–9, 384 Newman, J. 8, 207, 210, 211, 215–16 newness 2, 4, 102, 156 newspaper sector 83, 86, 92 niche markets 83, 85
Nicolaelsen, H.W. 104
non-professionals 58–9, 65, 66, 327, 331 non-users 12, 290, 292, 297 Nordlund, H. 10, 104, 105, 349–50, 383, 390 normative framework reforms 207 obligatees 227, 232, 233, 234, 236, 241, 242, 247 OECD 146, 147
official view of service providers 290, 291, 293–6, 299 offshoring 145, 146, 150, 151
see also innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study Oliva, R. 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183–4, 195
Olsen, J.P. 207, 208, 211
Olsson, J. 230, 231–2, 379 open innovation 4, 76, 164–5, 168, 169 ‘open spaces’ 349, 350 operational management 152 orderers 234, 241, 243 organic cappuccino milk 78, 79, 81, 82, 85, 91, 92, 93 organizational change 177–9, 185, 191–2, 193–4, 207, 209 organizational inertia 90 organizational learning 28, 89, 252, 342, 390 organizational practices 1–2 organizational psychology 257 organizations, as users 6, 365–6, 368 original equipment manufacturers (OEM) 181, 183, 188–9 see also users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study Osborne, D. 205, 206, 207, 209 Osterwalder, A. 122, 123, 124–5, 126, 128, 131, 134, 140 other lived events 286, 287, 288 ‘othering’ 57, 61–2, 66
see also ‘othering’ in service encounters study ‘othering’ in service encounters study conclusion 65–7 discussion 60–64
findings 51–60
method 48–51
theoretical background 46–8 outsourcing 145, 146, 150, 151, 154, 179, 181
see also innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study overhead costs 353, 355–6, 363–4, 368 Palloheimo, K.-S. 185, 186 participant observation 49–51, 67
see also ‘othering’ in service encounters study participatory design 255, 256, 313, 325 partners 215, 216
partnerships
business models 124, 125, 126, 133, 136
innovation strategies 154
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 158, 168 Network Governance 210, 211, 212, 213
public sector 215
servitization 183, 186
passive role 204, 214–15 path dependencies 28 patients 242, 244, 245, 246, 256 paying customers 219, 232, 233, 234, 236, 237 payment 231, 232, 234, 235, 238, 239, 241, 242, 243 Peccei, R. 8, 232–3
perceived outcome 282, 284, 379 performance definition 156
innovation in the IT services industry 149, 150, 151
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 156, 159, 165–8, 169
New Public Management 206
outsourcing in the IT services industry 151–2
resource-based view 154
in services concept 282
see also perceived outcome; profitability; quality of services Perry, C. 11, 103, 104, 125, 183, 304, 323, 347, 348, 379 personalizing services 207, 351, 361, 363, 367, 368 phenomenology 10, 283, 284, 285, 286
see also service innovation as an experience study physical artefacts 111–14, 115, 116, 117, 127 Pine, B.J. 5, 71, 74, 93, 283, 298 planned bricolage 40 planning
co-development 305
co-innovation for profitability study 359, 364, 369, 370
innovation models 11
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 241, 243, 244–5, 246 production of services 231–2, 233–4, 235, 238, 239
productization in services 377, 381
pluralism 30, 31
politicians 234–5
politics 211, 213–14, 220 see also de-politicization of public services; democracy Porter, M. 4, 75, 123, 351 positive experiences 287, 288, 330, 335, 337–8, 362, 367 post-colonialism 61, 62 posteriori innovation 3 potential users 5, 10 power relations 8, 90, 94 see also agency; democracy; domination; employee control; empowerment; manager control; power-sharing power-sharing 211, 212, 214 practice-based theories 26–9
see also bricolage: user-based innovation in services studies
practice of innovation 12–13 Prahalad, C.K. 148, 151, 153, 154, 155, 169, 230, 231, 284, 298 Prakash, G. 61, 62
preparation, future-oriented 3D concept generation 313, 314, 315 preventative maintenance 177, 179–80, 186, 189–90, 193 pricing 180, 184, 188–9, 351, 352, 357, 358, 360, 369 prior science 29
private interests 217–18
private sector
public sector relationship 205–6, 208, 209, 211, 214, 218, 219, 220, 222, 228 public services, provision of 236, 239 see also public–private partnerships private value 230, 231, 232, 233, 235, 236, 237, 239, 243 privatization 219
problem causation 335–40 problem clarification 106, 111 problem identification 330, 332–5, 336–9, 340 problem-solving 9, 11, 26–7, 330, 335–40, 355, 362
see also bricolage: user-based innovation in services studies processing to raw product 78, 79 product design 9
product-service continuum 181, 182
production of services
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 241–2, 243, 244–5, 246–8
user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 325
Index

users' roles 231–2, 233–5, 236, 237, 238, 239
productivity 351, 352, 355, 356, 362–3
productization in services concept and approaches 375–81
  innovation 376, 387–9
  user-based learning 375–6, 381–7, 389, 390
products 9, 74, 75, 78, 79, 95, 124, 125, 126 see also core products; hybrid products; manufacturing sector;
new product development;
product-service continuum;
productization in services;
services supporting the product (SSP)
professional involvement 261–2, 264, 266, 269, 272
professional knowledge 47, 48, 106
professionalism 46–8, 51, 52–3, 56, 57, 58–60, 65–6 see also non-professionals;
  professional involvement;
  professional knowledge;
  professionals
professionals 33–5, 234, 244, 251, 256
profitability 179, 182–3, 184, 347, 350–56
  see also co-innovation for
profitability study
Public Administration 204–5, 206, 207, 208, 210, 213–15 public–private partnerships 38–40, 41, 42, 210, 211, 213, 219, 222
public sector
  citizen as consumer 8, 232–3
  citizen as users 203–4, 214–21 ‘customer’ 8, 215
  de-politicization 219–21
  innovation 203, 204, 208–9, 215, 218–19, 220–21 public services provision 236, 239 see also multiple voices of the user in public sector services study; Network Governance; network governance; New Public Management; Public Administration; public–private partnerships; user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study quality of services
  as barrier to user-based innovation in services 65–6
  business models in user-based development of services study 135, 136
  co-innovation for profitability study 362 versus costs 350–52
Indian IT service sector 155, 161
New Public Management 207
‘othering’ in service encounters study 51, 52–3, 55, 56, 57, 65–6
productization in services 377, 378, 382
professionalism 47, 52–3, 57, 65–6
service encounters 46
user-based innovation in services
  theories 103
user-driven innovation in tourism:
an experimental study 330, 336
Rada, J. 15, 74, 177, 179, 181 radical innovation 1, 26, 87, 89, 101, 116, 340, 349, 386–7 Raman, R. 155
Ramboll Denmark case see KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study rapid application 11, 368, 369, 370, 387, 388–9 rationality 8, 206, 207, 228 raw materials 74, 75, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 88, 95
R&D 1, 2, 73, 78, 150, 151, 188, 190, 191, 192, 253 re-engineering 161, 171, 353, 355, 364, 368 re-innovation 349
recipients 240
reforms 31–2, 33, 34, 35 see also deregulation; downsizing;
  re-engineering; restructuring;
  service redesign regulations 140, 206, 207, 221, 223, 290, 291, 369 Reinventing Government 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 215, 221–2 relationship marketing 4, 9, 46, 180, 184, 190, 370 relationships 154, 171
see also customer relationship; networks; partnerships; relationship marketing; social interaction repair and maintenance services extended value chain innovation study 84, 86, 90–91, 94 innovations 26
servitization 177, 181, 185, 186, 195
user concept 7
users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study 188, 189, 191, 195 repeat business 138, 156, 167 repetition 26, 30–31, 126, 135, 286
resource-based view 123, 151–2, 153–4, 157
see also innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study resources
bricolage in user-based service innovation 29, 30, 31, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 39, 40, 41, 42
definitions 2, 153
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry 153, 159, 161–3, 165, 168, 169, 170–71
practice-based theories 28–9
productization in services 379, 381, 382, 383
resource-based view 154
strategic management 152, 153
see also financial resources; heterogeneous resources; human resources; resource-based view responsibilities 8, 216, 217, 221, 232–3, 256, 257, 258, 331–2 restaurants 83, 85, 92 restructuring 347, 356–7 see also co-innovation for profitability study revenue streams
Activity Based Costing 353, 356
business models 124, 125, 126, 133, 136
co-innovation for profitability study 364–6, 368
cost–quality dilemma 351
servitization 179
reverse brainstorming 315 reverse engineering 313 ‘reverse servitization’ 178, 188, 196
see also users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study rewards 164, 165 rights of citizens 8, 217, 218, 219, 232–3 risk sharing 161, 179–80 risk-taking 110, 111, 112, 113, 115, 129, 184, 220–21 role models 128
role playing see socio-drama role-shifting 265, 267, 268–9, 273 Rosenberg, N. 4, 10, 103, 253, 340 Rosenthal, P. 8, 232–3 routines 28, 355
rules 27, 29, 32, 33, 34, 35, 52–3, 138–9 Russian markets 134, 137–40
Saari, E. 261
Saco, R.M. 7, 257–8
Samuel, P. 150, 151
Sawhney, M. 177, 180, 184
Scandinavia 256
Scandavian Airlines (SAS) 257 science versus bricolage 29–30 Scupola, A. 104
Seddon, P.B. 123, 124
selective bricolage 31
self formation 61, 62
self-management 40
self-service 181, 355, 363, 364–5, 368 ‘self-servicer’ 234, 235, 236 semi-structured interviews
business models in user-based development of services study 122, 131, 133–4
co-innovation for profitability study 359
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 157–8
KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study 108 ‘othering’ in service encounters study 49, 51, 53–4, 55, 56, 58, 59, 60–61, 62–3
user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study 307
user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 328, 331–2
users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study 187 seminars 330–31, 332–41 sense-making 283, 286, 296, 390
service blueprinting
co-innovation for profitability study 364, 368
productization in services 375, 380–81, 382
user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study 309–11, 317, 318, 319, 320 service concept 2, 282–3, 379, 380–81, 382 service contracts 184, 186, 193 service culture 180, 181, 184, 185, 194, 383 service design 3, 4, 7, 347, 349
Service-Dominant (S-D) logic 5, 283, 284, 285, 296, 298, 378 ‘service encapsulation’ 183
service encounters 10, 46–7, 323, 325–7, 378, 386 see also ‘othering’ in service encounters study; user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study service exports 129, 130 service information 317–18, 319 service infrastructure 184
service innovation
definitions 26, 30–31
productization in services 376, 387–9 theories 1–5, 72–7, 102–6, 284–5
service innovation as an experience study concepts of ‘service’ and ‘experience’ 282–5 conclusions and implications 298–300 data and methodology 285–9 innovation as experience of employees and users 293–7 main themes in the narrative 289–93 service innovation barriers 326–8
service marketing
cost–quality dilemma 351
described 3
extended value chain innovation study 77, 78, 79, 83, 85, 87, 89, 91–2
productization in services 377–8 ‘synthesis view’ 4 user roles 7, 9–10
see also New Service Development service process 2, 5, 282, 284, 299, 379, 380, 381, 382
see also service blueprinting service provider ideas 316–17 service provider needs 244–5, 290, 291 service providers 219–20, 236, 241, 242, 244–5 service strategy 180–81 service system 379, 380, 381, 382 ‘service user’ movement 215, 216 services supporting the customer (SSC) 185, 186 services supporting the product (SSP) 185, 186
servitization 2–3, 74, 88, 93, 95, 177–8, 179–86, 195, 377–8
see also users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study shared experiences 11, 106, 305 shared understandings
co-development 6, 305
co-innovation for profitability study 370, 371–2 cognitive rationalization by front-line employees 355 communities of practice 127
KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study 116, 117
productization in services 376, 382, 383–5, 386
user-based innovation in services 10, 104, 105
user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study 319 Simondon, G. 27, 29
simulation 360–61, 364, 367, 369 Sivakumar, K. 129, 130, 131
skills
employees 2, 30, 39, 257, 258, 284, 355, 371, 372, 375
internationalization 157, 162, 163, 164, 191, 194
users 230, 267
see also capabilities; competences; knowledge; learning social agents 79–80
social circles 127
see also spaces of living social contexts, phenomenology 283 social contracts 104, 105, 115 social elements, extended value chain innovation study 78, 79, 81, 93, 95 social innovation 78, 79, 81 social interaction 53–4, 55, 56, 60, 75 social networks
lived experiences 10
Service-Dominant (S-D) logic 283, 298
service innovation as an experience study 290, 291, 293, 294, 296, 298, 299
user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study 311, 316 social processes 12, 13, 66, 74, 78, 79, 93, 94, 95 social psychology 61, 257 social service users 215, 218 social structures, Actor Network Theory 79 social togetherness 53–4, 60–61 socialization 54, 61, 62, 104, 115 socio-drama 261, 263, 266, 268, 269, 311–12, 317, 318, 320 sociology 13, 47, 52, 53, 59, 61, 72, 93 software and computer games sector 103, 104 see also users as a development driver in manufacturing; ‘reverse servitization’ study Sørensen, E. 210, 211, 218
Sørensen, F. 31, 33, 72, 80, 326, 328, 329, 343 ‘spaces,’ user-based service innovation 349 spaces for learning and co-creation 264–8, 269, 271 spaces of living 51–2, 53–5, 56–8, 59, 60–61, 62–3, 64, 65 specialization 130, 133, 139, 179, 181, 187, 189, 190 specific other 62, 63
Spradley, J.P. 50, 51, 67
staff see back-office employees; employees; front-line employees; managers stage gate models of innovation critique 304–5, 378–9, 387 described 10–11, 102–3, 304
productization in services 378–9, 381–3, 387–8
user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study 317, 318
users’ roles 349
stakeholders
balanced empowerment 3–4
boundary objects 127
business models 124
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 151, 153 Network Governance 212, 216, 218, 222 service design strategies 180–81, 255 standardization 221, 355, 377, 378, 381, 390 Star, S.L. 126–7
stepwise servitization 177–8, 179–82, 190 stereotypes 61, 62–3 strategic goals 124, 206, 383
Index

strategic management 3–4, 123, 152–3, 159, 164

see also business models; extended value chain innovation study; strategic goals stress 268, 273

sub-contracting 181, 183, 189

subaltern school 61, 62

subjectivity 67, 284, 286, 289, 297, 298, 347

see also experiences of services subjects 233, 236, 244

Sundbo, J. 2, 3–4, 5, 6, 11, 25, 71, 73, 74, 77, 78, 87, 88, 90, 93, 252, 343, 347, 378, 388 supply chain 75–6

surveys see customer satisfaction surveys sustainability 149, 154, 155–6, 160, 170, 252, 260

Swanson, E.B. 149

‘synthesis view’ of service innovation 1–4 systemization of services 375, 376, 377, 378–9, 382, 387 tacit knowledge 127, 305, 385 tangible resources 2, 153, 165 target customers 124, 125, 126, 128, 132, 135, 137–8, 194, 388 taxpayers 219, 228, 232, 236, 237, 241, 243 team building 171

technological development/innovation after-innovation, users’ roles 11

extended value chain innovation study 78, 79–80, 81, 82–3, 85, 88, 93, 95

innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 159, 161–2, 168

service innovation as an experience study 285–6, 288–9, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295 technology transfer 149, 167

Teece, D.J. 28, 74, 123, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 170, 171 telecomm infrastructure 147 temporary groups 79, 93, 94, 95 thematic data analysis 108 third party internationalization 129, 130 threshold capabilities 153

Ticket Office 35–7

time factors

Actor Network Theory 79, 94

extended value chain innovation study 81, 83, 84, 85–6, 93, 94, 95

innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 161, 168–9

user-based innovation in services 103, 348

user information collection 385 see also incremental innovation; rapid application; stepwise servitization

Tompkins, M.E. 229, 233, 237, 244 top management 152, 159–60, 170, 252, 262, 264, 266–7, 273

Topp, K. 265, 268
tourism sector 324, 325–7, 343 see also user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study tourist informational needs 330, 331, 333–5, 337, 338, 339 trade organizations 138–9

trade unions see service innovation as an experience study transaction cost economics 123 transaction cost savings 135, 136, 137 transparency 164, 180, 243, 262 travel sector 35–7, 41, 42, 83, 86, 90–91, 92 see also user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study trend analysis 9–10, 308, 309, 310–11, 312–13, 316, 317, 318, 319

Trimble, C. 152, 154

Trott, P. 149–50, 154, 305

trust

bricolage: user-based innovation in services studies 38, 39, 40

innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 166, 170
KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study 114, 117
service encounters 46
user-based innovation in services theories 105
user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study 265
users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study 194
Tuominen, T. 3, 129, 257, 325, 326

UK 215–16
uncertainty 104, 105, 152 understanding user needs
business models 125–6
co-innovation for profitability study 349–50, 363, 367, 368, 369
innovation in the IT services industry 151
KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study 114
servitization 183
‘spaces’ 349, 350
user-based innovation in services 104, 105
see also shared understandings; user information; user needs university graduates 59, 163 university–IT services industry cooperation 151 university–KIBS collaboration 101, 102, 110, 111–14, 115, 116–17 university students 160 unstructured interviews
co-innovation for profitability study 363, 364, 367, 368
‘othering’ in service encounters study 49, 51, 53–4, 55, 56, 58, 59, 60–61, 62–3 USA 145, 146, 205, 357 user-based innovation challenges 254–5 user-based learning 375–6, 381–7, 389, 390 user-based service innovation advantages 348–9 challenges 12–14
KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study 114
productization in services 384–5, 386
service design 347
in services concept 282, 283 in services innovation 12, 285, 388 user-based innovation 10
user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study 263, 266, 269, 272, 273, 274
user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 325, 330, 335, 337–8
users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study 190 value of public services 230, 231
see also employee experiences; service innovation as an experience study; user experiences user feedback
bricolage: user-based innovation in services studies 36, 37, 42
co-innovation for profitability study 360, 362, 364, 365, 366, 367, 369, 370, 371
productization in services 377, 385
service marketing 9–10
user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study 263, 269 see also customer satisfaction surveys; focus groups; user experiences; user ideas; user information user ideas
co-innovation for profitability study 350, 365–6
KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study 111
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 247
‘othering’ in service encounters study 57–9, 60–61, 63–4, 65, 66
Service-Dominant (S-D) logic 283
service innovation 9, 11, 349
service innovation as an experience study 294, 295
user-based innovation in services theories 103, 104, 105
user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study 311, 316, 317
user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 331 user information
co-development 305
co-innovation for profitability study 350, 360, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369–70, 371 limitations 303–4
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 242, 244, 245, 246
productization in services 381, 382, 383, 385–7
service innovation 227, 282, 285
service marketing 9–10
user-based innovation 254
user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study 306
user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study 270, 272
user-driven innovation in tourism: an experimental study 325, 329–31, 332–41, 342 see also customer satisfaction surveys; user feedback; user information deficits; user needs user information deficits 290, 291, 294, 295, 297 user involvement 76, 103–6, 215 user motivation 104, 105 user needs
boundary objects 127–8
business models in user-based development of services study 137–8
co-innovation for profitability study 361–2, 365–6, 367
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 162–3, 166
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 244, 245
productization in services 376, 379, 381, 382, 383, 385–6
service innovation 9, 285
servitization 177, 178, 179, 180, 182, 185
user-based service innovation 227
user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study 306
users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study 189

see also customer satisfaction; shared understandings; understanding user needs; user information user new product/service development 103, 104–5, 110–14

see also business models in user-based development of services study user potentials 104, 105, 116, 117 user-producers 5 user selection 104, 107, 115, 117, 148–9 user testing
co-innovation for profitability study 360–62, 367, 369, 370
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 247
user-based innovation 11
user-based innovation in services theories 103, 104, 105, 115, 117 user training 104, 105, 177, 184, 186, 195, 363 user withdrawal risk 104, 105
users
co-innovation for profitability study 348
definitions and concept 5–6, 7–9, 227, 232
manufacturing sector 5
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 240, 241, 242, 243–4, 245–9
public services 214, 215, 234, 235–7
roles in service innovation 9–12, 349

see also beneficiaries; callers; citizens; clients; communities of users; consumers; core users; customers; end-users; heavy users; immediate users; key customers; lead users; members of the public; non-users; organizations, as users; patients; potential users; recipients; social service users; subjects; wards users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study case study background and research methods 186–8 concluding remarks 195–6
models describing the transfer to advanced services 182–6 research findings 188–94 stepwise servitization concept 177–8, 179–82, 190

Valminen, K. 381, 382, 389

value
business models 123, 124
cost–quality dilemma 350–51
customer relationship 8
definitions and concept 5, 252
development of services study 109, 115, 117
innovation strategy in the Indian IT service industry study 164, 165, 168, 170
KIBS and their users as co-creators of breakthrough innovation study 109, 115, 117
multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 247, 248
New Public Management 206
productization in services 376
public services 229–31
Service-Dominant (S-D) logic 283, 284, 285, 298
service innovation as an experience study 290, 294, 297
users as a development driver in manufacturing: ‘reverse servitization’ study 188–9 see also private value; public value; value chain; value configuration; value-creating cooperation; value proposition; values value chain 75, 123

see also extended value chain innovation study value configuration 124, 125, 126, 132, 135, 139–40 value-creating cooperation 38–40 value proposition
  business models 124, 125, 126, 128, 132, 135, 136–7
  multiple voices of the user in public sector services study 248
  Service-Dominant (S-D) logic 285
  user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study 318 values 55, 62, 155
Vandermerwe, S.J. 15, 74, 177, 179, 181 variable costs 353, 354–5, 361–3, 367–8 Veenswijk, M.B. 220–21
versatility 9, 178, 184–6, 195, 196, 317–18, 385 Vigoda, E. 212
visualization 3, 113, 115, 263, 303, 355, 361, 367, 368, 370, 371
see also service blueprinting voice 215, 218, 227–8
see also multiple voices of the user in public sector services study volunteers 33, 39, 40, 41, 234, 235, 269, 363 Von Hippel, E. 4, 6, 9, 10, 73, 74, 103, 254, 347, 349 voting 219, 235
Vygotsky, L.S. 261, 271–2, 273 waiters 78, 79, 81, 85
see also ‘othering’ in service encounters study wards 233, 236
warm-up, future-oriented 3D concept generation 313, 315 water purification project 110–14 weak signals 308–9, 310–11, 312–13, 317, 318, 386 Weinstein, O. 2, 5, 101, 102, 107, 117, 230, 284, 294, 325, 326 welfare state 207–8, 214
well-being at work 251, 258–9, 268, 270, 271, 273 Western domination 61, 62 workshops see user-based service innovation, including a futures perspective study; user-driven and employee-driven innovation integration in the public sector study Yakhlef, A. 103, 104, 105
Zott, C. 123, 169, 170