

Index

---

- absentee ownership
  - attitudes to, in America 237
  - in modern capitalism 132–5
  - need to overthrow 243–7
  - socialist dissatisfaction with 207–9
- Absentee Ownership and Business Enterprise in Recent Times*
  - commentary on 227–9
  - on market theories, relevance of 14
  - publication 4, 227
- academics see education
- Acquisitive Society* (Tawney) 244
- advertising
  - cost to consumer 147–8
  - inefficiency of 147–8
- aggression
  - in barbarian cultures, reasons for development of 65–6
  - and conspicuous prowess 92–3
  - pugnacity, as instinct 36, 48
- Alchian, A.A. 143
- alcohol consumption 103–5
- altruism 46–7
- America
  - absentee ownership, attitudes to 237
  - American Dream 101, 297
  - British colonisation, influence of 83, 264–6
  - conspicuous consumption in 110, 116–17
  - industrial development
    - basis for 83, 264–6
    - and national characteristics 271–2
  - and League of Pacific Nations, need for 278–80
  - myth of entrepreneurship versus corporate capitalism 271–2
  - organised labour, attitudes to 222, 237
  - self-policing values 266
  - social characteristics 83
- anarchism, as form of socialism 211
- Ancient Law* (Maine) 26
- anger, as instinct 48
- anthropology
  - and economics, relationship between 68–70
  - and evolutionary change 82
- autocracy, difference from democracy 186
- Ayres, Clarence
  - on habits and customs 30–31, 306
  - on knowledge as cultural heritage 304
  - on role of price in business 305
  - on role of theory in economics 299
  - on war, peace and capitalism 287–8
  - on waste and usefulness 194–5
- Bagehot, Walter 26
- Baran, P. 143–4
- barbarians see savages and barbarians
- Becker, G.S. 306–7
- Bell, Daniel
  - on Absentee Ownership 227–9
  - on cultural value systems 94
  - on institutionalism 246
- Bellamy, Edward
  - on financial sector control of business 160
  - on market sabotage 146
  - on socialism 211–12
- Berle, A.A. 133, 189
- birth rate, and conspicuous consumption 107, 109
- Blaug, Mark 309
- Boas, Franz 105
- Bolshevism, and socialism, success compared 210

- bounded rationality, of institutions 18, 21, 145
- brachycephalic-brunet (Alpine) race 57–9
- Brennan, H.G. 26
- Britain
  - industrial development 264–5
  - socialism, development in 210
- Buchanan, James 26, 30, 187
- Burnham, James 133, 238–9
- business
  - differences from industry 139, 304
  - see also* capitalism; financial sector
- Camic, C. 21, 73
- Campbell, Colin 99, 115
- capitalism
  - as basis for communism 211
  - and creative destruction 231, 260, 268
  - and democracy
    - conflicts between 186–94
    - impact on 186–90
  - in early industrialisation
    - captains of industry 127–9
    - and division of labour 126–7
    - and industrial interdependence 125–6
    - machinery, influences on 124–5
    - standardisation 125
  - educational establishments, influences on 215–17
  - generally 3, 121–2
  - handicraft, role in creation of 122–3
  - and instinct of workmanship 122–3, 140
  - institutionalism, restriction on 147
  - in modern industry
    - and absentee ownership 132–5
    - benefits of concentration 130–32
    - capital, changing role of 132–3
    - control mechanisms, changes in 133–5
    - economies of scale 130–32
    - technical knowledge, importance of 134–5, 234–5
    - transitional characteristics 129–30
  - profit motive
    - and behavioural goals 144–5
    - concentration of ownership 142–3
    - corporate goals versus social objectives 137–8, 143–4
    - demand manipulation 146–7, 150–51
    - ethics as restraint on 137
    - generally 3, 136
    - influences on 305
    - and managerial efficiency 138–41
    - and market sabotage 145–7, 288
    - and marketing 147–51
    - output restrictions 146–7
    - and property ownership
      - absentee ownership 132–5
      - concentration of 142–3
    - purpose of business and industry 139–40
    - and socialism, influence on 208–9, 211, 232–5
    - and spirit of enterprise 128–9
    - utopia of 247–8
  - captains of industry 127–9, 271
  - Chamberlin, E.H. 196
  - ‘Christian Morals and the Competitive System’ 15
  - Christianity
    - ethics of, as habit 15
    - moral norms, influences of 15–16
    - and savage cultural traits 15–16
  - Clark, John Bates 52–3, 76
  - Clark, John Maurice 193, 241
  - Coats, A.W. 298
  - Coffin, Howard 227
  - collusion and conspiracy 147
    - in finance sector 157–8, 160–61
    - as market stabilisers 172–4
  - Commons, John R. 4, 22
    - on business cycles 167
    - on credit and investment 157
    - on distribution of wealth 176
    - on evolution of rules 26–9
    - on financial regulation 165–6
    - on habit and custom 24–31, 40
    - on market forecasting 156
    - on purpose of economics 23–6
    - on role of law 27, 193–4
    - on role of property 27–8

- communism, capitalist basis for 211
- competition and collusion 147, 157–8, 172–4 credit, influence of 154–5 entrepreneurial competition and Christian morals, conflicts between 16
 imperfect competition 130 limitations on 157
 and rise of socialism 204 supremacy of 143 threat of 147
- Condorcet, J.A.N. 76
- conspicuous consumption 93
 of academics/ intellectuals 108–9
 alcohol consumption 103–5
 and assessing success 99–109
 and birth rate 107, 109 changing patterns, influences on 101–3 characteristics of 105–7
 and dress 105–7, 112, 117
 and economic determinism 104
 frugality and saving 107–8, 110–11
 and geographical mobility 103
 and industrial development 102–3
 and instinct of workmanship 116–17
 and privatisation 102
 and relative deprivation 100–101
 at social gatherings 105 and social status 118–20
 and sociology 94–5
 standardisation and conformity 96–9 supply and demand trends 107–8, 110–11
 and trophy wives 105–6, 109, 116 and underproduction 107–8
 upward motion of 98–9
- conspicuous leisure evolution of leisure 88
 politics as 89–90
 religion as 90–92
 scholarship as 89
 sources of 88–92
 sport as 90
 as visible abstention from wealth-creating activity 89
 and wives 90–91
- conspicuous prowess 92–3
- construction, instinct of see workmanship
- consumer goods necessities and luxuries, defining 97–9
 as status symbols 118–20
- consumption aggressive nature of 101–3 beauty, attitudes to 111–14 and class hierarchy 114–20 competitive nature of 105, 117–18
 conspicuous consumption 93
 of academics/ intellectuals 108–9
 alcohol consumption 103–5
 and assessing success 99–109
 and birth rate 107, 109 changing patterns, influences on 101–3
 characteristics of 105–7
 and dress 105–7, 112, 117
 and economic determinism 104
 frugality and saving 107–8, 110–11
 and geographical mobility 103
 and industrial development 102–3
 and instinct of workmanship 116–17
 and privatisation 102
 and relative deprivation 100–101
 at social gatherings 105
 and social status 118–20
 and sociology 94–5
 standardisation and conformity 96–9 supply and demand trends 107–8, 110–11
 and underproduction 107–8
 upward motion of 98–9
 and wives 105–6, 109, 116
- conspicuous leisure evolution of leisure 88
 politics as 89–90
 religion as 90–92
 scholarship as 89
 sources of 88–92
 sport as 90
 as visible abstention from wealth-creating activity 89
 and wives 90–91

- conspicuous prowess 92–3
  - cultural influences on 109–11
  - generally 3, 87–8
  - necessities and luxuries, defining 97–9
  - savages and barbarians, differing consumption patterns 101–2
- creativity
  - creative destruction 231, 260, 268
  - creative impulsion, as instinct 37–40
  - and engineers' role in social change 231–2
- credit
  - business advantages of 154–5
  - influence on competition 154–5
  - meaning of 153
  - purpose of 153–4
  - self-perpetuating nature of 162
  - unregulated, problems caused by 163–4
- credit cycles 306
  - causes of 166–7
  - downswings 169–71
  - financial sector's impact on 157–62
  - influences on 166–72
  - turning points 171–2
  - upswings 167–9
- credit economies
  - added value, lack of 153–4
  - capital
    - and financial collusion 157–8, 172–4
    - influences on 155–7
  - central banks' role in 162–6
  - credit
    - advantages of 154–5
    - meaning of 153
    - purpose of 153–4
    - self-perpetuating nature of 162
    - unregulated, problems caused by 163–4
  - credit cycles 306
    - causes of 166–7
    - downswings 169–71
    - financial sector's impact on 157–62
    - influences on 166–72
    - and Say's Law 175–8
  - turning points 171–2
  - upswings 167–9
  - development 152–7
  - and Federal Reserve Bank of United States 162–6
  - generally 3, 152
  - investment bankers' role in 157–62
  - and macroeconomic policies 172–8
    - private sector role 172–4
    - public sector role 174–5
    - and Say's Law 175–8
  - and market capitalisation 156–7
  - and market forecasting 156–7
  - and unemployment 3, 150, 176
- Crosland, C.A.R. 205–6
- cumulative causation
  - adaptation and evolution 2–3, 71–5, 82–3
- curiosity, instinct of 36, 42–4, 49
- Darwin, Charles see Darwinism; natural selection
- Darwinism
  - and instincts 47
  - and learned habits 8
  - see also* natural selection
- Davis, A.K. 273
- deflation see credit cycles
- demand see supply and demand
- democracy
  - and autocracy 186
  - commercialisation of 185
    - and state role 192–4
  - decline of 190–92
  - and individualism 184
  - and modern politics 190–92
  - and national sovereignty, influences on 185
  - pluto-democracy 189–90
  - and public policy 188–90
  - sham democracy 186–7
  - war, influence of 191, 196
- depression see credit cycles
- Dewey, John 19–20
- Diggins, J.P.
  - on conspicuous consumption 95
  - on instinct 50
  - on savages and barbarians 57

- dolicho-brunet (Mediterranean) race 57–9
- dolichocephalic-blond (Northern European) race 57–9
- Dorfman, J. 54–5, 225–6
- Dos Passos, John 308
- Dowd, D. 308
- Duesenberry, J.S. 98
- Dugger, William 30
- Durkheim, E. on collective representations 9–10, 40
   on institutionalism 245 on mechanical solidarity 78–9
- economic determinism 104
- economics, generally and anthropology, relationship between 68–70 basic principles 1–2, 23–6
   purpose of 23–4 see also institutional economics;
   neoclassical economics
- economies of scale 130–32
   and waste of resources 196
- education abroad, cultural influence of 302 academic ideal 213–14 academics conspicuous consumption by 108–9 and decline of socialism, role in 212–17 business education, relevance of 148–9, 215–16 economic growth, influence on 213–14 establishments capitalist influences on 215–17 surplus of 196
   and instinct of curiosity 43–4 of marketing executives, as waste 148–9
- efficiency meaning, change in 136
- engineers definition 225–6 objectives, compared with business 232–3 and social change, role in 225–9 and capitalistic utopia 247–8 creativity, relevance of 231–2 revolutionary triggers 235–7 technology, importance of 230–31
   see also technocracy
   The Engineers and the Price System 227, 240, 244
- entrepreneurs as captains of industry 127–9 and competition, conflicts with Christian morals 16 myth of versus corporate capitalism, in America 271–2
- ethics
   Christian influences on 15–16
   as habits 15–16
   and instinct 46
- evolution change as betterment 28, 75–82
   and cumulative causation 2–3, 71–5, 82–3 of habits 8–9, 16–22 historical legacy of 82–3 and industrial devolution 77–8
   and instinct of workmanship 40–42 of institutions, lagged adaptation 16–22 limitations of Veblen's analysis 82–6
   and natural selection 71–5 relative speed of 72, 76
- excess capacity see waste
- Federal Reserve Bank of the United States credit control attempts of 162–6
- feudalism and constitutional monarchy 265 decline of, influences on 13–14
   in Germany 254–6, 270
   and industrial development 16, 102, 264–5, 270–72, 289
   and property ownership 180, 182–3
- Finance Capital* (Hilferding) 159
- financial sector and business, evolution of control over 157–62
   Federal Reserve Bank of United States, credit control attempts of 162–6

- as industrial capitalists 158–60
- inflation and deflation, influence on 162–3
- as investors and facilitators 158–9
- macroeconomic policies 172–8
  - private sector role 172–4
  - public sector role 174–5
  - and Say's Law 175–8
- as 'One Big Union of the Interests' 159–60, 165
- as overlap between sectors 158–9
- strategic advantages of 161–2
- folkways 12, 20–21
- Frank, Robert 98
- free trade, and peace, influences on 276–7
- free will, and collectivism, influences 7
- Friedman, Milton 143, 174
- frugality, and conspicuous consumption 107–8, 110–11

- Galbraith, John Kenneth
  - on business financing 162
  - on decline of democracy 189–90
  - on influence of education and science on business 212–13
  - on neoclassical economics 297
  - on productivity of large organisations 130–32, 135, 141
  - on statism 241
- gambling, as leisure 90
- general strikes 235–7
- George, Henry 202
- German Historical School 193, 299–300
- Germany
  - cultural influences on 110–11, 259–61, 263–4
  - dynastic and sovereign powers of 254–6, 267–8
  - economic influences on 14–15, 257–64
  - feudalism 254–6, 270
  - industrial development 253–4, 256–61
    - evolutionary characteristics 267–9
    - and institutional change 270–71
    - military background to 261–3
    - political influences on 261–4
    - and war, attitudes towards 269, 291–2
  - industrial protectionism 261–2
  - institutions, role of 14
  - national characteristics 254–6, 263, 266, 291
  - political unification 254–6
  - repressive traditionalism 260–61
  - and universal military service 261–2
  - Zollverein, creation of 261
- globalisation
  - and conspicuous consumption 110
- Goffman, E. 92–3, 106
- The Great War
  - as barbarian aberration 252, 254
  - as economic struggle 286
  - lack of closure following 291–2
  - purpose of 270–71, 280
- gregarious instinct 48, 52, 54–5

- habits, as institutions
  - and bounded rationality 18, 21
  - change, influences on 12–22, 28–9, 306
  - collective representations 9–10, 300–301
  - and conservatism 28
  - cultural role of 6
  - customary expenditure, as waste 199–200
  - determinism 11–16
  - economic change, impact of 11–13
  - emotion and memory, relevance of 7, 18–22
  - evolutionary position 8–9, 16–22
  - feudalism, influence on 13–14
    - as filters 21
  - habits of thought 6–7, 10, 13–14
  - historical influences on 17–22
  - and historical overheads 17
  - innovation, influences on 18
  - and instincts, relationship between 33–7, 50–51
  - institutions, as settled habits of thought 6–7
  - lagged adaptation/evolution 16–22
  - learned cognitions 6–9
  - and natural selection 28–9
  - and network effect 17–18

- and principle of the dead hand 18
- self-interest, role of 12
- socialism, relevance to 206–7
- super-habits 33–5
- Hamilton, Walton 5
- handicraft
  - capitalism and industrialisation, role in development of 122–3
  - and natural selection 73–4
  - and property rights 180
  - salesmanship and workmanship, distinctions between 147–8
- Hayek, F.A. 73, 249
- Hegel, G.W.F. 75–6
- Higher Learning in America* 213–17
- Hilferding, Rudolf 159, 282–3
- Hirsch, Fred 98, 231
- Hobson, J.A.
  - on engineers' role in social change 241
  - on imperialism 286–8
  - on patriotism 284
- Hollis, Ira 227
- Hoxie, George 227
- Hume, David 37–8, 276
- hunger, as instinct 48

- idle curiosity, instinct of 36, 42–4, 49
- idleness see conspicuous leisure
- Imperial Germany and the Industrial Revolution* 252
- imperialism
  - influence on perpetual peace 285–90
  - Schumpeter on 289–90
- individualism
  - and democracy 184
  - and neoclassical economics 301–3
- industrial action see organised labour
- industrial development
  - in America
    - basis for 83, 264–6
    - and national characteristics 271–2
  - in Britain, basis for 264–5
  - consumption patterns, influences on 102–3
  - evolution and devolution 77–8
  - in Germany 253–4, 256–61
    - evolutionary characteristics 267–9
    - and institutional change 270–71
    - military background to 261–3
    - political influences on 261–4
    - and war, attitudes towards 269, 291–2
- handicraft 122–3
- in Japan 272–4
- mechanical solidarity 78–9
- and natural selection 73–5
- industrial interdependence 125–6, 276–7, 302
- industrial sabotage
  - and industrial action 218–19
  - and profit motive 145–7, 288
  - supply and demand 146–7, 150–51, 221–2
- industry
  - differences from business 139, 304
  - purpose of 139–40
- inflation see credit cycles
- innovation, influence on habit 18
- An Inquiry into the Nature of Peace and the Terms of its Perpetuation* 252, 275, 279–80
- instincts
  - and altruism 46–7
  - anger 48
  - biological influences on 36, 48, 50–51
  - conformity and emulation, need for 52–5
  - conservatism 52–5
  - continuity of 39–40
  - and creative compulsion 37–40
  - Darwin on 33
  - economic influences on 48–50
  - foundation instincts 48
  - generally 2, 32–3
  - gregarious instinct 48, 52, 54–5
  - and habits, relationship between 33–7, 50–51
  - hunger 48
  - idle curiosity 36, 42–4, 49
  - as inherited traits 32–3
  - instinctual capital, variations in 48–50
  - minor instincts 47–8, 53
  - mix and proportion in 48–50
  - and morality 46
  - parental instinct 36, 44–9
    - and common good 46–7
    - of women 44–5, 67

- and proclivities 48
- pugnacity 36, 48
- rate of change 33
- and rationality 38
- repulsion 48
- rivalry 36, 41
- self-assertion 36
- and social conditioning 35–6
- sociological influences on 50–51
- as super-habits 33–5
- survival, relevance of 50–51
- as tendencies 33–4
- thug and peacock 36–7
- as tropisms 32
- workmanship 48
- and captain of industry 127–9
  - and conspicuous consumption 116–17
  - and creative compulsion 37–40
  - and development of capitalism 122–3, 140
  - and evolutionary development 40–42
  - and idle curiosity 43
  - materialist impact on 208–9
  - and parental instinct 46
  - and social aversion to labour 38–9, 41–2
  - and survival 40–42
- institutional economics
  - and market price 304
  - and neoclassical economics, compared 293–4, 298–300
  - principles of 23–6
  - and statism 241–2
  - and technocracy 240–42
- Institutional Economics* (Commons) 22
- institutionalism
  - as restriction on capitalism 147
  - and revolution 245–6
- institutions
  - and change, influences on 11–14, 32
  - defining 5–6, 11, 23–4
  - economics, role in 5–6
  - generally 2, 5–6
  - and habits
    - and bounded rationality 18, 21
    - change, influences on 12–22, 28–9, 306
    - as collective representations 9–10, 300–301
    - and conservatism 28
    - cultural role of 6
    - customary expenditure, as waste 199–200
    - determinism 11–16
    - economic change, impact of 11–13
    - emotion and memory, relevance of 7, 18–22
    - evolutionary position 8–9, 16–22
    - feudalism, influence on 13–14
    - as filters 21
    - habits of thought 6–7, 10, 13–14
    - historical influences on 17–22
    - and historical overheads 17
    - innovation, influences on 18
    - and instincts, relationship between 33–7, 50–51
    - lagged adaptation/evolution 16–22
    - learned cognitions 6–9
    - and natural selection 28–9
    - and network effect 17–18
    - and principle of the dead hand 18
    - self-interest, role of 12
    - socialism, relevance to 206–7
    - importance of 21–2
    - and individualism 300–301
    - institutional capital 302–3
    - as matter in motion 11
    - and social evolution 74–5
    - social role of 5–6
- Introduction to Social Psychology* (McDougall) 35
- James, William 7, 33–6
- Japan
  - industrial development, basis for 272–4
  - racial characteristics, influence of 58, 273
- Jevons, W.S. 167
- journalism
  - journeyman printers, conspicuous consumption 103–5
  - and sham democracy 187
- ‘kept classes,’ proportion of population as 132
- Keynes, John Maynard 155, 167

- knowledge as common stock 301–4 economic importance of 301–4
   and instinct of curiosity 43–4 in modern capitalism, role of 134–5, 234–5
   power of 234–5
 Kwakiutl Indians, British Columbia 105 labour industrial division of 126–7 and women, role in 66–7 and property ownership, link between 182–4 social aversion to 38–9, 41–2 waste of 197–200
   see also organised labour;
     workmanship, instinct of League of Pacific Nations, principles of 278–80
Legal Foundations of Capitalism
   (Commons) 22 leisure conspicuous leisure 88–92
   evolution of 88
   politics as 89–90
   religion as 90–92
   scholarship as 89
   sport as 90
   as visible abstention from wealth-creating activity 89
   and wives 90–91
 Lerner, Max 192
 Locke, John on industrialisation and individualistic self-reliance 123 on property rights 180, 182–3
 Loeb, Jacques 32
Looking Backward (Bellamy) 146, 211–12
 McCormick, K. 301, 310
 McDougall, W. 35–7, 42, 46–7
 Maine, Henry 26
 Malthus, Thomas 39, 107, 175
Man Versus the State (Spencer) 249
The Managerial Revolution (Burnham) 133 managers differences from engineers 225–6 efficiency and ethics of 138–41 market forecasting 156 market sabotage 145–7 marketing, inefficiency of 147–51 Marshall, Alfred 1 on altruism 46–7 on basis of economics 298–9 on consumption 97 on industrial change and betterment 76–7 on influences on world history 15 on the racial characteristics of the Jews 60 Marx, Karl
   on business cycles 167
   on change as betterment 75–6, 79–83
   on economic determinism 104 on labour and property, link between 182–3 on natural selection 79–82 on role of social being in consciousness 12 utilitarian psychology of 81–2 on waste of resources 200–201 on working classes 217–18
 Maslow, A.H. 201, 205
 Mason, E.S. 245–6
 Means, J.C. 133, 189
 Metcalfe, J.S. 18
 Mills, C. Wright 190
 Mitchell, Wesley
   on business cycles 171
   on instincts as inherited traits 32–3 on role of credit in economy 153 on social evolution 202 on Veblen 309
The Modern Corporation and Private Property 133
Moral Sentiments (Smith) 52, 245 morality Christian influences on 15–16
   as habits 15–16
   and instinct 46
 Morgan, J. Pierpoint 160–61
 Morgan, L.H. 56
 Morris, William 212
 Mun, Thomas 276

- nationalism and perpetual peace, limitations on 283–5
- natural selection
 change as betterment 28, 75–82
 Creator, role of 79
 and cumulative causation 71–5, 79, 85–6 evolutionary slowness 72
 and industrial development 73–5 limitations of Veblen's views on 84–6 Marx on 79–82
 principles of 72–3 survival as only test for 73
- Nelson, R.R. 143, 145
- neoclassical economics 4
 basis for 294–8
 clarity in, need for 297–8
 and individualism 300–303
 and institutional economics, compared 293–4, 298–300 knowledge, importance of 301–4 and price 304–6
 and property ownership 296–8, 303–4 static principles of 298–300 taxonomy, role in 295, 299
- News from Nowhere* (Morris) 212
- North, Douglass 11
- North Atlantic Races, characteristics of 57–9
- Olson, Mancur 281
- 'One Big Union of the Interests' 159–60, 165
- organised labour and business strategy 220–22 and cultural differences 222 and general strikes 235–7 and industrial sabotage 218–19 powers of 220–21
- parental instinct 36, 44–9
 and common good 46–7
 of women 44–5, 67
- Pareto, V. 281
- parliamentary socialism 249–51
- Patinkin, D. 169
- patriotism, influence on perpetual peace 283–5
- peace, perpetual and attitudes to war 290–92
 influences on avoidance of hostilities, need for 290–92 free trade 276–7
 generally 4, 275
 and international interdependence 276–7 league of nations, need for 278–80 limitations on imperialism 285–90
 nationalism 283–5 patriotism 283–5 vested interests 280–83 management of 290–92
- Peirce, Charles S. on habit and custom 7, 29–30, 35
 on instinct of curiosity 42–3
- pets, and conspicuous prowess 93
- The Philosophy of Wealth* (Clark) 52–3
- Pigou, A.C. 171
- Polanyi, K. 21–2, 94
- politics, generally as conspicuous leisure 89–90 and socialism 211–12
- price influences on 304–5
 and neoclassical economics 304–6
- Principles of Economics* (Marshall) 298–9
- Principles of Political Economy* (Malthus) 107
- profit, as motive and behavioural goals 144–5
 concentration of ownership 142–3
 corporate goals versus social objectives 137–8, 143–4
 demand manipulation 146–7, 150–51
 ethics as restraint on 137
 generally 3, 136
 influences on 305
 and managerial efficiency 138–41
 and market sabotage 145–7, 288
 and marketing 147–51
 output restrictions 146–7
- Progress and Poverty* (George) 202
- propaganda, and sham democracy 187

- property ownership barbarian acquisition of 65–6, 179 in capitalism and socialism 211 claims to, historical development 180–82
 and conspicuous leisure 88–9 and deprivation 202 and feudalism 180, 182–3
 generally 179–80
 moral basis for 181 neoclassical economic approach to 296–8, 303–4
 in savage cultures 179 and social instinct, changing emphasis on 53–4 versus private interest 181–2 women as property 66–8 and work, link between 182–4 see also absentee ownership
- protectionism advantages and disadvantages of 276–7 conflicts with democracy 188–9
- public policy, conflicts with democracy 188–90
- pugnacity, instinct of 36, 48
- The Races of Europe* (Ripley) 58
- Ramstad, Y. 194
- Rawls, John 205
- recession see credit cycles
- relative deprivation 100–101, 250
 and socialism 204–5, 250
- religion in barbarian cultures 68 female influences on 63–4, 67–8 as habit of thought 15 as leisure activity 90–92
 in savage cultures 15–16, 63–4, 67–8
- repulsion, instinct of 48
- revolution alternative routes to 247–51 basis for, economic versus political 243–7 engineers as triggers for 235–7 and parliamentary socialism 249–51 technocracy, as mechanism for 238–42 working class role in 218–19 see also Russian Revolution
- Ricardo, D. 97
- Riesman, David 45, 47, 69, 96, 197, 211, 252, 308, 311
- Ripley, W.Z. 58
- rivalry, instinct of 36, 41
- Road to Serfdom* (Hayek) 249
- Robbins, Lionel 1
- Russia
 Russian Revolution 209–12
 Veblen's predictions on 269
- Rutherford, M. 31
- sabotage see industrial sabotage
- Saint-Simon, Henri de 243–7
- savages and barbarians anthropology, and economics 68–70 barbarians and antagonism, reasons for development of 65–6 change from savages to, reasons for 64–8, 123 consumption, drivers for 87–8 consumption patterns 102
 and religion 68
 social characteristics 64–8 surplus, relevance of 65–6 tools and weapons, importance of 65–6 women, role of 66–8
 and economic determinism 104
 and instinct of workmanship 40–42, 62, 140 and natural selection, as cause or effect 56–7, 85–6 and racial type hereditary traits, development 57–9 immigration and national character 59–61
 intermarriages, benefits of 59
 Jews, racial characteristics of 59–61
 North Atlantic races, racial characteristics of 57–9 relevance of differences between 57–61
- savages and aggression, lack of 63 biological influences on instincts 51

- and capital 62–3
- change, influences on 64–8, 123
- consumption, drivers for 87
- consumption patterns 62–3, 101–2
- economic basis of 62–3
- esteem, need for 53
- instinct of workmanship 40–42, 62, 140
- parental instincts of 62
- property ownership 101–2
- and religion 15–16, 63–4, 67–8
- role of women in 67–8
- self-interest, irrelevance of 62
- social characteristics of 61–4
- theology of 63–4
- social stratification
  - causes of 56–7
  - general historical trends 2, 56–7
  - tools, role of 40–41
- Say's Law 175–8, 287
- scholarship, and conspicuous leisure 89
- Schumpeter, J.A.
  - on business cycles 166–7
  - on creative destruction 231, 268
  - on entrepreneurs 127
  - on imperialism 289–90
  - on neoclassical and institutional economics 299
- science, influence on business 212–13
- self-assertion, instinct of 36
- Shackle, G.L.S. 75
- Simon, H.A. 7
- slavery, abolition, impact of 28
- Smith, Adam
  - on altruism 46
  - on choice and consumption 97
  - on distribution of wealth 176–7
  - on division of labour 126–7
  - labour theory of value 123, 152
  - on managers' ethics and efficiency 138–9, 141
  - on need for conformity 52
  - on science as threat 42
- socialism
  - alternative routes to 247–51
  - anarchism as form of 211
  - and Bolshevism, success compared 210
  - capitalism, influence on 208–9, 211, 232–5
  - and emulation 205–6
  - engineers' role in 225–9
  - creativity, relevance of 231–2
  - objectives, compared with
    - business 232–3
    - revolutionary triggers 235–7
  - technology, importance of 230–31
  - and habit 206–7
  - and market capitalism 204
  - and oppression 240–41
  - parliamentary socialism 249–51
  - and perpetual peace, limitations of 281–2
  - proletariat, role in development 224–5
  - reasons for rise of 204–7
    - absentee ownership, dissatisfaction with 207–9
    - envy 204–6
    - relative deprivation 204–5, 250
  - role of academics in decline of 212–17
  - state socialism 282
  - technocracy, as revolutionary mechanism 238–42
- sociology, and economics, overlap with 2
- Sombart, W. 60
- 'Some Neglected Points in the Theory of Socialism' 87, 249
- Sorel, G. 236
- Spencer, Herbert
  - on change as betterment 73–84
  - on historical habit, influences of 19, 26
  - on socialism and oppression 240, 249
- sport, and conspicuous leisure 90
- status symbols
  - and conspicuous consumption 118–20
  - and sexual competition 118–19
  - women as 66–7
- Stigler, G.J. 306–7
- Sumner, William Graham 12, 20–21
- supply and demand
  - and conspicuous consumption 107–8, 110–11

- demand manipulation 146–7, 150–51, 195–6, 222–3
and industrial sabotage 146–7, 150–51, 221–2, 288
influences on 96, 306
output manipulation 146–7, 150–51, 195–6, 222–3
and Say's Law of markets 175–8 and waste of resources 195–6
- survival
and instinct of workmanship 40–42
and learned habits 8 and profit 85 responsibility for 24
see also natural selection
- Sweezy, P. 143–4
- Tawney, R.H. on power of big business 132 on purpose of big business 244 on sham democracy 186
- technocracy, as revolutionary mechanism 238–42
- technology
as global public good 302
and natural selection 73–5 role in industrialisation of 122–3 see also engineers
- The Theory of Business Enterprise* 87, 218–19, 300, 309
- The Theory of the Leisure Class* 4, 87, 94, 300
- Tilman, R. 7, 84, 203, 212
- Titmuss, R.M. 191
- Tocqueville, A. de 9–10, 116–17
- trade unions see organised labour and industrial sabotage 218–19
- unemployment and business sabotage 218 and credit 3, 150, 176
- universities see education
- Veblen, Thorstein characteristics 309–12 criticisms of 308–10 general beliefs of 1–2, 310–311 life of 4, 310
puritanical upbringing, influences of 95
on role of economics 310 teaching career 4, 204 writings of, obscurity in 309–10 vested interests see absentee ownership
- The Vested Interests and the Common Man* 252
- Walker, Donald on economic incentives 305 on instinctual influences on habits 50–51
on working class integration 219–20
- Wallace, Henry 291, 308
- Wallas, Graham 308
- war and decline of democracy 191 economic basis for 174–5, 287 and imperialism 285–6
and industrial development,
influences on 261–3, 269
Veblen's support for First World War 252–3 and waste 196
see also peace
- waste and customary expenditure 199–200 and economies of scale 196
generally 194–5
identifying, test for 200–201 of life 197–200 of resources 195–6
- wealth distribution of, and market cycles 176–7
see also conspicuous consumption
- The Wealth of Nations* (Smith) 52
- Weber, Max on capitalism 117, 122, 124, 141–2
on German work ethic 263 on institutional economics 25
- Williamson, O.E. 8
- Winter, S.G. 143, 145
- women
and conspicuous consumption 105–6, 109, 116
and conspicuous leisure 90–91

- feminism 45
  - parental instinct 44–5, 67
  - as prizes 53, 66–7
  - as property 66–7
  - role in barbarian cultures 66–8
  - role in savage cultures 67–8
  - as status symbols 66–7
  - Veblen's views on 45, 91
  - wives 90–91, 105–6, 109, 116
  - working class
    - business integration of 219–22
    - as driver for revolution 218–19
  - workmanship, instinct of 48
    - and captain of industry 127–9
    - and conspicuous consumption 116–17
    - and creative compulsion 37–40
    - and development of capitalism 122–3, 140
    - and evolutionary development 40–42
    - and idle curiosity 43
    - materialist impact on 208–9
    - and parental instinct 46
    - and social aversion to labour 38–9, 41–2
    - and survival 40–42
- Zum ewigen Frieden* (Kant) 275

