
Contents

List of contributors	vii
Introduction	x
PART I BASIC METHODOLOGIES FOR RESEARCHING CITIES
1 City makers, federal interventions and territorial organization: the case of Mexico Vincente Ugalde and Stéphanie Ronda	3
2 Empirical approaches to urban competitiveness analysis Peter Karl Kresl	32
3 Comparative urban studies in Europe: an introduction to the Euricur method Alexander Otgaar and Leo van den Berg	60
PART II CONTINENTAL DISTINCTIONS
4 Analysis of urban well-being and its influencing factors in the spatial distribution in China Ni Pengfei, Qingbin Li and Chao Li	75
5 A comparative approach to doing research on cities: comparing North American cities to others Diane-Gabrielle Tremblay and Angélo Battaglia	97
6 Questions and challenges in studies on Latin-American cities José Marcos Pinto da Cunha	127
7 Doing research in African cities: the case study method James Duminy, Vanessa Watson and Nancy Odendaal	153
PART III POSITIONING CITIES
8 Relating cities to their international context Earl H. Fry	175
9 Defining the urban economic and administrative spaces Carlo Salone	205
10 An insight on the unit of analysis in urban research Joan Trullén, Raphael Boix and Vittorio Galletto	235

PART IV PLANNING FOR THE FUTURES

- 11 Evaluation of strategic planning exercises 269
Peter Karl Kresl
- 12 Imagining the future of an individual city 295
John F. McDonald
- 13 The limits of environmental management in the Mexico
megacity: the air pollution case 320
José Luis Lezama

PART V URBAN STRUCTURES

- 14 Urban demographic growth: the case of megacities 343
Jaime Sobrino
- 15 Evaluating the urban milieu of an individual city 372
William F. Lever
- 16 Analysing internal migration pathways in Mexico 396
Jaime Sobrino
- 17 Model building for infrastructure initiatives 423
Bert van Wee, Jan Anne Annema and Hugo Priemus
- 18 Local public-private relationships for economic development in Mexico: a qualitative analysis 442
Isela Orihuela
- 19 The creative urban diaspora economy: a disparity analysis
among migrant entrepreneurs 472
Karima Kourtit, Peter Nijkamp and Daniel Arribas-Bel
- Index* 497