

Index

- Aboriginal people, Australia
 - forest fire-burning practices 82
- access rights 43, 59, 65, 235
- accountability, goal-setting, results-publication 243
- accounting practices, specified
 - activities for 153–4, 203
- accreditation of verification bodies 261
- advertising and consumer outreach in Europe
 - for FSC timber 290–91
- African Timber Organization, Libreville, Gabon, 1993 89
- agroforestry
 - mix of livestock, crops, with woody perennial 158
- airborne pollution impact 108
- Amazon River basin
 - tripling of existing protected reserves 186
- aquatic habitats maintenance, forest assistance 233
- Asia, per capita, consumption of wood products, increase 6
- aspirational statements, non-legally binding, on forests 131
- assurance mechanism
 - timber products from managed stocks, verification 292
- audit assessment, annual, Forest Stewardship Council 281
- Australia, non-binding codes of conduct 20–21
- ‘avoided deforestation’ 162
 - Brazil, compensation requirement 172
 - and carbon market 170–71
 - issues raised by 169
- Baltic states, emission control 138
- Bank policies and operational policies 204–6
- baseline and credit scheme
 - Papua New Guinea, Brazil 172–3
- baseline methodology, amount of emission removal 160
- baseline rate of deforestation, Papua New Guinea 172
- beneficial services of forests 227
- benefit-sharing 40
- binding commitments and targets
 - hard-line approach of institution 130
- Biodiversity Banking Scheme, New South Wales 251
- biodiversity 74, 104, 154, 205, 230
 - business shares 229–30
 - forest values, legal instruments as tools 84
 - improvement 82
 - loss on planet, serious concern 228
 - regimen 262
 - rights definition 59
 - values 78
- biodiversity-friendly products 230
- bio-energy production 6
- biomass energy from organic matter 158
- bioprospecting rights 230
- Bolivia, forest certification rates 288
- boreal forests of Siberia, America 39
- Brundtland Report* 195
- ‘bundle of rights’ approach 55–6
- burden of conservation
 - loss of economic development through logging 119
- ‘California effect’, ‘race to the top’ 265–6
- Canadian Standards Association 270

- Cancun Adaptation Framework 141
- 'cap and trade' type approach 172–3
- cap limit on forest sinks, credit claims 159
- capacity development, regulatory capacity 161–2
- carbon absorption 5, 141
- Carbon and Climate Law Review 166
- Carbon Conservation Mechanism
 - voluntary scheme, pay for ecosystem services 231–2
- carbon contribution of forests 74
- carbon credit 172, 231, 232
 - (certified emission reduction credits) 252–3
- carbon dioxide emission 132, 143
- carbon measurement and monitoring 23, 292
- carbon payments 165
- carbon reservoir mechanism 172
- carbon sequestration, uncertainty on 151–2
- carbon storage in all forest types 134, 228, 304
- carbon trading 23
- Central and East European states, emission control 138
- Centre for International Forestry Research (CIFOR) 103, 193
- Centre for International Sustainable Development Law 172
 - on baseline and credit approach 173
- certification 160, 261
 - programs, barriers to 186
 - schemes, applicant's compliance with standard 261
- certified emission reduction credits
 - afforestation or reforestation 158–9
 - protection by contract law 161
- 'chain of custody' certification 261
 - Forest Stewardship Council 274
 - traders in timber 280
- Charter of the United Nations, public bodies 93
- cheap timber, international demand 22
- child mortality reduction
 - Millennium Development Goals 180
- civil society groups
 - ban on conversion of tropical forests 205–6
- Clean Development Mechanism (CDM) 5, 143, 161
 - credit obtaining steps 160
 - forestry rules 140
 - Kyoto Protocol 156–7
 - legal issues, implementation of forest projects 157–8
 - preconditions for implementing 162
 - sink politics 157
- climate change
 - greenhouse gas stabilization 133
 - impacts on forest ecosystem 7
 - mitigation 133–4
 - regime 4–5, 154, 164, 262
 - regulation of forest carbon 70
 - role of forests 134
 - world's biggest market failure 223
- Climate Change Convention 6
- climate-friendly technologies 157
- climate, interference with 133
- codes of conduct, legal instruments as tools 84
- Collaborative Partnership on Forests (CPF)
 - global funding 114
 - intergovernmental institutions 102–4
- 'command and control' regulation 220
- commercial logging, support of 201
- 'Common Information Framework' 104
- common law 20, 79
- community forest projects 158
 - social dimension, sustainable livelihoods 158
- community interests and market interests 238
- community relations, FSC certification 282
- compensation for damage 49
- compensation rights of forest-dwelling communities 39
- competition for forest use 7
- compliance with World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF) 263
- concession arrangements, forest resource harvesting 64–5

- concessions 20, 65
- Conference of the Parties (COP) 133, 163–5
 - examination of parties' obligations 135
 - negotiation, acronym changing 166
 - on processes required for REDD+ activities 167
 - scientific and technological knowledge, action on 136
- Congo Business Forest Partnership 186
- conservation for present and future
 - human needs
 - social 80
- conservation of forests, legal protection 123
- conservation status of forest estates, Australia 21
- constitutional law, influential 81–2
- consumer countries 187–8
- consumers and timber-purchasing
 - influence of environmental information 290
- consumption levels, current
 - too high for planet's support 257–8
- consumption of forest products
 - means of assessing liability 42
- contract law 251
- controlled wood certification
 - control of non-certified wood 280–81
- Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD) 103, 116–17, 195, 228
 - ecological forest values 70
 - international laws 18–19
- Convention on Civil Liability Article 7(a)
 - loss of human, animal, plant life 49
- Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora*
 - bans for trade in endangered species 269
- conversion to plantation 37–8
- corrupt forestry practices, in developing countries 21–2
- corrupt practices 22, 29, 165, 265
- corruption elimination 42
- 'cost-benefit analysis' 221
- cost-efficient decision-making 226
- cost of certification, evaluation, audits, licensing 287
- costs of audit, certification fees 287
- countries with high forest cover
 - responsibility for agreed practices 36
- countries with low forest cover 108
- 'country ownership', Bank policy 204
- credit replacement 159
- credits sale 172
- criteria and indicator processes 87–9, 123
 - 'critical forest areas' definitions 205
 - 'Cropland Management' 149
- cultural resistance, biodiversity enhancement context 230
- customary law, forest use and management 20, 80
- customary rights 208
 - primary and secondary 63
- damage as loss of life, injury 49
- debt for nature swaps
 - financial incentives for rainforest nations 52
- debt reduction programs
 - for prevention of deforestation 52
 - of legally produced timber 190
 - of property rights 61
- deforestation 6
 - activities, recognition 164
 - causes 108
 - degradation causes 170
 - degradation, reduced emissions 162–3
 - environmental resources, air, water, soils 33
 - global decrease in forest cover 122
 - global greenhouse gas emissions, 20% 269
 - greenhouse gas emissions 5
 - illegal forestry practices 125
 - largest cause for urban and agricultural growth 80
 - reduction, Latin America, Africa, Asia 248
- degraded forestland
 - improvement for offset requirements 238

- 'Delaware effect', 'race to the bottom'
 - foreign timber companies in Indonesia 265
- demand creation for forest ecosystem willingness to pay 238
- demand for wood products, steep increase 313
- dependence on forests, assessment 209
- desertification regimen 262
- Designated Operational Entity
 - net anthropogenic greenhouse gas removals 160
- 'developed' and 'developing' countries 4
 - forest management commitments 35
 - land tenure 249
- developing countries
 - importance of sovereignty over natural resources 50
 - increase in populations 25
 - lack of secure tenure rights 247
 - need for assistance 76
 - special recognition 138
 - target for implementation of sustainable forest management 35
 - with vulnerability to climate change 139
- development assistance for developing countries 114
 - ground-based accounting practices 170
 - increased funding for developing countries 106
- development policy loans 212–13
- distributional analysis 28
- distributive justice 34–5, 42, 316
 - Rawls' 'theory of justice' 28
- diversification of local economy FSC certification 283
- divisibility, horizontal and vertical 61
- document falsification 22–3
- domestic forest governance reform 317–18
- domestic funding, direct investment 128
- drought effects 7
- Dry Zone Africa Process, Nairobi, Kenya 1995 87
- due diligence 128, 194, 212–13
- due diligence in forest carbon projects 65–6
- duration of forest property interests 61
- earth, relationship with
 - management for future needs 258
- earth's forest cover, destruction 37
- Earth Summit, Malaysia, statement on rich countries 31
- Earth Summit (Rio 1992) 46, 132, 222, 273
 - failure to create legally binding forest instrument 262
 - literature 25
 - negotiations, impact on forest regulations 262
- eco-labelling programs, no suitable marketing 270, 290
- ecological and social forest values
 - legal instruments as tools 84
- ecological integrity of earth 71
- ecological justice 25–6, 78
- economic and ecological interests, balance 75
- Economic and Social Council of the United Nations (ECOSOC) 93, 96, 177
- economic effectiveness, forest market 241–2
- economic forest instruments, Brundtland Report (1987) 222
- economic incentive instruments 226
 - property right-based systems 226–7
- economic instruments for forest biodiversity conservation 228
- economic interests in forest areas 84
- economic regulatory instruments 221
- economic, social, cultural values of forests
 - lack of economic data 123
- economies in transition (EIT), need for emission control 138
- eco-security 128
- ecosystem regulation 79
- ecosystem rights definition 59
- ecosystem service regimes, payment for non-state regulation 11

- ecosystem services 97–8, 130
- ecotourism market 235–6
- Ecuador, forest certification rates 288
- efficiency, legitimacy, over-regulation 221
- emission reduction credits and targets 35, 143, 160
- emissions from deforestation 163–4
- emissions, net 145, 160
 - trading mechanism, Kyoto Protocol 156–7
- employment for poor rural people 192
- empowerment of women
 - Millennium Development Goals 180
- endangered species areas 205
- energy
 - from timber products 7
 - renewable and sustainable 6
 - threat to forests 37
- enforcement of property rights 58, 61
- environmental
 - and social impact assessments 40
 - damage, definition, Convention on Civil Liability 49
 - degradation 222
- environmental effectiveness, forest market 241–2
- environmental equity 28–30
- environmental goals, weakening 256
- environmental governance, sustainability 71
- environmental impact assessment (EIA) 80–81
- environmental justice 3, 25–7, 315–16
 - in international forest instruments 298–9
- Environmental Kuznets Curve (IKC) 30, 248
- environmental law functions 79
- environmental market frameworks 255
- environmental objectives, clarity need 258
- environmental offset process
 - public availability of information 242–3
- environmental projects in developing countries 197
- environmental protection 80
 - priority over economic development 25
- environmental regulation 34, 68
 - employment opportunities 256
- environmental services from forest ecosystems 223, 237
- environmental stresses 27
- environmental tax on pollution, rights trading 239
- environment care, responsibility 33
- environment objectives, clear 240
- environment protection rights 38–9
- ‘Equator Principle’ 128
- equatorial forests of Central Africa 39
- equity, intergenerational 32–3
- erosion and sedimentation control, forest assistance 233
- erosion of sovereign rights, financial incentive 50
- European Commission
 - combat of illegal logging and timber harvesting 187
- European Union bio-fuel policies 6
- European Union Emissions Trading Scheme 232
- European Union, Norway, Switzerland
 - opinions on international arrangements of forests 124
- exclusion of forest-dwelling groups 22
- exclusivity
 - freedom from government regulations 59–60
 - no sharing with other owners 59–60
- export of forest products 29
- external financial flows to forests 129
- Fair Trade
 - creating end-user demand 290–91
 - reasonable wage for forest workers 282–3
- fair trade dual certification pilot project
 - FSC certification 283
- fair trade requirement 291–2
- finance 100
 - compensation, technology transfer 262
- financial assistance to developing countries
 - emission control against climate change 138

- financial mechanisms for adequate funds 203
- financial resources and support for sustainable forest management 123, 315
- flexibility in re-negotiation of terms 61
- Food and Agriculture Organization 6, 63, 175
 - legally binding international forest instrument 118–19
 - urgent need for forestry funding 52
- Food and Agriculture Organization (Forestry) 92, 103
- foreign investment for developing countries 76
- foreign investment in natural resources interests 49–50
- forest action and policy, World Bank Group institutions 203
- forest activities
 - illegal, prevention of 128
 - harm outside state borders 29
 - sinks 303–4
- forest adaptation methods
 - against climate change effects 7
- forest and land management credit limit 150
- forest and related scientific knowledge 122
- forest areas competing values, ecological, economic, social 70
- forest-based trading regimes, transparency need 242–3
- forest baseline identification, developing countries 170
- forest burning, carbon release 132
- forest carbon credits 174
- Forest Carbon Partnership Facility (FCPF), 2008
 - activities of 163, 184, 193–4
 - funding fourteen countries 175
 - Readiness Fund, Carbon Fund 175, 193
 - technical assistance for REDD 175
 - for tropical countries 193
- forest carbon, right to, legal system recognition 58–9
- Forest Certificate Assessment Guide* 186
- forest certification
 - instruments 280
 - logos, consumer knowledge on 289–90
 - mechanism, emergence 262
 - respecting all laws 282
- forest certification institutions
 - international and domestic level 270–71
- forest certification schemes
 - conditions for development 263–4
 - in developing countries 285
 - ecological criteria 79
 - harvesting processes improvement optimism 260–61
 - impact on international timber market 269
 - legitimacy, pragmatic and moral 271–2
 - improvement optimism 260–61
 - wider implementation of 307–8
- forest clearance, carbon release 132
- forest clearing for crops and pasture 37
- forest communities, voice or representation lack 178–9
- forest condition improvements, importance 240
- forest consumers 209
- forest convention, benefit to world's forests 120
 - legally binding international forest instrument 118–19
 - need for 116–17
- forest coverage, high, benefits of 28–9
- forest cover and health 241
- forest cover and water services link, Costa Rica 233
- 'forest' definition 4
- forest degradation causes 108
- forest-dependent developing countries
 - funding, insurance, technology transfer 142
- forest dependent people, lives improvement
 - Forest Principles 2007 113
- forest dwellers and poverty 21, 165, 180, 213
- forest ecosystem credits 4, 219
 - agricultural expansion, development of land 134

- demand, Costa Rica 237
- dependence on, by forest communities 178
- loss of carbon
- forest governance, devolution of responsibility to local communities 192
- improving 201
- Nepal and India 65
- forest health and productivity
- threats to forest, fire, storm, air pollution 122–3
- forest health and vitality 104
- forest importance in climate change
 - carbon absorption 132
- forest insurance 128
- forest items, carbon in trees 57
- forest knowledge, use of trees 40
- forest landscape restoration projects 158
 - natural regeneration, tree planting, agro-forestry 158
- forest law, effectiveness of 17–18
- Forest Law Enforcement and Governance Program (FLEG) 260, 268
- Forest Law Enforcement and Governance Trade (FLEGT) 184
- European Union, legality of timber harvest 8, 189
- regional schemes, South East Asia, Africa 188–9
- World Summit on Sustainable Development 187
- transparency 22
- forest law, international 35
- Forest Law No. 7575, 1996, Costa Rica 237
- forest legislation and property rights 62
- forest management 148–9
- forest management certification
 - Forest Stewardship Council 274
 - socially beneficial forest operations 280
- forest management policies
 - impediments, legal or non-legal 19–20
 - regulatory approach 79
- forest market instrument 219
- forest market legal issues, land tenure 246
- forest market mechanisms 223
 - good governance requirements 242
 - increased use 258
 - non-state regulation 11
 - regulatory framework management requirements 249
- forest monitoring systems 123
- forest, old growth
 - developed countries, appreciation of value 25
- forest operational policy OP 4.36 214–15
- forest, physical positions, hidden 22
- Forest Principles 1992 105, 107
 - ignoring of 121
 - sustainable forest management 46
- Forest Principles 2007 111–12, 115
 - four global objectives 113
 - implementation 2009 to 2015 125
 - international finance for 127
 - main themes 110
 - Non-Legally Binding Instrument on All Types of Forests* 109–10
 - non-legally binding, on forests 46
 - sovereignty rights for forest use 47–8
- forest producers 209
- forest products, enjoyment of 28–9, 108
- Forest Property Agreements (Victoria and South Australia)
 - rights to plant, and harvest forest property 57
- forest pyramid
 - tiers for sustainable forestry management 207–8
- forest reference emission levels
 - tonnes of carbon dioxide 167
- forest regulation
 - analysis by climate change regime 140
 - legal issues 10–11, 15
- forest-related knowledge, traditional 108
- forest research and development 108
- forest resources
 - livestock fodder, income for products' sale, timber, housing material, firewood, food, medicine 179
 - sustainable governance 70

- forest resources and responsibilities,
 - allocation
 - 'distributional' 299
- forest responsibility and justice, global 23
- forest revenue, public and private finance 128
- forestry and poverty, interconnection 111
- forestry certification initiatives, barriers to 286
- forestry certification schemes, non-state regulation 11
- forestry trading regimes, and local interest groups 244
- forests
 - absorption of carbon dioxide 179
 - as buffers to temperature changes 179
 - health of ecosystems, water, soil 110
 - poverty reduction policy 110
 - as purifiers of water 179
 - as refuge, 'safety net', deforestation, serious negative 179
 - soil health maintenance 179
 - solution to problems for climate change mitigation 110
- forests in environmentally critical areas 108
- forest sinks, inclusion within Clean Development Mechanism 157
- forests, international arrangements 124
- forests, sequesters or emitters of carbon 253
- Forest Stewardship Council 206, 270, 308
 - Africa, Asia, no regional development 276
 - governance of forests 272–3
 - national standards 276
 - non-profit, non-governmental organization 279
 - procedures for compliance 278
 - quasi-legislative in nature 278
 - regional standards 276
 - Southern interests, barriers 275–6
 - tackle multifactor coherence 278
- Forest Stewardship Council (FSC) 272–5
 - certification 280–1
 - principles of 280–4, 289
- forest stock measuring capacity 170
- Forest-Strategy, 1978, industry-focused 201
- Forest Strategy, 1991
 - against commercial logging in tropical forests 202
- Forest Strategy, 2002, on poverty reduction 202
- forest tenure and use rights 15
- forest-trading regime, government role, importance of 245–6
- forest values 34
 - individual, different international bodies 70
 - protection, under contract, legislation, property rights 258
 - recognition of all 106
 - tropical, boreal, native, plantation 97, 303
- forest vegetation definition 59
- forest watershed services
 - economic instruments for biodiversity conservation 232–3
- forestation of individual states
 - responsibility for protection 24
- formal state law, forest use and management 20
- Forum reform 314–15
- Framework Convention on Climate Change 116
 - international market for carbon 231
 - principles 141–2
- fraudulent dealings 22–3
- free markets 27, 267–8
- Friends of the Earth, 'good wood buyers' guide' 263
- frontier forests, under threat 37–8
- funding programs for developing countries
 - grants, enabling activities, projects 197
- Gandhi, Mahatma, quotation about the Earth, 1947 258
- gender equality, Millennium Development Goals 180

- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) guidelines
 - voluntary framework 260
- General Assembly of Forest Stewardship Council, 274–7
- Ghana
 - assistance from Germany 126
 - priority measure 126–7
 - right to certified emission reduction credits 161
- Ghana Project Pilot, Forest Principles 2007 126
- global consensus on priority of forest degradation 24
- global ecological values, protection of 198
- Global Environmental Facility (GEF) 114, 194–5
 - grants to developing countries 196–8
 - United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification (UNCCD) 103
- global environment justice movement, components 27
- Global Forest Alliance, 1998, targets for loss reduction 184–5
- global forest goals, target-oriented 309–311
- global forest governance, World Bank 215–16, 313–14
- global forest partnership, international activities of 194, 198–9
- global forest regulation 85–6
- global governance, ineffectuality of 116
- Global Legislators Organization for a Balanced Environment (GLOBE)
 - forest convention draft 119
- global partnership for development Millennium Development Goals 180
- good governance requirements
 - accountability 72, 242, 311
 - enforceability 72
 - integration 72
 - stakeholder participation 72
 - transparency 72, 242
- governance concept 15, 71, 128
 - decision-making procedure 242
- governance reform in developing countries 242
 - governance without government
 - Forest Stewardship Council 277–8
 - government certification systems 279, 288
 - government department involvement
 - inefficiencies in differences 21
 - government regulations and law enforcement
 - for conservation 242
 - government role, importance of
 - in forest-trading regime 245–6
 - ‘grazing land management’ 149
 - ‘green’ credentials for timber industry
 - working with NGOs 264
 - greenhouse gas emissions 5, 223
 - developed countries,
 - disproportionate responsibility 137–8
 - from forest harvesting, land clearing, deforestation, forest fires, use of fertilizers 303–4
 - greenhouse gases in atmosphere, high presence
 - from industrialized nations 132
 - greenhouse gas stabilisation 142–4
- harvesting rights definition 5, 59
- Helsinki Process
 - criteria for sustainable forest management 73–4
- history of community
 - Poverty Forestry Toolkit
 - methodology 210
- HIV/AIDS, combating, Millennium Development Goals 180
- illegal logging
 - environmental damage, lost revenue, corruption promotion 187–8
- implementation improvement
 - developing countries enforcement of principles 125–6
 - financial support need for
 - developing countries 125–6
- improvement in forest conditions 312
- incentives for stakeholders 244–5
- independent observers, compliance with rule of law 65
- indigenous groups, consultation with 105–6

- indigenous groups' forest rights 41–2
- indigenous law
 - laws and traditions of first-generation people 82
- indigenous rights forest losses, colonization 64
- industrial plantations, mixed 158
- industrial pollution, responsibility for generation of 31
- industrialized nations
 - role played in forest degradation 27, 42
- industry standards, legal instruments as tools 84
- information campaigns for consumers sourcing sustainable timber 289
- infrastructure development threat to forests 37
- integration principle 106
- Inter-American Court of Human Rights
 - safeguards before exploration licenses 40
- Intergovernmental Forum on Forests reporting statistics 121–2
- Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC)
 - information about climate change 4, 136
- Intergovernmental Panel on Forests 121
- internal audit process, first-party assessment 261
- International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, 180–83
- International Biological Diversity Regime 92
- International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) 180–82
- International Climate Change Regime 5, 6, 92, 140
 - carbon values of forests 91
 - forest regulation 132
 - institutional structure 135
 - Secretariat, Conference of the Parties (COP) 135
- international cooperation 108, 124
- International Court of Justice (ICJ) 29
- International Development Association (IDA)
 - focus on poorest countries 180–82
- International Development Legal Organization (IDLO)
 - legally binding rules, enforcement, amendment, application 18
- International Diversification Regime 92
- international environment agreements rights and duties relating to natural environment 51
- international environmental laws 31, 44, 48
- international finance corporation 214
- International Finance Corporation (IFC) 202
 - private enterprise in developing countries 180–82
- international forest agenda 35
- International Forest Institution 96
 - need for strengthening 19
- international forest law, evidence of implementation 311–12
- international forest regulation 262
 - effectiveness 308–9
 - fragmentation of 76–7
 - lack of integration within creating bodies 72
- international forest institutions, external 102–3
- International Forum on Forestry, proposals for action 107–9
- international funding for environmental protection 52
- international governance of sustainable forest management 75
- International Institute for Environment and Development
 - The Pyramid: A Diagnostic and Planning Tool for Good Forest Governance* 207
 - stakeholder interest review 198
- international law 82–3
 - creation of justice within governance 41
 - effectivity of domestic implementation 121

- forest management 3
- non-governmental organizations (NGOs) 279
- international management standards 315
- International Monetary Fund 182
 - global financial institution 177
- International Panel on Forestry, proposals for action 107–9
- international policies at individual country level
 - World Bank forest policy 211–12
- international regulation of forest use
 - operational difficulties 72, 77
- international responsibility, forest degradation
 - failure of 24–5
- international timber market, global deforestation driver 36
- international trade and sustainable forest management
 - Forest Law Enforcement and Governance Trade (FLEGT) 123–4
- International Tropical Timber Agreement 2006 (ITTA 2006)*
 - producer countries, consumer countries 267–70
 - thematic programs 2008 to 2011 269–70
- International Tropical Timber Organisation 92, 103, 267
- International Tropical Timber Process, Yokohama, 1992 88
- International Union of Forest Research Organizations (IUFRO) 103
- international western superiority, in colonization 31
- International Wetlands Regime 92
- International Year of the Forest 2011, activities in 115
- ‘internationalization’ 266
- investment in forestry sector
 - lending in forest projects 212, 213–14
 - measures to address global deforestation 157
 - regulatory intervention 236–7
- investments under REDD+ 65
- IPCC Guidelines for National Green House Gas (GHG) Inventories, 2006 155–6
- IPF/IFF proposals for action, voluntary
 - and compliance weak 109
- issues of concern
 - growth in demand for forest products 313
 - ongoing loss of primary forest 313
- Jefferson, Thomas, property as social creation 58
- Joint Implementation Mechanism 143
 - Kyoto Protocol 156–7
- justice and rule of law considerations 28, 42
- justice in forest regulation 17, 38, 316
- Kyoto flexibility mechanism 130
- Kyoto forest practices, and biodiversity conflict 154
- Kyoto Protocol 141–5, 162, 232
 - afforestation 114, 140
 - carbon in harvested wood products 156
 - commitment period 2008–2012 143
 - commitment period 2013–2017 143
 - flexibility mechanisms 156–7
 - international market for carbon 231
- Lacey Act, America
 - fining for illegally harvested timber 9, 268–9
- lack of secure tenure rights
 - barrier to forest market frameworks 247–8
- land and property rights, secure
 - increase in private investor confidence 127
- land and water degradation, responsibility for generation 31
- land-based emission practices, concerns 146–7
- land boundaries 58–9
- land conversion 27
- land degradation plans 196
- land demand in developing countries
 - cause of forest clearances 248
- land grabs, illegal 23

- land, legal status of 160
- land management payment 237
- land, one parcel
 - different types of forest interest, credits for 254
- land ownership, subject to limitation 68
- land practices and forests, unsustainable
 - 'polluter pays' principle 36
- land reforms 201
- land registry in host countries, land registrar 161
- land rights and forest holdings 66–7
- land salinization reduction, forest assistance 233
- land tenure 3, 246–7
 - developing countries 318
 - forest management 62
 - freehold title, leasehold title 249
 - limitations on 20, 68, 127
- land title registry, legislative protection 251
- land use activities, sink and source emissions 144
- land use change and forestry 146, 155
- Land Use, Land-Use Change and Forestry guidelines (LULUCFG) 5, 140, 145–6
- landholders' interest in land, rights 249
- landscape beauty markets, ecotourism market 235
- landscape beauty of forests 228
- Latin America in Forest Stewardship Council 276
- 'leakage' concerns 146, 171
- legal market concepts 253
 - national measurement 171
 - sub-national
- learning mechanism
 - education of public on sustainable harvesting 292
- legal commitments, binding, inability to create 130
- legal concepts, property and sovereignty
 - influence on regulations of forests 43, 69
- legal definitions to key concepts
 - forests, afforestation, reforestation, deforestation, 147
- legal instruments as tools, main types of 83–4
 - creation of UNFF 120–21
 - lack of, since Rio meeting 1992 116
- legal issues for sustainable forest management
 - relevant indicators 74–5
- legality assurance system for timber, four elements in 190
- legally binding instrument on forest use, lack of 125
- legally binding international forest instrument
 - arguments against 117–18
 - support and arguments for 116–17
 - USA, Brazil, Russia against 117
- legally procured timber, definition economic, environmental, social 189
- legal market concepts 251–3
- legal mechanisms, existing, for offset creation 250–51
- legal nature of forest interest, clarification need 258
- legal property characteristics 56–7
- legal recognition of property rights, forms of 250–51
- legal requirements of forestry markets 219
- legal status of concept of sustainable development 79–80
- legal system recognition
 - clarity of definition, formal process 58–9
- legal systems for verification of timber production 191
- legal uncertainty on carbon storage 134–5
- legitimacy, moral, correct thing to do 271–2
- legitimacy, pragmatic, self-interested calculation 271–2
- Lepaterique Process of Central America, Tegucigalpa, 1997 88
- liability and sovereign ownership 25
- liability of all countries, sustainable forest management 36

- liability system 35–6
- licences to legally produced timber products 190
- livelihood analysis
 - Poverty Forestry Toolkit methodology 210
- local community support, for market trading regimes 245
- local constitution operation 208
- local forest interest 85
- local governance reform, reasons for difficulties 245–6
- local landscape analysis
 - Poverty Forestry Toolkit methodology 210
- logging, illegal 23
- logging operations in tropical developing countries
 - weak enforcement of forestry laws 288
- long-term forest use rights to land, evidence need 282
- long-term tenure and use rights
 - defined, documented and legally established 289
- losses and modification, annual 312–13
- loss of forest area, 1990–2005, 3 per cent 312
- loss or damage to environment 49
- loss or damage to property 49
- low capacity for service delivery
 - biodiversity enhancement context 230
- LULUCFG
 - emission monitoring 164
 - implementation 173–4
- Main Wood Producers Association, logotypes 290
- major reform, need for 131
- management of forest resources
 - private sector responsibility 269
- management plan, FSC certification 283
- management rights 65
- mapping technology 58–9
- marine ecosystems, sinks of
 - greenhouse gases 141
- market access and transparency 108, 268
- market-based approaches to
 - environmental management property rights in environmental resources 249–50
- market-based mechanism
 - for changing consumer buying patterns 292
- market-based regulation 219, 244
 - ‘Delaware effect’ ‘California effect’ 265
 - secure property rights 65
- market demands for forest services 236
- market-driven approaches
 - global forestry conditions, worsening 263
- market failure, true value of forest environment services 223
- market failure, undervaluation of forest goods 264
- market legitimacy, questionable
 - participation of wealthy only 256
- market mechanisms 219, 306
 - caution about environmental objectives 257
- markets for forest services
 - environmental effectiveness, necessity of 241–2
- market value to forest services 110
- Marrakesh COP7 negotiations, 2001 146, 148–51
- maternal health improvement
 - Millennium Development Goals 180
- medicinal products, certification 292
- Millennium Development Goals
 - hunger eradication, universal primary education, 179–80
- Millennium Ecosystem Assessment findings 228–9
- mining threat to forests 37
- Ministerial Conference on the Protection of Forests in Europe 73–4
- money laundering 22–3
- monitoring and enforcement, lack of biodiversity enhancement context 230
- monoculture selected tree species 158
- Montevideo Convention, requirements of statehood 45
- Montreal Protocol 87, 141

- mountain pine beetle epidemic, British Columbia 7–8
- Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency
 - foreign investment encouragement 180–82
 - global challenges to forests 202–3
- multi-stakeholder engagement groups in multi-stakeholder dialogues 101–2
- Multi-Year Program of Work for 2007–2015 115, 125

- national forest interest 85
- ‘National Forest Policies’ 83, 121–2, 308
- ‘National Forest Programmes’ 109
- national forest programs 108
- National Greenhouse Gas Inventories
 - authoritative guidelines 145–6
- national park status 84
- national positions on issues 45
- National Provincial Bank Ltd v Ainsworth*
 - on rights or interest as property 57
- nations, disadvantaged, international law help 34–5
- native forest and plantation forest, relationship 106
- native forest harvesting, generic legislation 84
- natural environment, protection of 71
- natural resources, cultural heritage of landscape 49
- nature, close connection with indigenous cultures 82
- Near East Process, Cairo, Egypt, 1996 88
- Non-European Process on Criteria Geneva, Switzerland, 1994 87
- non-excludability 224–5
- non-forest interventions, care in formulation 201
- non-governmental organizations (NGOs) 185, 260
 - greater role in international law 279–80
 - negotiation with timber industry 263–4
- ‘non-permanence’ concerns
 - variance of carbon storage 150
- non-rivalry 224–5
- non-state forest institutions, regulation by 10–12, 217
- non-state regulatory regimes 93
- non-timber forest products, certification mechanism 292

- occupation rights 43
- official development assistance (ODA) 114
 - reverse decline of Forest Principles 2007 113
- offsetting regime, Queensland, Australia 237–8
- operator-based licenses 190
- Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD)
 - member countries’ emissions control 138
 - status of country 35, 226
- ownership rights 72–3

- Pago por Servicios Ambientales (PAS), Costa Rica 237
- Pan European Forest Certification 270
 - Criteria and Indicators for Sustainable Forest Management 87
- Pareto optimality criterion, neo-classical economics 244
- ‘participation’, of all relevant parties 299
- partnership agreements, stakeholder consultation 185–6, 191
- partnership building
 - crucial in global forest monitoring system 203
- partnerships, useful instrument generation 207, 212
- payment for ecosystem services 65
- permanence concerns, Kyoto forest negotiations 169–70
- permanence, continuation in same place 252–3
- permits to forest estates 20

- personal property rights
 - environmental quality improvement 248
- Philippines, certified emission reductions 161
- pilot scheme in Africa, Latin America, Asia
 - three countries in 126
- planning and development law 80–81
- policy objective OP4.36, 204–5
- political commitment to sustainable forest management 313
- ‘polluter pays’ principle 28, 227
- positive externalities, uncompensated benefit 223–4
- potential of forests to reduce poverty rights of people, strengthening 201
- poverty alleviation, for conservation of tropical forest 222
- poverty eradication 180
- poverty-forestry connection 214
- Poverty Forestry Toolkit
 - links between poverty and forestry 120, 209–11
 - Program on Forests 207
- poverty in forestry regions, marginalised groups 178
- Poverty Reduction Strategy Processes
 - requirement for World Bank funding 211
- poverty reduction strategies 212–13
- preventive measures, cost of 49
- primary rights, harvesting 63
- private business interests
 - finance lending 214
 - forestry project channelling 214
- private forest investment 76, 92, 128
- private ownership increase, percentage breakdown 62
- private property rights
 - better management of natural resources 54–5
- private sector forest services 129
- private sector motivations 245
- private voluntary investment in forest services 306
 - regulatory intervention 236–7
- privatization initiatives, tenure reform 64
- productive forest values
 - legal instruments as tools 83–4
- Program on Forests 184, 191–3
- progress, smallness of 313
- project monitoring for compliance 160
- project selectivity, importance of, for funding 203
- promotion of biodiversity, forests 228
- ‘property’ and ‘ownership’, economic definition 250
- property and tenure rights over forest area 53, 55, 208, 317
- property law 81, definition 53
- property, legal concept, definition 53
- property, nature and role in forest regulations 43
- property recognition 56–7
- property rights 3, 43
 - benefits of 53
 - common features 61
 - forest legislation 43, 62
 - insecure, underlying cause of forest degradation 62–31
 - legal recognition, forms of 250–51
 - limitation methods 68
 - over natural resources 225
 - protection by contract law 161
 - restriction 68, 299–300
 - sustainable forestry management 55
 - unclear, biodiversity enhancement context 230
- protected areas, establishment 108, 201
- protected forest areas, significant increase
 - Forest Principles 2007 113
- protection under contract law 56–7, 77
- protective forest values, legal instruments as tools 83–4
- public arrangements for holding forests percentage breakdown 62
- public awareness on progress of trade transparency
 - promotion of 270
- ‘public goods’ 224
- public interest in environment
 - precedence over individual interests 69
- public participation, Switzerland, Norway, Finland 122
- public regulatory regimes 93

- public sector forest services 129
- Pulp Mills on the River, Uruguay*
 - dispute
 - Argentina complaint 29–30
- Queensland, Australia
 - forest ecosystem services, market fostering 237
- questionnaires on good governance 207–8
- Rainforest Foundation
 - concern about forest certification labels 272
- Ramsar Convention, international laws 18–19
- Rawls's 'difference principle' 34, 54
- Readiness Preparation Proposals 194
- 'recognition' of 'distribution' 299
- recognition of rights 37
- recognized forest ecosystem services
 - good that forests do 75, 227
- RED legally binding instrument
 - emission reducing from gross deforestation 163
- Reduced Emissions from Deforestation and Degradation (REDD+) initiative 3, 4–6, 22–3, 50, 52–3, 114, 130, 140, 165–9, 174–5, 193
 - fund transference for forest management 32
 - governance models accounting rules need 172
 - incentives to avoid deforestation 231
 - negotiations 163
- reforestation and afforestation 81, 144
- reform of forest regulation
 - under international climate regime 303–4, 306
- reform, recommendations for 130
- regeneration capacity, legal definition 78
 - legal instruments as tools 84–5
- Regional Initiative, Dry Forests in Asia, Bhopal, India, 89
- regulation of forest areas, fragmented regime 19
 - regulation of forest resources by World Bank 177
 - regulation, traditional forms, for standards to be met 250
 - regulatory framework
 - global and national 106
 - tenure rights to land 169, 317
 - regulatory instruments 208–9
 - rehabilitation degraded lands, plantations, agroforestry 123
 - reporting requirements, 'Kyoto' land 153–4
 - resource allocation between nations 28
 - resource development perspective, economic 80
 - restoration of forest damage 52
 - reversal of loss of forest cover
 - worldwide
 - Forest Principles 2007 113
 - rewards for infringements of sovereignty 171
 - right to exclude 59–60
 - rights, responsibilities and restrictions 43–4
 - rights of indigenous communities 20, 39
 - rights of sovereignty, limitations 48
 - rights over indigenous land
 - corrupt practices by commerce 29, 39
 - rights, permanent and secure, evidence need 60
 - rights to manage forest areas 208
 - Rio Forest Principle 1(a)
 - no damage to environment 48
 - right to exploit own resources
 - without damage 46–7
 - Rio Forest Principle 2(a)
 - allowing deforestation 47
 - sovereignty rights for forest use 47
 - Rio Forest Principles sustainable forest management 46
 - risk buffers, insurance, crediting, banking carbon credits 170
 - risk of impermanence, forest sector vulnerability causes 253
 - rule of law 42
 - creation and enforcement of legal rules 18

- in forest regulation 17
- issues, developed and developing countries 20
- requirements 297–8
- Russian Federation, emission control 138
- safeguards before exploration licences 40
- salinity-friendly products 233
- salmon habitat restoration contracts 234
- Sangha Tri-National Park 186–7
- Santiago Declaration, 1995 87
- Saramaka people, dependence on wood extraction
 - evidence for 40
- Saramaka People v. Suriname* 86
 - Inter-American Court of Human Rights 40
- scale concerns, carbon in soils and plants 150
- secondary rights, grazing 63–4
- second-party assessment, certification schemes 261
- Secretariat, coordination with other secretariats 135
- self-regulation 71
- shipment-based licenses 190
- silvicultural practices 5, 84
- sink and source actions, opt in or out 5, 144, 159
- site-specific legislation 85
- sites with vulnerable species 205
- social forest values, legal instruments as tools 83–4
- social values, sustainable forest management 78
- soil protection 74
- sovereign states
 - responsibility for sovereign forest resources 24–5
- sovereignty as legal fiction 50
 - concept and rights 105
 - natural resources 44–6
 - rights in international forest law 43–4
 - on self-determination 50–51
 - state boundaries and state citizens 43–5
- Spinifex* landscape 82
- stakeholder engagement 243–4
 - biodiversity enhancement context 230
 - lack of 21, 41, 124
- State of the World's Forests* 2007 113
 - by Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) 312–13
- state sovereignty 15, 43, 100, 262, 299
 - control, autonomy, authority 51
 - erosion 171
 - guarantee principle 119
 - international proceedings 45–6
 - natural resources 117
 - restrictions 48
- stewardship ethic, as temporary inhabitants of earth 33, 119
- Stockholm Declaration, right to exploit without damage 44
- strands of different forest ages 284
- Strasbourg 1990, Europe
 - greater protection for forest conservation 73
- strategic environmental assessment (SEA) 80–81
- Streamlining Reporting, 104
- streamside zones 284
- Subsidiary Body for Implementation (SBI) 136
- Subsidiary Body for Scientific and Technological Advice (SBSTA) 136, 164
- supply chain control 190
- sustainability criteria 189–90
 - duty to protect and restore 80
- sustainable development concept 51–2, 68–9
- Sustainable Forest Initiative, USA 270
- sustainable forest management 68, 73, 114, 262, 311–12
 - community participation 239
 - definition from Helsinki Process 73–4, 111–12
 - flexibility through lack of clarity 75
 - forest certification schemes 259–62
 - future interests 78–9
 - globally agreed standards 35
 - legal requirements 77–9
 - profitability increase 192
 - thematic elements of 104

- sustainable forest management
 - standards 36, 70
- sustainable management, no legally binding obligations 70
- Tarapoto Process on the Amazon Forest's Sustainability Criteria and indicators 87
- tax evasion 22–3
- tax on fossil fuel sales, Costa Rica
 - Pago por Servicios Ambientales (PAS)* 237
- Technical Barriers to Trade Agreement 260
- technology transfer 100
 - for developing countries 114
 - for remote sensing 170
 - partnerships 124
- tenure and land use rights and responsibilities 282
 - for indigenous people 41
- tenure issues in developed countries 249
- tenure, legal recognition, forms of 250–51
- tenure reform processes, stages of 63
- tenure rights to land 318
- tenure systems, statutory and customary 63–4
- terrestrial biological diversity 180
- terrestrial carbon stocks
 - non-permanent nature of storage 159
- terrestrial ecosystems, sinks of greenhouse gases 141
- third-party certification, independently assessed 261
- Third World Approaches to International Law (TWAIL)
 - impacts of colonization, past and present 31
- timber harvesting practices, promotion and certification 75
- timber harvesting, unsustainable, barrier to trade 260
- timber, illegally sourced 8–9
- timber production 158
 - prevention of importing 268
 - sustainable harvesting obligation 171
- timber supply 84
 - Towards a Global Forest Partnership*
 - World bank role 199–200
- tradeable rights schemes 239–40
- trade in credits or permits 227
- trade in forest values, government process clarity 258
- trading of forest commodities
 - importance of terminology 240–41
- traditional communities in areas 205
- traditional forest-related knowledge
 - Australia, India, Canada, New Zealand, Peru, Philippines, South Pacific 122
- tragedy of the commons theory (HARDIN)
 - natural resources, public use or misuse 54–5
- transactions costs 159
- transferability of ownership or rights 60–61
- transnational negotiation, criteria and indicator approach 75
- Transnational regime, Forest Stewardship Council 278
- transnational regimes, power to create forest law 278
- transparency elements 22
- transpiration credits 234
- treaty congestion 32
- tree and forest products, importance rank
 - Poverty Forestry Toolkit
 - methodology 210
- tree mortality 7
- tree rotation cycle, average 174
- tropical deforestation rates
 - lack of progress, concern 264
- tropical forest countries
 - as global stewards of forests 119
- tropical forests
 - conservation focus 202
 - major locations of biodiversity 228
 - protection 285–6
- tropical timber
 - increased availability, sustainably managed sources 270
- tropical timber institution, regulation of economic value 70

- United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) 267
- United Nations Convention on Climate Change
 - obligations for forest activities 140
- United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous People 82, 169
 - forest-dwelling communities 38–9
- United Nations Development Program 103, 175, 195–6
- United Nations Forum on Forestry (UNFF) 2000, 301–3
 - bureau and secretariat 99–100
 - forest principles 308
 - inadequacy of 76–7
 - institutional structure 91–6, 105, 119, 171
 - international body 70
 - lack of authority 19
 - main objective and functions 98–9
 - Multi-Year Program themes 115
 - need of reform 314
 - proposals for action 107–9
 - submissions to 113
 - thematic elements of 121–2
 - weak compliance with forest instruments 120–21
- United Nations Forum on Forestry Secretariat (UNFF) 103
- United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change 76–7, 103, 132, 141, 195
 - mandatory obligations to report GHG emissions 156
- United Nations institutions, regulation of forests 92
- United Nations International Tropical Timber Organization (UNITTO) 8
- UN-REDD Program 163, 175
- US Environmental Protection Agency, logotypes 290
- user right, usufruct rights 43, 65
- user rights, duties and benefits
 - Poverty Forestry Toolkit methodology 211
- validation reports 160
- vegetation removal, excessive 37
- verification bodies, assessments 261
- verification of legal production 190
- ‘verification’, transparent forest practices 209
- vitality, legal definition of 78
- Voluntary Partnership Agreement
 - European Union, and partner country 190–91
- voting power, World Bank institutions 182–3
- voting rights 275
- water flow regulation, forest assistance 232–3
- water protection 74
- water quality maintenance, forest assistance 232–3
- water rights 234
 - Australia 62
- watershed lease 158, 234
- watershed protection, forests as solution to problems 228
- watershed values in forests, economic instruments 233–4
- water table regulation, forest assistance 233
- wealth ranking tool
 - Poverty Forestry Toolkit methodology 210
- ‘web of interests’ paradigm, property description 56
- wetland regimen 262
- wildlife corridors 284
- wood-based certification schemes, voluntary framework 259
- wood, global demand for 6
- wood production 74
- wood products, harvesting
 - carbon storage in wood 153–4
- workers’ rights, FSC certification 282
- World Agroforestry Centre (ICRAF) 103
- World Bank, Carbon Finance Unit 175
 - bank funding, Finland and former Yugoslavia 177
 - global reduction of poverty 178
 - partnership approach 305
 - policies 305
 - poverty reduction for forest dwellers 304–5

- program policy, forest regulation 91
- purposes 177
- regulation of forest resources 177–8
- strategic partnerships 215
- World Bank Forest Strategy, 2002 76, 92, 94, 103
- implementation at international level 211–12
- role in forest policy, strategy, finance 177, 215
- Sustaining Forests: A Development Strategy* 200–201
- World Bank Group institutions, collective bodies 180–81
- World Bank, worldwide Fund for Nature Alliance
 - self-assessment regimen 207
- World Commission on Environment and Development
 - Our Common Future, (Brundtland Report)* 1987 195
- World Conservation Union (IUCN) 103
- world heritage areas 79
- World Justice Project, list of necessities for rule of law 20
- world population increase 27
- World Trade Organization (WTO) 259–260
- World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF)
 - certification of forest landowner 263
 - World Bank alliance 184–5, 272
- Yokohama Action Plan 2002-2006* 270
- zone conservation 80–81