

Contents

List of contributors	viii
Preface	x
PART I NORMATIVE FOUNDATIONS OF COMPETITION LAW
1 On the choice of welfare standards in competition law Louis Kaplow	3
2 What is competition? Maurice E Stucke	27
3 Characteristic aspects of competition and their consequences for the objectives of competition law – comment on Stucke Andreas Fuchs	53
4 The multiple personalities of EU competition law: time for a comprehensive debate on its objectives Laura Parret	61
5 The goals of European competition law: some distortions in the literature – comment on Parret David J Gerber	85
6 Thinking inside the box: why competition as a process is a sui generis right – a methodological observation Oles Andriychuk	95
7 Legal interpretation and practice versus legal theory: a reconciliation of competition goals – comment on Andriychuk Anca Daniela Chiriță	118
8 On the normative foundations of competition law – efficiency, political freedom and the freedom to compete Frank Maier-Rigaud	132
9 Efficiency, political freedom and the freedom to compete – comment on Maier-Rigaud Heike Schweitzer	169
10 Economic content of competition law: the point of regulating preferences Adrian Künzler	182

11	On the difference of methodology in jurisprudence and economics – comment on Künzler Iwakazu Takahashi	214
12	Do words matter? A discussion on words used to designate values associated with competition law Paul Nihoul	219
13	On words and on shifting their meaning – comment on Nihoul Josef Bejček	249
14	Antitrust pluralism and justice Abayomi Al-Ameen	260
15	Antitrust pluralism and justice – comment on Al-Ameen Michal S Gal and Eran Fish	284

PART II SELECTED ISSUES RELATED TO THE GOALS OF COMPETITION LAW

16	The single market imperative and consumer welfare: irreconcilable goals? Exploring the tensions amongst the objectives of European competition law through the lens of parallel trade in pharmaceuticals Matteo Negrinotti	295
17	Goals of union competition law on regulated markets: pharmaceutical industry and parallel trade – comment on Negrinotti Luboš Tichý	338
18	Excessive pricing and the goals of competition law Thomas Ackermann	349
19	Excessive pricing and the goals of competition law: an enforcement perspective – comment on Ackermann Jörg Philipp Terhechte	371
20	China's Anti-Monopoly Law: agent of competition enhancement or engine of industrial policy? Xiaoye Wang and Jessica Su	379
21	China's Anti-Monopoly Law: agent of competition enhancement or engine of industrial policy? Comment on Wang and Su Deborah Healey	398
22	Reflections on the concepts of 'economic freedom', 'free competition' and 'efficiency' from the perspective of developing countries Mor Bakhoun	408

23	A social approach to the goals of competition law in developing countries – comment on Bakhoun Karounga Diawara	441
24	Competition law goals in agricultural markets: a Latin American perspective Juan David Gutiérrez Rodríguez	450
25	Agricultural markets and competition policy in Latin America: conflicts of goals, rules and enforcement policies – comment on Gutiérrez Rodríguez Carlos Pablo Márquez	476
26	The basic goal of competition law: to protect the opposite side of the market Daniel Zimmer	486
	Index	503