

Contents

List of contributors	vii
1 Developments in the analysis of the knowledge economy: introductory comments Knut Ingar Westeren	1
PART I THEORETICAL CONSIDERATIONS
2 The changing role of knowledge in the knowledge economy: concepts of knowledge and knowledge management Hans Siggaard Jensen	15
3 Growth of the knowledge-based economy in a two-person non-cooperative game Hanas A. Cader and John C. Leatherman	34
PART II INNOVATION
4 Innovation: from Schumpeter to the knowledge economy Knut Ingar Westeren	57
5 Star scientists and regional knowledge transfer Michaela Tripl and Gunther Maier	75
6 Firm productivity in innovative urban milieus Frank G. van Oort and Otto Raspe	101
7 Not being there: why local innovation is not (always) related to local factors Richard Shearmur	117
8 Innovation and creative leadership in local government Jan Ole Vanebo and Alex Murdock	139
PART III LEARNING AND SKILLS
9 How to improve the region's ability to learn: a micro-level model on regional actor's knowledge and (informal) learning processes Manfred Walser and Roland Scherer	161

10	Managing the new knowledge workers Kjell-Åge Gotvassli	176
11	What drives skill-biased regional employment growth in West Germany? Alexander Cordes	191
PART IV CLUSTERS AND PRODUCTIVITY
12	Clusters and cluster development in the knowledge economy Andreas P. Cornett	213
13	International virtual industry clusters and SMEs: early process policy recommendations Meir Russ and Jeannette K. Jones	233
14	The knowledge, learning and innovation process: a poultry cluster in the western region of the state of Parana, Brazil Jefferson Andronio Ramundo Staduto, Knut Ingar Westernen and Clarissa Pereira Junqueira	257
	Index	275