I would like to express my gratitude to Richard P. Bagozzi for his insightful comments on my ideas for this book. During our in-depth discussions of the book's content, his insights on studying this emotional topic were indispensable.

I am also grateful to Francesco Gallucci for his valuable contribution with regard to emotions and the neurosciences, the section that ends this book and that suggests new, fascinating ways of measuring consumption emotions.

The publishers wish to thank John Wiley and Sons Ltd who have kindly given permission for the use of the following copyright material: Soscia, I.
