Thanks to the ARC LP110200198 and ARC LP 0989151 for their support of research on employee voice and collaborative workplace relations and to the Queensland state government Department of Employment and Industrial Relations for sponsorship of a project on smart workplaces. We also thank the Irish Research Council (IRC) and Economic Social Research Council (ESRC) for a bi-lateral project to examine employee voice which helped to formulate ideas and data contributing to this volume.
