

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
Introduction: origins, purpose and an overview	xi
Roger Sugden, Marcela Valania and James R. Wilson
1 The university: a critical comparison of three ideal types Gordon Graham	1
2 The 'form' of 'reform'. The postwar university in Britain, 1945–1992 Keith Tribe	17
3 Balancing the core activities of universities: for a university that teaches Gert Biesta	32
4 Space in an inferno? The organization of modern universities and the role of academics Roger Sugden	43
5 Sense and sensibility in academia Thomas Docherty	58
6 From state to market via corruption: universities in an era of privatization Philip Cooke and Fumi Kitagawa	70
7 Marketization and alienation in academic activity Sonja Grönblom and Johan Willner	88
8 Motivational resilience in the university system Silvia Sacchetti	107
9 Peer review: the academic guild's last stand or key to knowledge as a public good? Steve Fuller	128
10 Cooperation and leadership in academia: the roles of non-academics John Rogers and Eileen Schofield	147

11	The global reach of universities: leading and engaging academic and support staff in the internationalization of higher education Elsbeth Jones	161
12	Funding higher education in the great recession: an international perspective David Bell	184
13	Developing the 'third place': the collaborative roles of universities in territorial knowledge creation Roger Normann and Hans Chr Garmann Johnsen	197
14	The development of action research processes and their impacts on socio-economic development in the Basque Country Mari Jose Aranguren, James Karlsen, Miren Larrea and James R. Wilson	216
15	Where were you? David G. Blanchflower	234
16	On leadership Thomas Docherty	269
	Index	283