Index

Africa see South Africa; sub-Saharan Africa Akamatsu, K.
   crediting List 5, 22
   education 16, 22
   identification of three patterns 4, 11, 22
   identifying MPX progression as fundamental 5–6 influenced by German Historical School 17, 21–3 influenced by Hegelian dialectics 8, 16 lack of reference to Hume 16, 21–3
   long-term growth model with alternating periods 8–9 nationalism 16
   originator of flying-geese theory 3 plotting time-series trend lines 5 stages model 17–19
   structural change 14, 16–19, 24
   theory built on Japan’s industrial development 14 unexplored issues
      accomplishment of capital intensification and technological advance 9 beyond MPX progression 8, 15 demand-side consumption factors 15 dimensions of mass consumption and massive financial flows 15 FG sequence of MPX 10
      MNCs 6
      Alden, C. 153
      Alter, R. 134, 182
      Amsden, A.H. 12, 67, 101
      'anti-trade’ FDI 71–85
      Aoki, M. 112, 182
   Arbess, D. 175, 180
   Arndt, H. 35, 73, 182
   ASEAN-4 46, 113, 122–3, 144, 159
   Asian Development Bank (ADB) 167
   Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank (AIIB) 167–9
   Atsmon, Y. 51, 54
   Au, K. 192
   Balassa, B. 154, 183
   Baldwin, R.34, 183
   Barton, D. 170–171
   Beardson, T. 146, 183
   Belderbos, R. 112, 183
   Bellak, C. xii
   Bhagwati, J. 79, 154
   Bonacich, E. 47, 183
   Brautigam, D. xii, 135–7, 140, 142, 153
   Brazil 65
   Bremmer, I. 96–7, 99
   BRIC 124
   BRICS 43, 48, 98–9, 126, 150, 167
   British Classical School
      rejection by Akamatsu 23
      relationship with German Historical School 21–2 Broadman, H.G. 126, 153
   Browne, A. 163–5, 174
   Buckley, P. x, 76
   Burgenmeier, B. 56, 184
   Cambridge School of Economics 93
      catch-up
         approach 28–30
      China
         benefiting from FDI-driven 12, 63–4 debunking view of democracy 165

195 economic rise, shortening process of 62 model, effective at kick-starting industrialization 164 rise in, impacting global trade 159 and currency 148
development 15, 94, 100
developmental state model as policy for 95–6
Japan’s 3, 5, 55, 72, 108
MNCs as instrument of 8, 83–4, 90
national strategy through infant-industry protection 5, 62
NIEs 113
signs of tandem, in Africa 150
speed and scope determined by advanced knowledge 103 catch-up economies
absorbing advanced technology 92
government-led, in East Asia 89–90 MNCs spawned by 89
neo-mercantilist strategies 91
seeing value of home-grown multinationals 90, 100–103
catch-up growth
China
critical issue confronting 45
graduating from first phase 85, 117, 162 labor- and export-driven strategy 124 leading in global race of 13 model of 96–100, 118, 142, 159 definition 103
East Asian
ideal business milieu for success in 158
in staggered fashion 122–3 end of story 8
FDI-fueled strategy as initiator for 7, 30 flying-geese (FG) patterns of 55
Japan losing comparative advantage as result of 72 MNCs as priority strategy for 144 rates comparison 157–8
S-shaped trajectory 30–32, 54
stages 24, 68–70, 103, 105

‘input-driven’ 30, 31, 117, 141–2 and state capitalism 96–100, 118, 159, 166 state involvement in 92–5, 118
catch-up industrialization basic pattern of MPX sequence under infant-industry protection, as driver of 14 China’s model effective at kick-starting 164 export orientation as core strategy of 3–4 FDI as ignition for 68–9
fueling possibility in Africa 140–141 ‘lateness’ and rapidity of 105 low-ranking economies’ opportunities for 180 strategies 65–7 ‘take-off’ stage of 58
trade, as only driver of, originally 6 Caves, R. 73, 184
caveat to stages theory 28–30
chaebols 65–6, 69, 114
Chang, H-J. 41, 184
Chen, V.Z. 117, 139–40
‘Chimerica’ 162–3
China
additional liability of being Chinese 139–40 Africa’s backlash against 151–2 authoritarian capitalism 98, 164
China-Africa Development Fund 127, 136–8
China dream 162, 174
China-side factors 143–4, 147–51
Communism’s endgame 173–6
Communist Party 42, 93, 96, 98, 117, 162, 165–6, 171–3, 176 communist regime
ending, by joining democratic world 178–80 theory of middle-class-led democratization 170–173
diasporas 102, 110, 129, 131, 133, 151–2 economic relations with Africa 121–2 effect of exogenous productivity gain 82
Index

effect of technological progress in export sector 81–2 emulative product development on side-ladder 37–9 example showing relevancy of stages model 115–17 FDI in Africa’s manufacturing 121, 123–6, 148–9 concentration of 141
configuration of 127–34
inexperience with outward 139–40
labor mobility 146
new genre of 137, 140–141
‘pro-trade’ theory 144
‘right’ type of 136
FG formation led by 138–52 how free trade benefits real per capita incomes 80–81, 84–5 inward FDI of 53, 63, 69, 81–2, 144 leader-follower relations 158–60 manufacturing FDI
diaspora formation and networking 131
Ethiopia attracting 136 evolutionary development of 132–4
new genre of 137, 141
reliable statistics on 127–8
vanguard of 128–30
as most promising investor in low-end manufacturing 124–5 new growth phase 83–4
open-door policy 62, 81, 142, 144–5, 148, 165 outward FDI 117, 126, 139, 148 regional dominance 167–70
relations with US
implications of Samuelson’s analysis 83–5 US policy mistake 162–7
rural reservoir of labor 144–7
state capitalism 89, 96–100, 117–18, 159, 164
state-owned enterprises (SOEs) 97, 99–100, 110, 128–9
Clegg, J. xi
Cold War 2.0
ending, by China joining democratic world 178–80 possibility of military confrontation 176–8 comparative advantage
augmentation 35, 74, 78, 144 document of 19, 35, 39–40, 75–6, 78–9 dynamics of MNC-impacted 71–85 endowment-based 31, 40, 60, 68, 70 inter-industry trade reflecting 35 relaying 45–7, 104–7, 122–3, 140
Ricardo-HO hybrid model of 75–8 competitiveness, unique source of 131 consumerism see mass consumerism consumption and advanced market MNCs 36–67 behaviors 29, 43, 173
China shifting to consumption-driven economy 170–175 domestic 17–18, 31, 83, 85, 116 MNCs as promoters of 44 stages-theoretic framework for 50–54
cross-border supply chains 7, 33, 47–50, 90
Cuba as last bastion of old-style communism 166
MNCs attracted to 43, 51
US relations 51, 164, 166
democratization, theory of 170–173 developmental states 89–90, 95–6, 104, 118 Dunning, J.H. 59, 72, 104, 119
Eatwell, J. x, 93
economic development
capitalism as powerful engine of 164
as derived phenomenon 103
as series of structural changes 118 see also ladder of economic development educating and training 65 ‘efficiency/inspiration-driven’ modality of growth 30–31 entrepreneurial settlers 128–30 entrepreneurship development 66
Ethiopia
attracting China’s manufacturing FDI 136–7, 142
as follower goose 142–3 labor-driven phase of catch-up more likely in 142 survey on Chinese investment in 130 Europe
adoption of strategic trade policy 112
attracting Chinese acquisitions 117
China exporting labor-intensive manufactures to 81–2 doctrine of infant-industry protection taken up by 41 early post-war recovery 145
Eastern, reform 175
Ethiopia as base for exports to 136
Everything But Arms (EBA) initiative 134 FDI across Africa 138, 149
leadership in, and rise of East Asian economies 158 lifting sanctions against Myanmar 45
as losing ground in high-tech market 180 majority of leading consumer products from 50
as matured and stagnant 159 percentage of world manufacturing value-added 122 predecessors of MNCs traced to trading companies from 91 rapid technological and structural changes 91 stages theory of growth based on early industrialization 28 export promotion (EP)
Akamatsu’s and List’s perspectives on 18
cum import substitution (IS) 4–5
impact of MNCs 7
and infant-industry protection 11 ‘factor-price magnification’ theorem 144 FDI
cum-aid resources diplomacy 104–7, 109–10, 118
inward
China’s 81–2, 144
classification of 53
fully packaged factory transplantation as 31 Japan’s avoidance of 108
and MNCs 102
more open regimes 45
in MPX progression 7, 11–13, 15, 63
pro-trade or anti-trade 84 outward
China’s 117, 126, 139, 148
and MNCs 102
in MPX progression 7, 10–13, 15
pro-trade vs. anti-trade 71–85 role in catch-up industrialization 65–70 FDI-led industrial take-off
vs. infant-industry protection approach 58–61 moving from infant industry protection to 62–3 Ferguson, N. 160–162
flying-geese (FG) theory of economic development Akamatsu as originator of 3 basic pattern 4–5, 18
China’s flying-geese formation 138–52
developments requiring incorporation 15 FDI-driven
China 11–12, 141–3, 148–9
growth efficacy 71, 84
process of MPX 7
FG-style catch-up 141
FG-style growth 15
China’s Communist regime 170–176
hegemonic leadership, change of 160–167 leadership and follower capacity 157–60 possibility of Cold War 2.0 176–80 regional dominance in rising China 167–70 FG-style leader-follower relations 140 fundamental/basic pattern of 4–5, 14, 17–18, 22
and “history repeats itself” aphorism 55 List’s stages model as foundation of 17
need for reformulation 14–15
as outdated 3
post-MPX process 8–13
and rise of multinationals 6–8 role of nationalism in 16 same mechanism as cross-border transmigration of manufacturing 16
structural change 14
in sub-Saharan Africa 135–52
flying-manufacturers theory Akamatsu’s failure to notice 22–3 essence of 19–21 [Please change ‘critique’ to ‘essence’] as precursor of flying geese theory 19–20 follower capacity 157–60 foreign-brands substitution 83
Free Trade Area of the Asia Pacific (FTAAP) 167, 169
French, H.W. 130, 134, 140, 147, 151 frugal innovation 36–7
full-circle model
role of MNCs in 9–11
theoretical implications of 11–13 fundamental/basic pattern of FG formation 4–5, 14, 17–18, 22 German Historical School growth-stages model of 17–19 influence of 16–17, 22–3
relationship with British Classical School 21–2 Germany
averse to global leadership role 159 Japan’s intensive use of resources from 111
joining China-led AIIB 168 Mittelstand, as backbone of economy 129
resorting to infant industry protection 62 Gerschenkron, A. 28–9, 58–9, 103
globalization
Akamatsu’s theory in light of 3
Samuelson’s skepticism about 80–84 trends of 112–13
Gray, H.P. 72, 76
growth-stages model 17–19, 22
Gu, J. 129, 133–4, 150, 155
Hamilton, A. 16, 41, 45, 68
Heckscher–Ohlin (HO)
and Ricardo hybrid model of comparative advantage 75–8 trade theory 73–4
hegemonic leadership 157, 160–167
Hirsh, S. 57, 73, 101–2
Horn, S. xi
Huang, Y. 194
Hume, D. 13, 16–17, 19–22
Huntsman, J., Jr. 175, 180
Hymer, S. 73, 79
import, production, export (MPX) process/progression
Akamatsu’s and List’s perspectives on 18, 22
also known as IS-EP process 4
as basic or fundamental 5, 18
as controllable activity by catching-up countries 4 driven by infant-industry protection 6, 14, 19 ideas of, originating from List 5
impact of MNCs 6–7
need for reformulation 15
pattern discovered in Japanese manufacturing industries 5, 22 as pattern of FG formation 4 post-process 8–9
role of MNCs 9–11
theoretical implications 11–13
import substitution (IS) Akamatsu’s and List’s perspectives on 18
and China 82
'closed economy' strategy of 64 cum export promotion (EP) 4–5 Hamilton-List approach 68 impact of MNCs 7 and infant-industry protection 11, 62–3 Latin American paradigm 141 see also import, production, export (MPX) process/progression

industrialization
Africa’s low level of 122 catch-up 3–4, 6, 14, 58, 65–7, 105, 140–1, 164, 180 China’s involvement in Africa’s 132–4, 138 FDI as ignition for 68–9 perspiration and inspiration 30 role of multinationals in 62–4 stages of 104–5 technological progress for 103 tiers of see ladder of economic development infant-industry protection as catch-up strategy 5, 14 effect of stronger 41 FDI as more expedient alternative to 7, 12, 45 FDI-led industrial take-off moving towards 62–4 versus 58–61 idea originator 22 less use as motivational trigger 7–8 model of MPX progression driven by 6–7 MPX phase as strategy of 11 for national industrial development 16, 22 promoting development of manufacturing industries under 18 innovation and technology diffusion 66 "input/perspiration-driven" modality of growth 30–32 institutional reform 30–32, 60–61 inter-industry trade in cloth and wine example 78 as conventional 7 S-shaped trajectory of growth 54 shift to higher-value-added goods 14 unbundling 34 upgrading 24–6 International Monetary Fund (IMF) 148, 158, 162, 167, 169 intra-industry trade activity-packed industrial space 32–7 China’s emulative product development 37–9
cross-border supply chains 47–50
monopolistic competition theory of 34–6 more rapid growth 7
shift to higher-end goods 14 Taiwan’s electronics industry 115 vertically integrated 32–6

Japan
Asahan formula 108, 110
assimilation of Western values 158, 180
attracted to Chinese markets 116
bottleneck 55
capability of absorbing advanced foreign technology 12
catch-up 5, 72, 122
‘challenge and response’ mechanism 32
and China relations 147–8
dismantling low-end manufacturing and service 147 FDI-cum-aid resources diplomacy 104–7, 109–10, 118 FDI-type 71–3
flying-geese (FG) theory originating from 3, 5–6, 22 ‘hollowing-out (or doughnut)’ effect 149
Ju-ko-cho-dai [heavy-thick-long-big] 111
Kei-haku-tan-sho [light-thin-short-small] 111
keiretsu 69, 139
limited reserve of rural labor 146
MNCs 29, 49–51, 89, 115
national development strategies 95–6
national emigration plan 102
overseas investment 73, 109–10
post-war basis for rapid growth 145
as precedent-setter in comparative advantage relaying 104–7 pursuing IIP strategy 68
resorting to infant industry protection 62
from resource-based to knowledge-based economy 111–13 shedding off low-wage production abroad 9–10, 13, 118–19 small and medium-sized firm sector 144–5 SOEs 99

sogo shosha 106
state role in industrial structural policy 107–9, 111 taking advantage of Britain’s economic liberalism 41 technology transfer 72
Toyota production system
China imitating 38
as consumer-focused multinational 52 flexible (or lean) production 48, 112 setting up in Africa 150
Toyota New Global Architecture 48–9
Johnson, C. 89, 95–6

Keynes, J.M. 41–2, 57
‘kicking away the ladder’ 40–42, 44, 54, 138
Kindleberger, C.P. 73, 145
Kipping, M. xii
knowledge-based economy 111–13, 172 knowledge-based growth stages 98, 113
see also ladder of economic development: tiers 3–5 knowledge diffusion 66–7, 118
Kojima, K. 71–7, 106, 110, 144
Krugman, P.R. 10, 25, 30, 34–6, 117, 145
Kurosawa, T. xi

labor shortages and wage hikes 55, 105, 116, 124–5, 143–4 ‘labor shortages in a labor-abundant economy’ paradox 144–7 ladder of consumption 50–54
ladder of economic development catch-up approach 28–30 criticality of institutional and market reforms at different growth phases 31–2 historical pattern of structural changes 26–8
from industrialism to consumerism
UK-led industrialism 39–42
US-led mass consumerism 42–5
inter-industrial upgrading, main ladder 24–6
intra-industry trade, side ladder 32–9 ladder of consumption 50–54
S-shaped growth curve, bottlenecks and institutional reforms 30–31
in structuralist perspective 24 study summary 54–6
supply chains
comparative advantage recycling
in Tier 1 industries 45–7
cross-border 47–50
tier 1: endowments-driven industries 26–7
capital/labor intensity ratio 33
catch-up starters growth rate
during 157–8
in China 115
comparative advantage recycling
in 45–7
criticality of institutional and
market reforms 30–31
introduced under British
hegemony 39–41
in Japan 106–7, 118
MNC-type 104
in NIEs 113
requiring strong government
commitment 60–61
state involvement 105
	tier 2: resource-processing industries 26–7
capital/labor intensity ratio 33
catch-up starters growth rate
during 157–8
in China 115
criticality of institutional and
market reforms 30–31
introduced under British
hegemony 39–41
in Japan 108–11, 118
MNC-type 104
in NIEs 114
pollution problem 55–6
requiring strong government
commitment 60–61
state involvement 105
tier 3: assembly-based industries 26–7, 30–31
capital/labor intensity ratio 33
in China 115
introduced under American
hegemony 40
in Japan 111–12
MNC-type 104
in NIEs 114
requirements 61, 158
state involvement 105
tier 4: R&D-driven industries 26–7, 30–31
capital/labor intensity ratio 33
in China 115
introduced under American
hegemony 40
MNC-type 104
in NIEs 114
requirements 61, 158
state involvement 105
tier 5: ICT-enabled industries 26–7, 30–31
capital/labor intensity ratio 33
in China 115–17
introduced under American
hegemony 40
MNC-type 104
in NIEs 114
requirements 61, 158
and Shanzhai 37–8
state involvement 105
tier 6: green and health technology
(GHT) industries 26–7, 116
Laplume, A. 193
Large, D. 182
Latin America 51, 63, 102, 122, 141, 143, 164, 177
leadership
hegemonic, change of American supremacy 160–162
US policy error 162–7
leader-follower relations 157–60
Index

leading-sector stages model of industrial upgrading (or growth) caveat to 28–30
East Asian economies, experience of China 115–17
Japan 104–13
NIEs 113–15
growth phases 30–32 emerging markets advances into 43–4
in China 115–17
rise of, from 89–118
sector coverage in 51–3
using as catch-up instrument 8, 29 levels corresponding to rungs of ladder of economic development 26–8, 32–3 and frugal innovation 36–7 Lewis, A.W. 119, 144–6
home-grown 101, 103, 105, 118 Lin, J.Y. 59, 94, 136
investing, in China 13, 53, 69, 81–5 List, F. 14, 16–18, 21–3, 41, 45, 57, 68
learning from, in China 37, 44, 63 Lubinski, C. xii
as main driver of structural upgrading 54 market failures 59, 89–90, 92, 94–5, 118–19 metamorphosis of configurations 40 market reform 31–2, 60–61, 130
as powerful jump-starter of industrial growth 45, 64
mass consumerism age of 40
as major industrial transplanter and knowledge disseminator 9–11, 14–15 shift from industrialism to 39–42, 55
in provision of jobs in emerging countries 45
by Smithian classification 52
in sparking industrialization 62–4 US-led 42–5
mercerntilism 90–92
as a critical joint input in industrial modernization 100 Mexico 46
multinationals (MNCs)
middle-class-led democratization theory 170–173 role in catch-up process 66–7 Miller, S. 177, 186
as global spreaders of industrial knowledge and institutions 29 MNC-impacted basis for trade 73–8
as major industrial transplanter and knowledge disseminator 9–11, 14–15 ‘monopolistic competition’ theory of trade 34–6
in provision of jobs in emerging countries 45 Morris, I. 160–161
in sparking industrialization 62–4
MPX process see import, production, export (MPX) process/progression
stages-specific types of 103–4 Mucchielli, J. 56, 184
development of Mundell, R. 73–5
multinationals (MNCs) in Africa 149–50, 162–3 Myanmar 43, 45–6, 51, 113
Myers, R. 114, 189
as a creature, and an instrument, of structural transformation/change Myint, H. 19, 189
28–9, 118
Myrdal, G. 133, 189
fusun between state and business 92–100 Nakajima, M. 15, 192
from mercantilism to neomercantilism 90–92 Nathan, A. 163, 189
nurturing national enterprises as 100–103
national development strategies 95–6
as a critical joint input in industrial modernization 100 national enterprises 100–103
neomercantilism 90–92
NIEs (newly industrializing economies)
assimilation of Western values 158
bottleneck 55
characteristics 113–15
dismantling low-end manufacturing and service 147
dismantling low-wage light industry 143
fast catch-ups 89, 122
industrial transmigration 45–6
labor-driven strategy 144
limited reserve of rural labor 146
national development strategies 95
open-economy approach 12
outsourcing operations 149
Nissanke, M. xii
Nolke, A. 97, 189, 191
North, D. 32, 190
North Korea 51, 166–7
Obstfeld, M. 35–6
O’Hanlon, M. 177–8
Ohlin, B. see Heckscher–Ohlin (HO)
Ohno, T. 48, 112
‘One Belt, One Road’ (‘New Silk Road’) project 167–8
Orr, G. 178, 190
Osburn, J. 172, 190
overseas investment
China’s 116–17, 128, 139–40
Japan’s 106–12
pro-trade and anti-trade 73 Ricardo’s views on 78–9, 84–5 supporting Tier II industries 39–40
Ozawa, T. ix, 3, 5, 7–9, 12–13, 15, 19, 21, 25, 27–8, 33, 45–6, 48, 56–8, 67, 70–72, 74, 76–7, 93, 106–8,
110–112, 119–20, 139, 144–5, 164
Pakistan 168
Pathak, S. 101, 191
Patrick, H. xi
Paulson, H. 177, 178, 191
Pillsbury, M. 183, 191
Porter, M. 101, 191
Prabhu, J. 36, 192
‘pro-trade’ FDI 35–6, 71–85
‘providing the ladder’ 42–5, 55
Radelet, S. 3, 141
Radjou, N. 36, 192
Ren, B. 153, 192
Ricardian rents 27, 40, 42, 55
Ricardo, D. 19, 21, 84
Ricardo–HO hybrid model of
comparative advantage 75–8
view on overseas investment 78–9 ‘rich country, strong army’ 96, 124
Rolland, N. 181, 192
Rosecrance, R. 177, 192
Rostow, W.W. 26, 42, 58, 164
Russia 91, 98–9, 124, 126, 152, 164–5, 167–8, 177
Rybczynski, T.M. 74–5
S-shaped growth curve 31–2, 54
Sachs, J. 3, 141
Samuelson, P.
foreign exchange rates theory 154 skepticism about benefits of free trade for US under globalization 80–84
and Stolper theorem 144–5
Samuelson, R. 192
Sauvant, K.P. xii, 99, 117, 139–40
Schneidman, W. 152, 192
Schroppel, C. 15, 192
Schuck, P. 94, 192
Schumpeter, J.A. 14, 22, 24–7, 30–31, 56–7
Schumpeterian rents 27, 40, 42, 55
science and technology (S&T) capability 65
Scobell, A. 163, 189
Sender, H. 179, 193
Sercovich, F. xii, 58, 65–7, 68, 70
Shambaugh, D. 173–4
shanzhai 37–9
Shen, N. 192
Smith, A. 19, 21, 50, 52
Soares de Oliveira, R. 182, 183
South Africa 69, 126, 133, 135, 137–8, 141–2, 150–151

The evolution of the world economy
South Korea
  catch-up growth 122
  chaebols 65–6, 69, 114
developing high-tech industries 114
export-processing zones 69
free-market export processing zones (EPZs) 144 goodwill gesture to North Korea 167
innovation and technology diffusion 66
Japan shifting production to 106
as market-capitalist economy 96–7
national development strategies 95
national firms 101
participation in China-led AIIB 168
as receptive to inward FDI 12
replication of MNCs overseas business activities 105, 113 resources diplomacy for oil 114 stage-focused strategies 68–70 stages theory, caveat to 28–30 state-and-industry link 92–100, 102–3, 106, 115, 118
state capitalism 89, 96–100, 117–18, 159, 164
state involvement in catch-up growth 92–5, 118 South Korean 114
stages of industrialization and home-grown MNCs 105
state-owned enterprises (SOEs)
  Brazil 66
  China 97, 128–9
  emerging market MNCs 99
  representing state capitalism 97, 99
Steinberg, J. 177–8
Stolper, W.F. 144–5
Strange, S. 181, 193
Strauss, J. 99, 142, 188, 192
structural change
  Akamatsu’s notion of 14, 24
  under American hegemony 40, 42–5
under British hegemony 39–42 driven by innovation 25–6, 118
  as essence of industrialization 54
historical pattern of 26–8 MNCs as creature, and instrument, of 90–103, 118 stages model for analyzing 59, 68 structural rigidities 59, 89–90, 92–4, 118
sub-Saharan Africa
backlash against China 151–2 China’s advance into evolutionary development of 132–4 flying-geese (FG) formation 138–52 government-supported manufacturing projects 134–8 as low-end manufacturing transmigration 122–3
as most promising investor in low-cost production 124–5 sudden rise of 126
China’s economic relations with 121–2
China’s FDI configurations
diaspora formation and networking 131
lacuna of reliable statistics on manufacturing investment 127–8
vanguard of 128–30
follower geese in 141–3
labor shortages in labor-abundant country 144–7 low level of industrialization 122 Sun, Y. 137, 193
supply chains
  boundary of 33–4
  comparative advantage recycling 45–7
cross-border 7, 33, 47–50, 90
as facilitating industrialization of economies 44
as ‘the second unbundling’ 34 vertical intra-industry trade and monopolistic theory of trade 34–6

Taiwan
- catch-up growth 122
- constrained resources diplomacy 114
- developing high-tech industries 114–15
- domestic SME development 66
- export-processing zones (EPZs) 69, 144
- innovation and technology diffusion 66
- investment in textiles and clothing industries 134–5
- Japan shifting production to 106
- as market-capitalist economy 96
- multinationals active in Africa 149
- national development strategies 95

participation in China-led AIIB 168
- as receptive to inward FDI 12
- replication of MNCs overseas business activities 105, 113
- S&T capability building policies 65
- state-industry links 115
- taking advantage of China’s low-end manufacturing capacity 36

Takeuchi, I. 115, 193
Tang, X. 133, 193
Teets, J. 172, 193
Thorbecke, E. xii, xiii
To, J. 102, 193
total factor productivity (TFP) 25, 30
Toynbee, A. 32, 193
Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) 167, 169
Tribe, K. 22, 193
Tse, E. 39, 97, 119

UNCTAD 45, 99, 126, 134, 153
United Kingdom (UK)
- adoption of economic liberalism 91

Africa investment 126
- attracting Chinese acquisitions 117
- as citadel of Western political ideology 171
- hegemony 39–41

participation in China-led AIIB 168
- predicting end of American supremacy 160
- UK-led global capitalism 27
- UK-led industrialism 40–42, 54, 62, 160

United States (US)
- American supremacy 160–162
- as citadel of Western political ideology 171
- hegemony 39–40, 160–165
- possible US policy error 162–7
- skepticism about long-term benefits of free trade for
- effect of China’s exogenous productivity gain 82
- effect of China’s technological progress in export sector 81–2
- how free trade benefits China and US capita incomes 80–81, 84–5
- implications of Samuelson’s analysis for relations with China 83–5
- US-led global capitalism 27, 43, 54–5, 164
- US-led mass consumerism 42–5
- ‘unlimited-labor-supply’ growth model 144–5

Vernon, R. 73, 194
Voss, H. xi

Wade, R.H. xiii, 59, 93
Wang, Z. 167–70
Williamson, O. 73, 194
Womack, J.P. 48, 112
Index

World Bank
- adopting stages perspective 69–70
- on Chinese migrant labor to Africa 143–4
- contributions to upkeep 158
- market-primacy neoclassical economics, thinking dominated by 59
- need for engagement with outside world 162
- persuading China to invest in Africa 46, 69, 121–2, 125, 153

survey on Chinese investment in Ethiopia 130, 136 working paper on migration of Japanese industries 72

Xavier-Oliveira, E. 191

Young, S. xii

‘Youwei’ 174, 178

Zakaria, F. 161, 194

Zeihan, P. 161, 194