

Contents

---

Table of conversions	vi
Preface and acknowledgements	vii
List of abbreviations	x
1. Water allocation in rivers under pressure: a large-scale collective action dilemma	1
2. Water allocation and institutional change in a transaction costs world: an analytical framework	35
3. Unlocking the past: path dependency and intertemporal costs	74
4. Emerging water markets in the Columbia Basin: transaction costs and adaptive efficiency in environmental water allocation	121
5. Maturing water markets and public goods in the Murray–Darling Basin: scaling up water trading and transboundary governance	174
6. Systemic risks, polycentric responses: performance, principles and practices	222
Index	239