

Figures

1.1	Environmentally related tax revenues as a percentage of total taxation revenues versus environmentally related tax revenues as a percentage of GDP in Belgium and China	7
1.2	OECD/EEA database on environmental taxation	8
1.3	Implicit tax rate on energy, EU-27	11
1.4	Comparison of revenue-based and tax-rate-based indicators	12
2.1	Revenues from state-level environmentally related taxes in the United States	18
2.2	Revenues from environmentally related fees and charges in per cent of GDP	23
2.3	Changes in revenues from environmentally related charges over time – Austria	24
2.4	Changes in revenues from environmentally related charges over time – Finland	25
2.5	Changes in revenues from environmentally related charges over time – Italy	26
2.6	Changes in revenues from environmentally related charges over time – Korea	26
2.7	Changes in revenues from environmentally related charges over time – Slovak Republic	27
2.8	Revenues from environmentally related taxes in per cent of GDP, and three price indices – Australia	28
2.9	Revenues from environmentally related taxes in per cent of GDP, and three price indices (Canada, Chile, Germany, Greece, Italy, Poland, Spain and the United Kingdom)	29
5.1	Survey results: improving traffic problems	73
5.2	Survey results: car use	76
9.1	Registration tax reform: using variable tax rates	137
14.1	The scheme of the nuclear compensation agency	218
15.1	Generation of municipal waste per capita in the EU-27, 1995 and 2009	229
15.2	Overview of total median cost of landfill (non-hazardous MSW, legal landfills), 2011	231

15.3	Landfill tax rate and per cent MSW landfilled in 18 EU countries, 2009	233
15.4	Landfill tax rates compared with percentage of municipal waste sent to landfill: UK, FR, SE, DK, FI, NL	234
16.1	Evolution of separate waste collection of municipal solid waste in Catalonia, 2000–2010	250
16.2	Evolution of the total and partial implementation of separate biowaste collection in terms of new municipalities in Catalonia, 1996–2010	251