About the author

Sven-Erik Sjöstrand (b. 1945) has been Professor of Business Administration at the Stockholm School of Economics since 1977 (Swedish Employers Association's Chair in Management), and from 1993 he became the first holder of the Matts Carlgren's Chair in Management. He has also been the head of the Stockholm School of Economics' Center for Governance and Management Studies since 1975, received some SEK 200 million in research grants, supervised close to 50 doctoral students, and served both as the Stockholm School of Economics' Deputy President and on its board.

Sjöstrand has also been a board member both in listed companies and in large state-controlled organizations, and he has been senior adviser to many of the 'captains of Swedish business' (i.e. to controlling shareholders, chairs and CEOs of large Nordic corporations).

Sjöstrand's current research addresses corporate governance, corporate control and general management issues. His list of publications in English (several of the volumes below are co-authorships) includes: Organizational Myths (Harper & Row, 1979); Institutional Change: Theory and Empirical Findings (M.E. Sharpe, 1993); On Economic Institutions: Theory and Applications (Edward Elgar Publishing, 1995); The Two Faces of Management: The Janus Factor (Thomson, 1997); Invisible Management (Thomson, 2001); Aesthetic Leadership (Palgrave, 2007); and Corporate Governance in Modern Financial Capitalism (Edward Elgar Publishing, 2010). Sjöstrand has also published books in Chinese, Finnish, German and Swedish (together, approximately 25 titles).
