

Figures

| | | |
|------|--|-----|
| 4.1 | A bird's-eye view of half a century in macroeconomic theorizing | 76 |
| 4.2 | The deductive/axiomatic approach | 79 |
| 4.3 | An institutionally grounded macromodelling: a given configuration of a capitalist economy | 81 |
| 4.4 | Growth of assets of four sectors in the United States | 82 |
| 4.5 | Household sector leverage and total assets | 83 |
| 4.6 | Broker dealer sector leverage and total assets | 83 |
| 7.1 | Economic crises and democracy: the average polity score in the world | 134 |
| 7.2 | Prime Ministers in interwar democracies: (a) percentage of left-wing Prime Ministers; (b) percentage of right-wing Prime Ministers | 144 |
| 8.1 | Percentage lead innovators by percentage discretionary learning | 157 |
| 8.2 | Discretionary learning and tertiary education | 159 |
| 8.3 | Discretionary learning and employee vocational training | 161 |
| 8.4 | Correlations between discretionary learning and systems of social protection | 166 |
| 12.1 | Schematic representation of variation, selection and retention | 238 |