It is a pleasure to thank those who made this research endeavor possible. First and foremost, I owe my deepest gratitude to Michael G. Faure for his endless support and insightful advice, enthusiasm, and inspiration. I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to Robert Cooter and Daniel Rubinfeld for sponsoring me during my period as a visiting scholar at the University of California, Berkeley (2010–2011), and for offering their sage advice. I am also grateful to Robert A. Kagan, Jennifer H. Arlen, Anthony Ogus and Roger J. Van den Bergh for their helpful comments on previous drafts of my work. I am indebted to Alessio M. Paces and Louis T. Visscher for their intellectual stimulation and generosity with their time. Lastly, I would like to thank my family, whose unconditional support I knew I could always rely on.
