

Contents

Figures	viii
Tables	ix
Table of conversions	x
Contributors	xi
Preface	xxi

PART I INTRODUCTION

- 1 Federal rivers: a critical overview of water governance challenges in federal systems 3
Dustin Garrick, George Anderson, Daniel Connell and Jamie Pittock
- 2 Climate adaptation in river management in a post-stationary world 20
Jamie Pittock

PART II AMERICAS

- 3 Federalism and US water policy 41
Andrea K. Gerlak
- 4 Water scarcity, conflict resolution, and adaptive governance in federal transboundary river basins 57
Edella Schlager and Tanya Heikkila
- 5 Managing water in a federal state: the Canadian experience 76
J. Owen Saunders
- 6 Resilience of river basin governance institutions in the Saskatchewan River Basin of Western Canada 90
Ted Horbulyk
- 7 Water management and ecosystems: a new framework in Mexico 105
Eugenio Barrios

8	Main challenges and responses to federalism and water security in Brazil Ana Carolina Coelho, Benedito Braga, Rodrigo Flecha, Nelson Freitas and Osman F. da Silva	120
PART III EUROPE – THE SPANISH EXPERIENCE
9	River basin governance and water policies in Spain José Albiac, Elena Calvo and Encarna Esteban	141
10	Between a rock and a hard place: redefining water security under decentralization in Spain Elena López-Gunn and Lucia De Stefano	158
PART IV SOUTHERN AFRICA
11	Allocating powers and functions in a federal design: the experience of South Africa Mike Muller	179
12	Meeting the challenges of equity and sustainability in complex and uncertain worlds: the emergence of integrated water resources management in the eastern rivers of South Africa Sharon Pollard and Derick du Toit	195
PART V SOUTH ASIA
13	Managing water in India’s federal framework Rakesh Hooja	213
14	The hydro-institutional challenge of managing water economies of federal rivers: a case study of Narmada River Basin, India M. Dinesh Kumar	229
15	Inter-jurisdictional water management in Pakistan’s Indus Basin Shahid Ahmad, Khalid Aziz and Mujib Khan	243
PART VI CHINA
16	China’s political system, economic reform and the governance of water quality in the Pearl River Basin Andre Silveira	261

	Contents	vii
17	Watershed management in Tai Lake Basin in China Ke Jian	280
18	China's federal river management – the example of the Han River Lan Fang	295
PART VII AUSTRALIA
19	The Murray–Darling Basin Daniel Connell	309
PART VIII CONCLUSIONS
20	Water security in cross-border regions: what relevance for federal human security regimes? Carmen Maganda and Harlan Koff	325
21	Water resources management in federal systems George Anderson	339
	Index	355