Index

abstract concepts use of 230 abuse of public authority, control for 334 ‘academic evidence’ 90 academic hierarchies 42 academic public administration 283 accountability 334
performance audit 345
processes, 346, 348, 349
use of public resources 334 accounting system, public administration 285 actions and events, contexts of 95 ‘action variables’ 93 actors to act as ‘agents’ 282 ‘adjudication’ between rival hypotheses 404 administrative accountability 141 context 260
law 46 malfeasance 124 reforms and contexts 131–50 science 259
tradition 14
administrative inheritance, common Anglo-American, Napoleonic, Germanic, Scandinavian, Latin American, Postcolonial South Asian and African, East Asian, Soviet, Islamic 63 ‘adoptive’ behaviour 166 agencification 149, 365 agency 26, 282, 375–6 and agents, interpretation flexibility 29 for cultural standards 282 effect of intercontextuality 31 instability of 31
for principle 282
agentification 149, 282, 299, 365 in Finland 297–8 agents and agency types 30 aging of population 214 Althusser, Louis, Marxist philosopher ‘Contradiction and Over-determination’ 31
American financial crisis 261
American Political Science Association (APSA) ‘unifying theory’, comparative politics 126 analysis, basic unit theories 230
Anglo-American administrative systems 198 Anglophone countries common tradition 358 diffusion of reform among 368 history of political thought 7 human sciences 64 systems 368
tradition 359, 370
Anglo-Saxon countries
implementation 146 systems and reform 134–5, 137 anthropological linguistics 96 anti-racism 41
area studies 125
art, new knowledge generation 175 Asia, different context and significance in 222 assemblage, notions of 37 Assura Medical, for-profit company 327 assurance provision 334 audit arrangements 335 bodies in legislation 343–4, 351–2 publicising work benefits 350 growth, decline in trust 350 offices, key objectives 343, 352 on public administration, Canada limits of action 339 audit and context, 352–3 at UK NAO 340
Audit Commission, UK 336, 342, 348 abolition, 2010 336
auditors, ‘all-purpose solution agents’ 348, 350 audits of quality or compliance, Finland 302 Anglophone 356
post-NPM reform elements 138
Australia 358
Australian Financial Management Improvement Program (FMIP) 363–4 ‘autonomy’, France and Spain 103, 105, 194 autonomy of health trusts 319 avoidance of capture New Zealand agency system 367 avoidance of top-down control UK agency system 367

Balanced scorecard (BSC), Finland 304
BBC TV documentary on ill-treatment of elderly patients 380 Bear Stearns bankruptcy 261 beds in English hospitals 379 behavioural incentives 272, 274 behaviouralism 64
Belgian hospital financing, Leuven (Belgium) 388 Belgian political system 385 Belgium, school ‘league tables’ 116 hospitals 382 belief in rationality 284–5 beliefs and practices, inherited 71 ‘best practice’ 117 Big Society, people empowerment 325, 330 boundary drawing, institutional 281 boundary maintenance 101 bounded rationality 107, 158
Brighton and Hove (city), hospitals in 376–7 Brighton and Leuven hospital situation comparison 382 Brighton and Lewes Hospital Group, 1967, 378
Brighton, England, general hospital, research 374
Brighton events, hospitals, 1960s to 2000s 381

Brighton General hospital, 19th century 377
Brighton/Leuven comparison enrichment by contexts 404 British government 58–9
British identities, early 65
British nation state 61
Britishness of wars against France 65 British state, four nations 65 budget systems 143 bureaucratic organizations 102, 238

Cambridge School 7
Cameron, David, Big Society 38
Canada 358
Anglophone 356
influence of United States and Westminster tradition 369 Canada’s Increased Ministerial Authority and Accountability (IMAA) (1986) 363 Canadian Office of the Auditor General 336 case selection 198
case study methodology 13 categorizations 288
causality 31, 200, 213
analysis of contextual influences 198 in probabilistic terms 199 causation concept 67, 195–6 cause and effect, simple 159 Central and Eastern European states Western-style management reforms 208 central government audit UK National Audit Office (NAO), UK 341

Central Surrey Health mutual loss of faith in progress and reason 327 Centrelink agency model, Australia 366 chaos model 83, 85
chaotic domain of knowledge 160, 163, 166–7 child-centred pedagogies 27 Chinese economic power, growing 265 choice of service providers schools, hospitals, not social care 169 Christian Social Party (CVP), Belgium 392
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Index</th>
<th>425</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CitiBank, AIG 261</td>
<td>complex domain of knowledge 161–2, 164</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>citizens, diverse values, critical views of public authorities 236</td>
<td>complexity of decision-making value differences 236</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>social rights 296</td>
<td>complexity sciences, lesson, Context Rules 175–6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>civil aviation, Finland 306</td>
<td>complexity theory 157, 164–7, 175</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>civil liberties 58</td>
<td>framework 17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>civil service in developing societies</td>
<td>nature and usefulness 211–12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>public administration discourse 52</td>
<td>complex relationships 160</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>civil service in UK relations with political executive 362</td>
<td>complicated domain of knowledge 161</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘civil society organisations’ 326</td>
<td>competitive climate 212</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>classical government perspective 235</td>
<td>Comte, August 57</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>classifications and categorizations, institutional 280</td>
<td>conceptual and factual contexts 9, 417</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>coalition framework 129</td>
<td>conceptual context of knowledge creation 88, 91, 93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Coalition government</td>
<td>conceptualization of context 222, 225</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>mutualisation of public services 325</td>
<td>‘Conceptual’ mechanism</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cognitive perspectives 224</td>
<td>managerialization of hospital policy 399</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>collective action 108</td>
<td>conflict between actors 239–40, 243</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>collectivism 6, 59</td>
<td>conflict levels, higher</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>concentration of state power 59 over individualism 59</td>
<td>fewer network management strategies 244</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>positive government 59</td>
<td>Congress of Colonial Sociology, 1900</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>public good 59</td>
<td>47–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>social justice 59</td>
<td>conjunctural causation 200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘command and control’ 169</td>
<td>‘consensus management teams’ Brighton and NHS 390–91</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Committee of Public Accounts 341, 346</td>
<td>Conservative attack on school system, 1980s 27</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>commonalities of context 49</td>
<td>Conservative Co-operative Party 330</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>common culture 138</td>
<td>Conservative−Liberal Democrat coalition government</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>common currency 270</td>
<td>plans for UK civil service 208</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>common heritage 139</td>
<td>constitutional settlement 1689 58, 65</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>common law 272</td>
<td>constructivist contextuality 13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication, sender and receiver 8</td>
<td>of scientific knowledge 15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>communication patterns, Anglophone countries 358</td>
<td>‘constructivist’ notions of causality 202</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>comparative (country) studies 221</td>
<td>‘consumerist’ ideas</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>comparative politics 126</td>
<td>re-definition of patients as consumers 396</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>comparison in analysis of contexts 415</td>
<td>context</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>comparisons, value of 421</td>
<td>and accountability 334–55</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>competition orientation</td>
<td>and action 397–8, 415</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>public service organisations 183–4</td>
<td>and audit 336</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>competitive advantage 181</td>
<td>as background 35, 416</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>competitive tendering 326</td>
<td>case of Finland 278</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>‘complex adaptive systems’ (CAS) 168, 170–71</td>
<td>common language term 219, 223</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>agents of 164–6</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table> (contextus), joining together 4 deciphering theory 157–77 definition 209, 357
devices for locating actions 24–6 ‘economic factors’ 416 factors, size, level of conflict, dynamics of networks 253
factual or conceptual 396 and forms of agency 22, 26 four layers of 213–14 and governance networks 233, 235 as history 55, 224
of hospitals 374–406
of an institution 109–10 interpersonal relations 213–14 as links 421–2 models 75
object of undetermined extension 44 performance audit, task, time, scale, direction 339
of strategy 82 theory and rationality 20, 124–32 variables 131, 135
versus theory 126 context-free language paradigms 75 context-related analysis macro-, meso-, micro-levels 416 ‘Context Rules’ 17 context-sensitive approaches 231 context-specific needs 183 contextual analysis 5, 279 causals 220 conditions, influence on government policy 241 dimensions 93 factors, and audit work 351 specifiers 285
variables, 219–27
contextualism of crises 266 current events 268 environmental perspective 136 historic event 20
philosophy of science 3 episodic and methodological 4, 5
of political behaviour 158 research model 221

type of task, time, scale, direction 17
varieties of 88 contextualized generalizations 94 Continental Europe
minority coalition governments 135 contingency theories 117, 119, 229 of organisations 16, 19 contradictory combination 24 control and transparency enhancing audit work 348
‘control’ unavailability 169 control variables 200, 221 conventional meanings 8, 195 Coombs Royal Commission (RCAGA 1976) 363
Co-operative Party 319, 320–21 ‘Making Healthcare Mutual’ 322 corporatives in international development 321, 330
co-production in public management 185 core principles of audit independence, integrity, objectivity, impartiality, professional behaviour, care 335 corporate globalisation 24 corporate governance 235 corporatization 282, 283, 299 correlations by country, Spain, Netherlands, Taiwan 249 corruption 90, 208
cost orientation, public service organizations 183
cost productivity culture corporate and public service organisations 184 cost reduction, structured 348 costs for hospitals, rising 403 country systems, comparison role of context 356–73 coupling, loose versus tight performance and legitimation 307 credit agencies 261 credit crisis, Dutch response to 348 credit rating agencies 273, 282 credit unions 321 critical realism 83–4 cultural and environmental contexts 137–9
cultural barriers 208

cultural factors, reform supportive 148 cultural studies, ‘radical contextualism’ 25 cultural theory 115–23

cultural variation, hierarchist, egalitarian, individual, fatalist 120–21 culture of non-interference 139 culture, political 119

cumulative science 127, 176

Cuoco, Vincenzo (1770–1823), lawyer, economist, political scientist 45–6 customer orientation 183 cynefin framework 160–61, 168, 176 domains of knowledge 159 data, useful vs. useless 274 decentralisation of functions and tasks to regional and local government 193–4 decision-making processes and outcomes 128, 240 decision-making structure in political administrative system 137

Declaration of Independence, USA personal freedom protection 269 decontextualization 210 decoupling, analysis of institutions 285 deductive approach 124–5 defensiveness, evaluations, audits 346–7 definitions of context, varied meanings 416 delegation 25

demographic changes 403

Department of Health, UK 336 dependency, importance 237 dependency of causal mechanisms on contextual factors 196 dependency upon the environment 103 dependent and independent variables 174 descriptive contextualism 12

Designing Social Enquiry, King, G.R. et al. 229 destabilisation 166
detail, attention to 341 determinate research designs 224 determination, 31, 68 closed context model 83 deterministic rhetoric ‘there is no alternative’ (TINA) 144 developing countries, technical changes 48 developmental historicism 55–7, 61, 68 development trusts 321
devolution 25, 194
differences between countries: Spain, Netherlands, Taiwan 250 direction variable 134, 135 discourse, role of 109 ‘discretion’ exercise of 30 disease, changing patterns 395 disequilibrium 108 unknown context 163–4 ‘dissipative’ behaviour 166 diversity with hybrid characteristics, Finland 294 doctors’ shift from hierarchy to networks 66 dominant context 81

Dow Jones Industrial Average stock market indicator 261–2 drama psychology 3

Durkheim, Emile, religious variation 120

Dutch audit office focus on specific areas 352

Dutch Audit Office, Algemene Rekenkamer limits of action 339

Dutch state audit institutions audit concerns for citizens 349 dynamics in networks 239, 253 dynamics levels, higher more employed network management strategies 244 negative influence on performance 243

economic analysis 264

economic and financial environment factual context 384 economic and fiscal context

Belgium and UK hospitals 387 economic crisis, Swedish work on 348 economic recovery target 348 economics and the market 105 economy, efficiency, effectiveness

Finland’s public administration 296
economy of America, at risk 265 education 169
and public policy 26 welfare, health 141 efficiency measuring, meaning in context 79–80
elitism 127
embeddedness, importance change in contextualist mode 195 empirical analysis 14 dependence on 11–12
empirical hypotheses
and research design 242
employee ownership benefits 321, 327 Employee Ownership Association 328
Englishness of Tudor times 65 English school inspection, history of 94 Enlightenment, cosmopolitan reason 50 Entrepreneurship, furthering reform 148 environment altering 109–10 ‘environment’ or ‘context’, 157–8 environmental audit 349 environmental factors, in reform 148 environmental functions in Netherlands building of houses, recreational areas 245 epistemological contextualism 88 epistemology 6 nature of knowledge 90 ethical judgements 30
ethnomethodology 96
Euro crisis 265
European Central Bank (ECB) independence 262
European Common Market (ECM)
free trade zone 262 European financial crisis 261 Europeans after Communism public administration systems 283 European Union (EU) 208, 282 competition law 299 fraud, public funds, scrutiny 349 national debt idea 269–70, 273 EU/USA financial crises 258–77, 268 evaluation work, collaborative approach 7, 346
events, predictable 163 evidence-gathering process
performance audit 345
evolutionary positivism 57 executive agencies, UK 365–6 explanatory variables 200, 221 external audit and review new political governance (NPG) 361 external service delivery 187 Fabian tradition 36 factual context 9–10
dependence on 11–12
of knowledge 88, 91
Fannie Mae 261
farmer co-ops 321
Faulkner, William, Intruder in the Dust 55
federalism 358
Federal Reserve System 272 feminist economist, Gibson-Graham 41 financial audit 341, 344 financial crises 18 ‘Great Recession’ 260 responses in EU/USA 272 financial management 363 Financial Management Initiative (FMI), UK 363–4
financial markets, Finland 306 Finer, Herman, Foreign Governments at Work: Theory and Practice of Modern Governments 60
Finland 18, 278, 409–10
Finland fisheries 294
Finland’s public administration 279
institutionalization 281, 292–3
Finnish language, no word for ‘management’ 91
First Socialist International 48
First World War impacts 95 ‘fiscal crisis’ of the state 25
Flemings and Walloons
Belgian major languages groups 380 Flemish regionalism 396 foreign elements, importation Margaret Mead on 48–9 foreign trade crisis economic problems 136
Index

forensic audit 349
formalization processes 134 Foucault, Michel 32 subjects and subjectivity 230 foundation trusts, safeguards 324 framework contextuality 9, 13, 15–19 France, Cour des comptes 344, 347 Ecole Nationale d’Administration (ENA) history and modernisation 337 oscillation between tradition and franchise 58 grand corps 214 modernity 341–2 professional socialization 214 free-market economists 40 free trade zone, Europe 264 Frege, Gottlieb (1848–1925)
The Foundations of Arithmetic 74 context principle 74
French medical school in Belgium 386 French Revolution 46
universalistic claims 51 friendly societies 323 Fulton report 364
functionalist reasoning, explanation of social facts 61 functional-strategic context 82–3 functional contextualism 12 fundraising, not marketing 185 ‘fuzzy-set analysis’ 404 garbage can model 129, 133 gender equality policies 296 public administration 302 generalist vs. contextualist dilemma 196 across time periods, language barriers 94 General Motors, bankruptcy 261

German Civil Code, 1900 46
Germany, educational system reform 116 Gianquinto, Giovanni de Gioannis, Italian lawyer (1821–83) 46 on statutes of nation’s genius 47 global warming 163–4 Glorious Revolution, 1688 65 ‘good governance’ 117, 334 continuous improvement promotion 334 interdependent actors 235 narrative 39 networks, macro, meso, micro 233, 235 politics of theory 35–43 principles, development in local context 52 government dependence on other actors 238 form of 137 to governance 234
growth 59 limits on medical spending 401 performance, scepticism 350 and politics, study of 104 role, limited, libertarianism 59 turnover, frequent 199 understood in neutral terms 62 governmental actors and societal actors 235 governmentality theories 37 government-sponsored enterprises (GSEs)
Fannie Mae 273
GP practices, mutualisation 322
Greenleaf, W.H.
historical analysis of British government 58–60 Green Paper, Modernising Commissioning 326 green profile 143 ‘grey literature’ 117
gross domestic product (GDP) 310 Group Health 329
Habermas 75 communicative norms 39
public sphere 39
Health and Social Care bill 2003
UK Parliament 319
health care market 319 health co-operatives in Japan and USA 329 health service management performance indicators 116 health care policy issue resolution 128 Hegelianism 57
Herder, Johann Gottfried (1744–1803) on nation and identity 51 hermeneutic research 3 heterogeneity research 24 Hewitt, Patricia
Secretary of State for Trade and Industry 322 hierarchical leadership, furthering reform 148 hierarchical perspective 137 higher education reforms 134 historical and linguistic contextualism 7–8, 88, 91, 330 historical context ‘mutualisation’ of public services 319–33 historical institutionalism 108–109, 224, 375 history 5, 56
as ‘chronologies of minutiae’ 58 importance of 55, 56, 375 weight, key contextual factor 341 home mortgage defaults, Europe 263 homogeneity of a culture 50 horizontal level 194–5 horizontal relations, importance 237 horizontal specialization, four principles 141 Hospital Act, Belgium, 1963 385 hospital case study, Brighton and Leuven 419 hospital changes social and technological changes 403 hospital development, Brighton, financial problems 379 hospitality development, new 378 hospital management as new ‘science’ 401 hospital managers, greater powers in UK 396 hospital patients, attitude changes 392–3 Hospital Plan, 1962 385 hospitals, dynamics of multiple contexts 374 civic asset for particular place 403 in Leuven (Belgium), splitting of French from 380 loss of small local 395 major source of employment 403 personal security for residents 403 power of medical estate 403 reforms 134
relocation 394
research centres, financing problems 395 social and communal focus 403 symbol of caring state 402 hospital system development 375 hospital waiting lists, manipulation 350 House of Commons Public Administration Committee, 2011 327, 328 House of Lords 58 human behaviour, abstract laws 5 human factor 214
humanism 68
human resource management 143 ‘hybrid’, definition 294 hypothesis testing 125 idealists 57
ideas and doctrines, conceptual context 95, 384 identities, formation, maintenance and contestation of 281, 288 Immigration Appeals Board 141–2 impact of government turnovers 199 importance of ‘time’ 201 incentive system, performance-related pay 231 independence of Finland 295 individualism 6 self-reliance, British character 69 individuality of citizens 236 inductive approach, contextualization 210 inductive or deductive approaches, 125–6 ‘inefficiency’ 170 inference in qualitative research 229 inflation fighting 262, 270 informal organisations 166 information analysis 272, 274
management 183
organization about context/ technology 237 environment 159 inspection act 33 inspection, embodied, 19th century practice 27 institutions agency in Finland’s public administration 284, 287, 296, 300–305 institutional ‘environments’ examination of ‘context’ 279
institutionalization 240
in Finland’s public administration 289–90 is ‘taken-for-grantedness’ 280 institutional patterns, non-transferability 51 institutional resources 272, 274 ‘institutional transfer’ 14, 44, 49, 52 institutions, importance of 375 in context, and as context 101 instrumental norms 138 integral solution 248 intellectual property audit 349 International Organisation of Supreme Audit Institutions (INTOSAI) 335 intentional meanings 8 intercontextuality 31
intercontinental ballistic missile, USSR built 119 interdependences in network society 237–9 interest groups 361 interest rates, low, American financial crisis 261 interests of scholars, theoretical perspective 224 internal markets 25 internal processes and external service 187 international aid donors 117 international experience, political adaption 360 international peer country context Finland’s public administration 289–90
interpreting and shaping contexts of institutions 109 interpretation flexibility contextual conditions 29–30 interpretive perspectives 224 interrogatives: when, where, who, what 6 ‘intransient context’ 45, 46, 51, 52 intra-organizational focus New Public Governance framework 180 investment and contract readiness fund 326 involvement of actors 248 isomorphic elements 136 Italian administrative orders building on Roman legal tradition 52
Kaiser Permanente 329
Katholieke Universiteit Leuven (KUL), 1425 377, 380
c control of UZ Leuven 389 Keynesian thinking, fiscal fixes 264 knowledge accumulation 31 claims 91 communication 9 creation 9, 14–15, 175 conceptual context 10
socially conditioned 19 domains, simple, complex, chaotic, complicated 159–60 standards of 4
‘work’ 35, 38, 39, 41
Labour government 1997 320, 2003, 323, 330 labour market shortage 214 Labour tradition 319 lack of resources 208 laissez faire economics 270 language vs. behaviour 6 law, institution of, public administration 104–105 law traditions 258 leaders’ control over change 137 leadership conflicts 148 leadership discretion 272, 274 leadership importance 109 leadership roles for central bankers broad vs. narrow 24 leadership understanding 117 legal transplant 44 legitimacy of policies 334 Lehman Brothers bankruptcy 261
Leuven (Belgium), ancient Flemish city 377 Context in public policy and management events, 1960s to 2000s 383 general hospital, research 374 healthy finances 388 Leuven Workshop debate 94–5 level of conflict 253 libertarianism, 59 limitations of research 252 linear relationships, road safety map 170 linguistic contextualism 88, 91 hard and soft 8 literacy levels 116 lobbyists 361

local acting with national 404 ‘local communities’ control 319 local government 58 Localism Bill 326
local politics 208
Locke, John

_Two Treatises of Civil Government_ 65 Loewenstein, Karl, 1944, on World War 2 ending 51 logical point of view 9 logical positivism 64 logic of appropriateness and consequentiality 107 logics, causal and constitutive 36 ‘loose coupling’ 285 lottery design 85

Maastricht Treaty 1992 larger free trade zone 262 Macarel, Louis-Antoine (1790–1851) on principles of public administration 49
Macaulay, T.B. (1860) 71 Machiavelli, Niccolò, warring states of Italy 92 macro changes, for governments 241 macroeconomic situation 222 ‘macro-environment’ 157–8 macro level of governance, network society 236 macro, meso, micro, context and mutual influence 241 Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) 384 malpractice of geriatric patients 393 management audit 349
Finland 296, 311
ideas 143
by numbers 115–23, 209
by objectives and results (MBOR) 147 power and authority distribution 391 reform 364, 369
research 35
managerial activity 242 managerial approach to public services 178 managerialism 419, 420 modern 115
in UK government 400
managing by numbers 77 market economies 129 market governance 235 marketing public services 184 market-orientation 140
market populism 24
markets, democratic legitimacy 24 market-type mechanisms (MTMs)
Finland 303
Markov chains 83
Mass Observation, 1945 323
Maude, Francis, Minister for Cabinet Office 325, 327
Mead, Margaret 44
World Federation for Mental Health 48 meaning as mechanistic 83 means-end thinking 137 measurement as static 83 measuring activity 78 impact on behaviour 78 measuring by numbers 77 mechanism 20 ‘mediating professions’ 30 medical audit 349 medical drug safety, Finland 306 medical profession 141 medical technologies development 393 change in hospitals 394 medicine, modern scientific 395–6 Members of Parliament decline in independence 61 mergers, collaborations, networks focus post-NPM reforms 147 Mertonian idea, middle-range theory 17
meso level social relations, government and societal organizations 237 meta-contextualism 90 methodological contextualism 88 methodological issues data collection in three countries 244 methodology 228
Mexico constitution, US federative principle 47 micro and macro aspects 197, 202, 224 micro-institutionalization of Finland’s public administration 280, 287, 288, 294–5, 310 micro-institutional traditions and transformations nomenclature 288
micro level impact 240 ‘micro-level’ theoretical frameworks 193, 197 middle-level theory, of policy making 128 military organizations, arms race provoking 110 Mill, John Stuart 57 ‘Minister for Civil Society’ charities, social enterprises, voluntary organisations 325 mixing and hybridity 121 model of publicly-desired outcomes 171 model of space 23 models of testable propositions 9, 231 modernist empiricism 55–6, 60, 66, 67, 230 or philosophical idealism 58 modes of enquiry, analytical and atomistic 61 monarchy 58
monetarism 264
Alan Greenspan 269
money 268
monopoly of knowledge engineers, doctors 81
moral narrative 61
Monte Carlo methodology 85
MPs’ expenses, misuses of public money 349 multi-contextual interactions
Royal Sussex County Hospital (RSCH), 2005 397 multi-contextuality of individuals and groups 30 multi-divisional corporations, Finnish 295 multi-level governance 23 multi-party government coalitions Finland’s public administration 288 multiple and intersecting, contexts 417 multiple causality 200 multiplicity 24
multivariable analysis 285 mutualism 410–11
mutuality in policy-making 14, 321, 325 mutual organisations, low member participation 324 weaknesses 323
mutuals, public sector 328 Mutuals Taskforce 326–8 naming and shaming schools, hospitals, polluting industries 231 Naples, failed public revolution 1799 45–6 ‘Napoleonic’ administrative systems 51, 103, 193, 198, 202 narrative, justification by 330 National Audit Office (NAO), UK 336–7, 346 developments and contextual factors 411 outsider approach 344 reports on all government activity 352 national character of British traditions passion for liberty, pragmatism, trading enterprise 69 national characters 70
national cultures
Western and Asian differences 237
National Health Insurance scheme 323 National Health Service (NHS) 320, 322, 336, 380, 385 foundation trusts 342 mutualisation foundation trusts 322 national historical-institutional context 136 nationalisation of banks 348 national reforms, uniqueness 136–7 national traditions 69 nation building 66
nations as organic peoples formation by common traditions 69 nation state 57, 65 forging of 67
native administrative bodies, importance 48 ‘NATO model’ of capabilities of
government 129
natural science success 67 neo-institutionalism 279, 285 public administration, Finland 278, 291 rational choice, historical, sociological 278
neo-liberalism, impact in US and UK 24 Netherlands, descriptive statistics 246 governance networks 233
non-departmental public bodies 342 Pechtold motion ‘auditability’ improvement 349
survey data 244
Netherlands, Spain, Taiwan, comparison 407
network characteristics 243
as background 253
context variables 240 network management activity 242, 244, 246–8, 252
network performance in governance processes 18
New Economics Foundation 321 new attitudes and values 214 new institutionalism 36
New Labour 36, 118
‘Cool Britannia’ 65
technocratic governance style 38 ‘new mutualism’ 320–21 response to 330
new political governance (NPG),
Australia 359, 362
New Zealand 359, 362
open government 361
in Westminster systems 359, 361
New Public Governance 106, 179 New Public Management (NPM) and context 105–108, 132–3, 137, 180, 220, 294, 359, 368
audit in public sector 348
post-NPM reform elements 136 reform in New Zealand 139, 144, 147 reform research 219–27
New Public Service 106
new sciences 60
New Zealand 358
Anglophone 356–73
dissimilarity, individualism 140
post-NPM reform elements 138–9 trade with Asia 144
Next Steps
critique of progress with management reform 364 executive agencies 365, 367 nomenclatures 280
non-linearity in public service systems 170 normative institutionalism 107, 278 Norway, employment service 142–3 jurist domination of civil service 143 national welfare agency 142 pensions service 142–3 reluctance to reform 140 social services 142–3
Norwegian hospital reforms 149 Norwegian state administration structural changes 133, 145, 146 notions of causality 202 public management reforms 193 numbers context for, distance and relation 75, 77
quantified words 76
objectivity 85
obsolescence of hospitals, Brighton 377
Occupy Wall Street movement 39, 265
Office for Civil Society 325
Office for Standards in Education (Ofsted) 94
failing schools, poor teachers 28 school inspection, governing at a distance 27 ‘old Commonwealth’ 358 online work processes 42 ontological contextualism 6, 88 ontology 6 nature of reality 88 operations management 186 organicism 20, 57
Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) 359 Government at a Glance, 2009 76 reforms of regulations 134 organizational and professional cultures
factual context 384
in hospitals, Belgium and Brighton 392 organizational behaviour 143 organizational structure 117 organization understanding context as central 117 outsourcing 25
over-determination, actions 31 overestimation 222
ownership context 82
Oxford English Dictionary, definition of ‘contexts’ 75 Oxford Handbook of Contextual Political Analysis 92–3 Oxford Radcliffe Trust
Nigel Crisp, Chief Executive 320 parameter estimation by country 251 whole sample, Spain, Netherlands, Taiwan 249 partisan-political staff increased role and influence 361 party government 14
passive consumers 181 passive measuring context 78 path dependency 213, 375, 376, 417 ‘pathfinder mutuals’ 325 Pathfinder Programme 326 patterns of dynamics 239 patterns of interactions 239 patterns of interdependencies 238 pay-for-performance measures, Norway 148 People’s Parties in European nations 39 performance, driver for reform 75 performance audit 15, 77, 334–55, 336, 341, 352 accountability context 346–7 drivers and constraints 342–3 quantitative data 345 value for money audit 335 performance indicators 115 performance information, generation of 78 performance management 75, 147, 180, 208, 347 performance numbers 76–7 meaning in context 79–80 three-dimensional contextual space 82 performance reality context of performance numbers 80 performance targets adoption 116 personal passions in public services 32 personnel regulation 193–4 philosophy 5, 96
placebo version of measuring activity 79 places as singularities 23 Platonic perspective 89 pluralism of contexts 52 financial emergencies 266 plurality 24, 126 point of view of logic 9 police shift from hierarchy to networks specific dilemmas 66 policy and delivery, vertical separation 365 policy formation separation from implementation 361, 365, 367 policy narratives and historical referencing 330 policy style, confrontational 140 political accountability 141–2 political-administrative culture, Norway 146 political-administrative system crisis 147 political advisers, introduction, 1960s 360 political crisis in Belgium French dominance, splitting 385 political environment and New Public Management (NPM) 347 Political/Economic/Social/Technological Ecological/Legislative (PESTEL) 158 political science 56, 102 quantitative techniques 61 political science and history 58, 143 political situation in Belgium 386 political system, Leuven, Brighton 383–4 politicians and doctors, communication in Belgium 386–7 politics and economics 404 politics and political science 104 politics of intervention 38 ‘politics of theory’ 35
Pollitt’s contextual variables’ 140−49, 115 population and populism 5, 127 positivism, collapse of notion of tradition 57, 69 ‘positivist’ notions of causality 202
post-NPM reform elements 137 power concentration, in PM’s office 361 power dispersion, libertarianism 59 powers of organizations, factual context 384 pragmatic truth criteria 3 pre-school learning groups 321 pressure group activities 61 primary care trusts (PCTs), mutualisation 322 primary health care 169 prime-ministerial power 362 Private Finance Initiative (PFI) 399 private/public interrelationships 272 privatization 25, 145
as reform tool, Norway 148 process and result combinations 133–4 process, contents and context 195 processes and mechanisms 420 process-oriented approaches, public management 202 process research in strategy formation 197 process rules 247 production and consumption simultaneous in service 181 productivity increasing, possible contexts 80 professional bureaucracy 141–2 ‘professional management’ in hospitals Belgian and UK hospitals 394, 396, 402 profit-making companies 327 Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) educational performance rankings 116 programme working or failing 231 progress as contingent 60 propositions, context of 74 93 psychology 3, 5, 96 psychological-subjective dimension 78 psychotherapists 282 public management reforms Australia, Canada, New Zealand 411–12 public agencies and autonomy 103
public administration 16, 75, 259 as embedded institutions 102 generalization 49–50 legal profession in Germany 104 public as a nation and spatial entity 38–9 Public Audit Forum, consistency of practice 351 public benefit societies 324 public choice theory 24 public control vs. discretion of private third parties 273 public debt in Europe 262 public decision-making processes transformative approach 135 public engagement 40 public establishments for education of people 50 public expenditure 327, 349 public institutions as context-embedded politics, law, economy 209 public investment for hospitals, Brighton 387–8 public management 197
by numbers 119
reform 40, 192, 196, 198–203, 335 research and context 223 theory 180, 187
public ownership 322 public policy 35
  global economic and fiscal crisis 409 public–private partnerships 235, 274, 283
  Finland 305
public resource use 335 ‘public’ role of research 40 public sector audit, context influence 338 public sector employment, Finland 294 Public Sector Management (PSM) 203 public sector performance 16, 349 public sector reform 5, 7, 9, 14, 66 transition to democracy, Spain 194 public service-dominant approach 180, 187 to marketing 185 public service
  ethos, ‘Working Together’ 138 innovations 186–7 management practice 182 motivation (PSM) 198, 214 neutrality, Australia 362 organisations 39, 178–9, 183, 212 risky under Big Society 328–9 strategic orientation 184 service-dominant context 178–91 standards, raising 118
Public Service Motivation (PSM) 192 public spending on health care, international problem 401 purpose, process, clientele, geography horizontal specialization 141 qualitative case design descriptive-narrative elements 222, 224 qualitative research 127 ‘quality’ publications 42 quantitative research 127 racial and gender differences 65–6 racist mobilisations against immigrants London 41

‘radical agency’
  ‘time ploys’, ‘time tactics’ 287 radical constructivism 83, 85 ‘radical contextual’ approach 418, 419 radical historicism 55–6, 95 critique of positivism 64 loss of faith in progress and reason, 63 versus ‘developmental historicism’ 68 versus ‘modernist empiricism’ 66 radical humanism 71 radical institutional change Finland’s public administration 286, 308–309
rational calculation 137 rational choice, and comparative politics 125–6 rational choice institutionalism 108 rational choice theory 36, 126 reasonality, lack of 329–30 rationalization, global 134 rationalization of hospitals ‘economies of scale’ 395 rationalized myths 284, 286 realism vs. constructivism 6 ‘real things Aristotelian’ 89
‘reasonable context’ 49 ‘received views’ 10 referential contextuality 13–14 reform context 357 literature, scale and scope 134 processes 131, 149, 222, 370 programmes 146–7 trajectories 195 reforms and technical problems 136 Norway 145, 146
regional reform 149 regression analysis 159, 174 for whole sample 248 regulated industry, capture of regulators 105 regulatory resources 272 reification 67–8 reindeer herding, Finland 294 relationship management tools public service organizations 183 ‘relationship marketing’ 185 research by interview and reading 376 research designs and methods 220–21 research, future potential 222–3 researching context 220 researching culture in public management 223 research model results Spain, Netherlands, Taiwan 250 research questions on Finland micro-institutionalization of public administration, Finland 278 resource allocation in Belgium new or modernization of hospitals 399 political process 399, 419
Resource Allocation Working Party (RAWP)
NHS revenue funds allocation 388 ‘resource dependency’ 103, 239 risk assessments 341, 352 road accident rates traffic flows, vehicle speeds, weather conditions 161 road safety examples, predictable contexts 161–2 roads, bridges, canals, public authorities’ provision 50 Rochdale Conservative Co-operative Society 330 role of context for public management 225 Roman Catholic hierarchy in Belgium hospital as Christian institution 386 Roman legal tradition 52
Royal Sussex County Hospital (RSCH) 378 19th century 377, 387 budgetary overspend 380 financial and management crisis 397 medical elite failure on resource allocation 398 Rule of Law, libertarianism 59 rules, patterns of institutionalization 240 Russell, Bertrand, criticism by Wittgenstein 74 theory of types, Principia Mathematica 74–5 Scandinavia, public organizational culture 140 Saussure, Léopold (1866–1925) French scholar and racist 48 scale and scope 342
scale and space 23
Scandinavian reform features 137 Scandinavian systems minority coalition governments 135 school curricula, liberal 27 school inspection 32, 94
definition 28–9
governing at a distance 26–7 professionalism 28 school ‘league tables’ 115–16 school literacy targets, New Labour 116 Schools Inspectorate 27 Science, context-free knowledge 175 science ‘progress’ 10 scientific discovery, analysis models 124–5 scientific knowledge 3, 5 in public administration contextualities 8, 11 scientific orthodoxy 83 scientization 283, 286, 309 Scottish Enlightenment 56–7 scrutiny activity 349–50 ‘securitization’ 272–3
Security Exchange Commission (SEC) 272 security management, assaults on hospital staff 393 self-governing hospitals, schools, social enterprises 322 self-reflections of context 19 self-regarding action, libertarianism 59 senior civil service 368 senior public service 361 separate strategies of autonomous actors 241 separation of psychological from logical 74 sequencing 213
service-culture 139 service delivery networks, less conflictual 240 service delivery process 238 user role 181
service-dominant approach 182, 184, 212 innovation in public services 186–7 main applications 182 service management, effective 181–2 service promotion, not marketing 185 service redesign 169 service users, interconnectedness 170 Shared Management Agenda, Canada 369 shared purpose, USSR, 1930s 121 simple domain of knowledge 161 single case studies 221 single currency, euro 262 single-party government in UK and NHS 390 size of network
dynamics of networks 253
negative influence on performance 243 skill shortages 208
social action, and over-determination 30, 31, 105 social/technological change, in hospital services 401 social anthropologists 44 social attitudes for hospitals changes in hospitals 403 social backgrounds, effects of 214 social bonds, individualizing, diminishing of 236 social constructionism to understand public sector 62–3 social-democratic characteristics 183 social detachment and isolation 121, 321 social explanation, view of 56 social goals of government action 50 social inclusion 185 social network theory 239 social organismism 57 social reality 10
factual context 9
social research, contextual analysis 285
Finland 312
social sciences 3, 22, 23, 35, 56, 103, 203, 210 constitutive power 36 ‘modernist’ cultural variation 119–20 regimes of governing 35
research 129, 201, 228
social scientists, 37, 143 history as source of data 62 social theory 120, 127 political action 38 social workers 282
society 105
pluralistic 62
sociocognitive perspective of context 219 sociolinguistics 96 sociological institutionalism 224, 278 sociological interpretive perspectives 224 sociologist, Sasha Rosenail 41 sociology 26
solar flares on public infrastructure unpredictability 163 Soviet Russia target regime economic development, 1930s 116 Soviet target system 118 space, first person in USSR 119 Spain descriptive statistics 246 governance networks 233–55
survey data 244
Spain (Catalonia)
urban renewal public policy projects 245 spatial and environmental policy 238 spatial and urban planning projects 244–5 special advisers in Britain 360 specialization in organizational structures 119 specialization of society 237 special operations agencies (SOAs) Canada 366 Spencer, Herbert, functionalist reasoning 61 stability of UZ Leuven Christian-based university hospital 391 staff pensions 327
standardisation and codification 341 standardization processes 134 state audit institutions (SAIs) 336, 347, 352 accountability processes 335 differences between countries 352 ‘insider’ approach 344 limitations of 338–9 role and duties 337–8
topic selection for examination 351 stateless state, networks of peoples 65 state ‘monopoly’ provision 27
State Services Act 1988 New Zealand 363 state traditions Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Napoleonic, Scandinavian 63 strategic management in complex adaptive system 165 strategic orientation service-dominant approach 182–3
‘street-level bureaucrats’ 30, 103 structural devolution 145 structural contexts 138 structure and agency 26 subjectivity and objectivity 83, 85 substantive interventions, focus 230–31 success-to-failure sequences English educational system 209 Soviet planning 209 supervisory ministries, Finland 294 surrounding environment (context) 101 Sussex hospitals 378 sustainability in future 248 ‘synergy’ 170, 174
systematic analysis of contextual factors 225 system behaviour 168 systemic autonomy 273 systemic reforms 272, 274 systemic centralization vs. agency decentralization and autonomy 273 systems theory in political science 101 Taiwan
  city environment for metropolitan cities 245
descriptive statistics 246 governance networks 233–55
survey data 244
taken-for-granted understanding 281 target systems 119 ‘task environment’ 118 task nature, importance for audit 341 tasks complex 210
  focus 132–3
  path dependency 142
  repetitive, performance indicators 210 specialization 141, 143 time scale, direction 339–40 task type as structural variable 135 teaching audit 349
teaching experience 28 teamwork within groups, competition der 121
Tea Party movement 265 technical administrative matters 141 technical context 81–2 technical criteria 184 technical environment, pressure from 143, 147
technological context in hospitals 394 technological issues 183, 212 technologies, changing, factual context 384 technology and social change 5, 404 telecommunications, Finland 306 telecommunications devices, changes in hospitals 394
temporal interconnectedness change in past, present and future time 195
tenant-controlled housing 322 thematic conceptualization in Western countries 222
time
  as context variable 135 in empirical research 192, 193, 194 in ‘information’ societies 10 policy and management 133 treatment of 196
time dimension, significance of 341 timing in Norwegian reforms 145 Toqueville, Alexis de 258
Total Quality Management (TQM)
   89–90, 208, 357, 420
Tractatus 25
trade unions 321, 327 traditions and beliefs 52, 70 transaction costs 108 transfer of engagement rules (TUPE) 326 transfer pricing, Finland 302 transformative approach 135, 138, 140 translation theories 37
Trans-Tasman relations 358
Trichet, Jean-Claude, anti-inflationary stance 269 Transparency International 282 trust in society specialization, dispersion of information 236 trust, patterns of 240

UK National Health Service non-medical managerialism 400 UK public services, external inspection 349 under-determination, actions 31 ‘underfunding’ in Brighton 388 uniqueness of a culture 50 unitary systems of government 358 United States, administrative reorganization 144–5 unit of analysis in context understanding 174 Universal Exposition in Paris, 1900 48 ‘universal’ generalizations 95 universals, like ‘dog’ 89 University Hospital Leuven (UZ Leuven) 380 urban planning decision-making conflictual 240 urban politics, American political science, 127–9 USA as exemplar of ‘modern society’ 23
US-centred corporate capitalism
‘Market populism’ 24
US Government Accountability Office (GAO)
audit work 342
UZ Leuven, 2010 best teaching hospital 392 hospital development crises 398 managers in medical profession 400 UZ Leuven and RSCH Brighton comparison 401 value conflicts
negative influence on performance 243

Value for Money (VFM) Audits 339, 344 dependent variable, network performance 245 and events, distinction 201
network characteristics 245 network managerial activities 245
and research design 244 vertical linkages, analytical purposes 194 Virgin Group 327
Von Gneist, Rudolf, professor Japanese constitution on German model 47 Von Savigny, Friedrich Carl (1779–1861) on constitutional models 47 on German code valid for all German states 46 professor of Roman law, Berlin 46 water management in Netherlands 245 Weber, Max 258 welfare administrative reform 142–3 welfare citizenship age, gender, race, ethnicity, sexuality 25 welfare state 149, 323
Finland 311
welfare state, 1940s 319
Westminster 61, 140, 358, 365 Westminster-type political systems 135 Wilson, Harold
political advisers, introduction, 1960s 360
Wittgenstein, Ludwig (1889–1951)
Tractatus 74
women, multi-generational study 41 Workers’ Educational Association 321 World Bank 282
World Federation for Mental Health 44 world views hierarchist, egalitarian, individual, fatalist 120 World War II, UK 121
World War One impact 60, 63 challenge to nation state 62