

Contents

List of figures and tables	ix
Preface	x
Acknowledgements	xviii
List of abbreviations	xx

PART I ISLAMIC ECONOMICS

1	Islamic economics: state of the art	3
2	The 'why' of Islamic economics	26
3	What is Islamic economics?	40
4	Methodology of Islamic economics	54
5	From Islamic theology to Islamic economics	72
6	Expanding the frontiers of economics	85
7	An Islamic economic system or spiritual capitalism?	102

PART II PROHIBITION OF RIBA

8	Elimination of interest: from divine prohibition to human interpretation	123
9	Prohibition of riba in the primary sources of Islam	132
10	Theory of riba : the orthodox interpretation	142
11	Assessment of the orthodox interpretation	146
12	Modernist thinking on riba	174
13	Prohibition of riba : the continuing debate	183
14	Unresolved issues in the orthodox interpretation of riba	196
15	Practice of interest-based finance among Muslims	216
16	Prohibition of riba : the way forward	227

PART III ISLAMIC BANKING AND FINANCE

17	Theoretical basis of Islamic banking	245
18	Problems of profit–loss sharing	275
19	Practice of Islamic banking and finance	289
20	A trajectory of legal tricks (hiyal)	337
21	Islamic insurance (takaful)	402

PART IV ZAKAH IN THE PRESENT AGE

22	Contemporary application of the law of zakah	415
	Bibliography	451
	Glossary of terms	484
	Index	491