

Acknowledgments

We would like to thank Wenyan Yin, Jimmyn Parc, Dongho Choi, Min-Young Kim and Min-Young Im for their assistance in collecting and analyzing the data. Special thanks go to the following partner scholars. With their cooperation in conducting the executive surveys in their host countries we were able to enlarge the pool of respondents and provide more reliable data for this study. We would also like to recognize the editorial board members who have given us feedback on this research.
