ABOUT THE AUTHORS

PRINCIPAL CO-AUTHORS

Geoffrey Yeowart is a consultant to and former partner (1985–2013) of the Banking and Finance practice at Hogan Lovells International LLP, London. He is a member of the UK Financial Markets Law Committee (FMLC). He is a former Deputy Chairman (1999–2013) of the Financial Law Committee of the City of London Law Society (CLLS) and winner of the Distinguished Service Award (2003) of the City of London Solicitors' Company. He has participated in working parties of the CLLS or FMLC on many major legal subjects affecting the financial markets, including financial collateral arrangements, set-off, clearing houses, bank resolution and recovery, secured transactions, corporate insolvency law and securities law. He is a former member of the Bank of England's City Euro Group (1998–2006). He is admitted as a solicitor in England and Wales. He is a graduate of Southampton University (LLB) and King's College, London (LLM). He is a member of the editorial boards of the Journal of International Banking and Financial Law (Butterworths) and the Law and Financial Markets Review (Routledge).

Robin Parsons is Of Counsel to and former partner of Sidley Austin LLP (2000–10) and of other City law firms (1977–2000) specialising in cross-border insolvency, restructurings and workouts. He is a former member (1995–2013) of the Financial Law Committee of the City of London Law Society (CLLS), having chaired the working party of the Committee on the implementation of the Financial Collateral Arrangements Directive and an ongoing review of the Regulations. He has written a number of articles in the legal press on insolvency and financial collateral issues and is a member of the editorial board of the Journal of International Banking and Financial Law (Butterworths). He is admitted as a solicitor in England and Wales. He is a former visiting lecturer at King's College, London (2011–13) and a graduate of University College, London (LLB).

CONTRIBUTING AUTHORS

Edward Murray is a consultant to and former senior partner of the Derivatives and Structured Finance practice at Allen & Overy LLP. He is a senior external legal adviser to the International Swaps and Derivatives Association (ISDA) and Chairman of the ISDA Financial Law Reform Committee. He is a member of PRIME Finance (the Panel of Recognised International Market Experts in Finance), which is based in The Hague. He is a former member of the UK Financial Markets Law Committee from 2005 to 2013. He is a Visiting Professorial Fellow at the Centre for Commercial Law Studies of Queen Mary London and a visiting lecturer at Université Panthéon-Assas (Paris II). He sits as a Recorder of the Crown Court and as a Deputy High Court Judge in the Chancery Division, London. He is admitted as a solicitor in England and Wales and as an attorney in New York. He is a graduate of Trinity College Dublin (MA (Philosophy)) and of Harvard Law School (JD cum laude). He is a member of the editorial boards of the Capital Markets Law Journal (Oxford University Press) and the Law and Financial Markets Review (Routledge).

Hamish Patrick is a finance and restructuring partner at Shepherd and Wedderburn LLP, Edinburgh. He has a PhD in cross-border securities and insolvency. He is a member of the Law Society of Scotland's Banking, Corporate and Insolvency Law sub-committee and has been a member of various law reform committees including, at the time of writing, of the Scottish Law Commission's advisory group on its Moveable Transactions Project and being the Scottish member of the steering committee of the English Secured Transactions Law Reform Project. He is admitted as a solicitor in Scotland and is a graduate of Edinburgh University (LLB and PhD).