

Tables

| | | |
|------|--|-----|
| 6.1 | Overview of the different theoretical scenarios in the political clustering of MEAs | 158 |
| 10.1 | Criteria for the effective transboundary conservation of terrestrial biodiversity | 277 |
| 10.2 | Evaluation of the PALM project against 11 +1 criteria | 294 |
| 10.3 | Evaluation of the 'Heart of Borneo' project against 11 +1 criteria | 297 |
| 11.1 | Timetable for flood management planning | 312 |
| 11.2 | Examples of birds spotted in the Kruikeke area as reported in the annual inventories | 324 |
| 14.1 | Ecological criteria for establishing marine protected areas networks and their representation in international legislation | 396 |
| 14.2 | Representation of ecological criteria for establishing marine protected areas in US federal legislation | 396 |
| 14.3 | Representation of ecological criteria for establishing marine protected areas in Canadian federal legislation | 397 |
| 14.4 | Provisions for ecological criteria in selected California state legislation pertaining to the creation of marine protected areas | 398 |
| 14.5 | Provisions for ecological criteria in selected Oregon state legislation pertaining to the creation of marine protected areas | 399 |
| 14.6 | Provisions for ecological criteria in selected Washington State legislation pertaining to the creation of marine protected areas | 399 |
| 14.7 | Provisions for ecological criteria in selected Alaskan legislation pertaining to the creation of marine protected areas | 400 |