Tables

6.1 Overview of the different theoretical scenarios in the political clustering of MEAs

10.1 Criteria for the effective transboundary conservation of terrestrial biodiversity

10.2 Evaluation of the PALM project against 11 +1 criteria

10.3 Evaluation of the ‘Heart of Borneo’ project against 11 +1 criteria

11.1 Timetable for flood management planning

11.2 Examples of birds spotted in the Kruibeke area as reported in the annual inventories

14.1 Ecological criteria for establishing marine protected areas networks and their representation in international legislation

14.2 Representation of ecological criteria for establishing marine protected areas in US federal legislation

14.3 Representation of ecological criteria for establishing marine protected areas in Canadian federal legislation

14.4 Provisions for ecological criteria in selected California state legislation pertaining to the creation of marine protected areas

14.5 Provisions for ecological criteria in selected Oregon state legislation pertaining to the creation of marine protected areas

14.6 Provisions for ecological criteria in selected Washington State legislation pertaining to the creation of marine protected areas

14.7 Provisions for ecological criteria in selected Alaskan legislation pertaining to the creation of marine protected areas