HAVE YOU DEVELOPED AN ETHICS MEASURE?

Would you like to share it with other researchers so they can use it in their research? Our free website helps authors disseminate information about their high-quality ethics measures.

If you have a measure that would fit within the context of this book, you are invited to share information about it through our website portal:

ethics.byu.edu/research_companion/submission/

To access most of the measures mentioned in this Research Companion – and new measures, as they become available – please visit:
