

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
1. Megaregions: foundations, frailties, futures John Harrison and Michael Hoyler	1
2. Megaurban regions: epistemology, discourse patterns, big urban business Markus Hesse	29
3. Megaregions and the urban question: the new strategic terrain for US urban competitiveness David Wachsmuth	51
4. Beyond globalization: a historical urban development approach to understanding megaregions Alex Schafran	75
5. Five reasons why megaregional planning works against sustainability Stephen M. Wheeler	97
6. Conflicting spaces of governance in the imagined Great Lakes megaregion Michael R. Glass	119
7. Brave new 'megaregional worlds'? Reflections from a North European perspective Lukas Smas and Peter Schmitt	146
8. Globalization and the megaregion: investigating the evolution of the Pearl River Delta in a historical perspective Xu Zhang	175
9. Towards a megaregional future: analysing progress, assessing priorities in the US megaregion project Billy Fleming	200

10. Megaregions reconsidered: urban futures and the future of the urban 230
John Harrison and Michael Hoyler

Index 257