Figures

2.1 Percentage of population with a tertiary education certificate (by age group) in some OECD countries, 2013 11
2.2 Expenditure for research carried out by universities (HERD) as a percentage of GDP of various OECD countries, 1981–2012 12
2.3 Universities’ numerous contributions to the economy 16
3.1 Per capita GDP and share of over-25s who hold a degree in Italy, 2010 30
3.2 Per capita GDP and share of graduates in OECD countries, 2010 31
4.1 Share of research performed by universities (HERD) funded by government in some OECD countries, 1981–2011 67
4.2 Share of research performed by universities (HERD) funded by industry in some OECD countries, 1981–2011 70
5.1 Ratio of bachelors and masters degree students to staff (academic only, and all staff) 94
5.2a Share of international bachelors students 95
5.2b Share of international masters and doctoral students 96
5.3 Share of doctoral students over other students, and share of international doctoral students 97
5.4 Boxplot of the universities’ share of revenue derived from third-party funds, by country 98
5.5 Share of revenue from third-party funding versus share of revenue from private sources 99
5.6 A comparison of three performance indicators 100
6.1 Expenditure on universities as a percentage of GDP 104
6.2 Correlation between university fees and grants/loans, 2009/10 108
7.1 Effectiveness of collaboration types for achieving different objectives 155