
Index

- Afghanistan 216, 257
Africa 387
Algeria 41
'anti-globalisation' activism 105, 113, 114, 116
Arab Muslim societies 122
 MENA see MENA countries
Argentina 99
Australia 9
- Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action 457
Bosnia 283–4
Brazil 98–9, 100
Burma 247
- Canada 9
care and social reproduction see social reproduction Chile, SERNAM 100–101
cinema and film 317–24
 narratives of gender and world politics 317–19 war representations condundrum 319–21 world politics' shared phallogentrism 321–4 see also computer games
citizenship see gender and citizenship class and social privilege 112, 115, 188–9
colonialism see postcolonial feminisms
computer games 333–40
 benefits of 339–40
 content analyses of games 336
 gender stereotyping 333–5
 industry responses to girl market 335–6
 sexual objectification/moral attitudes 338–9
 violence and girls' aggressiveness 336–8
 see also cinema and film conflict-related sexual violence 206–13 approaches to understanding 208–11
 feminist security studies and 269
 masculinities-oriented 210–11, 292–3 rational approach 208
 socialisation approach 209–10
 structural approach 209
 as any form of sex-based violence 207 international community's responses 211–12
male victimization 207
UN Security Council Resolutions 206–7, 211, 271–8
 see also gender of violence in war and conflict
- Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW) 146–51
1999 Optional Protocol 146
adoption of 145, 408
articles overview 146–7
Committee's General Recommendations 147, 148–50 effectiveness and limitations 19, 148
reservations 147
criminal courts see international criminal courts
critical theory see feminist historical materialist theory and critical theory
- Democratic Republic of Congo 197, 201, 206, 209, 285
democratization see gender and democratization development scholarship 349–40 development see gender and development; gender and global restructuring; gender and sustainable development; gender and microfinance/microcredit
discursive structures 35–7

- homonationalism/protectionism 77
- popular culture see popular culture
- 'refugee women' as helpless victims 184–5
- security and 225, 276
 - 'maternal peacefulness' 299–300
 - UN conceptualisation 461–2
 - 'with all due respect to their sex' 174–6
- women and nature construct 450

- ecofeminism see gender and sustainable development
- economic sanctions 245–53
 - effectiveness and effects of 245–6
 - disruption/deterioration of livelihoods 246–8
 - increase in social disorder 248
 - empirical evidence on detrimental effects of 248–52
 - (CIRI) Human Rights dataset 249
 - women's economic rights 250–51
 - women's economic well-being 251–2
 - women's political rights 250
 - women's social status 250, 251
- overview 252–3
- economics see economic sanctions; feminist economics; feminist historical materialist and critical theory; feminist political economy; gender and development; gender and microfinance/microcredit; gender and migration; gender in global restructuring; globalisation, development and empowerment; international financial institutions' structural adjustment policies
- education 258
- Egypt 128, 129–31, 132
- empowerment 378–80, 430–31, 434–5
- environmental governance see sustainable development
- Eurocentric frameworks 67–8, 83, 91
- Europe/European Union
 - attitudes 238–9, 240
 - citizenship 83, 91–2, 367
 - and employment 368–9
- EU Asylum Directives 181
- European International Studies Association 471–3
- European Security Strategy 35
- jurisprudence 156–7

- 'female masculinity' 55
- female suicide bombing 215–22
 - prevalence and motivations of 215–16
 - profile of actors 217
 - studies: explanations and interpretations 219–21
 - future agenda 221–2
 - the term 'terrorism' 215
 - women's agency, gender as variable 218–19
- feminism
 - activism (1900 to present day)
 - first wave 95–6, 188–9, 281, 405–6
 - second wave (1970s to 1990s) 189–90, 406
 - third wave (1990s to present) 190–92, 407
 - democratization see gender and democratization
 - First International Women's Congress 187
 - key issues and debates 187–8
 - key strategies 407–10
 - MENA countries see MENA countries
 - scholarly writing on, overview 192–3
 - UN women's conferences 189–90
- methodologies see feminist methodologies
- theory and scholarship
 - concept of gender 63, 470–73
 - ecofeminism 447–9
 - historical materialist see feminist historical materialist and critical theory
 - in international law 139–42, 162
 - international relations see international relations

- postcolonial see postcolonial feminisms
- poststructuralist see poststructuralist feminist approaches
- private military and security companies 290, 293–5
- security studies see feminist security studies
- on the state 78–80
- transnational see transnational feminism
- on war and conflict 199–200, 321–4
- feminist economics 414–21
 - barriers encountered in 8–9
 - capitalism and social reproduction 27–8, 363–4
 - foundational disciplines 415
 - global development issues 355–8
 - mainstream economics and 414–15
 - measuring value of unpaid work 396–7
 - overview 420–21
 - policy contributions/objectives 417–20
 - gender-based methodologies 418–19
 - harmonization of family responsibilities 420
 - macroeconomic development policies 417–18
 - occupational segregation/employment discrimination 419–20
 - question of choice 415–16
 - question of domestic/caring labour 416
 - sexual division of labour 416
 - see also* feminist political economy
- feminist historical materialist and critical theory 24–30
- masculinism and 28–9
- postcolonial feminism and 45
- ‘renewed materialist feminism’ 82–3
- ‘social reproduction’, devaluation of 26–8
- social totality and ‘historical structures’ 24–6
- strategic silence of policy-making 29–30
- feminist IR see international relations (IR)
- feminist methodologies 66–72
 - commitment to political project 68–9, 417
 - Eurocentric frameworks 67–8
 - objectivity/situated knowledges 70–71
 - overview 71–2
 - recovering voices 66–7
 - strategic commitments, choice and reflexivity 69–70
- feminist political economy 345–53
 - development scholarship and 349–40
 - governance (global) scholarship and 350
 - key ideas 346–7
 - key practices 348–50
 - key works on 350–53
 - commercial sex 371–6
 - see also* feminist economics
- feminist security studies
 - focus, contribution and functionality 263–4
 - substantive issues and debates 264–6
 - key and current works 266–70
 - ‘a’ feminist perspective 267
 - cognitive frameworks/language 267–8
 - gender 19–20, 266–7
 - location, positionality and intersectionality 268–9
 - methodology 269–70
 - sexualized violence 269
 - ‘peace studies’ and ‘war studies’ 266
- Finland 87–8
- Foucault, Michel 37, 410
- France 41
- ‘gender empowerment’ 379–80, 430–31, 434–5
- gender and citizenship 85–92
- FEMCIT 92

- gendering citizenship 86–8
- global variations 87–8
- immigration regulations 366–8
- Marshall's socio-historical analysis 85–6, 88
- mediating citizenship 87
- reformulations of approach to 91–2
- sexual citizenship and geographies 88–90
- see also* identity politics
- gender and democratization 94–102
 - overview 101–2
 - political opportunities and barriers 97–8
 - constitution strategy 98
 - electoral strategy/quota laws 99
 - executive strategy 100–101
 - opposition to dictatorships 97–8
 - third wave activism and precedents 95–7, 130
- gender and development 378–84
 - care and unpaid work 383–4
 - global restructuring see gender and global restructuring
 - including men systematically 381–3
 - mainstreaming and empowerment 378–80
 - disappointment 378–9
 - sustainable development see gender and sustainable development
 - World Bank and gender equality 380–81
- gender and microfinance/microcredit 430–37
 - definitions and function 431–2
 - engendering: discipline and rule through 435–6
 - facilitating/organizing neoliberal purposes 433–4
 - gender empowerment as targeting strategy 434–5
 - Global Summit of Microcredit discourse 431–2
 - migration and see gender and migration
 - overview 436–7
- gender and migration 362–9
 - global transfer of labour 363–6
 - marriage 366
 - reproductive sectors 363–4
 - sex work 366
 - social reproduction 365
 - immigration regulation/nation-building 366–8
 - overview 368–9
 - regional spaces 367
 - valuation of knowledge 367
 - works on 356–7, 359
- gender and popular culture 312–14
- gender and security 225–32
 - gender inequality
 - and conflict resolution 228–30
 - and state conflict, studies 225–8
 - effects of conflict on 230–32
 - gender mainstreaming 461–3
 - Sexual Violence in Armed Conflict dataset 230–31
 - women as negotiators and mediators 229–30
- gender and sustainable development 446–53
 - (mis)conceptions based on woman/nature bond 449–51
 - climate change 451–2
 - ecofeminist interventions and UNCED+20 447–9
 - Agenda 21 and 448
 - international background to 446–7
 - overview 453
 - Planeta Femea 448
- gender as a concept
 - approaches to 1–2, 33
 - concept origination 60–62
 - feminist methodologies 66–7, 199–200
 - feminist theorizing 63, 470–73
 - and the human norm 63–4
 - masculinities and 51
 - overview of progress of 470–73
 - sex and/or gender 137–39
 - see also* gender as a variable
- gender as a variable 15–22
 - analytical category 79–80, 199–200
 - data collection challenges 17–19
 - mainstreaming implementation models 459–61

- overview 21–22
- research using 19–21
- usefulness of 15–17
- see also* gender as a concept
- gender differences in attitude to global security
 - hypotheses on 234–6
 - community and consensus 235
 - essentialist view 235
 - threat, risk and violence 234
 - international institutions 239–41
 - overview of survey data 242–3
 - political engagement of women and 241–2
 - war and use of force 236–9
- gender in global restructuring 354–61
 - issues and debates 354–8
 - scholarship in 359–61
 - early globalization studies 354
 - see also* globalisation, development and empowerment
- gender in international governance 405–12
 - gender mainstreaming 409–10
 - impact measurement 410–12
 - League of Nations and UN 405–7
 - legal strategies 407–8
- gender in international law see international law
- gender mainstreaming (UNCR 1325) 143, 284–6, 457–8, 461–2
 - development evaluations 378–9
 - peace and security policymaking 457–64
 - addressing shortcoming 464
 - evaluating 461–3
 - implementation models 459–61
 - UN systems 457–8
 - used at international level 138, 409–10, 412
- gender models 459–61
- gender of violence in war and conflict 197–203
 - Andrea Dworkin's Mercy 197, 201–2
 - everyday life as war 201–2
 - far-reaching sex-differentials 202–3
 - international organisations' approach to 197–8
 - Jean Paul's story, from Democratic Republic of Congo 197, 201
 - male victimization 200–201
 - overview 203
 - sexual violence, feminist approach to 198–9
 - Syrian experience 197, 202–3
 - Ziba's story, from Bosnia 197–8
 - see also* conflict-related sexual violence
- gender of work 438–45
 - economic sanctions and 246–8
 - equal remuneration 442–3
 - global inequalities 355–8, 443–4
 - International Labour Organization 438–40
 - reproductive labour and maternity 440–42
- gendered state, the 77–84
 - citizenship see gender and citizenship
 - current context (neoliberalization) 83–4
 - key issues in feminist theorizing 77
 - gender and the state 79–80
 - state as capitalist 79
 - state as patriarchal 78–9
 - state to non-Western countries 80
 - women's exclusion 78
 - the state reproduced 77, 80–83
 - 'renewed materialist feminism' and 82–3
 - 'state as person' 81
- Geneva Conventions 164, 171, 173
- Ghanaian traders 386–92
- Global Summit of Microcredit 431–2
- global transfer of labour 363–6
- globalisation, development and empowerment 386–92
 - Ghanaian traders and 386, 388–91
 - cross-border trade 388–9
 - inter-continental trade 389–90
 - intra-continental trade 389
- globalisation as neoliberal economic process 387
 - poor women and macroeconomics 417–18

- liberalisation as Janus-faced 390
- optimistic-pessimistic dichotomy 387–8
- see also* gender in global restructuring
- governance see international governance
- Grameen Bank 435
- health services 424–5
- hegemonic masculinity thesis 51–2, 63–4
- heteronormativity 59, 61, 138, 154, 313, 376, 467
- heterosexuality 451
- historical materialist and critical theory see feminist historical materialist and critical theory
- historicizing women's rights activism 128–30
- homosexuality 61, 154–6
- human rights 174, 187–93
 - securitisation of 256–61
 - treaties 408
- humanitarian law see international criminal courts; international humanitarian law
- identity politics 103–9
 - 'absolute identity' 34
 - identity and justice as incompatible 104, 108–9
 - identity politics as unitary and exclusive 105, 159
 - Making Feminist Sense of the Global Justice Movement* 105
 - masculinities 53–4
 - mobilisation of identity 105–8
 - affirmatively 107
 - assuming multiplicity and complexity 106
 - responding to oppressive power relations 105–6
 - through anger at injustice 106–7
 - Occupy movement and feminist critique 103–4
 - transnational feminism and 114, 118
 - see also* gender and citizenship
- India 10, 113, 120, 155
- information and communication technologies 326–32
- 'geospatial' and 'socio-spatial' circumstances 326–7
- impact on male dominance-science 328–30
- impact on women's networks 327–8
- STEM, masculinist culture of 329–30
- STEM, women and innovation 330–32
- see also* popular culture
- innovation 239–32
- International Committee of the Red Cross 171, 174–5
- international criminal courts 162–8
 - feminist activism and scholarship on 162–3
 - feminist advocacy, 'politics of presence' 163–5, 168
 - gendered subjectivity and gendered harms 165–7
 - humanitarian law see international humanitarian law
 - overview 167–8
- International Feminist Journal of Politics* 5, 6–7, 10
- international financial institutions' structural adjustment policies 30, 418, 422–8
- financial crisis and fiscal contraction 427–8
- introduction of PRSP 424–5
 - (neoliberal) conditional cash transfers 425
 - and gender issues 426–7
- microfinance/microcredit schemes 433
- overview 428
- transition to the PRSP approach 423–4
- international governance 350, 405–12
 - gender mainstreaming 409–10
 - impact measurement 410–12
 - League of Nations and UN 405–7
 - legal strategies 407–8
- international humanitarian law 171–6

- criminal courts see international criminal courts
 customary law and 174
 gender and 174–6
 combatant and civilian 176
 conception of honour and 172–3, 175–6
 Geneva Conventions 164, 173
 historical context of laws of war and
 gender 172–4
 concept of human dignity 174
 legitimation (ius ad bello and ius in bello) 173
 human rights law and 174
 role, state and military flexibility
 171–2
 International Labour Organization
 (ILO) 405–6, 438–45
 Equal Remuneration Convention 443
 Forced Labour Convention 443
 Minimum Wage-fixing Machinery
 Convention 442
 Recruiting of Indigenous Workers
 Convention 443–4
 Social Protection Floor 444–5
 Women with Family Responsibilities
 441 international law 137–43
 CEDAW see Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women defining legal standards 139
 definitions of gender in 137–8
 feminist analyses in 139–40
 feminist debate and critiques 141–2 humanitarian law 171–6
 LGBTI rights see LGBTI rights
 marginal or central 142–3 role of gender 139–40
 theory and practice, tensions 140–41
 UN Security Council Resolutions see
 United Nations
 International Monetary Fund (IMF)
 422, 423, 426–8
 international political economy (IPE)
 see feminist political economy international relations (IR) as a colonial site 44–7
 feminist scholarship in 50, 52–3
 complex and ‘forgotten’ worlds
 467–73
 International Feminist Journal of Politics 6–7
 methodologies 7, 66–72
 reproducing the state 80–84
 security studies 263–4
 the state see gendered state, the working at the margins 5–11
 international law see international law
 popular culture and see popular culture
 transnational feminism see
 transnational feminism
 variables used in research 15–22
 internationalism 119
 Iraq 216–17, 247–8
 Israel 216, 302

 Japanese feminist groups 301
 justice and identity politics see identity
 politics

 Kenya 183
 Kosovo 283

 labour see gender of work law see Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women; humanitarian law; international criminal courts;
 international law; League of Nations; LGBTI rights;
 non-government organisations;
 refugees and asylum
 Lebanon 87
 lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and intersex see LGBTI rights LGBTI rights 153–61
 academic cis-gendered research and 375–6
 advance across domestic and
 international law 156–9
 academic analyses of 156
 judicial calls for change, and policy actors 156–7

- international conventions and 157–8
- International Lesbian and Gay Association 157
- internationalism versus imperialism 159–61
 - the ‘human’ in human rights 160
 - legal history of homosexuality 154–6
 - restrictions on, and intersections 90, 153–4
- UN Human Rights Committee 158
- Yogyakarta 158
- Liberia 228–9
- Libya 127, 130, 239

- mainstreaming see gender
 - mainstreaming
- marginalisation/marginality
 - as advantageous 6–8, 142–3
 - as limiting 8–10
 - ‘casual forgetting’ 471–3
 - masculinities and 52
 - ‘social reproduction’, devaluation of 26–8
 - ‘strategic silence’ of policy-making 29–30
- Marxist influences 24–5, 79, 416
- ‘masculinism’ (rational economic man) 28–9
 - discursive formulations 36
- masculinities 50–56
 - as practices and social relations 51–3
 - changing nature of 55–6
 - effects of (the soldier ideal) 53–4
 - environmental management and 450
 - the generic human norm 61, 63–4
 - hegemonic masculinity 51–2, 282–3, 298, 328
 - ‘masculinist restoration’ 131–2
 - peace activism 300–301
 - place in gender theory 50–51, 290–92
 - private military and security industry see private military and security industry
 - in science, technology and innovation 329–30
 - understanding conflict-related violence 210–11, 276–7
- ‘maternalism’ 299–300
- maternity and reproductive labour 440–42
- media see information and communication technologies
- MENA countries (protest and politics) 122, 127–33
 - failure to historicize women’s involvement 128–30
 - national/religious/ethnic based controls 130–32
 - secular/Islamic binary 132
 - Shariah* law 147
 - state co-option and status quo 129
 - women’s position post–2011 uprisings 127–8
 - overview of impact 132–3
- microfinance/microcredit see gender and microfinance/microcredit
- migration see gender and migration
- Millennium Development Goal (MDG) 378–80

- neoliberal politics 83–4, 357–60, 387, 425
 - microfinance see microfinance/microcredit
- Nigeria 257
- non-government organisations (NGOs) as MFIs 433
 - ‘dual-facing’ nature of 113
- feminist activism (1900 to present day) 187–93
 - first wave 188–9
 - second wave (1970s and 1980s) 189–90
 - third wave (1990s to present) 190–92
 - key issues and debates 187–8
 - overview of scholarly writing on 192–3
 - UN women’s conferences 189–90
- Northern Ireland 260
- Norway 396

- Occupy movement 103–9, 359

- Pakistan 216
- patriarchy 78–9, 82, 121–2, 131, 209

- peace activism 298–304
 and ‘global war on terror’ 303–4 anti-militarisation 301
 anti-militarism (1980s–2016) 302–3 gender mainstreaming in 461–3
 historically specific constructions 299
 masculinities and 300–301
 ‘maternalism’ 299–30
 ‘protector and the protected’ 302
 Women, Peace and Security resolutions 271–3
- peace and security policymaking 457–64
 addressing shortcomings 464
 evaluating 461–3
 gender models 459–61
 UN systems 457–8
- peacekeeping 280–87
 conflict resolution 20, 45, 228–30
 personnel and military masculinity 285–6 recent literature on 286–7
 sexual abuse and exploitation 283–4
 UN operations 280–81
 UNCR (1325) 273–5, 284–6
 women’s organisations and placement 281–3
- political economy see feminist political economy
- politics of location 44
- popular culture 309–16
 cinema and film 317–24
 war representations conundrum 319–21
 world politics’ shared phallocentrism 321–4
- computer games 333–40
 benefits of 339–40
 content analyses of games 336
 gender stereotyping 333–5
 industry responses to girl market 335–6
 sexual objectification/moral attitudes 338–9
 violence and girls’ aggressiveness 336–8
- consumption of 314–16
- definition conundrums 310–11
 gender and 312–14
 gendered dynamics of 309–10
 intersect with world politics 315–16, 321–4
 IR and 310–12
 ‘male gaze’ 311, 322
 narrative, function of 313–14
see also information and communication technologies
- positivism 9, 26
- postcolonial feminisms 41–8
 Eurocentric frameworks 67–8, 123
 feminism and 42–4, 80
 focus of 41–2, 44
 IR and 44–6
 gender oppression 46–7
 overview 47–8
 sexuality 60, 155
- poststructuralist feminist approaches 33–40
 deconstructing discourses 35–7, 80–81, 82 foundational approaches 37–8
 overview 39–40
 poststructuralism, broadly defined 34–5
 subjectification 38–40
- poverty reduction see international financial institutions’ structural adjustment policies; gender and microfinance/microcredit
- Poverty Reduction Strategy Paper (PRSP) 422–8
- power see subjectification and power
- private military and security industry 289–96
 codes of conduct 293
 gender mainstreaming and sexual exploitation 292–3 gender-sensitive scholarship 290–92 contractors and identity 291–2 personnel numbers 289
- problem-solving theory 26
- quantitative methods 8, 69–70
- quota laws 99

- racial dimensions 25, 77, 120–21, 124
 - colonial aspects see postcolonial feminisms
- rape 107, 120, 130–31
 - as ‘weapon of war’ 36, 208, 230, 269
 - criminalisation of 141–2, 163–7
 - war rape 197–203
 - see also* sexual abuse
- Red Cross 171, 174–5
- refugees and asylum 179–85
 - data (conflated) on women and children 179–80
 - detention centres 182–4
 - global norms as obstacle to gender equality 184–5
 - grounds for refugee status 180–81
 - UN High Commissioner for Refugees 179, 183, 185
 - Guidelines and their limitations 180–82
- religion 97, 132, 172–3, 217
- reproductive labour 364–5, 372, 440–42
- Russia 216, 302
- Rwanda 162, 163, 164–5, 166, 206

- Saussure, Ferdinand de 34
- science, technology and innovation 329–32
- securitisation of human rights
 - counter-terrorism literature 260
 - domestic politics and 258–60
 - gendered concerns with ‘ways of life’ 258
 - Muslim women and 259–60
 - ‘protection racket’ paradox 259
 - field and mundane operating in tandem 255
 - idealised Western imaginary 256
 - women tactically targeted, military response 257
 - NGO agenda remit 256–7
 - overview 260–61
- security see feminist security studies; gender and security; gender and state conflict; gender differences in attitudes to global security; private military and security industry; securitisation of human rights
- Serbia 274
- sex work 366, 370–76
 - as sustaining structural inequalities 371–3
 - economic study of 371
 - individual agency (power and resistance) 373–5
 - queer theorizing 375–6
- sex, gender and sexuality 58–64
 - citizenship and 88–90
 - computer game characters 333–4, 338–9
 - elision of biological sex and gender 137–8, 175
 - gender, the concept
 - as transnational technology 61–2
 - gender equality 62
 - gender science 62
 - origination 60–61
 - generic human 63–4
 - LGBTI rights see LGBTI rights
 - originating gender research 60–62
 - sustainable development rhetoric 451
 - ‘woman’ and heteronormative project 58–9
 - ‘woman,’ the concept 60
- sexual abuse 206–13, 269, 283–4, 292–3
 - see also* rape
- sexual violence see conflict-related sexual violence; gender of violence in war and conflict; rape
- Shariah* law 147
- Sierra Leone 165–6, 228–9, 282
- social reproduction 394–401
 - care and 397–8
 - definition and course of debate 394–5
 - current developments 398–401
 - ‘depletion’ 398
 - devaluation/non-recognition of 26–8, 394, 398, 400–401
 - gender and development issues 383–4
 - measurement of value of unpaid work 396–7

- reproductive labour 364–5, 372, 440–42
- UN System of National Accounts 396
- social services 424
- South Africa 99
- South America 97–8
- Sri Lanka 216, 230
- STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) 329–32
- structural adjustment policies see international financial institutions' structural adjustment policies
- subjectification and power 37, 78, 38–40
 - within criminal law courts 165–7
 - heteronormativity 59, 61, 138, 154, 313, 376, 467
 - masculinities and 51–2
- suicide bombing see female suicide bombing
- sustainable development see gender and sustainable development
- Syria 127–8, 130, 197, 202–3, 207, 216

- Third World women 64, 141
- transnational activist networks (TANs) 112, 115–16
- transnational feminism 110–16
 - 'anti-globalisation' groups 114
 - as a site of controversy 112–13
 - 'insider' versus 'outsider' approaches 112–13
 - co-optation 113–14
 - non-representational nature of 112, 114, 118, 120
 - transnational activist networks and social movements 115–16
- definition, history and protagonists 110–12
 - class privilege 115
- solidarity question 118–25
 - 'authentic' voice argument 122–3, 124
 - censure and non-engagement 122–3
 - empathetic critique proposition 123–4
 - global West–South divide 120–21
 - international to transnational process 119
 - ominous signs 118–19
 - selective silences 120–21
 - third wave feminism 118–19, 124–5
 - transnational activist networks (TANs) 115–16
 - usefulness as a social movement 115–16
- Tunisia 128, 129

- United Kingdom of Great Britain 9
 - citizenship 85
 - Greenham Common 264, 302–3
 - LGBTI activism and rights 153, 154–5
 - Northern Ireland 260
 - refugee detention 183
 - security policy 258
- United Nations 260, 366
 - CEDAW see Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women
 - Commission on the Status of Women 439
 - Conference on Environment and Development 447–9, 451
 - Conference on the Human Environment 446
 - definition of gender 137–9
 - ECOSOC (1997/2) 409, 457
 - German Marshall Fund survey 240
 - High Commissioner for Refugees 179, 180–82, 183, 185
 - Human Rights Committee 158
 - human rights instruments 145
 - peacekeeping operations 280–81
 - Platform for Action 417
 - Security Council Resolutions 206–7, 211, 256
 - (UNCR 1325) 138, 142, 230, 271–8
 - mainstreaming 143, 284–6, 457–8, 461–2
 - (UNCR 1820) 271–2, 286

- (UNCR 1888, 1889, 1960, 2106 and 2122) 272–3
- Women, Peace and Security 271–8
- 1993 UN System of National Accounts 396
- transnational feminism and 111
- Women's Conferences 119, 189–90
- United States of America 6, 9
 - attitudes to troop deployment 238
 - Global Summit of Microcredit 431–2
 - hegemony 6
 - immigration 366
 - International Women's Year conference (1975) 94
 - Occupy Wall Street (OWS) 103–4, 107–8
 - Washington Consensus model 29–30, 94, 424
- Vienna World Conference on Human Rights 148
- violence see gender in violence; rape; sexual abuse; war and conflict
- war and conflict 16
 - as representational/cinematic 321–4
 - combatant socialisation 209–10
 - criminal courts see international criminal courts
 - female suicide bombings 215–17
 - gender inequality and 230–32
 - gendered differences in attitude to 234, 236–9
 - gendered violence see gender of violence
 - Geneva Conventions 164, 171, 173
 - global South/West divide 120
 - harms of masculine identity 53–4, 200–201, 315
 - humanitarian law see international humanitarian law
 - MENA countries' uprisings 127–33
 - Middle Eastern conflict 120
 - private military and security operations 289–96
 - rape as a 'weapon of war' 36, 208, 230, 269
 - refugees and asylum 179–85
 - 'woman' 60, 66–7
 - and heteronormative project 58–9, 130
 - as object of male cultural gaze 311, 322
 - WomanStats project 20
 - Women in Global Science and Technology 329, 330
 - women's rights 16–17, 19
 - Women, Peace and Security resolutions 271–8
 - national action plans (NAPs) 273, 274–5, 458, 461, 463
 - Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF) 281
 - work see gender of work
 - World Bank 29, 358, 380–81, 433, 434–5
 - structural adjustment policies see international financial institutions' structural adjustment policies
 - World Development Report 2012: Gender Equality and Development* 380–81
 - World Economic Forum 358
 - World Social Forums 105
 - Yugoslav wars 162, 163–5, 166, 206, 207