Contributors

Alemanno, Alberto is Jean Monnet Professor of EU Law and Risk Regulation at Ecole des Etudes Commerciales (HEC), Paris and Global Clinical Professor at NYU School of Law, where he runs the EU Public Interest Clinic. Alberto’s research focuses on the role of evidence and public input in policymaking and adjudication. Due to his commitment to bridge the gap between academic research and policy action, he regularly provides advice to a variety of organizations, such as the European Commission, the European Parliament, the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, World Health Organization, and numerous NGOs and governments across the world. Originally from Italy, he holds LLM degrees from the College of Europe and Harvard Law School and a PhD in International Law and Economics from Bocconi University. He is the Editor-in-Chief of the European Journal of Risk Regulation, a member of the Editorial Board of the Revue du Droit de l’Union Européenne and is the founder of the Summer Academy in Global Food Law and Policy. He is a qualified lawyer attorney at law in New York.

Allen, Franklin is the Executive Director of the Brevan Howard Centre and Professor of Finance and Economics at Imperial College London. He is on leave from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania where he is the Nippon Life Professor of Finance and Professor of Economics. He has been on the faculty there since 1980. He is Co-Director of the Wharton Financial Institutions Center. He was formerly Vice-Dean and Director of Wharton Doctoral Programs, Executive Editor of the Review of Financial Studies and is currently Managing Editor of the Review of Finance. He is a past President of the American Finance Association, Western Finance Association, Society for Financial Studies, Financial Intermediation Research Society and Financial Management Association, and a Fellow of the Econometric Society. He received his doctorate from Oxford University. Dr Allen’s main areas of interest are corporate finance, asset pricing, financial innovation, comparative financial systems and financial crises. He is a co-author with Richard Brealey and Stewart Myers of the eighth through eleventh editions of the textbook Principles of Corporate Finance.
Contributors

Brean, Donald is a Professor of Finance and Business Economics at Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto. Donald teaches courses in International Finance and International Economics. His research interests centre on international investment, public finance and economic policy, specifically in economies in transition. He was the former Director of Centre d’Etudes de la France et du Monde Francophone.

Cafaggi, Fabrizio is Professor of Comparative Law at the School of National Administration (SNA) and Director of the Centre for Judicial Cooperation at the European University Institute (EUI) in Florence. He is the Director of a Master’s programme in Behavioural Sciences and Administration at SNA/Libera università studi sociali. He is a former Professor of Comparative Law at the EUI, founding member and member of the Council of the European Law Institute and member of the American Law Institute. He has been a Visiting Professor at Columbia Law School, New York University School of Law, University of Pennsylvania Law School and at the San Andres Law School in Argentina. He is currently collaborating with Unidroit for a Guide on contract farming and with the Food and Agriculture Organization and International Fund for Agricultural Development on public–private partnerships in agriculture. The current subjects of his research include transnational private regulation, global supply chains and contractual governance, network contracts, European private law, judicial dialogue and remedies in EU law.

Carletti, Elena is Professor of Finance at Bocconi University. Prior to this she was Professor of Economics at the European University Institute, where she held a joint chair in the Economics Department and the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies. She is also Research Fellow at the Centre for Economic Policy Research, Extramural Fellow at the Tilburg Law and Economics Centre, Fellow at the Centre for Financial Studies, at the Centre for Economic Studies and Ifo Institute, at the Innocenzo Gasparini Institute for Economic Research, and at the Wharton Financial Institutions Center. Her main research areas are financial intermediation, financial crises and regulation, competition policy and corporate governance. She has published numerous articles in leading academic journals, and has co-edited various books. She has worked as consultant for the OECD and the World Bank, and she has served in the review panel of the Irish Central Bank and of the Riskbank. She has also been a board member of the Financial Intermediation Research Society and a review panel member for the creation of Financial Market Centres in Stockholm. She has been a member of the Scientific Committee of Confindustria since 2014. She participates regularly in policy debates and roundtables at central banks and international organizations and has also organized numerous academic and policy-oriented events.

Cremona, Marise is Professor of European Law at the European University Institute (EUI) in Florence. Between 2009 and June 2012 she was Head of the Law Department and between June 2012 and August 2013 she was President ad interim of the EUI. She is a Co-Director of the Academy of European Law and General Editor (together with Professors Loic Azoulai and Nehal Bhuta) of The Collected Courses of the Academy of European Law. Until 2006 she was Professor of European Commercial Law, Centre for Commercial Law Studies at Queen Mary, University of London. She is also a member of the International Advisory Board of the Centre for European Research, University of Göteborg; member of the Advisory Board of the European Foreign Affairs Review; and a member of the Editorial Board of the European Law Review.

Duquet, Sanderijn (Master of Laws, Ghent U. and LL.M. International Legal Studies, American U. Washington College of Law) is PhD Fellow at the Research Foundation – Flanders (FWO), the Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies and the Institute for International Law, University of Leuven. Sanderijn is preparing a PhD on the contribution of the European Union to international diplomatic and consular law. She has published on topics such as diplomatic and consular law, EU external relations, foreign direct investment and informal international law-making.

Garde, Amandine is Professor of Law at the University of Liverpool. She previously lectured at King’s College London, where she obtained her PhD; at the Faculty of Law in Cambridge, where she was also a Fellow of Selwyn College; at the University of Exeter and at the University of Durham. Her research interests lie in the fields of EU internal market, consumer, advertising, food and public health law. In particular, she has developed an expertise on the legal aspects of obesity prevention and other risk factors for non-communicable diseases such as tobacco and excessive alcohol consumption. Her book EU Law and Obesity Prevention was the first to offer a critical analysis of the EU’s Obesity Prevention Strategy. She is Co-Editor (with Alberto Alemanno) of Regulating Lifestyle Risks: The EU, Alcohol, Tobacco and Unhealthy Diets. As one of the few legal experts on the prevention of non-communicable diseases, she has been invited to take part in a broad range of policy initiatives for – among others – the World Health Organization, the Directorate General of the European Commission for Health and Consumers, the UK Government, the Scottish Government, the Swedish
Contributors

Institute for European Policy Studies, and the National Institute for Health Education and Promotion and the National Institute for Health and Medical Research in France. Amandine Garde spent a year as a postdoctoral Jean Monnet Fellow at the European University Institute in Florence in 2005–2006 and is a qualified solicitor, having trained at Simmons & Simmons in their London and Paris offices.

Herberger, Tim is a research and teaching assistant at the Department of Finance, Bamberg University. He received his PhD from Bamberg University and his MSc degree in finance from the Friedrich-Alexander-University Erlangen-Nuremberg. His fields of interest include risk management, behavioural finance, valuation of intangible assets, financing in higher education, mergers and acquisitions, and initial public offerings and sport finance and management.

Höfer, Andreas, MSc, Bamberg.

Kobrak, Christopher is Professor Emeritus of Finance at the ESCP Europe and currently teaches financial and business history at the Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto. An International Fellow at the Centre for Corporate Reputation, Oxford University, he serves on the Editorial Boards of several business history journals. He holds the following degrees: a BA in Philosophy from Rutgers University; an MBA in Finance and Accounting and a PhD in Business History, both from Columbia University; and the French Habilitation in Management from the University of Toulouse. A CPA and former business practitioner, his publications include History and Financial Crisis: Lessons from the 20th Century (ed. with Mira Wilkins), Banking on Global Markets: Deutsche Bank and the United States, 1870 to the Present and European Business, Dictatorship and Political Risk, 1920–1945 (edited with Per Hansen), as well as journal articles on a wide range of business and financial topics.

Ladeur, Karl-Heinz is Professor Emeritus of Public Law at the University of Hamburg; he was also Distinguished Bremen Professor at the Bremen International Graduate School of Social Sciences and Professor at the European University Institute Florence. He is Doctor Honoris Causa of Fribourg University and has also worked as legal advisor of German public broadcasting stations (ARD, ZDF).

Micklitz, Hans-W. is Professor for Economic Law at the European University Institute in Florence. He is also Jean Monnet Chair of Private Law and European Economic Law at the University of Bamberg (on leave) and Head of the Institute of European and Consumer Law in...
Bamberg. He took Studies of Law and Sociology in Mainz, Lausanne, Geneva, Giessen and Hamburg. He has acted as a Consultant for many public and private organizations, including the OECD in Paris, UNEP Geneva/Nairobi and Consumers International Den Haag/Penang (Malaysia). He has also acted as an advisor for ministries in Austria, Germany, the UK, the European Commission, OECD, UNEP, the Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit and other non-governmental organizations. He was Visiting Scholar at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor; Jean Monnet Fellow at the European University Institute Florence; Visiting Professor at the Somerville College at the University of Oxford; and co-founder of the Centre of Excellence at the University of Helsinki. He is holder of an ERC Grant 2011–2016 on European Regulatory Private Law.

Oehler, Andreas is Full Professor at Bamberg University and has held the Chair of Finance there since 1994. He received his PhD at the University of Mannheim and his Habilitation degree at the University of Hagen. He has published widely, in particular in the area of credit risk management, banking, behavioural and empirical finance, and investor protection. His fields of interest also include financial markets, retirement provisions/funded pension plans, pension systems, consumer protection, personal finance and household finance. Since 2012 he has been Director of the Research Centre ‘Household Finance and Financial Literacy’. He is a member of various expert committees, including Chairman of the Board of the Stiftung Warentest, Germany’s leading product-testing institute, and the German Council of Consumer Policy Experts.

Tridimas, Takis is Professor of European Law at the Dickson Poon School of Law of King’s College London and Director of the Centre of European Law. He is also the Nancy A. Patterson Distinguished Faculty Scholar and Professor at Pennsylvania State University and a Visiting Professor at the College of Europe, Bruges. He has acted as advisor to many public and private organizations, including the European Central Bank, the European Parliament, the European Commission and the EU Court of Auditors. He was senior legal advisor to the EU Presidency (2003) and Chairman of the Committee set up by the EU Council of Ministers to draft the Treaty of Accession of 2003 by which ten new States joined the EU. He is a barrister of England and Wales and a qualified advocate in Greece.

van Asselt, Marjolein B.A. holds the Risk Governance chair at Maastricht University. From January 2008 until July 2014 she was also a member of the Scientific Council for Government Policy (Wetenschappelijke Raad voor het Regeringsbeleid). In July 2014 she was appointed a member of the Dutch Safety Board. She studied Computer Science and Philosophy of Science, Technology and Society at the University of Twente and obtained her PhD at the Faculty of General Sciences, Maastricht University (2000). She was Visiting Scholar at King’s Centre for Risk Management, London, and at Saïd Business School, Oxford University. From 2005–2010, she was a member of the Young Academy (De Jonge Akademie) of the Dutch Royal Academy of Sciences, being a member of the first board.
Contributors

Vieweg, Klaus is Director of the Institute of Law and Technology (Institut für Recht und Technik), Chair for Civil Law, Law of Information Technology, Law of Technology and Business at the Law School of Friedrich-Alexander University Erlangen-Nuremberg. He is also a member of the Acatech German Academy of Sciences of Technology. His selected publications can be found at: http://www.irut.jura.uni-erlangen.de/Forschung/Veroeffentlichungen/Veroeffentlichungen.html.

Vos, Ellen is Professor of European Union Law at the Law Faculty of Maastricht University. She is Co-Director of the Maastricht Centre for European Law of Maastricht University. She is also research coordinator of the research programme ‘Integration, Differentiation and Flexibility: New Perspectives on EU Law and Policy’ under the umbrella of the Ius Commune Research school. She studied Law at the Universities of Utrecht and Bologna. She was a trainee at the European Commission, the European Consumer Organization and the European Court of Justice. She wrote and obtained her PhD in Law at the European University Institute in Florence. She was a Jean Monnet Fellow at the Robert Schuman Centre of the European University Institute. From 2001–2005 she served as the Director of the advanced master programme in Comparative, European and International Law, Magister Iuris Communis programme of the Law Faculty of Maastricht University.

Wendt, Stefan is Assistant Professor of Finance at the School of Business of Reykjavik University. From March 2005 until March 2015 he was Research and Teaching Assistant at the Department of Finance at Bamberg University, where he received his PhD in 2010. His fields of interest include financial markets and asset pricing, risk management, corporate finance and governance, small and medium-sized enterprises, behavioural finance and financial intermediation.
Wouters, Jan is Jean Monnet Chair ad personam EU and Global Governance, Full Professor of International Law and International Organizations, and founding Director of the Institute for International Law and of the Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies, an interdisciplinary centre of excellence, at the University of Leuven (KU Leuven). As Visiting Professor at Sciences Po (Paris), Luiss University (Rome) and the College of Europe (Bruges) he teaches EU External Relations Law. He is a member of the Royal Academy of Belgium for Sciences and Arts, and President of the United Nations Association, Flanders Belgium. He also practises Law as Of Counsel at Linklaters, Brussels. He is Editor of the International Encyclopedia of Intergovernmental Organizations, Deputy Director of the Revue belge de droit international, and an Editorial Board member of ten international journals. He has published widely on international, EU, corporate and financial law (including 50 books, 100 international journal articles and 150 chapters in international books). He is coordinator of a large-scale FP7 Programme FRAME, ‘Fostering Human Rights Among European (External and Internal) Policies’ and of the InBev-Baillet Latour EU China Chair at KU Leuven.