

Index

- Abbott, A. 60
- abuse
- dominance and dominant position
 - abuse see dominance and dominant position abuse
 - EU, order to cease application of abusive practices 220
 - EU, types identified by NCAs 216–18
 - information see informational abuses and informational remedies
 - internet markets, index exclusion abuse 255–7
 - internet markets, preferential treatment and privileging own services, abuse through 254–5
 - internet retail trading, abusive behaviour through rating practices 251
- accountability see transparency
- administrative burden reduction programmes 140–42
- administrative courts, initial position taken by 163–5
- advertising, internet markets 239–40, 242–3, 251–2, 258, 260–62, 266
- advocacy
- consumers' benefits 128, 149
 - cooperation between competition authorities and regulators 126–7
 - see also* competition impact assessment; hybridization; regulatory impact assessment
- AGCM (Italian Competition Authority) see under Italy
- age of information, effects of, under Articles 101 and 102 TFEU 328–9
- Albania 208, 218, 221, 224, 226
- Albert, R. 53
- Alesina, A. 120
- Alexiadis, P. 245
- Allegra, E. 120
- Almunia, J. 154, 256–7, 259, 261, 298, 299
- Amato, G. 120, 178
- Anderman, S. 343, 373, 377, 379, 386
- Andersson, H. 91, 106
- anticompetitive behaviour
- market exclusion due to
 - anticompetitive agreement entered into by competitors 378–9
 - market inquiries, refuting mistaken assumptions 101
 - potential of strategic patent filings 345–8
 - prohibition of anticompetitive agreements to standard-setting 374–85
 - see also* dominance and dominant position abuse
- anticompetitive harm to consumers see consumer welfare
- antitrust see competition law; competition policy
- Areeda, P. 3, 110, 311
- Arezzo, E. 301, 341–64
- Arrow, K. 371
- Arthur, C. 257
- Aubert, C. 49, 58–9
- Australia 121, 134, 136, 139, 338
- Ayal, A. 27–62, 105
- Ayres, I. 4, 30
- Baehr, J. 191
- Baer, M. 79
- Bailey, D. 91, 156, 240
- Baker, D. 11

- Baldwin, R. 5, 6, 9, 144, 265, 302
 Banasiński, C. 181, 185, 192, 195
 Banks, K. 348
 Barabási, A. 53
 Barone, G. 120
 Baumol, W. 36, 50, 57
 Baye, M. 58
 behavioural remedies see remedies
 Beier, F. 351
 Bender, B. 74
 Benkler, Y. 53
 Bennett, M. 329
 Bernatt, M. 179
 Bessen, J. 346
 Biber, E. 111
 Bishop, S. 177
 Błachucki, M. 180
 Black, J. 6
 Blaug, M. 22
 Blumenthal, W. 11, 59
 Bobińska, B. 178, 181
 Bone, R. 66
 Borenstein, S. 48
 Bork, R. 10, 65, 249, 252, 253, 330–31
 Bosnia and Herzegovina 208, 216–17,
 218, 219, 221, 224
 Botta, M. 75, 206–35
 Boudreaux, D. 57
 Bożekowska-Zawisza, K. 184
 Braithwaite, J. 4–5, 6, 30
 Brennan, T. 31, 56
 Breyer, S. 13, 31, 32, 302
 broadband access regulation
 Japan see Japan, broadband access regulation see also internet; telecommunications sector
 Brock, G. 49
 Brosseau, E. 81, 85
 Bulgaria 208, 218, 219–20
 BTC telecommunications margin-squeeze case 221–2, 223
 District Heating Plant Rouse 221, 223
 Burstein, D. 248 business model problem-solving innovation 79, 82
 see also problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement
 Calabresi, G. 24
 Caminal, R. 48
 Canada 93, 94, 105–6, 121, 132
 Candido, A. 314
 Capobianco, A. 325, 338
 Caponigro, R. 159 capture theory see under regulatory breakthrough of competition law
 Cardoso, G. 53
 Carlton, D. 15, 56
 Caronna, F. 153–73, 246
 Carrier, M. 357, 388 cartels and patent pools 380–83 problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement 79–80 see also dominance and dominant position abuse; monopolies
 Cass, R. 10, 13
 Castells, M. 53, 365–6
 Catan, T. 66
 Cavallo, L. 129
 cease-and-desist orders 14, 318 censorship concerns, internet markets 248
 Che, Y. 37
 Cheng, J. 357
 Chicago School economics 13–14, 16,
 18–25, 65–6, 68, 69
 Childers, S. 322
 China 248
 Chon, G. 66
 Christiansen, A. 70–71, 85
 Cingano, F. 120
 Claici, A. 48
 Clarich, M. 127
 Coen, D. 29
 Coglianese, C. 8, 33
 Cohen, W. 346 collective dominance 317, 328, 333, 336 see also informational abuses and informational remedies
 Collins, P. 329

- collusion to provide misleading information 316–18, 338
 - see also* informational abuses and informational remedies
- Comparato, G. 82
- compensation awards and reaction
 - times, industry-specific regulation 40
- competition advocacy see advocacy
- competition authorities
 - involvement, competition advocacy and competition impact assessment role 146–50
 - and market inquiries see market inquiries performed by competition authorities
 - see also* individual countries
- competition filter questions,
 - competition advocacy and competition impact assessment role 135–6
- competition impact assessment 118–50
 - administrative burden reduction programmes 140–42
 - advantages and potential drawbacks of competition impact assessment 142–5
 - competition authority involvement 146–50
 - competition authority involvement, priority setting 148–9
 - competition authority involvement, subsequent action, effects on 150
 - ‘do nothing’ option 131, 133, 136, 142
 - entry barrier restrictions 135
 - evidence-based decisions, facilitating 143
 - ex ante* 133–8, 144, 145, 146
 - ex post* 138–42, 145
 - ex post*, regulatory baseline 139
 - guillotine system 139
 - justification of final decisions 131
 - procedural choices and avoidance of disproportionality 148
 - retrospective and periodic review of existing significant regulations 140
 - SME test 137–8, 140, 141, 143
 - standard cost model (SCM) and administrative costs 140–42
 - transparency and stakeholder input in rule-making 142–3
- competition law
 - competition enhanced by good regulation hypothesis 119–22
 - enforcement of access to broadband networks see Japan, broadband access regulation, competition law enforcement of access to broadband networks
 - intellectual property rights and competition law intersections 343–5, 359, 361–2
 - internet markets see internet markets, competition law to
 - sector-specific regulation as regulation see industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition regulation; Poland, regulatory approach to competition law
 - regulatory breakthrough see regulatory breakthrough of competition law
 - sector-specific regulation relationship 209–12
 - see also* industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition regulation; sector-specific regulation and competition law, relationship between static versus dynamic efficiency, Japan, broadband access regulation 269–72
 - competition law as limit to standard-setting 365–95
 - competing technology and nondisclosure or deceptive behaviour 386–8
 - competition by substitution 380

- 'exceptional circumstance' doctrine 390, 391
- exclusionary standard and group boycott 383–5
- FRAND terms 382–3, 388–9, 390, 391, 394–5
- 'future goods' market concept 388
- horizontal effects of standard-setting 379–80
- infrastructure standards 371–2
- International Standardization Organization (ISO) standards classification 368–71
- interoperability and infrastructure standards under competition law 379–85, 387, 389–91
- interoperability standards 369–70, 371
- limits to competition policy and law 368–73
- market exclusion due to
 - anticompetitive agreement entered into by competitors 378–9
- misuse of standard-setting procedure 376
- network effects and tipping 372–3
- patent ambush 386–7, 388–9
- patent pools and cartels 380–83
- patent pools and cartels, and violation of Article 102 TFEU 383
- performance standards 369, 376
- procedural rules, need for more stringent 392–5
- product and prescriptive standards 370–71
- product and prescriptive standards, assessment under competition law 374–9, 381, 385
- prohibition of abuse of dominant position and monopolization 385–91
- prohibition of anticompetitive agreements to standard-setting 374–85
- royalty rates 382, 386, 387, 390, 391, 395
- safe harbour for standardization agreements and Horizontal Guidelines 375–6, 394
- scrutiny and review of standards 373, 377–8, 392–5
- standard development organization (SDO) 374
- standard-setting organizations (SSOs), growth of 365–6
- technical merits of standards, judging 369, 372, 374–5, 377–8, 379–80
- WTO principles 393
- competition policy
 - antitrust liability immunity and 'state action defence', Poland, regulatory approach to competition law 194–5, 205
 - antitrust violation proof requirements, market inquiries performed by competition authorities 107–8
 - becoming regulated 38–41
 - becoming regulated, dangers of 55–61
 - comparison with industry-specific regulation 38–41
 - constraints on firms, industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition regulation 33–4
 - see also* competition law; industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition regulation; problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement, EU; regulatory breakthrough of competition law
 - compliance, outsourcing of, with informational remedies 322–3
 - see also* informational abuses and informational remedies
 - constitutional issues, market inquiries performed by competition authorities 104–8

- consumer welfare
 - anticompetitive harm to, and intellectual property regulation 355, 356
 - benefits, and competition advocacy 128, 149
 - industry-specific regulation 42–3, 44, 46
 - Japan, broadband access regulation 269–71
 - Poland 186, 187–8, 202–3
 - problem-solving 73, 75, 84
 - protection, sector-specific regulation see sector-specific regulation and competition law, relationship between, consumer protection
 - public choice theory 19, 35, 38, 59, 60–61
 - public policy decisions and democratic mandate 104–5, 110
 - welfare maximization goal 15–16, 21, 23
 - see also* public interest assessment
- Cooper, J. 127
- cooperation
 - competition authorities and regulators 126–7
 - competition law application to regulated sectors, Poland 192–3
 - memoranda on cooperation with NCAs, EU, regulated industries 224–5
 - memoranda of understanding, sector-specific regulation 172–3
 - regulation coordination considerations 111–13, 114, 115
- cost factors
 - competition advocacy and competition impact assessment role 140–42, 144–5, 146–7
 - enforcement costs, Poland 196, 205
 - interconnection cost, Japan, broadband access regulation 276, 277
 - market inquiries performed by competition authorities 91, 101, 102, 103, 106, 110, 111
 - search engines, internet markets 252, 253
- Crane, D. 40, 52–3, 57
- Croatia 208, 218, 220, 222–3, 225–6
- cross-market competition regulation see industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition regulation
- Cudahy, R. 29
- D’Alberty, M. 120, 126
- data portability
 - informational abuses and informational remedies 298
 - internet markets 249, 252–3, 258, 259–60, 261–2, 264
- Davies, L. 256
- De Benedetto, M. 119
- De Santi, S. 325
- De Stefano, G. 354
- De Streel, A. 124, 211, 215
- deceptive behaviour and competing technology 386–8
 - see also* competition law as limit to standard-setting
- Denmark 137, 360
- deregulation see liberalization
- Devine, K. 253, 263
- Devlin, A. 13, 18, 23
- Devroe, W. 357
- Di Cataldo, V. 352
- Di Porto, F. 178, 296–338
- Di Via, L. 325
- DiMaggio, P. 82
- distortion
 - misuse of information flows to distort regulatory procedures 311–16, 337–8
 - see also* informational abuses and informational remedies
- divisional applications, intellectual property regulation 347–8, 352–3, 354, 363
- Dogan, S. 56, 356
- Dolmans, M. 250
- dominance and dominant position abuse
 - collective dominance see collective dominance

- competition distortion,
 - sector-specific regulation 157–9, 160–61
- competition law as limit to
 - standard-setting 385–91
- informational abuses see
 - informational abuses and informational remedies
- intellectual property regulation and
 - strategic patent filings 353–4, 361–2
- Japan, broadband access regulation,
 - telecommunications regulation of broadband networks 278–80
- market dominance concerns, internet
 - markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation, retail trading platforms 251
- market share threshold, Japan,
 - broadband access regulation 279
- search engines, internet markets 254, 257
- sector-specific regulation, Poland
 - 177–80, 181–3, 186–8, 189–90
- social networks and data
 - exportability 259–60, 261–2
- super-dominance, informational
 - abuses and informational remedies 305, 322, 334
- unfair pricing, and problem-solving
 - innovations in competition enforcement 75–6
- see also* anticompetitive behaviour; cartels; monopolies; networks; oligopolies
- double jeopardy see ne bis in idem
 - principle
- Drahos, M. 71
- Drahos, P. 4–5
- Drexl, J. 71, 304, 313, 321, 342, 344, 361, 373, 385, 388, 390
- Dreyfuss, R. 342
- Drezner, D. 29
- Du Marais, B. 120
- Duménil, G. 5
- duty to exchange information
 - informational remedies in regulated network industries 320–21
 - informational remedies in unregulated (or slightly regulated) markets 319–20
- see also* informational abuses and informational remedies
- duty-to-deal cases 17–18, 23, 55, 292
 - see also* regulatory breakthrough of competition law
- Easterbrook, F. 14, 349
- eBay 250, 251
- economic effects
 - competition regulation, industry-specific 32–3
 - economic models and future market developments 17, 22–3
 - economic regulation and competition law 4–11
 - incentives, industry-specific regulation 34–6
 - internet markets 249, 250–51, 252–3, 258
 - market inquiries, legal and economic analysis, distinguishing 100
 - politics and economics (efficiency and redistribution) separation 67, 68–70, 72–3
- Economides, N. 306
- economies of scale, industry-specific
 - regulation 44, 45, 48, 51
- effects-based approach, intellectual
 - property regulation 344–5, 355
- efficiency
 - gains, informational abuses and informational remedies 329
 - industry-specific regulation 38
 - politics and economics (efficiency and redistribution) separation 67, 68–70, 72–3
 - static versus dynamic efficiency, Japan, broadband access regulation 269–72
- Eisner, M. 29
- Ekelund, R. 57
- electronic communications sector
 - 309–11, 320, 321, 323, 324, 327, 328, 332, 334

- Electronic Communication Package, Poland 189–90, 193, 194
- energy sector
 - gas sector 213
 - informational abuses and
 - informational remedies 309, 310–11, 320–21, 324, 327, 329, 332
 - long-term exclusive supply contracts, EU 212–13
 - Poland 187–9
 - problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement 79
- enforcement
 - broadband access regulation see Japan, broadband access regulation, competition law enforcement of access to broadband networks
 - costs, Poland 196, 205
 - enforcement-oriented market inquiries 93–4, 95–6, 107–8
 - EU, regulated industries see EU, regulated industries and enforcement of competition rules (Article 102 TFEU), new Member States and candidate countries
 - industry-specific regulation
 - superseded by cross-market competition regulation 29, 30, 31, 33, 35, 40, 52, 55–6, 57, 60
 - informational abuses and informational remedies 300
 - problem-solving innovations see problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement, EU
 - regulatory breakthrough of competition law 7, 8, 12, 14, 21–2
- entry barriers 135, 242–3, 263, 264, 272
- Epstein, R. 29
- essential facilities
 - index inclusion, search engines and internet markets 255–6
 - information 315–16, 332, 337
 - Japan, broadband access regulation 279, 286–8
 - networks as see industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition regulation, networks as essential facilities
 - Poland, restrictions of access, Poland 179–80, 201, 202–3
- EU
 - Chicago School influence 16, 65–6, 69
 - competition law as limit to standard-setting see competition law as limit to standard-setting
 - Directive on unfair commercial practices 162–3, 169–70
 - duty-to-deal cases 17–18, 55, 292
 - economic regulation, understanding of 12
 - economic welfare maximization 16–17
 - European Guidelines on Horizontal Co-operation Agreements 326, 331, 334
 - financial markets authorities and competition assessment 134
 - intellectual property regulation see intellectual property regulation and strategic patent filings
 - market inquiries, power to launch 90–91
 - new Member States, regulated industries see EU, regulated industries and enforcement of competition rules (Article 102 TFEU)
 - problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement see problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement, EU
 - regional impact assessments, ‘proportionate level of analysis’ 145
 - search engines and internet markets 256–7
 - sector-specific regulation 155–8, 159, 160
 - see also* individual countries
- EU, cases

- AstraZeneca* 312–13, 315, 317–18, 329, 336, 337, 338, 355–61, 362
- Boehringer* 356–7
- British Airways v. Commission* 288
- Commission v. Alrosa* 80–81
- Consorzio Industrie Fiammiferi (CIF)* 156, 159, 171
- Deutsche Telekom* 146, 156–7, 170, 191, 192, 194, 211–12, 213, 221–2, 309, 311, 324, 336
- EMC Development* 374–8
- ENI* 213, 214
- E.ON* 186, 213, 214
- Google* 256–7, 299
- Google/DoubleClick* 241, 252, 261, 298
- Huawei v. ZTD* 391, 394–5
- IAZ* 384
- Magill* 255, 305, 306, 319, 321, 322, 336, 342
- Microsoft* 17–18, 288, 306, 319, 321, 322, 327, 334, 336, 349
- Microsoft/Skype* 241, 244
- Microsoft/Yahoo! Search Business* 243, 252
- Motorola* 367, 383, 389–90, 391
- Piau* 317
- Rambus* 386–7, 391
- RWE* 213, 214
- Samsung* 367, 383, 389–90, 391, 394
- T-Mobile Deutschland/O2 Germany* 157, 211
- Telekomunikacja Polska* 194, 309–10, 311, 321, 323, 336
- Wanadoo España v. Telefónica* 146, 158
- EU, regulated industries and enforcement of competition rules (Article 102 TFEU), new Member States and candidate countries 206–35 abuse types identified by NCAs 216–18 access regulation 210
 Albania 208, 218, 221, 224, 226
 Bosnia and Herzegovina 208, 216–17, 218, 219, 221, 224
 Bulgaria 208, 218, 219–20, 221–2, 223 commitment decisions and investigation terminations under Article 9 of Regulation 1/2003 214 competition law and sector-specific regulation relationship 209–12
 Croatia 208, 218, 220, 222–3, 225–6 energy markets and long-term exclusive supply contracts 212–13 enforcement pattern and regulatory antitrust 212–16 exclusionary conduct, sanctioned 213–14, 215–16 gas sector, limiting the available capacity of the network 213 judicial review of infringement decisions 215, 220–24 liberalization effects 210–11, 214–15
 Macedonia 208, 218, 219–20, 223–4, 225, 226–7 margin squeeze strategies, sanctioned 213, 218, 226
 Moldova 208, 218, 219, 220, 224, 227
 Montenegro 208, 218, 219, 220, 224
 National Competition Authorities (NCAs) decisions, comparative table 229–35 network industries and exclusionary abuses 217 order to cease application of abusive practices 220 primacy of EU competition rules 210–12 remedy types used by National Competition Authorities (NCAs) 218–20
 Romania 93, 96, 208, 218, 219–20, 221, 226 sanctioned conduct 212–13
 sanctioning powers and imposing behavioural remedies, distinguishing between 219–20, 226

- sector regulation and coordination
 - with National Regulation Authorities (NRAs), memoranda on cooperation with NCAs 224–5
- sector regulation and coordination with National Regulation Authorities (NRAs), relevance of 224–7
- Serbia 208, 218, 219, 220, 224, 226
- telecommunications sector and exclusionary conduct 215
- utilities markets and exploitative abuses directed against the final consumers 217–18
- voluntary acceptance of remedies 214
- EU, TFEU, Article 102
 - dominant position abuse, intellectual property regulation and strategic patent filings 353–4, 361
 - informational abuses and informational remedies 296–7, 301, 302–8, 312, 331
 - patent pools and cartels 383
 - regulated industries and enforcement of competition rules see EU, regulated industries and enforcement of competition rules (Article 102 TFEU)
- EU, TFEU, Articles 101 and 102
 - exchange of information see informational abuses and informational remedies, exchange of information under Articles 101 and 102 TFEU
 - and national legislation, Poland 175–7
 - sector-specific regulation and competition law, relationship between 155, 157, 160
- Evans, D. 44, 260, 262
- Evenett, S. 127
- evergreening of patents 347
 - see also* intellectual property regulation and strategic patent filings
- Ewing, K. 95
- ‘exceptional circumstance’ doctrine 390, 391
- exchange of information see informational abuses and informational remedies
- exclusionary conduct
 - and group boycott 383–5
 - regulated industries 212–14, 215–16, 217
- expertise levels
 - development effects, industry-specific regulation 36–8, 39
 - market inquiries performed by competition authorities 99–100, 114
- Ezrachi, A. 345
- Faber, D. 144
- Facebook 257, 259, 260, 262
- Faella, G. 48
- Faibish, I. 99
- Faith, R. 35
- Farrell, J. 42, 46, 50, 284
- Fatur, A. 240
- Fear, J. 79
- Feldman, R. 17
- Filippelli, M. 333
- financial services data sector 307–8, 319–20, 322, 334, 336
- First, H. 18
- first-mover advantage, industry-specific regulation and network effects 45–8
- Fisher, F. 44
- Fong, Y. 48
- Fornalczyk, A. 188
- Forrester, I. 18
- Forwood, N. 149
- Fox, E. 11, 65, 122
- France 113, 129, 134, 147, 215
- FRAND terms, standard-setting 382–3, 388–9, 390, 391, 394–5
- Frankel, A. 316
- fraud avoidance, internet markets, retail trading platforms 250–51
- Freeman, J. 7, 101, 111, 112–13
- Friden, G. 351

- Frignani, A. 351
 Frischmann, B. 52
 Fullerton, L. 325
 'future goods' market concept 388
- Gabaix, X. 60
 Gaebler, T. 6
 Gal, M. 10, 47, 89–117, 207
 Gatecka, D. 187
 gas sector 213
 see also energy sector gatekeeper issue, search engines 253–4, 255–7
 Gavil, A. 10
 Geiger, A. 348
 Genakos, C. 17
 Georgiev, G. 77, 301
 Geradin, D. 59, 191–2, 241, 258, 259, 261, 298, 301, 382
 Gerber, D. 11, 66, 69–70
 Germany 138, 140, 157, 213, 214, 215, 390
 Ghaya, K. 211
 Ghidini, G. 301, 342, 343, 345
 Giannaccari, A. 325
 Gilad, S. 8
 Gilbert, R. 44
 Gill, A. 196
 Ginsburg, D. 33, 39
 Glachant, J. 81, 85
 Glader, M. 369, 378, 388 global network effects 48–55, 58–9, 60
 Goldman, E. 254
 Google 241, 252, 253, 254–7, 261, 298,
 299, 389, 394, 395
 Grabosky, P. 8, 30
 Grasso, R. 212–13
 Greece 92, 96, 138–9
 Greenlee, P. 48
 Greenstone, M. 95
 Grillo, M. 325
 Grimmelmann, J. 254, 255
 Grisinger, J. 29
 Grzegorek, N. 13
 guillotine system 139
 Gunningham, N. 8
 Gürkaynak, G. 242
 Guzik, R. 188, 201
- Hahn, R. 52, 130
 Handler, M. 9
 Harbour, P. 258, 259, 261
 Hariharan, S. 211
 Harlow, C. 7
 Harvey, D. 5
 Haucap, J. 240, 241, 242, 251, 253, 256, 258, 299
 Heimeshoff, U. 240, 241, 251, 253, 258, 299
 Heimler, A. 325
 Hellström, P. 76
 Hellwig, M. 209–10
 Hoff, W. 182, 189
 Hoffman, L. 47
 Hood, C. 6, 8, 30
 Höppner, T. 256
 horizontal effects
 European Guidelines on Horizontal Co-operation Agreements 326, 331, 334 sector-specific regulation and competition law, relationship between 155–62, 163–4
 standard-setting 375–6, 379–80, 394
 Hovenkamp, H. 3, 35, 52–3, 108, 311,
 377, 378, 379, 381, 382, 383, 387
 Howlett, M. 130
 Hungary 95, 112–13, 129
 hybridization of regulation in electronic communications sector 123–5 tools, and competition impact assessment role 123–5, 133
- Ibáñez Colomo, P. 74, 77, 79, 80 impact assessment see competition impact assessment incentives for firms to compete, reduced 135–6
 index exclusion abuse, search engines 255–7
 Indig, T. 89–117 industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition
 regulation 27–62

- antitrust dangers in competition policy becoming regulatory 55–61
- compensation awards and reaction times 40
- competition policy comparison with regulation 38–41
- competition policy constraints on firms 33–4
- economic effects of competition regulation 32–3
- economic incentive effects 34–6
- efficiency considerations 38
- enforcement 29, 30, 31, 33, 35, 40, 52, 55–6, 57, 60
- expertise development effects 36–8, 39
- judicial determinations and reaction times 40
- lobbying interests 35, 36, 60–61
- partial deregulation concerns 39–40
- regulation definition 28–9
- regulators from within
 - subject-industry 36
- regulatory agency activities 29–30
- regulatory capture by industry
 - insiders 35–8
- regulatory failure 34–8
- rules of conduct versus standards and role of precedent 40–41
- self-regulation 30
- social effects of competition regulation 32–3, 35
- specific regulation and competition policy, distinguishing between 31–4
- state-sanctioned power on competition policy 35
- synthetic competition and partial deregulation 39
- tandem operations 34
- technocratic rules applied across industries 40–41
- see also* regulatory breakthrough of competition law; sector-specific regulation
- industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition
 - regulation, networks as essential facilities 41–55
- classic network effects, direct and indirect 42–5
- consumer and user communication 42–3, 44, 46
- demand-side economies of scale 44, 45, 48, 51
- forced compatibility and disincentives for investment 51–2
- global networks and compatibility 50–52
- global technical standards 50–51
- internet revolution effects 52–4
- loyalty programmes, effects of 47–8
- market tipping inducement 46–8
- monopoly situations 46–8, 50–52
- price-mediated network effects 47–8
- proprietary versus non-proprietary
 - global network effects 48–55
- shopping malls as indirect networks 43
- strategic network effects,
 - strengthening first-mover advantage 45–8
- technologically induced voluntary network effects 45
- user connectivity and on-line gaming 46–7
- video game consoles and software products as indirect networks 43–4, 45–6
- voluntary network effects 45–8
- information
 - false information on date of first marketing authorization 357–9, 360
 - technology see under technology
 - voluntary information requests, market inquiries 106, 107
- information exchange under Articles 101 and 102 TFEU 325–30
- age of information, effects of 328–9
- conflicting views 326, 329–30, 332–3
- efficiency gains 329
- exchange versus unilateral provision of information 327

- information types 327–30
- minimum level of aggregation, lack of 328
- informational abuses and informational remedies 296–338
 - abuse-of-dominance cases 298–324
 - Article 102 TFEU 296–7, 331
 - cease-and-desist orders 14, 318
 - collective dominance 317, 328, 333, 336
 - collusion to provide misleading information (outside regulatory procedures) 316–18, 338
 - continuous monitoring call 322–3
 - data portability considerations 298
 - see also* data portability
 - digital platform markets' 299–300
 - disclosure regulation rationale 302–3
 - electronic communications sector 309–11, 320, 321, 323, 324, 327, 328, 332, 334
 - energy sector 309, 310–11, 320–21, 324, 327, 329, 332
 - enforcement and behavioural remedies 300
 - essential facility safe harbour 315–16, 332, 337
 - see also* essential facilities
 - European Guidelines on Horizontal Co-operation Agreements 326, 331
 - exchange of information in
 - liberalized (but still regulated) markets 330–34
 - exchange of information in
 - liberalized (but still regulated) markets, collusion risks 333–4, 338
 - exchange of information in
 - liberalized (but still regulated) markets, transparency benefits in liberalized markets 330–31, 333
 - exchange of information in
 - unregulated (or slightly regulated) markets, case-by-case approach 334–5
 - financial services data sector 307–8, 319–20, 322
 - General Data Protection Regulation 298
 - information flow as subject matter of Article 102 cases 302–8, 312
 - see also* dominance and dominant position abuse
 - informational abuses in unregulated (or slightly regulated) markets 303–8
 - informational advantage and market power 304, 305–6
 - see also* dominance and dominant position abuse
 - informational remedies in regulated network industries 320–21
 - informational remedies in
 - unregulated (or slightly regulated) markets 319–20
 - misuse of information exchanges in regulated markets 309–11
 - misuse of information flows to distort regulatory procedures 311–16, 337–8
 - monopolists' refusal to exchange information in the IT and media markets 305–7
 - ne bis in idem* argument 311, 324, 337
 - oligopolies 325, 328, 332
 - 'outsourcing compliance' with
 - informational remedies 322–3
 - para-regulatory remedies obliging information exchange 301–2, 318–24, 331, 333, 334–5, 336–7, 338
 - patent protection and provision of misleading information 312–13
 - pharmaceutical sector 312–13, 314–15
 - providing misleading information in regulatory procedures 312–13
 - refusal to deal cases 306–7, 321, 322
 - refusal to supply information in regulatory procedures 313–16
 - relevant information to create informational advantage 305–6
 - Reuters case 307–8, 319–20, 322, 336

- Standard & Poor's case 307–8, 322, 334, 336
- super-dominance cases 305, 322, 334
- and traditional antitrust concepts 299
- transparency benefits in liberalized markets 330–31, 333
- unilateral conduct rules and Article 102 TFEU 301
- see also* remedies
- innovations
- incentives, internet markets 265–6
- innovation-based test for strategic patenting cases 360–64
- innovation-intensive industries see Japan, broadband access regulation
- problem-solving see problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement, EU
- institutional independence of competition authorities and regulators, Poland 188–90
- institutional reforms, problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement, EU 67–8, 71, 74–5
- intellectual property regulation and strategic patent filings 341–64
- anticompetitive foreclosure 355
- anticompetitive potential of strategic patent filings 345–8
- Astra-Zeneca* 312–13, 315, 317–18, 329, 336, 337, 338, 355–61, 362
- distinction between existence and exercise of IPR 348
- divisional applications 347–8, 352–3, 354, 363
- dominant position abuse and Article 102 TFEU 353–4, 361
- dominant position abuse, unrelated to its compliance or non-compliance with other legal rules 361–2
- effects-based approach 344–5, 355
- evergreening of patents 347
- false information on date of first marketing authorization 357–9, 360
- filings between existence and right of intellectual property 349–51
- innovation-based test for strategic patenting cases 360–64
- intellectual property rights and competition law intersections 343–5, 359, 361–2
- intellectual property rights and market power 342–5, 357, 360
- patent clusters 346–7
- pharmaceutical products, reformulation by originator companies 357, 359, 360
- proof of anticompetitive harm to consumers 355, 356
- Ratiopharm v. Pfizer* case 351–4, 356, 358, 359, 360, 362–3
- strategic patenting and latest European case-law 355–60
- unilateral practices 351–4, 355
- interconnection, Japan, broadband access regulation 276, 277, 278–80
- International Competition Network (ICN) 105, 107, 110, 113, 116, 126, 136–7, 148
- International Standardization Organization (ISO) 368–71
- internet
- broadband access regulation see Japan, broadband access regulation
- industry-specific regulation and internet revolution effects 52–4
- Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) 265
- Internet Governance Forum 247
- see also* telecommunications sector
- internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation 239–67
- advertising, income generation, two-sided markets and network effects 239–40, 242–3
- advertising, single market consideration 260–61
- advertising, and user attention market 262, 266

- capacity restraints 240
- censorship concerns 248
- correlation between competition law and sector-specific regulation 246
- data portability 249, 252–3, 258, 259–60, 261–2, 264
- eBay 250, 251
- economic call for more regulation 249
- entry or exit barriers 242–3, 263, 264
- Facebook 257, 259, 260, 262
- free services for one market side 239–40, 241
- geographical market 244–5
- Google 241, 252, 253, 254–7, 261, 298, 299, 389, 394, 395
- International Telecommunications Regulations (ITRs) 248
- Internet Governance Forum 247
- internet market features 239–45
- intervention means comparison between competition law and sector-specific regulation 245–6
- multi-stakeholder approach 247
- net (or network) neutrality principle 249
- network concentration effects 240, 242, 250, 263
- new relevant markets definition 260–62
- political call for more regulation 246–8
- privacy issues 258, 260, 261–2, 266
- regulation challenges 239–46
- security issues 247–8
- service quality 241
- sovereignty concerns 247–8
- switching costs and multi-homing 241
- user attention market 262, 266
- winner-takes-it-all effects 240
- World Conference on International Telecommunications (WCIT) 247, 248
- World Summits of the Information Society (WSIS) 247
- internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation, new regulation needs 263–6
- adaption of conventional competition approaches 265–6
- innovation incentives 265–6
- Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) as special case 265
- legitimization of sector-specific regulation 264–5
- and Schumpeterian vision of competition 263
- state intervention and specific regulation 264–6
- internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation, retail trading platforms 243, 250–51, 264
- abusive behaviour through rating practices 251
- economic elements and characteristics 250–51
- lock-in effects for sellers 251
- market dominance concerns 251
- network effects 250
- reputational system and fraud avoidance 250–51
- internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation, search engines 251–7
- cost factors 252, 253
- direct network effects 252–3
- dominant market position abuse 254, 257
- economic elements and characteristics 252–3
- essential facilities doctrine and index inclusion 255–6
- EU and US complaint investigations 256–7
- gatekeeper issue 253–4, 255–7
- index exclusion abuse 255–7
- neutrality issues 254–5
- preferential treatment and privileging own services, abuse through 254–5
- search advertising 251–2

- sponsored links 251–2
- internet markets, competition law to
 - sector-specific regulation, social networks 257–60
- account deletion problems 259
- advertising and targeting 258
- definition problem 243
- dominance abuse through data
 - exportability prevention 259–60, 261–2
- economic elements and
 - characteristics 258
- multi-homing 258, 259–60
- network effects 258
- personal data use as a cause of market dominance 258
- privacy concerns 258, 260
- interoperability standards 369–70, 371, 379–85, 387, 389–91
- intra-regulatory effects, market
 - inquiries performed by competition authorities 109–13, 115
- investigative powers, market inquiries
 - performed by competition authorities 95–6, 105–6, 107
- investment disincentives, and forced compatibility, industry-specific regulation 51–2
- Israel, antitrust authority 97–8, 99
- Italy
 - administrative pecuniary sanctions and injunctions 164–5
 - annual law on competition 126
 - banking sector 103, 168
 - competition advocacy measures 127–8
 - competition authority (AGCM) 305, 306, 309–11, 313–16, 319–20, 323–5, 328, 332, 337
 - competition impact assessments 129, 140, 147
 - Consumer Code 163–5, 166, 167, 169
 - consumer protection, cooperation and memoranda of understanding 172
 - Electronic Communications Code 166–7, 168
 - electronic communications sector
 - and consumer protection 154–5
 - guillotine system 139
 - market inquiry powers 93–4, 95, 96–7, 106, 107
 - preventive economic analysis of regulations 134
 - private insurance sector, NRA
 - exclusive jurisdiction 168
 - regulatory impact analysis 138, 145–6
 - sector-specific regulation 158–61, 169
 - sector-specific regulation, Council of State Plenary Session Decisions (2012) 165–8, 170
 - sector-specific regulation, ‘Spending Review’ Law Decree and fines for violations 169
 - supervisory model of market inquiries 96–7
- Italy, cases
 - Audipress* 305, 306, 307, 319, 321, 322, 334, 336
 - Auditel* 159, 305, 306–7, 321, 329, 334, 336
 - Bayer* 314–16, 321, 329, 334, 336, 337
 - Enel* 165, 309, 310, 320–21, 324, 327, 336, 337
 - Estra Reti* 314, 329, 336
 - Ferrovie dello Stato* 171
 - Italgas* 314, 315–16, 329, 336, 337
 - Messinambiente* 314, 329, 336
 - Posta Elettronica Ibrida* 158–9
 - Posta Time* 160
 - Ratiopharm v. Pfizer* 351–4, 356, 358, 359, 360, 362–3
 - Sisal* 319, 321, 322, 336
 - SNAM* 160–61, 162
 - Sorgenia* 309, 310–11, 321, 324, 327, 328, 336
 - Tele2/Tim-Vodafone-Wind* 328, 332
 - Telecom Italia* 165–6, 169, 309, 310, 311, 320, 321, 323, 327, 336
- Jacobs, M. 23
- James, C. 377

- Japan
 - Fair Trade Commission (JFTC)
 - 288–9, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294
 - market inquiries 94, 95
- Japan, broadband access regulation
 - 268–95
 - competition law objective, static
 - versus dynamic efficiency
 - 269–72
 - consumer welfare objectives 269–71
 - entry barriers 272
 - innovation incentives 270–72
 - market power identification 271
 - unilateral exclusionary conduct
 - 270–72
 - see also* networks
- Japan, broadband access regulation,
 - competition law enforcement of
 - access to broadband networks
 - 281–94
 - competition law enforcement against
 - vertical foreclosures 282–5
 - competition-restraining effects in
 - downstream market outweigh
 - pro-competitive effects 284
 - consumer welfare considerations
 - 282, 285, 287–8
 - and essential facility doctrine 279,
 - 286–8
 - EU competition law enforcement
 - against refusals to provide
 - access 287–8
 - and innovation incentives 285–6, 288
 - market power assessment 282–4, 287
 - merits 281
 - property rights, need to honour 285–6
 - and refusals to deal 285–7
 - remedies, structural versus
 - behavioural 284–5
- Japan, broadband access regulation,
 - competition law enforcement of
 - access to broadband networks,
 - Japan's Fair Trade Commission
 - and Supreme Court decisions in
 - NTT East* 288–94
 - access charge setting 292–3
 - determination of undue refusal to
 - deal or a price squeeze 291–2,
 - 293
 - market definition and hypothetical
 - monopolist test 290–91
 - market definition and market power
 - evaluation 289–91, 293
 - market definition and new customer
 - assessment 290–91
 - remedy issued in collaboration with
 - telecommunications agency
 - 292–4
- Japan, broadband access regulation,
 - telecommunications regulation of
 - broadband networks 272–81
 - deregulation, lack of 280
 - dominant carriers, market share
 - threshold 279
 - exemption clauses 279–80
 - interconnection cost factors 276, 277
 - Japanese Telecommunications
 - Agency, access regulation
 - 278–80
 - network effect of
 - telecommunications, mandatory
 - interconnection consideration
 - 276–7
 - open system and network neutrality
 - 273
 - open system versus closed system
 - 272–4
 - unbundle-based interconnection
 - obligation on dominant carriers
 - 278–80
 - unbundling obligation 276, 277
 - universal interconnection obligation
 - 278
 - US Federal Communications
 - Commission (FCC), departure
 - from open-system regulation
 - 274–8
 - US Federal Communications
 - Commission (FCC),
 - liberalization of broadband
 - 277–8
 - US interconnection obligation under
 - the 1996 Telecommunications
 - Act 274–5, 276, 277

- Jasanoff, S. 32
 Jeżewska, J. 179
 Joerges, C. 74
 Jones, A. 91, 178
 Jordan, W. 19–20
 Jordana, J. 4, 7, 8
 Joskow, P. 274
 judicial review
 EU, regulated industries 215, 220–24
 industry-specific regulation 40, 57–8 scrutiny of investigative powers, market inquiries 106
 Jurczyk, Z. 185
 Jurkowska-Gomułka, A. 184, 193, 200

 Kagan, J. 242, 243, 245
 Kahn, A. 55, 282
 Kaiser, H. 274
 Kallaugher, J. 344, 350, 373, 377, 379, 386
 Kamiński, D. 194, 310
 Kaplow, L. 11
 Karova, R. 208
 Katz, E. 256
 Katz, M. 44, 270, 285, 372
 Kelemen, R. 66, 68
 Kelman, M. 25
 Kerber, W. 70–71, 72, 85
 Kerf, M. 59
 Kjølbbye, L. 349
 Kleinwächter, W. 248
 Klemperer, P. 42, 46
 Kling, J. 56
 Kmiecik, Z. 198
 Knieps, G. 246
 Kohutek, K. 185, 191, 200
 Kolasiński, M. 176
 Korah, V. 3
 Kosikowski, C. 180
 Kosiński, E. 185, 191
 Koslov, T. 258, 259, 261
 Kosmala, K. 193
 Kovacic, W. 94, 95
 Kowalik-Bańczyk, K. 174–205
 Kozieł, T. 179, 196, 198, 199, 201, 203
 Kramler, T. 343
 Krasnodębska-Tomkiel, M. 179, 180, 181, 184, 188, 195

 Kroes, N. 31, 33, 387
 Król, M. 183, 184, 189
 Kubasik, J. 183
 Kühn, K. 325, 329, 334
 Kuik, K. 176, 194
 Kuschewsky, M. 241, 258, 259, 261, 298

 La Spina, A. 130
 Laffont, J. 49, 58–9
 Laguna de Paz, J. 171
 Laibson, D. 60
 Lande, R. 57
 Landman, L. 388
 Larouche, P. 47, 124
 Larsen, J. 47
 Laudati, L. 120
 Law, M. 53
 Lawson, G. 29
 Lawson, T. 22
 Lazer, D. 8, 33
 Lederman, M. 48
 Legnerfalt, E. 91, 106
 Lemley, M. 50, 56, 343, 356, 372, 395
 Lepp, J. 265
 Leslie, C. 9
 Leval, P. 65
 Levi-Faur, D. 4, 7, 8, 28
 Lévy, D. 5
 Leyden, L. 250
 Lianos, I. 76, 301, 306, 333
 liberalization deregulation, lack of, Japan,
 broadband access regulation 280
 effects, EU, regulated industries 210–11, 214–15
 exchange of information in liberalized (but still regulated) markets 330–34
 neoliberalism effects 4–9, 10–11, 13–14, 16
 partial deregulation concerns, industry-specific regulation 39–40 transparency benefits in liberalized markets 330–31, 333
 Liebowitz, S. 44, 45
 Lindblom, C. 82

- Lipowski, A. 204
- Liu, Q. 48
- lobbying interests, industry-specific regulation 35, 36, 60–61
- lock-in effects for sellers, internet markets 251
- Loeovilger, L. 19
- Lopatka, J. 69
- Lowe, P. 186
- loyalty programmes, industry-specific regulation 47–8
- Lundqvist, B. 365–95
- Lynch, G. 248
- Macartney, H. 5
- McChesney, F. 35, 108
- Macedonia 208, 218, 219–20, 223–4, 225, 226–7
- McKenna, M. 343
- Madero Villarejo, C. 343
- Maggiolino, M. 3–26, 65, 66, 81, 190, 312, 345, 362
- Maher, I. 178
- Majone, G. 6, 34, 66–7, 69, 120, 130
- Manne, G. 254
- Mantzari, D. 177, 214, 302
- Marenco, G. 348
- margin squeeze strategies, EU, regulated industries 213, 218, 226
- Margolis, S. 44, 45
- market inquiries performed by competition authorities 89–117
- anticompetitive behaviour, refuting mistaken assumptions 101
 - antitrust violation proof requirements 107–8
 - capacity constraints 102–3
 - competence-building studies 94–5
 - competition authority's shift in focus, concerns over 103–4
 - constitutional issues 104–8
 - consultation and cooperation process 112–13
 - controversial conclusions, risks associated with 115–16
 - cost factors 91, 101, 102, 103, 106, 110, 111
 - enforcement-oriented inquiries 93–4, 107–8
 - evaluation capabilities 100–101
 - expertise levels 99–100, 114
 - implementation of recommendations 96–8
 - initiation of market inquiries 92–3
 - interventionary role and expertise levels 99
 - intra-regulatory effects 109–13, 115
 - intra-regulatory status quo effects 109–11
 - investigative powers, and legitimacy 107
 - investigative powers, procedural aspects 105–6
 - investigative tools and follow-on enforcement actions, availability of 95–6
 - judicial scrutiny of investigative powers, need for 106
 - justifications and benefits 98–102
 - legal and economic analysis, distinguishing 100
 - market failures in specific market, identification of 93
 - market inquiry performance, advantages of 91
 - market uncertainty concerns 104
 - oligopolistic coordination, dealing with 97–8, 102–4
 - policy conclusions and remedies, and regulation coordination 112, 114, 115
 - powers, scope of 92–8, 114
 - proportionality concerns 106
 - public interest considerations 100, 107, 115–16
 - public policy decisions and democratic mandate 104–5, 110
 - regulation coordination considerations 111–13
 - regulatory capture risk 108–9, 114–16
 - regulatory coordination tools 112–13, 115
 - reputational effects 101
 - retrospective inquiries 94–5

- subject criteria selection 93
- supervisory and advisory model
 - comparison 113–17
- supervisory model, adoption of 96–7, 108, 109–10
- synergies between regulatory tasks, creation of 103
- voluntary information requests 106, 107
- vulnerabilities and downsides 102–9
- market power
 - evaluation, Japan, broadband access regulation 289–91, 293
 - and informational advantage 304, 305–6
 - and intellectual property rights 342–5, 357, 360
- markets
 - advertising, internet markets 239–40, 242–3, 260–61
 - definition and hypothetical monopolist test, Japan, broadband access regulation 290–91
 - economic models and future market developments 17, 22–3
 - exclusion due to anticompetitive agreement entered into by competitors 378–9
 - market effects, problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement, EU 72–4, 77–9, 80–81, 84
 - market equilibria improvement 15–16, 17, 19, 23, 24–5
 - market power and share, Japan, broadband access regulation 271, 279
 - tippling inducement, industry-specific regulation 46–8
- Marsili, M. 54
- Martimort, D. 59
- Mataja, M. 79
- May, P. 33
- Melamed, A. 13, 17, 24, 66
- memoranda of understanding among NCAs and NRAs 172–3
 - see also* cooperation; sector-specific regulation
- Mexico 93, 94, 95, 96, 113, 129, 138, 139
- Miąsik, D. 175, 176, 185, 186, 188, 191, 199, 200
- Micklitz, H. 82, 85
- Microsoft see under EU, cases; US, cases
- Minda, G. 22
- Modzelewska-Wąchal, E. 185
- Moldova 208, 218, 219, 220, 224, 227
- monitoring requirements 322–3, 373, 377–8, 392–5
 - see also* supervisory model
- monopolies
 - industry-specific regulation, networks as essential facilities 46–8, 50–52
 - informational monopolists' refusal to supply information 313
 - market definition and hypothetical monopolist test – Japan, broadband access regulation 290–91
 - monopolistic conduct rules 10, 14, 23
 - monopolists' refusal to exchange information in IT and media markets 305–7
 - prohibition of abuse of dominant position and monopolization 385–91
 - sector-specific regulation and monopolist undertakings, Poland 177–80, 181–3, 186–8, 189–90
 - see also* cartels; dominance and dominant position abuse; oligopolies
- Montagnani, M. 312, 362
- Montenegro 208, 218, 219, 220, 224
- Monti, G. 67, 144, 179, 301, 321, 322, 331
- Moore, D. 33
- Moran, M. 6
- Möschel, W. 11
- Mościbroda, A. 176, 194
- Moss, D. 49

- Motta, M. 11
- Mulholland, H. 147
- Muras, Z. 187, 193
- Nagata, E. 325
- National Competition Authorities (NCAs)
- Advisory Committee 75
 - coordination with National Regulation Authorities (NRAs) 224–5
 - EU decisions, comparative table 229–35
 - problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement, EU 67–8
 - remedy types used by 218–20
 - sector-specific regulation see sector-specific regulation and competition law, relationship between, consumer protection and NRAs and NCAs overlap
- National Regulatory Authorities (NRAs)
- sector regulation coordination 224–7
 - sector-specific regulation see sector-specific regulation and competition law, relationship between, consumer protection and NRAs and NCAs overlap
 - see also* industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition regulation
- ne bis in idem principle
- informational abuses and informational remedies 311, 324, 337
 - sector-specific regulation 155, 162, 164, 168, 172
- neoliberalism effects 4–9, 10–11, 13–14, 16
- see also* liberalization
- Netherlands 128, 137, 142
- networks
- advertising see under internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation
 - concentration effects 240, 242, 250, 263
 - effects and tipping 372–3
 - energy sector see energy sector as essential facilities see industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition regulation, networks as essential facilities
 - European Competition Network see under problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement, EU
 - global network effects 48–55, 58–9, 60
 - indirect 43–6
 - International Competition Network (ICN) 105, 107, 110, 113, 116, 126, 136–7, 148
 - internet markets, network effects 239–40, 242–3, 250, 252–3, 258, 263
 - network industries and exclusionary abuses 217, 276–7, 309–11
 - price-mediated network effects 47–8
 - social see internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation, social networks
 - telecommunications see telecommunications sector
 - see also* dominance and dominant position abuse; Japan, broadband access regulation
- neutrality issues, search engines 254–5
- see also* internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation, search engines
- Neven, D. 68
- New Zealand 58–9
- Newman, N. 300
- Nölke, A. 67, 68
- Noll, R. 311
- nondisclosure and competing technology 386–8
- see also* competition law as limit to standard-setting

- Norway 90, 92, 95, 138, 140, 360
 Nozick, R. 14
- O'Donoghue, R. 191–2, 304, 356
 OECD, 'Competition Assessment Toolkit' 136, 138
 Ogus, A. 302
 oligopolies
 informational abuses and informational remedies 325, 328, 332 market inquiries and coordination, dealing with 97–8, 102–4 see also collective dominance; dominance and dominant position abuse; monopolies online gaming 46–7, 319
 OPCC (Office of Protection of Competition and Consumers) see under Poland
 Ordovery, J. 36, 57
 Osborne, D. 6
 Ottow, A. 75
 'outsourcing compliance' with informational remedies 322–3
 see also informational abuses and informational remedies
 Overbeek, H. 5
 Owen, B. 311
- Padilla, A. 304, 356
 Padilla, J. 325
 Page, W. 44, 69, 322 para-regulatory remedies obliging information exchange 301–2, 318–24, 331, 333, 334–5, 336–7, 338 see also informational abuses and informational remedies; remedies
 Parcu, P. 153, 301
 Parker, C. 8, 30
 Pasquale, F. 253, 259, 299, 300 patent ambush 386–7, 388–9 clusters 346–7 filings, strategic see intellectual property regulation and strategic patent filings pools and cartels 380–83 protection and provision of misleading information 312–13
 Patterson, M. 299, 300, 313, 317
 Peeperkorn, L. 343
 Peltzman, S. 19, 35, 108
 Pérez Motta, E. 139
 Peritz, R. 21, 22
 Pestelacci, E. 54
 Petit, N. 68, 153, 170, 191, 212
 pharmaceutical products, reformulation by originator companies 357, 359, 360 pharmaceutical sector, informational abuses and informational remedies 312–13, 314–15
 Piątek, S. 177, 189
 Picker, R. 15, 56
 Piontek, E. 185
 Plompen, P. 377
 Poland, regulatory approach to competition law 174–205
 antitrust liability immunity and 'state action defence' 194–5, 205 competence divisions and 'concurrent application' of both antitrust and regulatory provisions 192 competition law application to regulated sectors 190–95 competition law application to regulated sectors, real parallel exercise of powers, problems with 193–4 competition law application to regulated sectors, and scope of cooperation 192–3 competition law history 180–81 competition law infringements, dealing with 178–80 competition rules versus aims of regulation 184–8 competition versus regulation 180–90
 consumer welfare 186, 187–8, 202–3

- Electronic Communication Package 189–90, 193, 194
- energy Act 187–9
- ‘essential facility’ infrastructures 179–80
- institutional independence of
 - competition authorities and regulators 188–90
- national legislation and Articles 101 and 102 of TFEU 175–7
- OPCC (Office of Protection of Competition and Consumers) 174–81 passim, 184–6, 188–205 passim
- POLSAT* 197
- ‘protective function’ for competition 185–6
- public interest protection 184–5, 197–8
- Railway Transport Act 183–4
- sector-specific regulation and
 - monopolist or dominant undertakings 177–80, 181–3, 186–8, 189–90
- sector-specific regulation, special regulators 182–3, 186–8, 190–95
- state monopolies, dismantling of 181
- Telecommunication Act 182–3, 186–7, 188–9, 190, 191, 192–4
- Telekomunikacja Polska* and dominant position abuse 194, 309–10, 311, 321, 323, 336
- Poland, regulatory approach to
 - competition law, competition law as regulation 195–203, 204–5
 - anticompetitive agreements 199
 - commitment decisions 196–203
 - commitment decisions, separate definition for each alleged practice 200
 - commitment decisions, timeframes 200–201
 - condition requirements 198–9
 - and elimination of the alleged infringing practice 199–200
 - enforcement costs 196, 205
 - essential facilities, restrictions of access 201, 202–3
 - infringement decisions 195–6
 - infringement prevention 199
 - price and tariff fixing 201–2
 - probable and credible infringement 198–9
 - and proportionality principle 204–5
 - public interest considerations 197–8
 - unfair contractual conditions 201
- political call for more regulation, internet markets 246–8
- politics and economics (efficiency and redistribution) separation 67, 68–70, 72–3
- Posner, R. 35, 122
- Powell, W. 82
- Power, M. 6, 8
- preferential treatment and privileging own services, abuse through, internet markets 254–5
- pricing
 - price-mediated network effects 47–8
 - and tariff fixing, Poland 201–2
 - unfair pricing and abuse of dominance law 75–6
- privacy issues, internet markets 258, 260, 261–2, 266
- problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement, EU 63–86
 - accountability and transparency mechanisms 81
 - and business model innovation 79, 82
 - cartel cases 79–80
 - Chicago School and economics-based arguments 65–6, 69
 - Chief Competition Economist unit 68–9
 - commitment decisions, concerns over use of (Article 9 of Regulation 1/2003) 77–81
 - competition enforcement, EU and national level comparison 66–8, 71–2, 73–6
 - competition law enforcement 64–70, 77–8

- competition law loss and guidance for market actors 81
 consumer welfare 73, 75, 84
 energy sector cases 79
 Eurolegalism as distinct form of juridification 68
 European Competition Network (ECN), Advisory Committee on Restrictive Practices and Dominant Positions 75
 European Competition Network (ECN), creation effects 69–70
 European Competition Network (ECN), discretion levels 74–5 European Competition Network (ECN), peer review of solutions to local problems 71–6 ex ante and ex post intervention distinction 78, 84–5 institutional reforms (2004) and modernization package 67–8, 71, 74–5 leniency policy and identification of cartels 79–80 national competition agencies (NCAs) 67–8 politics and economics (efficiency and redistribution) separation 67, 68–70, 72–3 problem-based enforcement of competition law 70–82 problem-solving remedies 76–82 procedural short-cut, commitment decision as 80 remedies-without-infringement, benefits of 81–2 reopening of proceedings and amendment of remedies 78 social harm and market effects focus 72–4, 77–9, 80–81, 84 uncertainty about competitive significance of conduct, and commitment decision 80
 unfair pricing and abuse of dominance law 75–6
 US antitrust law as enforcement model 64–6, 68–9, 77 violation finding procedure 76–8, 80 procedural aspects of investigative powers 105–6 procedural rules, need for more stringent 392–5
 procedural short-cut, commitment decision as 80 product and prescriptive standards 370–71, 374–9, 381, 385 prohibition abuse of dominant position and monopolization 385–91 anticompetitive agreements to standard-setting 374–85 proportionality principle competition advocacy and competition impact assessment role 119, 127, 134–5, 143–4, 145, 148 competition law as regulation, Poland 204–5 market inquiries performed by competition authorities 106
 sector-specific regulation and competition law, relationship between 167–8 proprietary versus non-proprietary global network effects 48–55 public choice theory 19, 35, 38, 59, 60–61 public interest assessment competition advocacy and competition impact assessment role 130
 competition law as regulation, Poland 197–8
 market inquiries performed by competition authorities 100, 107, 115–16
 regulatory breakthrough of competition law 19–20, 24–5 see also consumer welfare public policy decisions and democratic mandate 104–5, 110
 Purps, S. 214
 Rahnasto, I. 344
 Ramesh, M. 130
 Ramondino, M. 347

- Rangone, N. 118–50
- Ratliff, J. 212–13
- Rawlings, R. 7
- Reeves, A. 33
- refusal to deal cases and informational 306–7, 313–16, 321, 322
Japan, broadband access regulation
285–7, 291–2, 293
- regulation anticompetitive regulation, adverse consequences on competition and competitiveness 121–2 competition enhanced by good regulation 119–22
economic regulation see under regulatory breakthrough of competition law
see also economic effects incentives/limitations for firms to compete, reduced 135–6 internet markets see internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation, new regulation needs misuse of information flows to distort regulatory procedures 311–12
misuse of standard-setting procedure 376 necessity and proportionality testing 119, 127, 134–5, 143–4, 145, 148 poor regulation, effects of 120 see also industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition regulation
- regulation coordination considerations
111–13, 114, 115
see also cooperation
- regulation definition 28–9
- regulatory approach, Poland see Poland, regulatory approach to competition law
- regulatory breakthrough of competition law 3–26
capture theory 19–20 cease-and-desist orders 14, 318
commitment decisions 18 competition law as liquid concept 10–11
duty-to-deal cases 17–18, 23, 55, 292 economic models and future market developments 17, 22–3 economic power concentration concerns 10–11 economic regulation and competition law 4–11
economic regulation, historically determined conceptualization 9 economic regulation, multi-faceted nature of 4–9 enforcement 7, 8, 12, 14, 21–2 government ‘actionism’ and sector-specific rate-and-entry regulations 12–13
market equilibria improvement
15–16, 17, 19, 23, 24–5 metamorphosis, terms of present 16–18
monopolistic conduct rules 10, 14, 23
neoliberalism and Chicagoan conception of competition law 13–14, 16
neoliberalism and Chicagoan conception of competition law, reassuring nature 18–22
neoliberalism and Chicagoan conception of competition law, reassuring nature, debunking 22–5
neoliberalism effects 4–9, 10–11 possible regulatory contours 11–16 public interest considerations 19–20, 24–5 regulation by contract 7 rule of reason adoption 18 self-regulation 7–8 transparency and social accountability 8 welfare maximization goal 15–16, 21, 23
see also industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition regulation
- regulatory capture by industry insiders 35–8

- risk, market inquiries performed by competition authorities 108–9, 114–16
- regulatory failure
 - industry-specific regulation 34–8
 - regulatory mistakes, risks of making 19–21, 23
- regulatory impact assessment (RIA) 128, 130, 131, 132, 133–6, 137, 141, 144
- competition filter questions 135–6
- European financial markets
 - authorities and competition assessment in regulatory impact assessments 134
 - weak points 144
- Reitman, D. 48
- Reitzes, J. 49
- remedies
 - commitment decisions 18, 77–81, 196–203, 214
 - informational abuses see
 - informational abuses and informational remedies
 - informational remedies abuses see
 - informational abuses and informational remedies
 - issued in collaboration with
 - telecommunications agency, Japan, broadband access regulation 292–4
 - para-regulatory remedies see
 - informational abuses and informational remedies
 - remedies-without-infringement, benefits of 81–2
 - remedy types used by National Competition Authorities (NCAs) 218–20
 - reopening of proceedings and amendment of remedies 78
 - sanctioning powers and imposing behavioural remedies, distinguishing between 219–20, 226
 - structural versus behavioural, Japan, broadband access regulation 284–5
 - voluntary acceptance of, EU, regulated industries 214
 - see also* EU, regulated industries and enforcement of competition rules (Article 102 TFEU), new Member States and candidate countries; Poland, regulatory approach to competition law; problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement, EU
- Renda, A. 52
- reputational effects 101, 250–51
- retail trading platforms, internet markets see internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation, retail trading platforms
- retrospective inquiries, market inquiries performed by competition authorities 94–5
- Reuters 307–8, 319–20, 322, 336
- Ridyard, D. 91
- Rinner, W. 33
- Robertson, V. 326
- Rogalski, M. 187
- Romania 93, 96, 208, 218, 219–20, 221, 226
- Rosch, J. 265–6
- Rossi, J. 101, 111, 112–13
- Rousseva, E. 333
- royalty rates 382, 386, 387, 390, 391, 395
- Rubinfeld, D. 14, 44
- Rudaz, C. 47
- rules of conduct versus standards and role of precedent, industry-specific regulation 40–41
- Russia 92, 248
- Sacher, S. 60
- Sadowska, M. 79, 215, 318
- safe harbour
 - essential facilities 315–16, 332, 337
 - standardization agreements 375–6, 394
- Sage, E. 180, 189, 192
- Salant, D. 37
- Salop, S. 286
- Salzberger, E. 117

- Samà, D. 317
- sanctions
- exclusionary conduct, EU, regulated industries 212–14, 215–16
 - sanctioning powers and imposing behavioural remedies, distinguishing between, EU, regulated industries 219–20, 226
- Sappington, D. 100, 111
- Saudi Arabia 248
- Schepel, H. 384
- Schmid, C. 73
- Schnichels, D. 346
- Scholz, U. 214
- Schumpeter, J. 263, 368, 371
- Schweitzer, H. 68
- Scott, C. 29
- search engines see internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation, search engines
- sector-specific regulation
- competition law and sector-specific regulation relationship, EU, regulated industries 209–12
 - coordination with National Regulation Authorities (NRAs), regulated industries 224–7
 - government ‘actionism’ and rate-and-entry regulations 12–13
 - and internet markets see internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation
 - Poland, regulatory approach to competition law 177–80, 181–3, 186–8, 189–95
 - see also* industry-specific regulation superseded by cross-market competition regulation
- sector-specific regulation and competition law, relationship between 153–73
- cooperation and memoranda of understanding between NCAs and NRAs 172–3
 - dominant companies and competition distortion 157–9, 160–61
 - EU law and Articles 101 and 102 TFEU 155, 157, 160
 - EU law and NRAs 155–8
 - EU penalty restrictions 156–7, 159, 160
 - horizontal application of competition law 155–62, 163–4
 - Italian law 158–61
 - ne bis in idem* principle 155, 162, 164, 168, 172
 - see also* ne bis in idem principle
 - sector-specific regulation and competition law as complementary instruments 156–7, 159–60, 161–2
 - sector-specific regulation and competition law, relationship between, consumer protection and NRAs and NCAs overlap 162–70
 - administrative courts, initial position taken by 163–5
 - administrative pecuniary sanctions and injunctions 164–5
 - EU Directive on unfair commercial practices 162–3, 169–70
 - Italian Council of State Plenary Session Decisions (2012) 165–8, 170
 - Italian ‘Spending Review’ Law Decree and fines for violations 169
 - memoranda of understanding 172–3
 - NRA exclusive jurisdiction cases 168
 - principle of proportionality 167–8
 - principle of speciality conditions 166–7
 - security issues, internet markets 247–8
- Segal, I. 272
- self-regulation 7–8, 30
- Selznick, P. 28
- Sena, G. 351
- Serbia 208, 218, 219, 220, 224, 226
- Shadowen, S. 357
- Shane, P. 29
- Shapiro, C. 346, 372, 373, 395
- Shelanski, H. 33, 36, 55, 110, 270, 271, 275, 276, 281–2, 285
- shopping malls as indirect networks 43
- Sidak, J. 249, 252, 253, 270, 271
- Siragusa, M. 153–73, 246

- Skoczny, T. 175, 185, 188, 191
 Sluijs, J. 299
 SME test 137–8, 140, 141, 143
 Smith, A. 74–5
 Snyder, J. 37
 social effects of competition regulation 32–3, 35
 social harm and market effects focus, EU 72–4, 77–9, 80–81, 84 social networks see internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation, social networks software products as indirect networks 43–4, 45–6
 Sokol, D. 57
 Sołtysiński, S. 175
 South Africa 93, 96
 South Korea 129, 139 sovereignty concerns, internet markets 247–8
 Spain 90, 92, 95, 96, 129, 136
 Sparrow, M. 6, 63, 64, 72, 73, 83 specialty principle conditions, sector-specific regulation 166–7
 Spiller, P. 37
 Spulber, D. 52, 276, 300
 Standard & Poor's 307–8, 322, 334, 336
 standard cost model (SCM) and administrative costs 140–42 see also competition impact assessment standard-setting and competition law see competition law as limit to standard-setting industry-specific regulation 40–41, 50–51
 state intervention internet markets, new regulation needs 264–6
 'state action defence', Poland 194–5, 205 state-sanctioned power on competition policy, industry-specific regulation 35 status quo, intra-regulatory status quo effects 109–11
 Stawicki, A. 182, 190, 191, 204
 Stawicki, E. 185, 186
 Stigler, G. 19, 35, 108, 109, 281
 Stiglitz, J. 101, 108–9
 Storm, S. 47
 Stothers, C. 347
 Stoyanova, M. 332–3
 Strange, S. 5
 Straus, J. 313, 350
 Strogatz, S. 53
 Stucke, M. 33, 38
 substitution, competition by 380
 Sufrin, B. 91, 178
 Sule, S. 346
 Sullivan, E. 11
 Sullivan, L. 65
 Sullivan, T. 109
 Sunstein, C. 6, 24–5
 super-dominance cases 305, 322, 334
see also dominance and dominant position abuse supervisory model, market inquiries performed by competition authorities 96–7, 108, 109–10, 113–17 see also monitoring requirements
 Svetiev, Y. 63–86, 98
 Svetlicinii, A. 75, 206–35
 Swann, D. 12
 Swanson, D. 50
 Sweden 138, 139, 140, 360
 switching costs and multi-homing, internet markets 241 Switzerland 137
 Swora, M. 187, 193, 196
 synthetic competition and partial deregulation 39
 Szablewski, A. 177, 178, 180, 190, 205
 Szydło, M. 17, 177, 192
 Szymczak, W. 182
 Szyszczak, E. 322
 Takigawa, T. 268–95
 Tapia, C. 369–70
 Tapia, J. 177, 214, 302
 Tassej, G. 369 technology competing technology and standard-setting 386–8 digital platform markets 299–300

- electronic communications sector see
 - electronic communications sector
- internet revolution effects 52–4
- technical merits of standards, judging 369, 372, 374–5, 377–8, 379–80
- technical standards, industry-specific regulation 40–41, 45, 50–51
- Teece, D. 270, 271
- telecommunications sector
 - broadband networks regulation see
 - Japan, broadband access regulation, telecommunications
 - regulation of broadband networks
 - cross-subsidization concerns 39–40, 60
 - and exclusionary conduct 215
 - non-proprietary (global) network effects 49–50, 58–9, 60
 - Telecommunication Act, Poland 182–3, 186–7, 188–9, 190, 191, 192–4
 - see also* internet
- Temple Lang, J. 177, 302
- Tetlock, P. 130
- TFEU see EU, TFEU
- Thaler, R. 6
- Thatcher, M. 29
- tipping
 - market tipping inducement 46–8
 - and network effects 372–3
- Tirole, J. 59
- Topa, G. 54
- Toskovic, J. 219
- transparency
 - benefits in liberalized markets 330–31, 333
 - mechanisms, problem-solving innovations in competition enforcement 81
 - and stakeholder input in rule-making 142–3
- Turno, B. 186
- two-sided markets and network effects 239–40, 242–3
- see also* internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation
- UK
 - Competition Commission (CC) 97
 - competition impact assessment 129, 138, 140, 145
 - market inquiries 94, 97, 99, 100, 101
 - regulatory impact assessment 134
 - SME test 137
- Ullrich, H. 177, 345, 362
- unilateral conduct
 - informational abuses and informational remedies 301, 327
 - intellectual property regulation and strategic patent filings 351–4, 355
- universal interconnection obligation, Japan, broadband access regulation 278
- US
 - antitrust law 64–5, 66, 68–9, 109–10, 190
 - Chicago School economics 13–14, 16, 18–25, 65–6, 68, 69
 - collusion to provide misleading information (outside regulatory procedures) 316–18
 - competition impact assessments 140
 - consent decrees 18
 - Department of Justice (DoJ) 64, 128, 377, 381
 - economic regulation, understanding of 12
 - economic welfare maximization 16–17
 - EU and US complaint investigations, internet markets, competition law to sector-specific regulation, search engines 256–7
 - Federal Communications Commission (FCC) 274–8
 - Federal Trade Commission (FTC) 95, 256, 274, 386, 387, 388, 389, 394, 395
 - Internet regulation and network neutrality 273–4

- judicial enforcement of competition law 14
 market inquiries 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 106, 107, 116 markets for internet businesses 242–3, 262 misuse of information flows to distort regulatory procedures 311–12
 Noerr-Pennington doctrine 311 plea-bargaining 77 principle of specialty 170–71
 regulatory impact assessment (RIA) 134, 145
 rule-of-reason treatment for vertical foreclosures 285
 Sherman Act 57, 65, 212, 311–12, 384, 386
 SME test 137
 standard-setting process 377–8, 380–82, 383–4, 385–6 telecommunications interconnection obligation 278, 279, 280 unilateral conduct in innovation-intensive industries 288
- US, cases
Allied Tube 383–4
American Welding Society 377–8
AT&T 273, 275, 311–12
Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly 66
C-O Two 381–2
Credit Suisse 56
Facebook Inc. v. Power Ventures 260
Google 256, 389, 394, 395
Household Radiators 381–2
Leegin Creative Leather Prods. v. PSKS 41
Libor 316–18, 336
LinkLine 171
Macaroni 381, 382
MCI 275, 286–7
Microsoft 44, 52, 82, 284, 285, 286, 386
NYNEX 386
Radiant Burners 383, 384
Rambus 385–8, 391
Standard Oil 380–81
Standard Sanitary 380, 382
Verizon Communications v. Law Offices of Curtis V. Trinko 40, 55–6, 66, 170–71, 212, 285, 292 user attention market, internet markets 262, 266
 Van Apeldoorn, B. 5
 Van Malleghem, P. 357
 Van Segbroeck, S. 54
 Van Waarden, F. 71
 Varian, H. 372, 373
 Vezzoso, S. 353
 Vickers, J. 73 video game consoles as indirect networks 43–4, 45–6
 Vietor, R. 29
 Vives, X. 325, 329
 Vogel, S. 4
 Voigt, S. 117 voluntary acceptance of remedies, EU, regulated industries 214 voluntary information requests, market inquiries 106, 107 voluntary network effects, industry-specific regulation 45–8
 Volz, S. 254
 Von Hayek, F. 14, 20, 368, 371
 Waelbroeck, M. 351
 Wagner-von Papp, F. 77, 80, 197, 296, 326
 Wait, A. 300, 304
 Walker, M. 177, 322
 Waller, S. 52, 243, 259, 298, 300, 318, 337
 Watts, D. 53
 Weber, R. 239–67, 299
 Weber, S. 55
 Weiser, P. 284
 Weisman, D. 100, 111 welfare see consumer welfare Wellman, B. 53
 Werden, G. 18
 Whinston, M. 272
 Whish, R. 91, 156, 240
 Wigger, A. 67, 68
 Wiley, J. 57
 Wilks, S. 74

- Williams, M. 59
Wils, W. 79, 104, 301
Wilson, J. 34
Wincott, D. 6 winner-takes-it-all effects, internet markets 240
Wiszniewska, I. 175
World Conference on International Telecommunications (WCIT) 247, 248
World Summits of the Information
Society (WSIS) 247
Wright, P. 52, 58
WTO, principles on standard-setting
393
Wu, T. 272
Xavier, P. 54
Yeung, K. 6
Yoo, C. 52, 259, 271, 276, 300
Zenger, H. 322
Zhang, L. 368, 370
Żoźnowski, A. 182
Zuppetta, M. 314