Acknowledgements

I would like to thank all the participants who shared their insights which were invaluable in drafting this work. In addition, I would like to thank my colleagues Dr Roberto Palacios-Rodrigues and Dr Angela Espinosa at Hull for putting me in touch with their friends and associates in Mexico and Colombia respectively. In particular, I am indebted to Dr Mario Alain González Hernández and Dr Carlos Gil Garcia at Tecnológico de Monterrey for their warmth and generosity. Mr Raúl Guerrero Bustamante, who is working on heritage projects in the Pachuca region of Mexico, shared invaluable site-specific information on rural tourism projects in the region. Also, thanks are due to Hull University Business School for approving my study leave application (2014–2015), which enabled me to work on the monograph and undertake field visits. Apologies are due to those whose contributions I may have overlooked, but I would like to take this opportunity to thank them.

Finally, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my mother, who inspired me to continue working through the difficult phases, and my late father, whose incessant belief in me gave me the strength to finish this work.

Every effort has been made to trace all the copyright holders, but if any have been inadvertently overlooked the publishers will be pleased to make the necessary arrangements at the first opportunity.
