

Index

---

- Aavik, K. 325
Abbott, A. 41
Abendroth, A.K. 14, 26, 184
Ahde, P. 327
Albert, C. 163
Alexander, J. 40
Allmendinger, J. 16, 17, 203, 352
Alonso-Vilar, O. 166
Andersen, T.M. 205
Anderson, B. 328
Anker, R. 3, 4, 9, 185, 205, 206, 207, 219 arguments (for/on) crowding 12–13
    employment protection legislation 308
    family policies 22, 309
    gender culture 308–9
    occupational specificity 17, 306
    public employment 20, 22, 307–8 service sector employment 307
    standardization 17, 306
Arrow, K. 10
Arts, W. 66
Arulampalam, W. 4
Austen, S. 88, 89, 100
Australia(n) 23, 353, 359–60, 363, 374
    see also pathways into the labor market in Australia
    gender wage gap in 100
    Standard Classification of Occupations
    (ASCO) Second Edition 91
Austria 42, 66, 72, 288
- Balcells, L. 164
Ballarino, G. 143, 144, 146, 152, 153
Baranowska, A. 40
Barbieri, P. 143, 144, 146, 152, 153
Barbulescu, R. 64
Barón, J.D. 22, 87, 100
Baron, J.N. 10
Barone, C. 142, 152
Barrientos, A. 205
- Becker, G.S. 7, 10, 282, 351
Becker, R. 247, 267
Beck-Gernsheim, E. 10, 248
Belgium 42, 51, 58, 66, 72, 74
Bell, D. 8
Bentolila, S. 163
Berg, I. 12, 370
Bergmann, B.R. 12, 352
Bernardi, F. 14, 161, 162
Bertrand, M. 242
Bertschy, K. 271, 272, 274, 284
    field division 331
    tripartite classification 361
Bettio, F. 205, 206, 207, 208, 243
Bianchi, S.M. 108
Bidwell, M. 64
Bielby, D. 10, 351, 352
Bielby, W. 9, 10, 351, 352
Bihagen, E. 194, 197, 199
Billari, F.C. 40
Bills, D.B. 107
Blackburn, R.M. 5, 20, 125, 126, 184,
    210, 349
Blades, D. 208
Blaskó, Z. 287
Blau, F.D. 108, 109, 124
Blickenstaff, J.C. 108
Blossfeld, H.-P. 4, 11, 15, 16, 26, 41, 55,
    65, 67, 109, 124, 128, 157, 167, 187,
    194, 246, 248, 250, 251, 295, 360,
    361, 366, 372
    classification 131, 371
    occupational field division 24–5, 331
    skill demand level of occupations 26
Boeri, T. 224
Bohle, D. 78
Bol, T. 142, 203, 208
Bondarenko, N.V. 306
Borghans, L. 15, 17, 76
Box-Steffensmeier, J.M. 41
Boye, K. 184

- Bradley, K. 8, 9, 12
 Brainerd, E. 307
 Brandt, M.J. 19
 Breen, R. 9, 162, 203, 351, 352
 Brinbaum, Y. 224
 Broomhill, R. 86
 Brückner, H. 40, 106
 Brunello, G. 16
 Brzinsky-Fay, C. 39, 42, 203
 Buchholz, S. 78, 249, 250, 364
 Büchler, S. 91
 Buchmann, C. 3, 106, 107, 108, 347, 357
 Buchmann, M. 15, 16, 40, 267
 Budig, M. 26
 Bukodi, E. 5, 126, 127, 138, 289, 348
 Bukodi, P.R. 289
 Bühler, C. 310
 Burri, S. 347
 Bygren, M. 185, 186
- Campos, N.F. 288
 CAMSIS scale 128
 Card, D. 14
 Cardak, B. 88
 CASMIN educational classification 128, 210, 251
 Chaintreuil, L. 222
 Chan, T.W. 123
 Chang, M.L. 6, 12, 14, 17, 18, 19, 20, 22, 76, 184, 329, 350, 353
 changing educational pathways and institutional structures 3–35
   competing theoretical perspectives on 7–15 educational attainment and gender segregation 14–15 expectations of gender convergence 7–8 expectations of persistent gender inequalities 8–11 horizontal differentiation and emergency of vertical inequalities 11–13
     tertiarization and horizontal differentiation 13–14 research design and analytical strategy for 23–7 data, samples and definition of first labor market entry 24 measuring horizontal gender differences 24–5 measuring vertical gender inequalities 26–7 and role of national institutional settings 16–23 country commonalities and placement 22–3
     gender culture 19–20
     labor market structures and employment protection legislation 17–19 structure of educational system 16–17 welfare states and family policies 20–22
- Charles, M. 4, 5, 8, 9, 13, 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, 62, 63, 64, 76, 125, 184, 185, 267–8, 275, 340, 349, 352, 359, 370
 Checchi, D. 16
 Cheung, S.Y. 9, 123, 124
 Chisholm, L. 40
 Cobb-Clark, D. 22, 87, 100
 Colding, B. 207
 Coleman, J.S. 107
 comparative perspective on gendered labor market outcomes (and) 62–81
   data and methods 64–8
   country-level variables 66–7
   individual level variables 65–6 findings: descriptive results 68–9 findings: multivariate results:
     horizontal gender differences 70–74
     comparison of net and normal Duncan index 70, 72
     country-level 72–4
     individual-level 70
   findings: multivariate results: vertical gender inequalities 74–6
     country-level 74–6
     individual-level 74
   summary and conclusion 76–8
   theoretical background: horizontal gender differences 63–4 theoretical background: vertical gender inequalities 64 concentration of women in occupations characterized by lower earnings studies 12
 Cooke, L.P. 248
 Cotter, D. 126
 Couppié, T. 222

- Cox proportional hazard model 51, 53, 56
- Curtis, D. 88, 89
- Cutuli, G. 143
- Dämmrich, J. 360, 373
- de Lange, M. 39
- De Lillo, A. 145, 377
- del Rio, C. 166
- Denmark (and) 23, 42, 50, 51, 56, 66, 72, 353, 360, 361, 362, 363, 371, 373 see also youth labor market entry:
 gender-based analysis
 Integrated Database for Labor Market Research (IDA) 204, 209
 Statistics Denmark 209
- Dex, S. 5, 125, 127, 348
- DiPrete, T.A. 3, 106, 107, 108, 347, 357
- dissimilarity index (Duncan and Duncan) 65, 67, 70, 76, 168, 188, 210, 218, 233, 274, 295, 314, 333–4, 340, 359, 360
- do institutions matter? see Russia, Soviet/Post-Soviet: occupational gender segregation
- Dockery, A.M. 88
- Doeringer, P.B. 10, 12, 370
- Dolado, J. 163
- Dolton, P.J. 39
- Doms, M. 109
- Douglas, M. 304
- Drobnič, S. 109
- Dryler, H. 15
- du Bois-Reymond, M. 40
- Duncan, B. 25, 128, 145, 188, 233, 274, 295
- Duncan, G.J. 300
- Duncan, O. 25, 65, 128, 145, 188, 233, 274, 295
- Duncan Index 65, 67, 70, 72, 76, 93, 168, 210, 218, 314, 333–4, 340, 359, 360
- Dunifon, R. 300
- Dupcsik, C. 289
- Durkheim, E. 320
- Duru-Bellat, M. 242
- Duvander, A.-Z. 186
- Ebralidze, E. 205, 208
- Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) (and) Better Life indices 287
- countries/nations 109, 287
- female participation in Switzerland 268
- gender inequalities 143
- regulations in Estonia 328
- report on larger gender wage gaps among more educated employees (2013) 277
- statistics on gender pay gap in developed countries 288
- wages in Switzerland (2013) 279
- educational choices, age at which made 15
- educational pathways and gender differences in labor market entry in France (and) 222–45
 analytical sample 227
 conclusion 242–3
 data – Génération 2004 survey (Cereq) 227
- the education system 223–4
- horizontal and vertical gender inequality links: multivariate analysis 237–42
- rate of employment for women (2005) 225
- results for 228–37
 gender patterns in entrants' educational pathways 228–31
 gender type of occupation 234–6
 horizontal differences at labor market entry 231–4
 horizontal and vertical differences in the first job 231
- overall occupational gender segregation 231–4 see also surveys
- sectors of employment 234
- vertical gender differences in labor market entry 236–7
- variables 227–8
 young people's unemployment 224–5
- educational pathways and gender differences at labor market entry in Spain (and) 161–83
- conclusions 181
- data and analytical sample 166 see also surveys
- descriptive analysis 167–71
- multivariate analyses: educational pathways/gender vertical

- inequalities 171–9
- multivariate analyses: educational pathways/horizontal gender differences 179–80
- the educational system 161–3
- gender culture and family policies 164–5
- hypotheses 165–6
- labor market structures and employment protection 163–4
- Ehmke, T. 248
- Elias, P. 65
- Elzinga, C.H. 40
- Emerek, R. 210
- employment in service sector 18
- England, P. 12, 14, 109, 126, 351, 352
- Epiphane, D. 222
- Erikson, R. 186
- Eriksson, T. 205
- Esping-Anderson, G. 18, 20, 22, 63, 66, 248, 372
- Estévez-Abe, M. 16, 18, 22, 23, 64, 164, 353
- Estonia 23, 66, 353, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366–7, 371, 374 see also male and female labor market entrants in Estonia
- European Commission 234
- European Community Household Panel (ECHP) 23, 353
- dataset 42
- European Union (and) see also surveys
  - EU countries 225
  - EU-27 64, 234
- event history analysis 41
  - Cox regression model 42
  - Kaplan–Meier curves 41, 50
- Falk, S. 249
- Fan, P.-L. 5, 348
- Fenger, H.J. 22
- Fenger, M. 78
- Fernández, F. 163
- Ferrarini, T. 186
- Ferrera, M. 22, 66, 372
- Field, S. 163
- Finland 42, 66, 72, 74, 288
- Fondeur, Y. 224
- France 23, 42, 50, 58, 66, 72, 353, 359, 363, 371, 373 see also educational pathways and gender differences in
  - labor market entry in France and classification Nomenclature Economique de Synthèse (NES) 234
- Franzen, A. 270
- Franzese, R.J. 67
- Frey, M. 288
- Frumin, I. 305
- Fullerton, K.F.K. 27
- Fullin, G. 143
- Galindom, C. 106
- Gallie, D. 125
- Gamoran, A. 106
- Gangl, M. 15, 43, 104, 152, 203, 204, 271
- Gans-Morse, J. 372
- Ganzeboom, H.B.G. 331
- García-Peñalosa, C. 9, 351, 352
- García-Pérez, I. 163
- Gatta, M. 126–7
- Geißler, R. 247, 248
- Gelissen, J. 66
- GEM (gender empowerment measure) 67
- gender differences at labor market entry (and) see individual subject entries
  - changing educational pathways and institutional structures 3–35
  - conclusion 56–8
  - educational pathways and gender differences at labor market entry in Spain 161–83
  - long-term consequences of gender differences in labor market entry in the US 104–21
  - shifting education/economic structures – consequences for gender differences 122–41
- gender differences/inequalities in first job: concepts and measures (and) 349–51
  - common methodology 350–51
  - common research agenda 350
  - vertical gender inequalities and horizontal gender differences 349–50
- gender and education in early labor market careers in Italy: long-term trends 142–60
  - conclusion 155–7
  - data and methods for 144–5 see also

- surveys
  - descriptive results for 145–50
  - multivariate analyses for 150–55
  - employment insecurity at first job 153–5
  - prestige score of first job 150–53
  - research goals and hypotheses for 144
- gender stereotypes 207, 222, 320, 377
  - persistence of 9
- gendered school-to-work transitions 39–56
  - gendered transition durations 50–56
  - method and data for 41–2
  - types of 42–50
- gender-specific selectivity 15
- Gerber, T.P. 9, 305, 306, 311
- Germany 23, 42, 50, 51, 66, 72, 107, 224, 288, 353, 364, 366–7
  - West 357, 360, 361–2, 363, 364, 367, 371, 374 see also West Germany: cohort comparison of gender differences at labor market entry
- Gilbert, N. 205
- Glorieux, I. 41
- Goedegebuure, L. 106
- Goldin, C. 12, 107
- Golsch, K. 161, 163
- González López, M.J. 164
- Gornick, J.C. 207
- le Grand, C. 185
- Greece 42, 50, 51, 58, 66
- Greskovits, B. 78
- Grönlund, A. 12
- Groot, L. 15, 17, 76
- Grunow, D. 249
- Grusky, D. 4, 5, 9, 16, 18, 19, 20, 62, 63, 64, 76, 184, 185, 349, 352, 359, 370
- Guégnard, C. 224
- Guetto, G. 143
- Gundert, S. 56
- Guner, N. 164
- Guo, J. 205

- Hakim, C. 3, 4, 9, 13, 18, 77, 307, 347, 352, 376
- Halldén, K. 184, 185, 186, 191, 199
- Halsey, A.H. 123
- Hansson, L. 325
- Härkönen, J. 194, 197, 199
- Harrison, L. 304
- Harter, S. 298

- Hauser, R.M. 111
- Hayes, J.A. 111
- Heath, A. 123, 124
- Hecken, A.E. 267, 301
- Hegewisch, A. 6
- Helemäe, J. 326, 327, 328, 329
- Hermann, Z. 296
- Hodson, R. 107
- Hofäcker, D. 19, 205, 206, 250
- Hofmeister, H. 4, 372
- Hoheisel, M. 206
- Holloway, G. 123
- Holst, E. 249
- horizontal gender differences 352
- horizontal gender segregation 340
- horizontal segregation 111
- Huang, Q. 41
- Huber, J. 40
- human capital theory 7–8, 282, 351, 362, 365
- Hungary 23, 66, 72, 74, 353, 359, 360, 362, 363, 371, 374 see also impact of gender culture in Hungary
- Huntington, S. 304
- Hupka-Brunner, S. 269, 270

- Iannelli, C. 4, 56, 62, 162, 376
- identity-formation model (Bielby and Bielby) 10
- Imdorf, C. 124
- impact of gender culture in Hungary (and) 287–303 see also surveys conclusion 300–301 datasets 291–2 see also surveys EU labor force survey 291, 292 Hungarian life course survey 291–2 horizontal differences 292–5 traditional male-breadwinner gender culture 289 vertical inequalities 295–300
- Index of Dissimilarity 112 see also dissimilarity index (Duncan and Duncan) and Duncan Index
- institutional theories 10
- Ionescu, A.M. 203
- IP index 25, 93, 128, 145, 188, 210, 218, 233, 234, 274, 314, 333–4, 359 see also Karmel, T. and MacLachlan, M.
- Ireland 42, 43, 50, 51, 58, 66, 74
- ISCO occupational classification 359

- ISEI socioeconomic status 276–7
 Ishida, H. 124
 Issehnane, S. 226
 Italy 23, 42, 50, 51, 56, 58, 66, 142–60, 353, 359, 361, 365, 366, 373 see also gender and education in early labor market careers in Italy: long-term trends
- Jacob, B.A. 298
 Jacob, M. 104, 107
 Jacobs, J.A. 4, 10, 246, 351, 352
 Jann, B. 272
 Jarman, J. 5, 6, 12, 125, 126, 126, 127,
 349, 350
 Jefferson, T. 87
 Johnstone, M. 87
 Jolliffe, D. 288
 Jones, B.S. 41
 Jones, F.L. 377
 Jonsson, J.O. 186, 203
 Jude, N. 248
 Jusenius, C.L. 124
- Kahn, L.M. 108, 109
 Kalleberg, A.L. 3, 4, 12, 64, 370
 Kalmus, V. 329
 Kalter, F. 67
 Kandolin, L. 325
 Kanter, M. 17, 26, 364
 Karmel, T. 25, 128, 145, 188, 210, 233, 274 see also IP index and MacLachlan, M.
- Katz, K. 307
 Katz, L.F. 107
 Keck, A. 268, 270–71
 Kelly, E. 40
 Kerckhoff, A.C. 40, 107, 142
 Kerr, C. 13
 Kertesi, G. 288
 Kilbourne, B.S. 109
 Kilpi, E. 123
 Kleinjans, K.J. 27
 Klymkowski, D.H. 108
 Kogan, I. 39
 Köllö, J. 288
 Konietzka, D. 310, 320
 Korpi, T. 39, 40
 Korpi, W. 23, 184
 Kosyakova, Y. 4, 26, 78, 304, 365, 377
 Kraaykamp, G. 9
- Krasil'nikova, M.D. 306
 Kraus, V. 26
 Kriesi, I. 40
 Krymkowski, D.H. 126
 Kulawik, T. 206
 Kumlin, J. 184
 Künzler, J. 249
 Kuziemko, I. 107
- Lamb, S. 85, 88, 100
 Lapidus, G.W. 307
 Lassibille, G. 163
 Laurijssen, I. 41
 Leemann, R.J. 268, 270–71
 Leibfried, S. 372
 Leicht, K. 6, 12, 350
 legislation (for/on) employment protection 16, 17–19, 164, 308, 352
   equal treatment 347
   pay equity 109
 lessons learned from the comparative perspective (and) 347–81
   conclusion 375–7
   country-specific case studies 353–6 gender differences/inequalities in first job: concepts and measures see subject entry
   major comparative findings 357–72 educational attainment and gender inequalities in first job 367–70
   gender differences in educational attainment in first job 357–8 horizontal gender differences in first job 358–62
   relationships between horizontal differentiation and vertical gender inequalities in first job 370–72
   vertical gender inequalities:
   occupational prestige and skill level 365–7
   vertical gender inequalities: wages and job authority 362–5
   theoretical expectations 351–3 welfare regimes 372–5
 Leth-Sørensen, S. 206, 208
 Levy, R. 268, 270, 283
 Lewis, E. 109
 Lewis, J.B. 68
 Li, S. 14

- liberal industrialism theory 8
- Liefbroer, A.C. 40
- Lindemann, K. 327, 329
- Linzer, D.A. 68
- Liefbroer, A.C. 40
- Lindemann, K. 327, 329
- Linzer, D.A. 68
- Löfström, Å. 185
- long-term consequences of gender differences in labor market entry in the US (and) 104–21
- data and operationalization 110–11
- early horizontal segregation and midlife inequalities 115–17
- the education system 105–6
- gender differences in education 107–8
- and segmentation in the STEM field 108
- gender and racial differences in the labor market 108–10
- summary and discussion of 117–18
- vertical gender inequalities, education and role of first job 111–15
- vocational education, labor market entry and institutional linkages 106–7
- Lovász, A. 288, 290
- Lucas, S.R. 8
- Lück, D. 19
- Luxembourg 42, 66, 70, 72
- MacIndoe, H. 41
- McKenzie, P. 88, 100
- MacLachlan, M. 25, 128, 145, 188, 210, 233, 274 see also IP index
- McMillan, J. 88, 100
- McPhail, F. 88, 89, 100
- Madsen, P.K. 205
- Maffesoli, M. 309
- Magnusson, C. 6, 12, 350
- Maier, F. 249
- male and female labor market entrants in Estonia (and) 325–44
- conclusion 339–41
- data and method 330 – see also surveys
- educational system 326–7
- gender culture and welfare state 328–9
- labor market 327–8
- results 331–9
- analyzing vertical inequalities at labor market entry 334–9
- gender patterns in educational pathways 331–2
- horizontal differences at labor market entry 332–4
- Mandel, H. 4, 16, 19, 20, 22, 23, 62, 63, 64, 109, 184, 185, 353
- Manning, A. 126
- Marini, M.M. 5, 348
- Marks, G. 88, 100
- Martin, J. 122
- Martínez-Granado, M. 163
- Mayer, K.U. 40, 56, 106, 249
- measurement of
- horizontal differences (Duncan and Duncan) 25
- occupational field division (Blossfeld) 24–5
- sectors classification (Singelmann) 24
- Mejer, L. 42
- Melkas, H. 185, 205, 206, 207, 219
- Méron, M. 233
- Mertens, A. 39
- Mills, M. 249
- Minas, C. 58
- Mincer, J. 7
- Minni, C. 224
- Mintz, B. 108, 126
- modernization theory 8, 11, 40, 351
- Mood, C. 377
- Moreno Mínguez, A. 164
- Morgan, L.A. 109
- Morris, M. 108
- Moss, P. 67
- Möttus, R. 327
- Muller, L. 237
- Müller, W. 14, 16, 17, 128, 161, 203, 247, 352
- Muñoz-Bullóon, F. 163
- Murnane, R.J. 300
- Namboordiri, K. 107
- Narusk, A. 325, 328, 329
- Nermo, M. 22, 23, 184, 191
- Netherlands 42, 66, 72
- Nico, M. 40
- Norris, K. 86, 88
- Norway 64, 66, 72
- Oaxaca, R.L. 240
- and Oaxaca–Blinder decomposition 240

- Obama, President B. 104
 Oberholzer, K. 248
 O'Connell, P. 39
 occupational gender segregation 6, 12,
 125, 144, 166, 189, 191–2, 198,
 231–4, 304–20, 350, 359–60
 occupational specificity 16, 17, 86,
 142–3, 162, 248, 283, 287, 289, 300,
 306, 319, 352
 OECD see Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD)
 Ogloblin, C. 306
 O'Reilly, J. 42
 Orenstein, M.A. 372
 Orloff, A.S. 248, 364
 Osborne Groves, M. 300
 Osterloh, M. 248
 Ostner, I. 10
- parental leave indicators 67
 Parsons, T. 8, 351
 pathways into the labor market in Australia (and) 85–103
 discussion and conclusion 99–101
 the education system 87–8
 existing research 88–9
 findings 92–9
 control variables 98–9
 descriptive statistics 92–3 substantive findings for gender 93–8
 the labor market 86–7
 methodology 89–92
 analytic strategy 91
 data: LSAY 1995 survey 88–9, 91, 92 independent variables 90–91
 key variables 90
 vocational education and training
 (VET) sector 85
 Pearson, M. 208
 peer pressure 9
 Peracchi, F. 42
 Perales, F. 125, 127
 Petersen, T. 109
 Pfau-Effinger, B. 20, 249
 Phelps, E.S. 10, 287
 Piore, M.J. 10, 12, 370
 PISA assessments 248
 Plasman, R. 166
 Plougmann, P. 205
 Pocock, B. 90
 Polachek, S.W. 9, 352 see also rational choice theory
 Poland 65, 66
 Polavieja, J.G. 13
 Pöldsaa, R. 329
 Pollock, G. 41
 pollution theory 12
 Portugal 42, 50, 51, 58, 66
 post-industrialism theory 8
 Powel, M. 205
 Prandy, K. 377
 Preston, A. 87
 Puur, A. 327
- Radaev, V. 308
 Rajasalu, T. 327
 Ransom, M.R. 240
 rational choice theory 9
 Reardon, S.F. 106
 Reid, L. 12
 Reskin, B. 6, 12, 350
 Reyneri, E. 143
 Riedmann, A. 289
 Roberts, C. 122
 Roksa, J. 107
 Romania 66, 70
 Roos, P. 127
 Roosalu, T. 325, 329
 Rosenbaum, J.E. 107
 Rosenberg, M. 298
 Rosenfeld, R.A. 3, 4, 64, 184
 Roshchin, S. 306
 Rothman, S. 87
 Rotter, J. 298
 Rubery, J. 12
 Ruiz-Castillo, J. 163
 Rumberger, R.W. 88, 100
 Russell, H. 39
 Russia, Soviet/Post-Soviet: occupational gender segregation (and) 304–24
 conclusions 319–20
 data and methods 309–11 see also
 surveys
 data and analytical sample 309–10 variables and methods 310–11
 educational system 305–6
 gender culture and family policies
 308–9
 labor market structure and employment protection regulation
 306–8

- results 311–19
  - analyzing vertical inequalities at labor market entry 314–19
  - gender patterns in educational pathways of entrants 312
  - horizontal differences at labor market entry 313–14
- Russia 23, 353, 361, 363, 364, 371 see also Soviet regime/Union, fall of
- Ryan, C. 88
- Ryan, P. 142
- Rys, V. 78

- Saar, E. 326, 327, 328, 329, 364
- Sacchi, S. 275
- Sackmann, R. 40
- Sainsbury, D. 23
- Salido, O. 164
- Saraceno, C. 164
- Sayer, L.C. 19
- Schaefer, D.R. 305
- Schaeper, H. 249
- Schäfer, A. 65, 77
- Scherer, S. 142, 143, 144, 146, 152, 153, 204, 208
- Schizzerotto, A. 142, 145, 377
  - and De Lillo-Schizzerotto prestige score 145
- Schmelzer, P. 40
- school-to-work transition and gender-specific patterns 6
- segmentation theory 10–11
- Semyonov, M. 4, 15, 19, 20, 22, 23, 62, 63, 64, 109, 184, 185, 353
- Shalev, M. 22, 23
- Shanahan, M.J. 40
- Sharp, R. 86
- Shavit, Y. 16, 17, 161, 203, 247, 248, 352
- shifting education/economic structures
  - consequences for gender differences 122–41
  - changes in education and economic structures in twentieth century Britain (and) 123–7
  - changes in educational pathways 124
  - labor market: horizontal gender differences and occupational activities 125
  - reversal of gender gap in educational attainment 123–4
  - vertical inequalities: quality of occupations; first significant occupation 125–7
  - data and methods 127–8
  - results 128–37
    - descriptive analysis 128–30
    - multivariate analyses 131–7
- Simonnet, V. 224
- Simonson, J. 41
- Singelmann, J. 145, 146, 217, 251, 360, 362
  - classification 111, 152, 153, 210, 211, 234, 371
  - collapsed classification 331
  - occupational classification 210
  - sectors classification 24, 227, 273, 275, 331, 361
- Sissoko, S. 166
- Skopek, J. 78, 250
- Smyth, E. 4, 15, 17, 56, 62, 76, 376
- socialization 9
- sociological theories of
  - liberal industrialism (Treiman) 8
  - modernization (Parsons) 8
  - post-industrialism (Bell) 8
- Soro-Bonmatí, A. 62
- Soroko, E. 320
- Soskice, D. 249
- Sousa-Poza, A. 268, 271
- Soviet regime/Union, fall of 309, 311, 313, 318, 332, 360, 362, 365, 374
- Spain, D. 108
- Spain 23, 42, 50, 51, 58, 66, 353, 359, 361, 365, 366–7, 371, 373 see also educational pathways and gender differences at labor market entry in Spain
  - and Spanish National Classification of Occupations (CNO-94) 167
- specialized human capital hypothesis 13
- Standard International Occupational Prestige Score (SIOPS) 26, 187–8, 194, 197, 377 see also Treiman, D.J.
- standardization 306
- statistical discrimination 10
- Steinmetz, S. 4, 9, 14, 15, 16, 17, 20, 22, 23, 62, 63, 64, 65, 76, 77, 125, 128, 184, 185
- Stier, H. 20, 22, 63, 184
- Surette, B.J. 108

- surveys (on)
- British Household Panel Study 122
  - Education and Employment (EES) (2005) 310
  - Estonian Social Survey (ESS) (2004) 330
  - European Union Labor Force Survey (EU LFS) 23, 62, 64, 289, 291, 292, 353
  - French Labor Force Survey (2005) 232
  - French school leavers: Génération 2004 (Cereq) 227
  - Generations and Gender (GGG, Russia) 310
  - German National Educational Panel Study (NEPS) 246, 250
  - Hungarian Life Course Survey (HLCS) 289–90, 291–2
  - Longitudinal Surveys of Australian Youth (LSAY) (1995) 88–9, 91, 92, 101
  - Multipurpose Survey of Italian Households (ISTAT) (2009/2012) 144
  - National Longitudinal Study of Youth (NLSY79) (2013) 107, 110
  - Program for International Student Assessment (PISA) (2000) 273
  - Spanish Labor Market Survey (SLMS) 166–7
  - Swedish Level of Living (LNU) 186–7, 197
  - Swiss youth panel – Transitions from Education to Employment (TREE) 273, 279
  - Women, Employment and Society Survey (1980) 122
  - Svallfors, S. 57
  - Svarer, M. 205
  - Sverke, M. 41
  - Swaffield, J. 126
  - Sweden 23, 42, 66, 72, 74, 224, 353, 359, 361, 362, 365, 366–7, 373 see also vertical and horizontal gender segregation: birth cohorts in Sweden (1925–85)
  - Switzerland (and) 23, 64, 65, 288, 353, 359, 363, 364, 371, 373–4
    - data from census and Swiss Household Panel 268
    - Swiss Classification of Economic Activities 273
    - Swiss Standard Classification of Occupations (SSCO 2000) 274
  - Switzerland: gender differences at labor market entry (and) 267–86 see also surveys
    - conclusion 279–83
    - data and methods 273–5
    - educational system, gendered educational pathways and VET programs 269–71
  - OECD ranking of overall female participation 268
  - results 275–9
    - descriptive analysis of horizontal gender differences 275–6
    - descriptive analysis of vertical gender inequalities 276–8
    - multivariate analysis of gender wage differences 278–9
  - transitions from education to first employment 271–3
- Täht, K. 329
- Takács, J. 289
- Tam, T. 13, 351, 352
- Teplova, T. 309
- Testa, M.R. 289
- Theelin, J.R. 106
- theory of devaluation 12
- Timm, A. 4
- Todd, P.E. 106
- Tönnisson, E. 326
- Tóth, O. 289
- Treiman, D.J. 8, 331, 377
  - occupational prestige score (SIOPS) 187–8
- Triventi, M. 4, 16, 62, 78, 126
- Tsay, A. 41
- Tyack, D.B. 105
- United Kingdom (UK) (and) 23, 42, 43, 50, 51, 58, 66, 104, 122–41, 224, 353, 359–60, 361, 362, 363, 365, 366, 368, 369, 371, 374
  - research on gender differences in educational attainment 357–8
  - shifting education/economic structures

- consequences for gender differences see subject entry
- White Paper: 'Technical Education' 123
- United States (US) (and) 23, 353, 360, 368, 371, 374
  - gender gap 363
  - long-term consequences of gender differences in labor market entry in the US see subject entry
  - 'No Child Left Behind' (NCLB) regulation 106
  - research on women and men in higher education 357
- Unt, M. 39, 327
- Van Bavel, J. 3
- van Eijken, H. 347
- van de Werfhorst, H.G. 9, 56, 142, 203, 208
- Velez, M. 107
- Verashchagina, A. 205, 206, 207, 208, 243
- vertical gender segregation 340
- vertical and horizontal gender segregation: birth cohorts in Sweden (1925–85) 184–202
  - analytical strategy for 188
  - conclusions for 197–9
  - data: Swedish Level of Living Surveys (LNU) 186–7, 197 see also surveys
  - findings for 188–97
    - description 188–9
    - horizontal gender differences 189–94
    - vertical gender inequalities 194–7
  - and the Swedish setting 185–6
  - variables for 187–8
- vertical inequality and horizontal differences concepts 6
- VET (vocational education and training) 85, 87–9, 97, 100, 276–9, 282–3
  - careers 276
  - graduates and gender segregation 272, 283
  - programs 269–71
- Vihalemm, T. 329
- Vincent-Lancrin, S. 3, 122, 347
- Volkov, V. 308
- Vöormann, R. 325, 328
- Waldfogel, J. 109
- Wallerstein, M. 19
- Warren, J.R. 111, 199
- Weiss, F. 104, 107, 111
- West Germany: cohort comparison of gender differences at labor market entry (and) 246–66
  - concluding discussion 263
  - data, variables and methods 250–51 see also surveys
  - educational system and educational expansion 247–8
  - employment relations and economic structure 249–50
  - results: descriptive findings 251–53
    - gender differences in education 251–3
    - gender differences in the first job 253
  - results: multivariate findings 253–63
    - leadership and executive tasks in first job 260–63
    - skill level of first job and models 253–60
  - welfare state and gender relations 248–9
- Westergaard-Nielsen, N. 205
- Western, B. 108
- Wharton, A.S. 8
- Wilms, W.W. 107
- Wilton, N. 9
- Wingens, M. 40
- Wirtz, C. 42
- Wolbers, M. 14, 412
- Wolpin, K.I. 106
- Xu, Y.J. 108
- Yaish, M. 20, 63, 184
- Yonay, Y.P. 26
- youth labor market entry: gender-based analysis (and) 203–21 see also Denmark
  - data, research design and methods 209
  - institutional setting 204–8
    - labor market model and employment system 205–7
    - mainstream education and training system 207–8
  - research questions 208–9

- results 211–17
  - gender patterns in educational pathways in first significant job 211–13
  - horizontal differences in first significant job 213–16
  - vertical inequalities in first significant job 217
- summary and conclusion 217–19
- welfare state system and gender regime 205
- Zangger, C. 267
- Zizza, R. 143