Index

access to information 78–86, 111, 159
and justification of increased disclosure 159–60
and Lord Mansfield 159
as a prerequisite for the proper market functioning 78–86
imbalance of 4
superior 38
accidentalia negotii 33, 42
accusation of unnecessary paternalism see paternalism
acquis communautaire
of insurance law 194, 222–5
see also PEICL; Solvency II advanced information policy 125, 141 advantageous selection see adverse selection
adverse selection 22–3, 86–97 distinction between causality and correlation 90–91
lack of empirical studies 89, 92
on the suppliers site 96–7, 292
relativisation of 92
vs. advantageous selection 91
Affordable Care Act 279–80
Akerlof, George A. 5, 92–6
Aldrich v Norwich Union Life Insurance 174
see also Norwich Union Life Insurance
anomalies see demand for insurance anti-paternalism see paternalism argument of costs 44–9
lacking empirical data 48
relativisation 46–8
vs. zero-sum-game 45
see also cooling-off periods
Arrow, Kenneth J. 78
Assicurazioni Generali Spa v Arab Insurance Group 173
attention as a scarce good 267, 281
Bacon, Francis 1–2, 4
Bank of Nova Scotia v Hellenic Mutual War Risk Association 172
Banque Financière de la Cité SA v Westgate Insurance Co 164
see also Banque Keyser
Banque Keyser Ullmann SA v Skandia
(U.K.) Insurance Co Ltd 155
see also Banque Financière de la Cité SA v Westgate Insurance
Barclays Bank v Competition
Commission 187, 189
Becker, Gary S. 98
behavioural finance 102
behavioural law and economics 102–10
objections against 108–10
possible future 110
vs. traditional economic assumptions 17–19
Bentham, Jeremy 97
Bernhard Schulte v Nile Holdings 150 biased utility/value perception 103 biases see endowment effect; status quo effect; sunk cost fallacy; mental accounting boundaries of human rationality see behavioural law and economics;
homo oeconomicus
British Bankers Association, R v The Financial Services Authority 189
Britton v Royal Insurance Company 161
Brotherton & Ors v Aseguradora Colseguros 152, 160
Informed insurance choice?

Carter v Boehm 152, 154, 156–8, 160–61, 163, 169

Caveat emptor principle 6, 151, 154, 242

Charles Stanley v Adams 149

cheapest cost avoider see cheapest information provider

cheapest information provider 25, 28, 159

Chicago school 17–18

CIDRA 10–11, 160–2, 178–9, 190

Coase, Ronald 17

COBS 186

comparability of insurance products 68, 75, 111, 120, 132, 271–3, 287

comparison websites 287–9

cross-market online comparison in the Netherlands 139–40

see also cooling-off periods; information competitive equilibrium see equilibrium concealment see fraud

Conduct of Business Sourcebook see COBS

customer

infra-marginal 76

marginal 76

protection law 3

term (COBS) 190, 199

vulnerable 274–5, 290

see also consumer insurance law; insured; policyholder consumer behaviour see behavioural law and economics; reading behaviour consumer bodies see information intermediaries

consumer contract

term 10, 190, 199

see also consumer; consumer insurance law; COBS

consumer decisions

willingness to read 111–12

see also behavioural law and economics

Consumer Insurance (Disclosure and Representations) Act 2012 see CIDRA

consumer insurance law

and CIDRA 10

and COBS 187, 190, 199

and PEICL 12

and the VVG-InfoV 204

term 9–12

unsuitable classification concept 11

vs. mass risk insurance 11–12

see also CIDRA; COBS; PEICL

customer magazines see information intermediaries

Container Transport International v Oceanus Mutual Underwriting 173 contra proferentem rule see standardised information duties under the PEICL contract hopping see cooling-off periods contracts de jure gentium 155

contractual solidarity 36–7

cooling-off periods

and compensation duties 62

and contract hopping 63

and endowment effect 73

and information model 61

and moral hazard 62

and over-optimism 60

and product comparison 75

and status quo effects 73–4

and suicide cases 97–8

and sunk cost fallacy 73

argument of costs 60, 66–7, 74–5

awareness of 71–2

English and German regulations compared 64

general idea 58–66

incentives for the insurer 75–6

legislative trend towards 59–60

legitimisation of 58–9

length 64–5

negative effects 62–5

on an optional basis 60

policy perspectives 77–8

suitability for insurance contracts 66–78

see also search qualities/goods; experience qualities/goods; credence qualities/goods
Index

Crane v Hannover Rückversicherungs AG 162 credence qualities/goods 68–9
and insurance 68–70
and utmost good faith 71
cross-market comparison see comparability of insurance products culpa in contrahendo 185, 204–5 customer see insured; policyholder damages under ICOBS 241
under s 6 ICA 184, 245, 248–9, 254, 257
under s 7 ICA 203–4
under s 17 MIA 155, 163–5, 167–70, 174–6 under s 138D FSMA 170, 188, 192, 242
under the PEICL 234, 259, 261, 264
under Treu und Glauben 184, 248
see also culpa in contrahendo Debreu, Gerard 78
demand for insurance 18–22
anomalies 21, 103
demand-related provision of information see information deviatiions between application form and policy see individualised information duties under the PEICL dilemma of imperfect information 56, 79, 269 direct selling 2, 95
directive on consumer rights 61 discernible cause as trigger for information duties see information duties under ICOBS; individualised information duties under s 6 ICA; Treu und Glauben disclosure duties see information duties
Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde syndrome see homo oeconomicus Dunlop Haywards (DHL) v Barbon Insurance Group 189 economic analysis of law normative approach 17
positive approach 17
economic imperialism 97
see also Becker, Gary S. economics of information 15–18 efficiency allocative 53
and avoidance of misallocation 52–7 and information disclosure 84
Kaldor-Hicks 55–6
Pareto 55–6, 78
productive 53
emotions see homo oeconomicus endowment effect 73, 103, 129 Endress v Allianz 202
equilibrium 53
equitable principles 154–5
and lex mercatoria 155
and utmost good faith doctrine 155 essentialia negotii 33, 42, 124, 230 exclusion clauses see risk exclusion experience qualities/goods 67, 69
and insurance 68–70
externalities significance of 53, 56, 79
fairness see good faith; utmost good faith fault in negotiation see culpa in contrahendo FCA Handbook see ICOBS
financial capability 141
financial information leaflet see key features documents Financiële bijsluiter see key features documents (in the Netherlands)
First Fundamental Theorem of Welfare Economics 78–9 see also Smith, Adam framing see behavioural law and economics; ‘reframe the frame’ fraud 9, 157
Frost v Black Horse 170
FSMA, s 138D 170, 188, 192, 242
FSMA, s 228(2) 170
FSMA, ss 137A ff 186
full disclosure 30
Informed insurance choice?

full rationality assumption see homo oeconomicus (basic assumptions)

fully informed choices

illness of 119, 132

vs. partially informed choices 271

see also information duties

Gemstone case see Banque Financière

general duty to investigate 291–3

German customary law 185

and liability for non-compliance with 185

German Insurance Contract Act 2008

see ICA

good faith

and the PECL 38–9

and the FCA’s sourcebooks 170–71

in English law 149–52

in German law 180–86

see also Treu und Glauben; utmost

good faith

Goodmann v Central Capital 189

group insurance 88

under the PEICL 219, 225–7

Harrison v Black Horse 189

HHI Casualty and General Insurance v Chase Manhattan Bank 162

homo oeconomicus

adaption possibilities 107

advanced models 99–100

and emotions 105, 126

and prospect theory 100–104

and rhetorical efforts 105

basic assumptions 82–4, 96, 98–110, 282

Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde syndrome 108

opposition in German legal literature

99 parallels to Star Trek 99

prediction power 107

vs. loss aversion 126

see also information acquisition;

model information recipient

human rationality see behavioural law and economics; homo oeconomicus

ICA, s 6 see individualised information duties under s 6 ICA

ICA, s 7 200–209

and VVG-InfoV 201, 204–6

in comparison with ICOBS 195–8,

200–201

legal consequences of a breach 203–4 possibility of waver 202–3

scope of applicability 201

time of performance 201

see also damages

ICOBS 186

and common law 188–9

and utmost good faith 169–70, 188

claims handling 189

general consumer insurance under

187, 190, 199

principle-based approach 187–8 protection policies 187–8, 198, 201,

240–41, 243

pure protection contracts 187, 194–5, 198

see also information duties under

ICOBS

imperialism, economic see economic

imperialism

inadequate triggers of individualised

information duties 290–93

income redistribution 89

indemnity insurance see PEICL independent consultants see

information intermediaries

individual preferences 103

see also risks; risk preferences individualised information duties 272–3

characterisation 42

dissimulation 273–4

economic legitimisation 43

examples 41

inadequate triggers 290–93

primary purpose 43

running costs 41

special requirements 42

type of information transfer 43

typical subject 42

under ICOBS 238–42

under the PEICL 220, 258–67
vs. standardised information duties 13, 41–3, 113
see also information duties;
individualised information duties under (the PEICL; ICOBS; s 6 ICA)
individualised information duties under ICOBS
and caveat emptor principle 242 and payment protection policies 241 and protection policies 240 eligibility checks 241
in comparison with s 6 ICA 245–6 personal recommendations by the insurer 238–9
individualised information duties under s 6 ICA
and complexity of the product 251–4 and costs 253–4
and distribution channel 243
and legal certainty 257
and specific circumstances 247–52 background 243
case law 248–9
criticism 246–7, 250–52, 256–8
discernable cause for advice 182–3, 244–7, 291–2
duty to enquire 250
in comparison with ICOBS 245–6
possibility of waiver 254–6 purpose 249
rebuttable presumption of a need for advice 251, 257, 291
rejection of progressive approaches 256–8
restrictions 247–54
sanctions for a breach 245
scope 249–52
spontaneous duties to ask 251–2 individualised information duties under the PEICL
about commencement of cover 263
and distance selling 260
compromise character 260
damages 264
dependence on individual circumstances 259
deviations between application form and policy 264–5
discernable misconceptions 259 documentation duty 262
in case of overinsurance 258–9 relating to gaps in cover 258–9
requirements of form 266–7
sanctions for a breach 261, 264
information
advantage of the insurer 2
and central functions of contract law 16
and property rights 31
as a scarce good 81
as key factor for the contract’s conclusion 1
availability 22
deficit 2
demand-related provision of 120 discouraging effects 31 diverse information interests 15 documentation of 9
forcing by legal regulations 22–39
free 35
limited processing capabilities 104, 112, 125
market related 31
material 33–4
relevant 33–9
right to 6
taken-for-granted 28–9, 42
temporally shifted 28
theory of perfect 79
timely provision of 120
vs. trust 12
see also accidentalia negotii;
cheapest information provider;
dilemma of imperfect
information; essentialia negotii;
information access; information
asymmetries; information duties; information interest;
information intermediaries;
information model; information
overload; informed choice; presentation of information (in
general; individualised;
standardised)
Informed insurance choice?

- Information acquisition
- Marginal costs and benefits 81–3
- Information advantage of the insurer see information
- Information asymmetries 4–6, 24–5, 36, 38, 42, 47, 56–7, 93, 113, 269, 276
- And cooling-off periods 58–9, 66, 77
- And demand behaviour 87, 89
- And information duties 213, 269, 276
- And transaction costs 84
- See also demand for insurance
- Information deficit see information
- Information duties
  - Ambivalence of 23–4
  - And adverse selection 86–97, 292
  - And business ethics 177
  - And contractual solidarity 36–9
  - And full rationality assumptions 97–110
  - And information asymmetries 113, 269, 276
  - And market efficiency 24–5
  - And market failure 56
  - And restriction of choice 57–8
  - As a corrective tool 5
  - As a selection guide 51
  - Content first 276–81
  - Cost-cutting impact of 83
  - Counter arguments against 26–39, 44, 48, 52, 97
  - Economic justification 26–39
  - Effectiveness 23–4
  - Efficiency 81, 84, 110
  - General scope 38
  - Legitimisation and limitation in Carter v Boehm 159–60
  - Leitmotif 24
  - Materiality of facts 149–50, 171–2, 176
  - Mutualy of 153, 161, 167
  - On risk exclusion clauses see risk exclusion
  - Optimal disclosure 25
  - Reason for disillusionment 273–4
  - Restrictions 38
  - Standardised vs. individualised 41–3, 270
  - Tabular systematisation 39
- Tripartite test question 26–39
- Under Solvency II see Solvency II
- See also credence qualities/goods;
  - Experience qualities/goods;
  - Information interest; screening;
  - Search qualities/goods;
  - Signalling; transaction costs
- Information duties under ICOBS
- And Insurance Directives 193–4
- Conceptual criticism 198–200
- Concerning fees 198
- Discernable cause for 196, 291–2
- In comparison with German law 195–8, 200–201
- Initial disclosure document 198
- Policy summary 199
- Relating to distance contracts 190–92
- Relating to product disclosure 192–8
- Standardised vs. individualised 189–90
- Time of performance 197
- Information economics see economics of information
- Information interest
  - Legitimacy of the 27, 33–9, 42, 166, 171
- Information intermediaries 121
- Rating agencies, ratings 121–2, 281
- Information model 3, 6, 44
  - And cooling-off periods 61
  - And information euphoria/fetishism 44
  - See also argument of costs; model information recipient
- Information overload 85, 114–23
  - And German ICA 225–6
  - And PEICL 229
  - As inverted U-curve 115
  - Ways of combatting it 114–23
  - See also presentation of information;
    - Tetrad of overextension of the information recipient
- Informed choice
  - As an over-ambitious goal 68–9, 271–3
  - From a traditional economic perspective 82
  - See also fully informed choice
Index

initial disclosure document see key features documents; information duties under ICOBS institutional law and economics 17
Insurance Conduct of Business Sourcebook see ICOBS insurance contract
as contract uberrimae fidei 149–52, 270
insurance intermediation 2, 40, 81–2, 121, 288
and ICOBS 189, 199
and PEICL 214–15, 229, 261
insurance of fixed sums see PEICL insured
term 12–13
Interfoto Picture Library v Stiletto Visual Programmes 149
invisible hand theory see Smith, Adam

Joel v Law Union and Crown Insurance Company 162
Jones v Environcom 189

Kahneman, Daniel 100–101
see also prospect theory Kaldor-Hicks test 55
key features documents 130–40, 271, 278–9, 289
in England 145–6, 195–6 in the Netherlands 134–6 under the German ICA see key features documents under German law under the ICOBS 195–6, 198–9
under the PEICL 227, 229
key features documents under German law 134, 145–6, 206–8 legal consequences of non-compliance with 208 missing compulsory prescriptions 206 proposals for improvements 206–8
key information document see key features documents KID see key features documents know your customer-rule 292–3

knowledge means power see scientia potentia est Lambert v Co-Operative Insurance Society 162 large risks
and German ICA 10
and PEICL 211
law and economics
and its risk assumptions 21
and profit maximisation 19
and rational choice 19
and utility 19
basic assumptions 18–19
conflict with legal values 16
see also economic analysis of law law merchant see lex mercatoria legitimate information interest see information interest lex mercatoria 149–52, 155
liability insurance see PEICL Lickbarrow v Mason 160
limited information processing see information loss aversion 21, 101–4, 126
and behavioural law and economics 102 as tool to get attention 126–31 loss of neutrality see presentation of information in general magical number seven see Miller, George A.
Mance, Jonathan Lord 7
Mansfield, William M. Lord 152, 159, 169 marginal costs and benefits see information acquisition Marine Insurance Act see MIA market failure 25, 44, 56, 77–8, 86, 92 and Pareto efficiency 54
see also efficiency
market for lemons 92–7
see also Akerlof, George A.
mass risk insurance sector see PEICL;
consumer insurance law
Master v Miller 155
material facts/materiality test see information; information duties mental accounting 145
MIA
applicability to non-marine insurance 168–9 s 17 and its legal consequences 163
s 17 in general 161–3, 168–9
Miller, George A. 117
Mirrlees, James A. 5
misallocations see efficiency; market failure misrepresentation 9, 150
mixed-use policies 11, 190
see also consumer insurance law
model information recipient 274–6
moral hazard 90
and cooling-off periods 62
mutuality of information duties see information duties Norwich Union Life Insurance Society v Qureshi 172, 174
see also Aldrich v Norwich Union Life Insurance Novum Organum see Bacon, Francis opportunistic behaviour of the insurer 22, 292
see also adverse selection optimal disclosure see information duties optional instrument see PEICL out-of-pocket-losses 104
overinsurance 69, 250, 258–9
over-optimism
and doubtful presentation techniques 144
and payment obligations 72 and understimation of costs 144–5 concerning deductibles and exclusion clauses 142–3 concerning personal capabilities 141–2 towards risks 143
see also cooling-off periods
Packaged Retail and Insurance-based Investment Products see PRIIPS Pan Atlantic Insurance Co v Pine Top Insurance 162, 173
Pareto efficiency/superiority see efficiency Pareto optimum 88
partially informed choices 271
paternalism 48–52
accusation of unnecessary 58, 146
and choice design 51–2
and fostering of actual party autonomy 50
relativisation of anti-paternalism arguments 49–51, 146 various forms of 50
patient leaflets 286
Pawson v Watson 155
payment protection policies see ICOBS PECL 218–19
PEICL
access to the 218–27
and American Restatements 219 and group insurances 219, 225–7 and indemnity insurance 218 and insurance of fixed sums 218 and language requirements 220 and large risks 211
and liability insurance 225
and mandatory national law 211 and mass risk insurance 210, 224
and PECL 218–19
and Solvency II 220, 222–4
and the acquis 220–22
and the Insurance Directives 221
and transaction costs 215, 266
as an academic project 210
as an optional instrument 212–14 background and purpose 210–18 challenges 214–15
compromise character 216
consumer protection level 215–16 dependence on the insurer’s decision 215 individualised warning duties 220, 258–67 political perspectives 217
scope of applicability 210–12, 224
Index

single market orientation 210, 212
standardised information duties 220–38
policy model (under German law) 202 policy of fear 126–31
and wearing off effects 127 policy recommendations 77–8, 276, 278–9, 281, 284–6, 290–91 policy summary see information duties under ICOBS policyholder
term 12–13
policyholder protection see consumer insurance law Posner, Richard A. 17, 22–3, 55
pre-contractual information duties of the insurer
term 8–9
preferences
quasi-rational 50
see also risk preferences preliminary insurance contracts see standardised information duties under the PEICL presentation of information in general 102–4, 127, 140, 281–6 loss of neutrality 283
see also presentation of standardised information presentation of standardised information 123, 281–6 continuous monitoring 138
cross-market comparison in the Netherlands 139–40 degree of standardisation 132, 139, 281–6 doubtful techniques 144
fixed order 139
good and poor practices 130
graphical illustrations and their misleading potential 138–9 graphical risk indicators 135 helpful formulations 128–30
in a vivid and individualised way 131 interrogative form 131
lacking incentives of the insurer 133–4 little leeway for insurers 285
loss of neutrality 283
missing prescriptions under German law 206
patient leaflets 286
stand-alone documents 138
PRIIPS 86, 134, 196, 223–4, 229, 277–8, 281, 286
PRIN 192, 240
principle-based approach see ICOBS Principles for Businesses (FCA) see PRIN Principles of European Contract Law see PECL Principles of European Insurance Contract Law see PEICL processing of information see information product comparability see comparability of insurance products; cooling-off periods product information sheet (under German law) see key features documents prospect theory 100–104
protection policies see ICOBS purchasing medicine vs. buying cover 3–4, 272–3, 286 pure protection contracts see ICOBS questions see general duty to investigate; individualised information duties under s 6 ICA;
presentation of standardised information
rating agencies see information intermediaries rational choice model departure from the 106
see also model information recipient; homo oeconomicus rationality see behavioural law and economics reading behaviour 111–12, 114, 207, 283 reasonable expectations see information interest rebuttable presumption of a need for advice 251, 257, 291 recipient of information see model information recipient reciprocity of information duties see information duties (mutuality) redistribution of income see income redistribution
’reframe the frame’ 125
Regulation on Information Duties concerning Insurance Contracts (VVG-InfoV) see ICA, s 7 reinsurance
and German ICA 10, 244
and ICOBS 186
and PEICL 211, 224
relevant information see information Restatement of European Insurance Contract Law see PEICL restriction of choice see information duties risk aversion 19–20
and over-optimism 142–3
risk perception
general misconception 157–8
of smokers 143
see also risk; loss aversion risk preferences 19–22
see also over-optimism; risk aversion risks
average 87
bad 86, 88
good 86, 88
heterogeneity of 87
misconception of 157–8
standard 86–7
see also large risks; prospect theory Rothschild, Michael see Stiglitz, Joseph scientific potential is 1 screening 96
search qualities/goods 66–7, 69
and information duties 71
and insurance 68–70
second regime see PEICL shopping around behaviour see cooling-off periods; comparability of insurance products signalling 96
Simon, Herbert A. 100
Skandia case see Banque Financière smart disclosure 279–80
Smith v Hughes 151
Smith, Adam 52–3, 78, 97
invisble hand theory 53, 78, 80
Socimer v Standard Bank London 149 Solvency II 41, 65, 220–25, 231
information duties 220
language requirements 220
see also PEICL
Spence, Michael 5
Spreadex v Sekhon 170
St Paul Fire & Marine Insurance v McConnell Dowell Constructors 162
standardised information duties 271–3
and purchase of medicine 3–4, 272–3, 286
and Solvency II 220, 222–4
and the Insurance Directives 221
as a panacea 146–7, 272
characterisation of 42
decision aid vs. decision basis 284 disillusionment 273–4
economic legitimisation 43
examples 41
individualisation of 113–14, 281–5 optimisation potential 113, 276, 281 outsourcing possibilities 278–9 over-ambitious goals 271–3
primary purpose 43
running costs 41
special requirements 42
type of information transfer 43
typical subject of 42
under the PEICL 220–38
vs. individualised information duties 13, 41–3, 113, 270
see also information duties
standardised information duties under the PEICL 220–38
and Solvency II 220, 222–4
and the Insurance Directives 221
Index

burden of proof 236
contra proferentem rule 233
in comparison with German law 222
key information document 229–31
one-rule-fits-it-all-approach 227 preliminary insurance contracts 232
requirements of form 236
right to revocation 234–5
sanctions for a breach 233–5
time of performance 237
status quo effect 73–4
Stevenson v Snow 155
Stiglitz, Joseph E. 5, 56, 91
see also dilemma of imperfect information sunk cost fallacy 42, 73, 103, 129–30, 283 supervisory law (German) 203–4
tetrad of overextension of the information recipient 115–17, 282 timely provision of information see information transaction costs
significance of 27, 42–4, 80–84, 215, 266 Treu und Glauben 180–86
and German customary law 185 and s 6 ICA 181–4
discernible cause as trigger for information duties 182–3, 244–7, 291–2 groups of cases 182–3
tripartite (economic) test question for information duties 26 Tversky, Amos 101
uberrimae fidei see good faith; utmost good faith ubi jus ibi remedium-approach 167–8 uncertainty about quality 94
see also credence quality/goods underinsurance 69, 249, 259
unilateral mistake 28
and causality of damages 174–5 and FCA Handbook duties 169–70, 188
and insurance contracts 149–52
and loss occurrence 175–6 challenges for English law 150–52 content of the insurer’s disclosure duties 173–4 importance of the context 172 legal consequences of a breach of 178–9 limitations 177
origin and criticism of the term 156
rigorousness 158
scope of the duties under 156
see also credence qualities/goods; damages; equitable principles; insurance contract

Vickrey, William 5
vulnerable consumer see consumer

Walford v Miles 150–51
warning duties see individualised information duties Williamson, Oliver 17
willingness to read see reading behaviour Wolf v Horncastle 156

Yorke v Yorkshire Insurance Company 162

Zaki v Credit Suisse 170